Phelps, the Western Maryland Railroad will be required to put safety gates at its crossings on Church street and High street, New Windsor. The bills covering this were introduced at the last legislature, but were vetoed, as the Public Service Commission has power to act in the premises without any further legislation being required. The commission will make known its decision in a few days.

Westminster horse lovers are much interested in the fine horses in the stable of one of our summer residents, Mr. Hugh L. Haughton. Two years ago Mr. Haughton showed that he knew what was what in the horse line when he bought his bay Peter, as fine a type of the light harness chestnut gelding grandson to the famous Strongheart, a black thoroughbred which has won a very respectable number of blues and other ribbons in the green hunter and saddle classes at the Washington, Elkridge, West River and Highland Horse Shows. Strongheart is a clever performer, full five feet, and has the other advantage of being a delightful riding horse. His owner hunted him last season with the Elkridge hounds, and found him a steady and sure fencer. This spring Mr. Haughton bought a bay Western Maryland, a bay thoroughbred, which gives promise of developing the qualities that tell in show ring hunting classes. She was raced as a two year old and but for bad handling by her trainer would have made good on the track. The latest addition to this small but select string is Doctor Bert, a chestnut gelding grandson to the famous Salvatore and Hanover, a fine upstanding animal of bone and girth. He stands 16.2, and is splendidly proportioned. With the schooling that he will receive from Mr. Haughton, he should make a fine jumper, and as he has every evidence of being a fast runner in the ring, he should be a steady ribbon winner for his enthusiastic owner.

Wednesday afternoon between 4 and 5 o'clock a flash of lightning and a clap of thunder came out of a clear sky and was followed by a terrific downpour of hail and rain. A bolt of lightning struck two large trees at the home of J. A. Zepp, Willis street, extended, and the tree fell from top to bottom and shattered it. Dr. and Mrs. Zepp were sitting under the tree at the time and were badly stunned, the Doctor being considerably dazed for a few moments. A man who was working on the road in front of the house was also stunned. A strange feature of the storm is that no hail fell in the West end of town. Near Tannery the crops were considerably damaged.

The storm area began at Ridgeville and extended east over portions of Carroll, Howard and Montgomery counties in the direction of Long Corner and Claggettville. Near the former place the hallstones were as large as walnuts. Corn was cut to pieces and live stock in fields were injured and many chickens killed. Hundreds of bushels of fruit were lost. The trees stripped of foliage and in places branches of trees were cut off as with a knife and bark peeled in quantities and carried away by the wind. The house of Edward Murray, on the road from Ridgeville to Damascus, was unroofed, and many trees were uprooted. The fall of hail in Frederick is said to be the greatest in the memory of the oldest citizens. In places it covered the ground to the depth of nearly 16 inches. It passed over about 28,800 acres of growing crops and is said to have done damage to the extent of fully $200,000.

Manchester base ball club was defeated for the fourth time this season by the visiting team of the Keystone Wire Cloth Co. of Hanover, Pa., Saturday, July 27. It should have been another scalp added to the long list of those already seized, but was lost on slip-ups by Miller, an error and a misjudged fly by Mitten. Kouch made the circuit and scored a runner ahead of him on an apparent single, Mitten thinking the ball was beyond the foul flag made no attempt to get it and consequently lost the ball. Miller's errors were also very costly, allowing several runners to reach first when they should have been easy outs. Loats pitched a masterful game and deserved to win as he fanned 16 men and allowed but 9 hits, several of which were scratchy and should have been fielded easily. He made five out of the first six batters facing him whiff the air until the atmosphere was purple around the plate. Myers and Sullivan starred in the field. Sullivan accepted his four chances and put out a slipup and made several sensational catches. Myers did a marathon on Routsou's fly and made good. Land worked the opposing pitchers for three transportations to first three times in succession.

Null started on the firing line for the visitors but after walking the first two batters up and giving the next three balls, retired in favor of H. Hann, who, with the good work of his team mates, held the locals at bay except in the 5th, 6th and 7th sessions when they became interested in his play. The accused secured seven hits but could not roll up a larger score.

Saturday, August 3, Manchester will line up against Hanover and an extra good game is expected. Help to swell the crowd. The boys need the coin. Score by innings as follows:

K. W. C. 0 0 2 0 1 0 2 0—5
Manchester 0 0 1 0 1 0 1 0—3

Two-out, hit by batted ball. Struck out—by Loats, 16; by Hann, 11. Hit by pitcher—by Loats, (Myers), by Hann, (Loats).

New Link of W. M. R. R. Now Open. The first scheduled freight train over the Western Maryland Railroad link recently completed between Cumberland and Conneville, left the latter place at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, and after a mishap at Myersdale, Pa., where one of the cars was derailed and again placed on the track, the train reached Conneville about 11 o'clock. The second freight train consisted of empty coal and coke and iron cars and was a very long one.

At Garrett, Pa., an accident happened to the third car from the engine, caused by a broken flange, which delayed the train, and which also delayed President Robertson's special train, which reached Conneville at 1.10 o'clock. A helping engine was switched on to the west bound train at City Junction, the big mallet giving it a lift to the top of the mountain at Big Savage tunnel.

When you purchase land through us in the famous YAKIMA VALLEY, WASHINGTON the Yakima Highlands Irrigation and Land Company gives you a receipt for your money which contains this clause: "TO EVERY PURCHASER OF OUR LAND WHO ENTERS INTO A CARE-TAKING CONTRACT WITH C. E. & J. B. FINK, THIS COMPANY WILL GUARANTEE TO REFUND HIM HIS PURCHASE MONEY WITH INTEREST THEREON AT THE RATE OF 10% PER YEAR, IF HE BE DISSATISFIED WITH HIS PURCHASE AT THE EXPIRATION OF THE FOUR YEAR PERIOD COVERED BY THE CARE-TAKING CONTRACT, LESS THE AMOUNTS HE RECEIVES FROM GROUND CROPS DURING THAT TIME." This company has a paid up capital of $500,000.00 and a surplus of nearly $600,000.00, and is composed of men personally known to us to be of the highest standing and integrity. They know the conditions and the possibilities of the YAKIMA VALLEY and they know that no man would be willing to sell his land in four years time for the price he paid for it plus 10 per cent. interest per year, because it could be sold in the open market at that time for several times the original purchase price. They also know that from the end of the fourth year, this land will pay more than 25 per cent. interest per year on an amount equal to three times the price you now pay for the land. REMEMBER TOO, THAT U. S. GOVERNMENT PUBLICATIONS STATE, In no section of the United States does the land respond more generously to the labor spent upon it than in THE YAKIMA VALLEY. That it is the BEST KNOWN agricultural region in the Northwest. That full bearing orchards annually produce crops worth from $300 to $1200 per acre, $300 being less than the average. That twelve men averaged $941 per acre from apple orchards four to twelve years old. That the soil is of great depth and fertility and that wherever wells have been sunk the soil has been found to be from 60 to 100 feet in depth, adding "the extraordinary depth of this soil would seem to be sufficient assurance of its permanent fertility." We have bought some of this fruit land after making thorough personal investigations, and in addition to our own land, have sold some to Carroll County people. All of which is under our care and was planted with apple trees and potatoes last May. The land we bought is not for sale, but we have a limited quantity of land adjoining ours which we are selling for the Irrigation Company. It is not necessary for you to move west, as we will contract to plant and care for the land you buy along with our own. We have a very interesting 56 page booklet called "OPPORTUNITY" containing pictures and detailed information of this remarkable proposition. Write us for copy, it is free for the asking. C. E. & J.
