

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

LATEST ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM COUNTY CORRESPONDENTS.

TYBONE.

This letter was received last week too late for publication. This section was visited on Wednesday with a nice shower of rain. Miss Florence Formwalt, who was accidentally shot while Mr. Pius Sponseller was loading a gun, is improving. The following persons had the pleasure of giving Mr. Paul Formwalt and wife a surprise last Saturday evening: Wm. Formwalt, Arthur Masters and wife, Guy Haines and wife, Guy Formwalt and wife, Sterling Myerly and wife, Mrs. Jos. Formwalt, Mrs. Nannie Babylon, Emma Crowl, Misses Florence, Roman and Grace Formwalt, Nettie Babylon, Emma Dodder; Messrs. Harry Formwalt, Maurice Formwalt, Charles Graham, John Babylon, Clarence Masters; Misses Blanche and Elsie Haines, Marie Davis and Margaret Myerly. Mrs. David Hahn and son Edwin, are visiting relatives in Virginia. Mrs. C. Eckard, of Harrisburg, Pa., is spending some time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Powell. Mr. Howard Mau held an apple cutting on Monday night. After the apples were all cut, all enjoyed themselves eating the delicious water-melons and playing various games. About thirty persons were present. Mr. Jacob Haines has installed an acetylene lighting plant, with which he can light his house, barn and other buildings. The funeral of Mr. Wm. Zepp which took place Tuesday at Baust Church was largely attended. The body of Mr. Howard Wantz was brought to Baust's cemetery on Wednesday. A great many people of this vicinity are attending the Hanover Fair this week. Baust's Reformed choir paid a visit to Ladesburg Reformed Church last Sunday and rendered some fine anthems.

GAMBER.

The weather the first of the week was very rainy. Tuesday rain fell in torrents the whole day. The Klee Brothers were compelled to finish picking their peaches Sunday morning to keep thieves from stealing them. Farmers are very much behind with their work on account of the continued wet weather. Mrs. Lillian Hering O'Keefe, after spending some time with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Klee, of Walnut Grove Mills, has returned to her home in Washington, D. C. Mr. Roger Murphy, son James, and daughter Alice, of Hampden, Baltimore, were guests of Mr. George B. Murphy, of near Pool's school Sunday. Mr. Jarrett Shauck, sister Beulah and Mr. Wm. Bossom, of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. Shauck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. N. Shauck, of Shauck's Heights. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Barnes and children, of Keyser avenue, Baltimore, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Herschel Miller, of Maplewood. The good stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Green, of Fairmount, and left them a bouncing baby boy. Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Bott, of Westminster, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Alfred Barnes, of Dunn Dee, farm. The oil of worm seed market is very dull. Price of eggs is 23 cents per dozen. The Klee Milling Company has picked and sold from its Fairmount orchard more than 2500 baskets of peaches and from 40 to 50 tons of tomatoes. Jabez N. Barnes, Jr., hauled one load of 5 tons of sweet corn to Westminster with 5 little horses and mules.

MILLETS.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Selp and son, of Baltimore, visited the former's mother, here over Sunday. Miss Myrtle Dehoff, of Baltimore, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dehoff, Sunday. Rev. Canoles preached his farewell sermon last Sunday evening. He expects to attend college at Lebanon, Pa. We wish him success. Mrs. Isiah Miller and daughter, Mrs. Wm. E. Warner and children, of Baltimore, visited friends here over Sunday. Clarence McComas sold his farm to Mr. Hosfelt, near Westminster, who will get possession in the spring. Mrs. William Giller and daughter, who have been spending the past five weeks with her father-in-law, Charles Giller, and family, here, returned to her home at Baltimore on Wednesday. Mrs. Jacob Zepp and Mrs. Everett Miller spent Thursday and Friday of last week visiting relatives at Hanover, Pa. The festival held here last Saturday evening by the Ladies' Aid Society was a success. Miss Dillah Miller, and brother, Monroe, of Baltimore, visited here over Sunday. Robert Miller, of Baltimore, spent Sunday here. Paul Sullivan, of Hanover, Pa., visited his sister, Mrs. Jacob Zepp, last week. There will be preaching here Sunday evening by a Baltimore preacher. George O. D. Hoover is ill with tonsillitis.

