WESTMINSTER, MD., FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 8, 1912.

VOL. 48.—NO. 10.

LANDSLIDE TO WILSON AND MARSHALL

Wilson's Plurality 1,389,250—House Overwhelmingly Democratic—Senate Also Secure.

Maryland Gives Wilson 53,520 Plurality—Carroll County Democratic by 1073—New York and Ohio Give Big Pluralities to Democratic Candidates—Many Rock Ribbed Republican States Turn Over—Many Democratic Governor's Elected, Etc.

UNCLE FRED TALBOTT CARRIES THE COUNTY BY 513.

The expected happened on Tuesday. The Democratic party swept the county from coast to coast and from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico, making one of the most complete victories ever known in the country.

Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey will be our next President and Governor Thomas R. Marshall of Indiana our next Vice-President. The Senate, according to the latest returns, will be overwhelmingly Democratic. Clark will succeed himself as Speaker and Underwood will also continue as our floor leader.

SUMMARY OF VOTE IN MARYLAND.

	Wilson	Taft	Roosevelt
Total vote . . . . .	111,748	52,676	58,298
Wilson's plurality in whole State . . . . .	47,902	15,574	16,671
Wilson's plurality in counties . . . . .	63,846	38,082	24,557
Wilson's plurality in Carroll County . . . . .	513	0	0

Maryland sends a solid delegation of six Democratic Congressmen.

The States carried by Roosevelt were Pennsylvania, Washington, South Dakota and Michigan.

Taft carried only Utah, Idaho and Vermont.

Ohio, the home of President Taft, was carried by Wilson by 175,000. Roosevelt ran third there.

Wilson carried Kentucky by over 100,000, Roosevelt running third. Nine Democrats and two Republicans were elected to Congress. One district will be contested by the Progressives.

Wilson won Massachusetts by 20,000 over Taft and 30,000 over Roosevelt. Foss was re-elected Governor by nearly 50,000 plurality.

Woman suffrage won in Kansas, Michigan and Arizona. Late returns from Oregon indicated that votes for women had been victorious there also.

Iowa apparently went Democratic for the first time in its history. The returns up to this time indicate a plurality of 4,150 for Wilson. The Republicans elected their Governor and nine out of eleven Congressmen.

Washington was carried by Roosevelt by 3,000. The Democrats elected a Governor. Other State candidates elected are Progressives.

Returns from New Hampshire give Wilson a small lead over Taft.

Missouri returned to the solid South. It gave Wilson 55,000. Only two Republican Congressmen were elected.

Arizona gave Wilson a small plurality. Debs ran here almost even with Taft.

Returns from Montana showed Wilson a winner, with Roosevelt and Taft running neck and neck. This was the home of Senator Dixon, the Progressive national chairman.

Georgia gave Wilson 44,000, the folk county going Democratic for the first time in 50 years. Every Democratic candidate for Congress was elected.

Idaho apparently gave a plurality for Taft and the whole G. O. P. State ticket.

Wilson carried Louisiana by a greater plurality than Bryan received there four years ago. Wilson received there four years ago. Wilson received there four years ago.

Oklahoma gave Wilson 15,000, but the race for Governor is close.

North Carolina gave Wilson 50,000 majority. Locke Craig (Dem.) was elected Governor.

North Dakota gave Wilson a plurality of over 10,000 over Roosevelt, who beat Taft by 1500.

The Democrats swept South Carolina by nearly 60,000, electing all State officers and Congressmen.

Minnesota went for Wilson by 30,000. The whole Republican ticket was elected.

Mississippi gave Wilson about 100,000 and elected all Democratic Congressmen.

Nebraska, the home of Bryan, gave Wilson 40,000 and a Democratic Governor was elected. Roosevelt ran second.

Wilson's majority in the different States keeps increasing to such an extent that it is impossible for us to give accurate returns.

CAUSES OF BALKAN WAR

TURKEY FAITHLESS TO HER PROMISES TO PROTECT CHRISTIAN SUBJECTS.

The clearest and best statement we have yet seen, of the causes leading to the present Balkan War, was sent by a correspondent from Constantinople to the Baltimore "Sun." He shows how for years, Turkey has broken her promises made in the form of sworn treaties to protect the Christians in her dominions.

"Turkey announced that she had decided to 'apply the law of 1830' in Macedonia in conformity with Article 23 of the Treaty of Berlin. This treaty, to which Turkey was a party (and the party who gained most), solemnly pledged justice and equitable treatment to the Christian populations of European Turkey. As these Christian populations were being handed back to Turkey after they had been emancipated by the Treaty of San Stefano, the powers and Turkey were assuming a sacred obligation. Turkey was receiving a gift on the promise of good behavior. The powers were incurring a great risk in putting back Christians under Moslem rule, and it certainly has been their responsibility to see that these Christians did not suffer too much as a result of their jealousy and selfishness.

This was 34 years ago, and two years later the "law of 1830" was drawn up. Had Turkey enforced this law, had the powers, successfully insisted upon its enforcement, the present war would not have been fought and the Balkan States would not have to be giving their blood for the freedom of their oppressed kinsmen in Macedonia.

Broken Promises. When we study the history of Turkish promises to reform three things are found: That the promises are numerous; that they are never made except under circumstances analogous to those at present, and that they are never kept.

There are just 100 of these "promises" in the form of sworn treaties extending from 1774 to 1904. Not one of them has ever been observed. This could be proved by an examination of the treaties themselves. They reiterate the same points for 125 years. The burden of the last promise is the same as that of the first, and asserts that his Imperial Majesty the Sultan will grant to his Christian subjects in European Turkey liberty and equality before the law with Moslems.

NEW BALLOTS FOR CARROLL.

