

FREDERICK MAKING GREAT PREPARATIONS FOR TEMPLAR CONCLAVE.

Governor Goldsborough To Review Parade-Aerial Flights Attraction.

Possibly never before in the history of Frederick has there been an event as much looked forward to as the 42nd annual convale of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar, of Maryland, which will be held there, May 6-8 next.

Indications point to an attendance at the convale, which will far exceed original expectations. For some time the commanderies in Baltimore have been endeavoring to ascertain the number of Sir Knights who intend to visit Frederick during the convale, and it is now expected, fully 500 will come from that city.

Every effort is being made to insure the most successful affair of its kind ever held in Frederick, an event long to be remembered. Governor Goldsborough will be the guest of honor on the day of the convale.

The entertainment which was to have been held at Thomas Chapel on Easter Sunday, was held Sunday April 14. Much credit is due Miss B. K. Baer for the fine training of the children.
