GREENMOUNT.

Mr. J. H. Stansbury injured himself last week by falling out of a freight car. His injuries consist of a few cracked ribs. The last quarterly conference of Greenmount church on this conference year was held in the United Brethren church on last Saturday afternoon. Mr. E. Burton Haan was elected delegate to the annual conference that will be held in Frederick, Md., October 9. By a unanimous vote of the quarterly conference, Rev. George W. Strine was asked to return as pastor for another year. Mr. Oliver Reer will move from the farm of J. H. Stansbury, but we have not yet learned who will take his place. Prof. Emory Houseman, a son of Rev. Houseman, who formerly was pastor of Greenmount church, is the teacher of our Greenmount school. Prof. Houseman will undoubtedly have the co-operation of the parents in coming up his boys, who have a good reputation and possessing the proper ability to fill this position. Don't miss the old folks services on Sunday at 2.30 p. m. The Rev. J. H. Hutchinson, a former pastor, will preach an appropriate sermon. Rev. Dr. W. H. Washington, of Chambersburg, Pa., and Rev. Canoles, of Freehold, Md., spent Saturday night at the United Brethren parsonage. The Woman's Missionary Society has arranged to hold a Woman's Day service on Sunday evening, September 29th, at 7.30 o'clock. Miss Grace Jones, of Windsor, Pa., will deliver an address at this service. Miss Jones is one of the organizers of the Pennsylvania Conference W. M. A. Several of our men last Saturday purchased auto-go-beds, and are thinking of letting them go for the present.

SILVER RUN.

FINKSBURG.

Our public school opened on Monday with about fifty pupils, and Miss Lola Hughes and Miss Alverda LaMotte as teachers. The new school house built on the northern line of the Deer Park farm, is nearing completion. It is built in sight of the old school house, where Prof. McCorkle taught the heads of the county today the three R's and did not spare the rod either. Charles Shreeve and daughter, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with Murray Shreeve and family. Mrs. Tyson Harden and daughter spent several days with relatives here. The picture show man was in town and took away a good many dimes and nickels. He also lost a horse. The Women's Christian Temperance Union of the county met in the church Friday and also had an address by Mrs. Haslup which was excellent. Very little apple butter making, and no cider owing to the scarcity of apples. Farmers are cutting corn and seeding. Most all prefer late sowing. We had a fine settled rain this week. Write 25 years longer Melrose! as your items are very interesting. We are in sympathy with the farmers around Oakland Mills. The tidal wave goes up and down; the writer has seen that mill go under the hammer three times and then boom up flourishing.

MELROSE.

Wentz's Union Sunday school closed on Sunday afternoon for the season. Public schools opened on Monday. There was a large and orderly crowd at Bachman's celebration on Saturday last, both afternoon and evening; 50 gallons of icecream were sold and other refreshments in proportion. The receipts at the stand were $125 which will leave the school a nice net balance. A band of Egyptians camped here in town on Saturday night. On Sunday they aroused some of our people with expert horsemanship and lassoing. Mr. Edward Sterner, who two weeks ago had an accident in Hanover, Pa., breaking his arm, returned on Saturday last. Mr. Cyrus Leese assisted by Mr. Tobias Leese, of near here raised over 700 bushels of potatoes. Your correspondent was told by good authority that Mr. D. C. Leese has one of the finest fields of corn in the neighborhood. Quite a curiosity passed through this town on Monday last. It was an Alaskan team drawn by 7 dogs of different sizes and colors. Two negroes helped wherever needed. It seemed to be a load of show material. The dogs were pulling. Mr. and Mrs. Hezekiah Trone and daughter Cora, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. BIG CASH PRIZES

FOR MAKING SOAP

This is a great opportunity for every housewife to test her skill as a soap maker and at the same time win a valuable cash prize. Every woman can enter this contest—it doesn't cost one cent to try—the conditions are as simple as A B C. We want to prove to every housewife who reads this paper, that with the aid of Banner Lye she can make all the soap she needs for her family use—make better soap than she can buy anywhere—make it cheaper, with very little labor and in a very short time. To the women who send in the best samples of homemade soap in which Banner Lye has been used we will award the following cash prizes this month: 1st Prize $15.00 2nd Prize $10.00 3rd Prize $ 5.00 50 Prizes of $ 1.00 each

BANNER LYE

Is the greatest soap maker on the market. It unites perfectly with fats and oils, making a soap that lathers freely, eats up dirt and grease and destroys germs. Banner Lye soap makes hard water soft, saves labor and backaches. If you are not quite ready to boil your fat just now, remember there will be three separate contests—one in September, one in October and another in November. Same amount of prize money will be given away ($80.00 each month. If you don't win in September, try in October; if you don't win in the first two contests, try in November. Enter the contest soon as possible—if your dealer cannot supply you with Banner Lye, write us. THE PENN CHEMICAL WORKS Philadelphia, Pa.

TANETOWN.

Mr. George A. Shoemaker has started on a trip to Toronto, Ohio, and West Virginia, to visit relatives for several weeks. Mr. James M. Neely returned home Saturday from Waynesboro, Pa., where he had been visiting his brother, Mr. Samuel Neely, for a week. Mr. Theodore M. Bankard, who has been seriously sick for some time, is not improving very rapidly. The canning factory of Mr. Martin, is only running at short intervals owing to the lateness of some of the corn and the short yield of the earlier planting. Mr. Harry L. Baumgardner has purchased from Mr. John H. Brown his 200 acre farm located near Emmitsburg, Frederick county. Mr. Edmund F. Smith has purchased the twenty acre farm of M. Oliver Fogle, on the Taneytown and Uniontown road, about half mile from town. Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Elliott gave a reception Sunday to their recently married children: Mrs. John Hornberger, of Littlestown, Pa., and Charles A. Jr., of Wrightsville, Pa.
