

MANCHESTER.

The great Independence day is passed. It was spent quietly by most of our citizens. The safe way of celebrating it has eliminated the noise, that was one of the features of the day. The lack of casualties surely justifies the change. We are all fond of the manner in which the day was generally spent. Quite a number of ladies and gentlemen spent the day in picnic style in Miss Margaret Furman's orchard. A nice luncheon was served and a good social time enjoyed. The base ball team celebrated the Fourth with two games of ball in the afternoon and a festival at night. The Pikesville boys were too weak for the home team, both games going to Manchester. The first game was 9 to 4; second 6 to 2. Quite a large crowd assembled in the hall at night where the Back woods band rendered their choice selections of music. Good behavior and a lot of fun closed the evening with a nice sum to be added to the base ball account.

The Sun Shine Society held its festival last Thursday evening at the home of Dr. Jacob Sherman. The lawn was decorated with Japanese lanterns and bunting. The tables were most inviting with flowers and ferns. All the things were disposed of. We failed to hear the receipts. Mr. Thurb Wentz received a painful burn last week. He has been in the employ of Mr. Harry Koons, proprietor of the Franklin House. Mrs. Koons was rendering soap tallow, which caught fire and Mr. Wentz grabbed the pan of burning fat and spilled it over his hand and arm. He has been under medical treatment since.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Houck, daughter, Helen, and son, Gardner, Mr. Charles Miller and Mr. Will Culp, all of Baltimore, spent the Fourth at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Miller.

Miss Fannie Ross had as her guests over the Fourth, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hutchens, H. Bartlett and J. M. Motter, all of Baltimore.

Mr. Hickman Myers and daughter, Elizabeth, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Leber, Miss Irene Osborn, Miss Bloom and Mrs. Mary Jaeger spent the week's end at the home of Miss Margaret Furman.

Mr. and Mrs. Breck Shaw and sons, of Frederick, Md., are visiting Mr. John LaMotte and sisters.

Mr. Frank Beme and wife, of Baltimore, are visiting Miss Selma Lynard. Mr. Charles Warner, of Baltimore, spent a few days with friends.

Mrs. Preston, formerly of this place, but now residing in Hampstead, was operated on last week at the Church Home Infirmary, Baltimore. The operation was quite a serious one. At this writing she is resting as comfortably as can be hoped for.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Lutheran Church will hold a festival August 1st.

We are glad to state that the West Indies cigar factory, that had been closed for some time, will reopen next week.

Miss Fannie Ross entertained Wednesday evening in honor of her home guests, Mesdames Hutchens, Bartlett and Motter.

MILLER'S.

A very pleasant day was spent at the home of Thomas Martin last Sunday, when all their children and grandchildren were home, where a happy reunion was held. Those present were: Mrs. Pleasant Fowble, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Murray, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tawney, of Trenton; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stump, Misses Emma, Hilda, Elva and Hazel Martin, Virgie and Elsie Fowble, Pauline Murray, Hazel Martin, Agnes Tawney, Madeline Stump; Messrs. Vernon Murray, Thomas Martin, Jr., Raymond and Vernon Martin, Gilbert Fowble, Earl and Charles Murray and Nelson Garrett.

George Hoover and wife spent several days the past week at Baltimore and Ocean City. The former attended the Letter Carrier's Convention at Ocean City.

Miss Minnie Zepp spent the Fourth among relatives at Hanover, Pa. Allan Eppley, of Newark, N. J., visited his sister, Mrs. George Hoover, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hare are entertaining summer boarders from Baltimore at their beautiful residence.

Edward Miller, of Baltimore, visited his aunt, Mrs. George Albaugh, on Saturday.

Hoffnagle is visiting her children at Baltimore. Mrs. Charles Hoffnagle and Miss Laura Hoffnagle, of Baltimore, visited Mr. and Mrs. William Kelbaugh Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Richards and Edward Bollinger and wife entertained Baltimore friends over the 4th. Mrs. Seipp entertained a large number of friends over the Fourth.

Misses Bessie and Ruth Wiseman, of Baltimore, visited William Hofseld and wife the past week.

Horatio Bortner and wife, of Hanover, Pa., spent a week visiting his mother, near here.

L. M. Hare and wife, of Baltimore, visited Samuel Hare and wife Sunday.

Miss Marie Stansbury, of Baltimore, is visiting Miss Minnie Hoover.
