THE 'CRUSADE AGAINST UGLINESS'

Mr. McFarland Will Lecture Thursday Night in Interests of Civic Work.

Mr. J. Horace McFarland, President of the American Civic Association, will deliver his lecture "The Crusade Against Ugliness" at the Opera House, Thursday, April 10th, at 8 p. m.
The Civic League has gone to a great deal of trouble and expense to secure for Westminster the best possible man in civic work in this country and it is hoped that our citizens will fill the house to hear and profit by him.

The April Cosmopolitan says: "Mr. McFarland is a magnificent development and an excellent example of the man who has done his duty. Years ago he announced that 'American communities must cease to be a laughing stock to foreigners because of their unform ugliness, lack of intelligent planning and neglect of the simplest means of beautification.' He has done an enormous amount of campaigning for the City Beautiful and also a more beautiful America. He has long been the president, and acknowledged leader of the American Civic Association. He is ever immensely active and delightfully effective. He is absolutely honest, ever fearless, resourceful, tactful, yet aggressive.
"If you want to realize the marvelous potency of withering invective just listen to him while he attacks the 'iniquitous' practice of dehorning or beheading trees while paying his respects to the 'offensive' and 'defensive' billboard."

Large Easter Dance.

The Easter dance of March 24, given by the young men of Westminster was one of the best appointed functions ever held in this city. More than one hundred young people were present. Firemen's Hall was attractively decorated for the occasion, and dancing began at 9 o'clock to the entrancing strains of Paterson's Orchestra of Baltimore. The dance program included 24 dances. Supper was served from the Westminster Hotel at eleven o'clock.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Brennick, Misses M. H. Briscoe and Eleanor Coblenz, Messrs. Robert Myer, Mack Rouzer, Lawrence C. Wroth, B. S. Bonebrake, Judson Mealy, Plinckney Preston, Myron Cassard and Mr. and Miss Kelley, all of Baltimore; Miss Anne Donnelly of Detroit, Mich.; Miss Hattie Haines of Union Bridge; Messrs. Nicholas Cossena, and L. Earl Simpson, of New York; Robert G. Aldridge, of Annapolis; Dr. Walter and Mr. R. C. Dingleline, of Charlottesville, Va.; Messrs. Thomas and Arthur Craddock and Dr. Henry H. Kennard, of Green Spring Valley; Miss Mary Selby, of Mt. Airy; Charles Todd, of Carlyle, Pa.; Daniel S. Roberts, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mrs. Edward Tuller, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Harvey Musser and Hicks Williams, of Johns Hopkins University; Miss Marian Shriver, Union Mills and Miss Eileen Patterson, of Omaha, Neb.

Ladies' Aid Meets.

The members of the Ladies' Aid Society of Westminster Methodist Protestant Church were entertained at the home of Mrs. David Leister on Thursday evening of last week. Despite the windy weather quite a number gathered. After the business of the meeting was transacted, instrumental music was given by the choir, which was much enjoyed by all.
Refreshments were served in abundance and all went home looking forward to another outing of the Aid in the near future.

Among those present were: Mrs. David Leister, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Barnes, Mr. Lewis Haines; Mesdames—Lewie Shipley, Clinton Shipley, Geo. E. Benson, Thomas Flater, Emmett Prugh, Thurman Shipley, Jesse Patterson, John Brauning; Misses—Edna Barnes, Daisy Foote, Florence Patterson, and Gladys Leister and Master Weldon Benson. The next meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Miller, April 24.

A Cure.

"Do you believe appendicitis can be cured without an operation?"
"My case was."
"How'd you do it?"
"A friend who had suffered told me what his operation cost him, and as soon as he had finished all his symptoms had departed."—Houston Post.

Rev. John H. Gonso, wife and daughter, Mr. James E. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Oursler were handsomely entertained at supper by Mr. and Mrs. John Stem, East Green street, yesterday evening.
