Strawberries so large that only 16 can be placed in a quart box sounds like the vision of a nature faker, but Mr. J. H. Thierman, of Dorsey, Howard county, has raised a crop of them and is having difficulty convincing his friends of the truth of his claims until he actually shows them the product. One of the berries nearly constitutes a mouthful.

Door-to-Virtue Lodge, Carroll Royal Arch Chapter, held a banquet at the Main Court Hotel on Tuesday evening, at which 40 members were present. The chapter presented Dr. Wm. R. McDaniel, the past High Priest, with a jewel, in recognition of his services. Dr. McDaniel has been the High Priest for a number of years.

Failure of seed corn to germinate is causing many of the farmers of Baltimore county to replant much of their crop. Foot rot and smut worms are also giving the farmers trouble. Early in the season planters were warned by the bulletins of the Agricultural High School, at Sparks, to test all seed corn before planting, and certain rules were laid down as to how the tests should be conducted. Those who followed instructions have had little trouble.

Some excellent photographs, the work of Mrs. C. R. Miller, of Baltimore, appeared in the pictorial supplement of the Sunday Philadelphia Public Ledger. A card from Rev. R. W. Doty mailed June 3, from Cambridge, Ohio, reads as follows: "We arrived safe and sound here on Tuesday and are about settled in our new home. So far all of us like it very much. Tomorrow I am to be installed. I regret this year's increase of $39,919 over the same month of 1911, net, after taxes, decreased $35,728, as compared with the previous April. Why cost of operation and other expenses should have eaten up the increase in gross is $35,728 besides is not explained, but is doubtless due in part to washouts and an increased wage scale.

The Maryland Week annual exhibit under the auspices of the Maryland State Horticultural Society, at the Fifth Regiment Armory, will be held earlier this year than heretofore from November 18 to 23, inclusive. Already Prof. T. B. Symons, secretary of the society, has begun preparations for the Maryland Week annual meeting and exhibition, and has issued a preliminary schedule of premiums for exhibits. It is the aim of the association on this year to hold the largest commercial exhibit of fruit in the East. The association is asking for carload exhibits, and it is announced as probable that a big prize will be offered for such exhibits.