Squares Were Not Proper Size On First Ballot.

After the ballots for Carroll county had been printed it was discovered that the squares opposite the names of the candidates for President were no larger than the other squares, and therefore unlike the official ballot which was published in the newspapers.

The American Sentinel had employed C. H. Baughman & Sons of Frederick to do the printing.

A petition was filed in Court asking for a Mandamus against the supervisors to compel them to reprint the ballots in conformity with the one published, as it was feared the voters might become confused. After a hearing late Friday night Judge Thomas decided that it is as much as the published ballot had been put into the hands of the voters of the county and that in as much as no taint or suspicion of fraud had ever been raised against a ballot in this county, he thought the supervisors should have the ballots reprinted if it were possible to do so.

At the same time the supervisors had acted honorably in the matter and that the slight difference in the ballot would not have perpetrated a fraud on the voters but he thought that if the ballots could be reprinted it should be done.

The supervisors went to Baltimore Saturday morning and had the ballots reprinted by Meyer & Thalheimer.

W. M. C. Wins From Frederick Y. M. C. A.

The students of Western Maryland College were much disappointed when, at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, they heard that Rock Hill College had canceled the game with them for the afternoon. They at once wired the Young Men's Christian Association at Frederick and arranged a match, as the Frederick eleven happened to have an open date.

Frederick won the toss and kicked Weaver, who ran the ball back to midfield. In a few downs Western Maryland had scored, Bowers carrying the ball over for a touchdown. Frederick at times strengthened, but never-endangered Western Maryland's goal. The ball was in Westminster's hands most of the time, giving Frederick a chance for some of the best and hardest tackling done on the Westminster grounds this year.

The Turk knows only force in his dealings with others. Only by opposing force, violence to violence, can his grip upon the wretched Macedonian be loosened. In Bulgaria and Servia and Greece and everywhere one could hear about this approaching war, the Balkan states risked everything to aid their enslaved Macedonian brethren. They were fully aware of any material advantages which they might have a right to realize from victory. So this war for them was a crusade, and, having taken up their arms in a holy cause, they were determined not to lay them down."

Fleming. Rachel Jane Fleming, daughter of the late Thomas and Nettie Fleming, died at her home in Baltimore on November 2. Funeral services were held at Mount Airy Methodist Episcopal Church Tuesday morning. Interment at Pine Grove Cemetery.

The new law put into effect on November 1, provides for seven year enlistments in the army instead of four year enlistments as heretofore. The first four years will be for actual military service and if after that, a soldier does not care to reenlist he will be transferred to the army reserve, with no pay or allowance, but subject to recall at a moment's notice.

Reception in Honor of Dr. Slagle's 25th Anniversary.

A large reception was held last Monday night from 8 to 10 o'clock at the parsonage of St. Paul's Reformed Church, in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. Dr. C. S. Slagle to St. Paul's congregation.

Dr. and Mrs. Slagle were assisted in receiving by members of the Consistory and their wives. About 250 people, including friends and members of St. Paul's and St. Benjamin's Reformed Churches, and the ministers of the town and their wives were present.

Supper, consisting of sandwiches, ices, cakes, bon bons and coffee, was served during the evening by members of the Mite Society and the young ladies of the church.

The most interesting feature of the occasion was the presentation by Mr. A. O. Weant, pastor of the congregation of St. Paul's church, of a handsome repossess silver service to Dr. Slagle, which was a complete surprise to him. In making the presentation, Mr. Weant paid the following tribute to Dr. Slagle:

"This being the twenty-fifth anniversary of your pastorate to this congregation, they wish to commemorate the occasion by an expression of their good will and high appreciation of the faithful service you have rendered them in all these years. In that time you have seen a generation pass away and a new one take its place; you have seen old ties sundered and new ones formed. You have officiated at the marriage of our people, baptized our children and buried our dead. You have rejoiced with us on our successes, you have shared our sorrows and been a valued and sympathetic counsellor in time of trouble or distress."

"The confidential and affectionate relationship that should exist between pastor and people has not been disturbed by time, but has grown stronger with the passing years, and closer as we have learned to know each other better. So it has come to pass that you seem to belong to us and we to you."

As a feeble expression of these declarations of esteem and affectionate regard, I am commissioned by your congregation to present to you and Mrs. Slagle, in their name, this silver service, with the confident belief that you will cherish it more as a memorial of this occasion than for any intrinsic value it may possess."

Many words of congratulation were spoken and the occasion was a thoroughly enjoyable one.

Escaped Inmate of Springfield Asylum Turns on Captor

Deputy Sheriff William H. Easton, of Ellicott City, had a desperate fight in a saloon in Ellicott City late Monday night with Clifton Brashears, an escaped inmate of the Springfield Asylum.

Brashears, whose home is in the vicinity of Ellicott City, escaped from the asylum Thursday of last week. Off and on since that time the Ellicott City officers have received information that he was at or near his home, but always when the officers arrived there and Brashears had taken to the woods in the vicinity of his home and was hiding. The woods were searched, but Brashears could not be found.

Late Monday night, as Officer Easton was on his way home, he saw Brashears go into the saloon of Samuel Curran in Ellicott City. He followed the man there and told him that he was wanted and that he would be taken back to Springfield. Brashears seemed inclined to go along quietly at first, but when Officer Easton started for the door with him Brashears caught him by the coat and hit him in the face. Then a general fight commenced, in which the officer was getting the worst of it. After about five minutes, during which time Brashears used his fingernails with telling effect, Officer Easton had to call outside assistance.

Finally Brashears was overpowered and handcuffed. After the handcuffs were put on him he went along quietly and was held in the Ellicott City Jail to await the officers from Springfield State Hospital. He had been at the Springfield institution only a short time.