LAWDALE.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wisner and little daughter Helen, of Westminster, spent from Saturday until Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Bankert and also with Mr. Wisner's parents. Mrs. Lewis Wisner and daughter, Beryle, spent the past Friday in Westminster visiting friends and also attending the circus. Miss Margie Spencer has gone to Baltimore to spend a couple months. Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Barber, of Baltimore, spent a couple days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barber. Mr. and Mrs. Homer Heady, of Baltimore, spent from Saturday until Sunday with the latter's mother, Mrs. Jane Spencer. Miss Rosalie Wisner, who fell and sprained her knee, is able to be out again. Farmers will be very late in sowing their fall crops on account of this long spell of rain.

HAMPSTEAD.

Mrs. Edward Role spent several days in Hanover, and Littlestown, during the past week. Rev. McKinley has had a garage built for his new Pullman runabout, which his father-in-law gave him. Miss Dora Worthington, Jessie Fuhrman, Mr. Edward Belt and Allen Murray made a trip to Gettysburg Sunday in Mr. Murray's auto. All had a good time. Miss Dot Myers, of Baltimore, spent Saturday with Miss Eva Preston. Mrs. A. Frankforter, of Hagerstown, is visiting her mother, Mrs. W. A. Murray. Miss Elizabeth Oakes, a nurse of the Springfield State Hospital, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. T. Copper-smith, on North Main street. Mr. Samuel Keller and family attended the Hanover Fair. Miss Sarah Williams has returned home after spending some time in Hanover, Pa. Mrs. Mollie Appold is visiting friends in Baltimore. Miss Rachel Murray is spending some time with friends in Baltimore. A. T. Hunt sold his 1912 brass trimmed Overland, and has purchased a 1913 nickel trimmed one. Mr. Wm. Copper-smith, of Washington, D. C., is visiting his brother, J. T. Copper-smith. Mr. Dennis Shugars, of Baltimore, is visiting friends in Hampstead. Miss Ida Purdy, of Baltimore, will board at the home of J. W. Shauck for the winter. Miss Agnes Williams, is taking a business course at Bryan & Stratton Business College, Baltimore, Md. During the absence of J. J. Smiley Brown, who has been living in Baltimore for some time, his wife entered his orchard, near Fowlesburg, and carried away forty or fifty bushels of his fine apples.

HOUCKSVILLE.

Robert Rill moved from David Ebaugh's tenant house, Greenmount, into William Basler's house recently vacated by Mathias Lang. J. Clarke Abbott and wife, of Laurel, Del., are guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Abbott. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Buchman and son Raymond spent several days of last week in Hanover visiting their daughter, Mrs. Roy W. Spangler. Gabriel Hammer, who has been quite ill for a number of weeks, still remains in a very critical condition. He is now making his home with Noah W. Rill. Wesley school opened last week with twenty-five pupils on roll. Miss Grace Eby is spending a month with her relatives and friends at Blue Ridge Summit. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Finster and Miss Gavinal spent the past week with Mrs. George Zepp. Hocksville school now has twenty-four pupils on roll and is under the supervision of Miss Esther Kaufman. Mrs. John Sprinkle, who has been on the sick list for some time, is growing weaker. Mrs. John W. Abbott and Adolphus P. Harrington have returned home after spending one week with Mr. and Mrs. John Spahr, of Union Bridge. The Ladies' Aid Society of Wesley met the past Thursday at the home of Mrs. Peter Buchman. The Aid Society of Wesley will hold its patriotic supper Saturday evening, September 28th, on the lawn in front of the church if the weather is favorable; if not, it will be held in the school house.

MT. AIRY.

