LEE, MAGRUDER, HARRINGTON, PRES-
TON, POE AND STRAUS SPEAK--
TOUR OF COUNTY ABANDONED.

Party Differences Healed--Opera House Crowded and Much Enthusiasm Shown.

Although the rains of the last week made the country roads so heavy that the automobile tour of the Democratic candidates in Carroll had to be abandoned on Monday the mass meeting in the Opera House on that night was a great success.

A delegation from this city, composed of Messrs. Weant, Steele, Fink, Walsh, Connan, Myers, Dodder and Fisher, went to Gamber in automobiles Monday morning and formed the escort to Messrs. Harrington and Magruder to this city. In the afternoon the party motored to Manchester, where addresses were made. Monday night the First Regiment Band paraded the streets and gave a concert in front of the Westminister Hotel, headquarters of the candidates, and later a concert in front of the Opera House. Every seat in the building was occupied. Many ladies were in the audience.

A number of prominent Democrats occupied seats on the stage. Among them were R. L. Davis, candidate for Sheriff; J. W. Myers, for County Commissioner; E. O. Dodder, for Treasurer; William W. Shager and Iven H. Sayers, for the Legislature; Wade Warfield, Harry Devries, George A. Shover, J. Wesley Hoffacker, Dr. Norris, Judge J. Calvin Jordan and others.

John C. Shaffer, of Chicago is today in full control of the Rocky Mountain News and the Denver Times, having concluded the purchase of the properties October 22. The Rocky Mountain News is one of the oldest papers west of Chicago and leads all morning papers between Kansas City and the Pacific coast in point of circulation. It has been owned and edited for many years by former United States Senator Thomas M. Patterson. The Times is the most important evening paper in Denver, although it does not lead in circulation. The sum of $750,000 is involved in the transfer. Both papers will be issued from the plant of the Rocky Mountain News.

"Henry D. Carbery, who has been business manager of the News, becomes general manager of the joint ventures. Kent Shaffer, son of John C. Shaffer, will be treasurer of the company.

"John C. Shaffer is now proprietor of seven newspapers, those outside of Denver, being The Chicago Evening Post, the Indianapolis Star, the Muncie Star, The Terre Haute Star and the Louisville Herald.

Thomas Chapel Rally.

Thomas Chapel held a Sunday School Rally on October 26th. The service was opened by singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name." Rev. Dr. E. Forlines, of the Westminster Seminary, offered prayer, a never-ending recitation composed by Miss Mary B. Shellman, was recited by Zerilda Sykes. Alice Clark recited a selection entitled "Rally." Margaret Sharp sang a solo, which was much enjoyed. Rev. Dr. Forlines gave a very helpful and instructive address to the children and teachers of the school, urging upon them the importance of "Training up a child in the way it should go, and when it is old it will not depart from it." He used for an illustration the growth of a tree, which had been blighted by you, and never came to perfection. The music was a special feature of the service. Miss Elizabeth Clark presided at the organ, assisted by Mr. Yenn and Mr. Root, of the Westminster Seminary. The school extended the cornet duet during the raising of the collection was a rare treat to all present.

The church had been decorated with potted plants, cut flowers, corn, apples and pumpkins, and made a very pretty appearance.

UNIQUE METHOD OF CHILD TRAINING.

INDIANA SCHOOL IS FILLED THE YEAR ROUND.

Rotation of Classes Saves Time and Cost.

Gary, the wonder city, built by the biggest corporation in the world to exemplify the latest methods of efficiency in the manufacture of steel, is fast becoming more famous for the demonstration made there by a Hoosier schoolmaster of efficiency in the manufacture of citizens.

An educational plant which will handle twice as much raw material—boys and girls—as the ordinary public school, which runs at full capacity twelve months in the year and is not shut down two months in the year and is not shut down two months in every summer; which works until 5.30 o'clock every evening and Saturday morning as well, with a night crew on most of the year; is "no particular room or grade, where a single weary teacher drills him in reading, spelling, arithmetic, and all the other branches. The educational plant at Gary is divided into departments, in each of which only a single branch is taught, and that by a specialist who teaches nothing else.

When one class in arithmetic has finished its recitation it moves on to the football field or the shops and another class comes in to fill the arithmetic room. By keeping the classes constantly moving in this way from one department to another Mr. Wirt is able to handle twice as many pupils as under the old system.

The playgrounds, the class rooms, the workshops, are always filled with busy pupils. There is no lost time, no idleness. The plant is never shut down. Class rooms, playgrounds, and shops are always in use. The ordinary public schoolhouse is closed half the time.

Gary children are required to attend school only ten months in the year. But they may take a winter vacation at any time in the year. If a teacher wants to take a winter course at the university that can be arranged. If the pupil's parents want him to stay out in October and November it will not affect his standing. The plant is always ready to pick him up where he left off.

By adopting some of Mr. Wirt's plans the public schools of New York are this year taking care of 70,000 children who last year were crowded out because there was no room for them. Philadelphia has offered the Hoosier schoolmaster $10,000 a year to come down there and show them how to make their public schools efficient. In thirteen public schools in Chicago many of the Wirt ideas of efficiency are this year being put into force. Kansas City has had Mr. Wirt studying the new methods. The public school system of the whole country is feeling the impulse.
