WESTMINSTER'S BEST STORE.

ANNOUNCE THEIR DISPLAY

New Spring Millinery

For THURSDAY, FRIDAY, SATURDAY,
MARCH 28th, 29th, 30th.

We invite every woman who has an interest in the Spring Millinery Fashions to view the interpretation of the Modes from every source and secure the first selection from the many exclusive effects.

In connection with this display will be shown for the first time new Spring Woolens and Silks, Cotton Dress Fabrics, Women's Suits and Children's Dresses.

Notes Concerning Spring Millinery!

Brilliant Easter colorings, rich Oriental combinations of contrasting shades will be high style.

Primrose shades, deeper tones of rich red, and the new linen or "twine" color are racing for first place, and roses, violets and smaller spring flowers rank high in favor.

Not for many seasons has lace occupied a stronger position in the millinery world than it does now. Some models are made entirely of lace, while in other instances leghorn and other straw models are trimmed with lace, ribbons and tiny flower wreaths. Suggestions of the foregoing are completely worked out in detail in our Millinery Department.

MISS ROSE ORENDORFF,
MISS BERTIE BIEHL,
in charge.

NEW ARRIVALS IN

Spring Dress Woolens

No season's preparation for the Dress Good Department in this Store was ever given more careful attention than the present one. We determined that it must excel its predecessors in comprehensiveness and value, and we have succeeded. Serges and Whip Cords are in excellent request. In these particular goods a Navy Serge, 38 inches wide is particularly good value at 50 cents. These goods are shown in $1.50 and $1.00 grades, 54 inches wide, both excellent quality.

NEW SPRING SILKS

IN EXQUISITE COLORINGS.

Beautifully woven Satins, Messalines, Foulards, Fancies and Tub Silks fill every available space in the Silk Department, and be it remembered, silks at this store will be found by comparison lower in price than same silks are sold elsewhere. The prices range from, a yard, 19c to $1.50.

Beautiful 1912 Cotton Dress Fabrics

A few years has wrought a wonderful change in Cotton Fabrics. Not long since light Woolens and Silks excluded Cotton. Each year weavers have been producing daintier and lovelier fabrics of cotton. The silken threads and fairy tissues this season suggest perfection.