Mr. Thomas Clary died at the home of his son, Mr. Harry Clary, in Mt. Airy, on September 19, in his 82nd year. Mr. Clary was a retired farmer and made his home with his son, since the death of his wife, about 5 years ago. Funeral services were held at the Methodist Episcopal Church South, of which he was a member all his life. He is survived by two children, Mr. Henry Clary, of Mt. Airy, and Mrs. Emma Demuth, of Baltimore. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. W. D. King, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The pallbearers were Messrs. Albert Maynard, William H. Roberts, A. E. Burge, Thomas Pool, Phyllis and S. B. Norwood. Mr. B. W. Bowman had charge of the funeral arrangements. Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Gunn, of Taylorville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John Shipley. The members of Mt. Airy, organized a Wilson, Marshall and Talbot club in Runkles' Hall on Tuesday night, September 19th. They made Harry Steele president; Harry Zepp, secretary, and Robert Runkles, treasurer. They will meet every Saturday night at Runkles' Hall. Rev. W. D. King is spending a week with friends at Easton, Md. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rhinereker and family, of Woodville, and Mr. John Lowman spent Sunday with Mr. Jesse Lowman. Mr. David Garver spent Sunday with his brother, Mr. Cephus Garver, at West Falls. Mrs. Albert Dorsey is spending a week with friends in Baltimore. Mrs. Rosa Hood, of Ridgeville, and Mrs. Stauffer, of Ohio, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Roland Dorsey.

WARFIELDSBURG.

Very little corn has been cut or wheat seeding done in this community at present writing. The heavy rains have made the ground very wet and the roads muddy. Howard Baker and wife and Mrs. Baker spent Sunday last with James Ranuli and family. H. E. Royer and family, of Westminster, spent Sunday last with H. M. Koontz and family. Harry Jones, of Taneytown, spent from Saturday until Sunday with John Myers and family. John M. Balle is busy putting up a concrete wall for his new barn. Augustus Danner, wife and son, of Patapsco, are visiting Mr. Danner's mother, Mrs. Ellen Danner. Mrs. Susie Myers, who had been visiting friends near New Windsor, has returned home. The Warfieldsburg school will hold a Sunday school rally on Sunday next at 2:30 p. m. An interesting program is being prepared.

SYKESVILLE.

Mrs. Kate Blake McDonald has purchased a fine Buick automobile. Miss Minnie Phillingier will have her fall opening Thursday and Friday, and she has invited all who are interested in hats, bonnets and other pretty things dear to a woman's heart, to be present. Mrs. Clarence C. Archibald, who had been visiting at the home of Mr. E. M. Mellor, has returned to her home in Chevy Chase. Miss Elizabeth Bennett left Tuesday, September 17, to attend school at the Western Maryland College. Miss Nellie Day, of Howard county, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Mason Jones. Quite an unpleasant excitement was created in Sykesville last Thursday over a mysterious poisoning of a number of dogs. As yet the perpetrator remains unknown. It was noticed several nights before that the dogs made quite a great noise, but it is not known whether this was the cause of their being poisoned or if it was for reasons unknown. Miss Ethel Landen, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with Miss Helen Harris.

A peculiar disease, said not to be contagious, is attacking the cows in the neighborhood of Sykesville. It is a mouth disease and they are affected something similar to a person suffering from starvation. Rev. W. E. Harrison, Jr., preached his farewell sermon in the M. E. Church, of which he was the pastor, Sunday night. He left Tuesday morning for theological school at Drew Theological Seminary, New Jersey. Miss Phoebe Elliott, who had been spending the summer in Chautauqua, N. Y., is spending a short time with her aunt, Mrs. Mary King Elliott, before returning to her home in Savannah, Ga. Little Roland Ely, who had his foot injured by a lime spreader several weeks ago, is improving. Mrs. Frederick November is the guest of Mrs. C. A. Warfield. Miss Alma Mellor, of Piedmont, and Miss Dorothy Mellor, of this place left Thursday for a visit to Baltimore and Washington. Misses Edna and Helen Archibald, who have been visiting their cousin, Miss Dorothy Mellor, for some time, have returned to their home in Chevy Chase. Miss Elizabeth Thomas, of Baltimore, is visiting Miss Lillian Schultz. Mr. Henry and Miss Ruth Bennett made a flying trip to Catonsville Tuesday night in their auto. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Harrison and daughter, Florence, of Baltimore, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Wm. Melville. A very delightful dinner party was given by Miss Ursula Brooks in honor of her niece, Miss Polly Brooks, to a few of her friends, Friday, September 20. All were invited to the dining room to partake of the delicious dinner at 7:30, after which all became interested in five hundred. The dining room was beautifully decorated with cut flowers and candles. The porch and lawn were strung with Japanese lanterns, which made a very picturesque scene. Favours of all sorts and description were given. Among the invited guests were: Misses Marjorie Sprecher, Josephine and Helen Warfield, Corinne Cawthorne, Miss Lowndes, Mary Mercer, Mrs. Louise Brooks, Polly Brooks, Belle and Ureula Brooks; Messrs. William Hammond, Alex Cawthorne, Mr. Bevely, Lowndes Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Pennington Bennett, Jack Gates, of Cincinnati, Ohio, Blair Brooks, Tomlinson and Scott Lane Heflinger.

