George Hardy, Arthur Hardy, Chas. T. Hardy and John H. Hardy, executors of James Hardy, deceased, returned inventory of money; reported sale of personal property; received orders to transfer securities, and to sell and transfer first account.

County Commissioners.

The board met on Monday and granted a special pension of $5 to Guy Miller, of District No. 4.

Messrs. James D. Haines, E. F. Smith and Milton Zollicoffer were appointed examiners on the road running through the McFadden farm, now in possession of Percy Shriver.

A number of bills were also paid. On Tuesday the board awarded the contract for a steel bridge over Big Pipe Creek, on the road from Union Mills to Myers Mill to the York Bridge Co., for $394.

The board took action and changed the name of the Almshouse, and hereafter it will be known as the "County Home."

The wall surrounding the jail was sold at public auction to Thomas Riecke, for $150.

Commissioners Jacob N. Dehoff, John W. Myers and Benjamin F. Stansbury, on Wednesday met the Board of County Commissioners of Frederick county and decided to replace at once the bridge over Beaver Dam, which divides Carroll and Frederick counties, as the old one has been badly in need of repairs.

The York Bridge Co. was instructed by both boards to replace the old bridge with a new one.

MANCHESTER AGAIN VICTORIOUS.

Puts it Over on Hampstead 7 to 2.

The Manchester team added another game to its list of victories last Saturday, when it took Hampstead into camp by the decisive score of 7 to 2. The boys from down the pike came to Manchester, Md., and were routed 7 to 2. The game was a real contest and it was taken into consideration the great right wing of "Jerry" Loats. The old Erie favorite had speed and curves to give away and when Gehr threw the last man out first, the scores showed that eleven of the visiting batsmen had swung the flail in vain. Oh that evasive pill! Gehr also was there, playing a fast and heady game, while Hampstead relayed in the field. The game was the star for the visitors. In the second inning he fielded every ball that was hit, getting two assists and a put-out.

On the game was an even battle with things breaking slightly in favor of Manchester till the sixth inning, when the entire visiting team seemed to go up in the air. Two men crossed the plate in this inning and three in the seventh. The game was won. It was too late when Smith was sent in to do the hurling in the eighth, although no one reached first base while he was on the mound.

Hampstead got their runs in the ninth on hits by Buchanan, R. Shugars and Davidson. Three of their seven hits came in this inning.

WEDDINGS

Cronk-Myers.

One of the prettiest weddings taking place this season was solemnized at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at the Rockaway Inn, Pen-Mar, the bride, Miss Myrtle Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton O. Myers, when the groom, Mr. Fred Yohn Cronk, a recent graduate of the Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, and son of Dr. and Mrs. E. D. Cronk, of Winfield.

Rev. William Orr, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Waynesboro, performed the ceremony. Prof. John Boll's orchestra, of Pen-Mar, furnished the music. The bridesmaid was Miss Myrtle Myers, sister of the bride. Dr. William T. Parsons, of Baltimore, a classmate of Dr. Cronk, was best man, while the ushers were Dr. Elliott H. Hutchins and William Bowers, of Baltimore. A wedding breakfast was served after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Cronk left for Atlantic City, where they will spend two weeks. They will return to Pen-Mar for a few days and then leave for an extended tour of the North and West. They will spend some time in Buffalo, Lake Champlain, Thousand Islands, St. Lawrence River, Montreal and Toronto, Canada, Niagara Falls, Detroit, Chicago and then go south to Guthrie, Okla., where Dr. Cronk will practice his profession.

Ourand-Crapster.

Miss Ellen Patterson Crapster, of Taneytown, eldest daughter of Mrs. Mary Crapster and Chas. Andrew Ourand, of Washington, D. C., were married at the home of the bride on Tuesday, September 10, at 12 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John T. Hulse, D. D., of Washington, D. C., uncle of the bride and pastor of the groom, using the ring service of the Lutheran church. He was assisted by Rev. Seth Russell Downie, pastor of the bride. When the bride and groom were joined, the pastor of the groom, using the ring service of the Lutheran church, he was assisted by Rev. Seth Russell Downie, pastor of the bride. At an informal tea given by Miss Esther Kauffman, at the home of her parents, at Union Bridge, a large number of guests were present. A large bank of golden rod and ferns formed the background for the wedding party while exquisite clusters of roses, nasturtiums, asters and marigolds were everywhere. The bride was gowned in a dainty lingerie and Irish lace. After the ceremony and congratulations a luncheon was informally served by the sisters of the bride and a few house guests. The near relatives and other friends were the only guests. The bride received many gifts of handsome silver, cut glass and exquisite needlework, besides numerous checks.

Martin-Fox.

Russell Martin and Nellie M. Fox, of Hanover, Pa., were married on Wednesday evening at Salem Lutheran parsonage, Pennsylvania avenue, by Rev. W. E. Hersh.

Shipley-Harman.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Harman, of Walnut Grove Mill, Thursday, September 12, at 8 o'clock, the contracting parties being Miss Sarah Helen Harman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Harman, of Sandyville, and Mr. Walter Lee Shipley, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Shipley, also of Sandyville. The ceremony was performed by Rev. O. Brittingham, assisted by Rev. J. W. Reinecke. The bride was very becomingly attired in a gown of brown silk and carried a beautiful bouquet of tube roses. The groom wore the conventional black. The flower girls were Misses Jennie and Edith Harman, sisters of the bride; they were attired in white and carried white flowers. The wedding march was played by the groom's sister, Mrs. Harry Flater. The house and the parlor were decorated with candles and Japanese lanterns. The bride received many handsome and useful presents, consisting of silverware, cut glass, china and linen.