If you are not Registered you will not be able to vote. Make yourself a Committee of one to have every Democrat registered on October 1st and 8th.

THROW OUT THE LINE Give the Kidneys Help and Many People Will Be Happier. "Throw out the Life Line"—Weak kidneys need help. They're often overlooked—don't get the poison filtered out of the blood. Will you help them? Doan's Kidney Pills have brought benefit to thousands of kidney sufferers. Read this case: S. J. Knadler, George St., Westminster, Md., says: "I willingly confirm the public statement I gave in 1907 recommending Doan's Kidney Pills. My kidneys were in bad shape and I was caused annoyance by irregular passages of the kidney secretions. My back also ached and after I stooped, I could hardly straighten. I was restless and arose in the morning feeling tired. I finally obtained Doan's Kidney Pills at Moore's Drug Store and they helped me at once. Continued use benefited me in every way." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

FOR SALE—A Double Heater, in good order. sept 20 2* Apply at this OFFICE. FOR SALE—A GOOD FAMILY HORSE. N. I. GORSUCH SON CO. sept 20 tf Westminster, Md. BASK STOCK FOR SALE. 45 Shares of Union National Bank, in amounts to suit purchaser. Apply at this OFFICE. FOR SALE. Ten Shares of the Westminster Deposit & Trust Company. E. O. WEANT, Attorney. sept 21 tf

FOR SALE: CELERY PLANTS At the WESTMINSTER NURSERY.

NUSBAUM & JORDAN

Westminster's Best Store.

GRAND FALL OPENING

Thursday, Friday, Saturday, = = October 3, 4, 5.

AN AUTHENTIC EXHIBITION OF Fall and Winter Fashions.

We give you a hearty welcome and expect to see you here on one or more of these days.

NEW FALL FASHION DISPLAY

Rich Tailored Suits and Coats.

We have planned to make our large Cloak Department the center of interest to all the women of Carroll County by handling the most reliable qualities only. Special attention is directed to the way all our suits are made. They are man-tailored throughout and carefully finished even to minute details. That is why they fit so well and keep their shape. All are lined luxuriously, most of them with Skinner's satin, guaranteed for two years. You may choose from such favorites as men's wear serge, chevot, rough snappy mixtures, and wide wale fabrics.

Be Sure To See Our Splendid

$12.50, $18.00 and $25.00 Values.

A BRILLIANT OPENING OF NEW FALL MILLINERY!

Such a gorgeous array of charming Millinery has never been seen in this store! Hats so numerous—so varied and so beautiful that only the eye can take in the loveliness of this display. Trimmed Hats such as can only be found here—Hats of the new plush, trimmed with fancy feathers, ribbons, velvets, flower ornaments and other novelties—Hats in the latest colorings as well as the always tasteful Black. A most important feature of this Millinery feast is the reasonableness of the prices. At no prior time would a modest sum buy so much distinctiveness and style. We welcome you on one or all the Opening Days.

Readiness for Fall in Every Department

Dress Goods - Silks - Trimmings - Domestic Underwear - Blankets - Floor Coverings

NUSBAUM & JORDAN

Advertisement for NUSBAUM & JORDAN featuring various services: FURNITURE (LOCKARD'S), HORSES AND MULES (WILSON'S LIVERY), PROFESSIONAL CARDS (DR. BARNES, DR. J. FRED. WAESCHE, DR. MYERS, DR. GEO. E. BAUGHMAN), CLOTHING (Knowing How, Ready-to-Wear SUITS), and AUTOMOBILES (J. W. LOCKARD & SON).