

The Democratic Advocate

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY The Democratic Advocate Company OF WESTMINSTER, MD.

TERMS: $1.00 per year; 50 cents for six months and 25 cents for three months. Single copies 3 cents.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, JULY 31, 1914

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

In April 119,885 immigrants landed in the United States.

New York has 1,048 sky-scrapers, one of more than 50 stories.

Ten tickets were sold from this station to Tolchester on Sunday.

Mr. M. W. Bell, of Key Mar, has leased Casino Hall, Hanover, Pa., and will equip the building with bowling alleys and pool tables.

Miss Goldie Myers, Liberty street, has accepted a position as stenographer with the Baltimore Roofing & Asbestos Manufacturing Company, Asbestos, Md., and has entered upon her duties.

There are a number of our citizens under the impression that Dr. T. J. Connan, this city, is not practicing his profession since he has been appointed postmaster. Dr. Connan is still practicing and will make his usual calls to all patients.

Edward Schaeffer, jeweler, Union Bridge, is said to be in a critical condition, owing to the removal of a diseased toe early last week.

The fees charged for the issues of postal money orders, payable in the various foreign countries, with which international trade business is transacted will be reduced considerably by orders of Postmaster General Burleson.

Congressman Joseph A. Goulden, who was arrested July 25 upon the charge of speeding through Woodsboro, who put up $25 for his appearance before Justice Marion S. Miller, at Woodsboro, Tuesday night, appeared before the magistrate and was fined $5.

Mrs. Mollie O. Shipley, of Woodstock, has the distinction of being the first lady in Howard county to take a contract for road work.

Mrs. Suzanne Carroll Hill, wife of United States District Attorney John Phillip Hill, filed a petition in the Orphans' Court, Baltimore, Tuesday, asking the court to require her mother, Mrs. Mary G. Carroll, to probate the will of her grandmother, Mrs. Susan Howell Carroll, Baltimore, and expressed her intention of contesting it.

There were 109,021,992 persons living within the territory embraced by the United States on July 1, 1914, and 353,373 in the District of Columbia, according to a bulletin containing the estimates of population for the years subsequent to the thirteenth census, made in 1910, prepared under the supervision of C. S. Sloane, geographer of the Department of Commerce, and issued July 20.

A large barn and its contents, including 1,500 bushels of wheat, 75 tons of hay, 100 bushels of corn, tons of straw, farming implements and some live stock on the farm of Charles B. Sappington, near Liberty, were burned Wednesday. A horse owned by the Langanore Breeding Association, valued at $3,000, was rescued.

Every outbuilding was burned and the house was saved by the wind blowing in an opposite direction. The flames were discovered by Mrs. Wilson, wife of H. Ellsworth Wilson, tenant, but so much headway had been gained that it was impossible to check the fire. The loss is about $7,000, partially insured.

Mr. George W. Brown, Brummel, was appointed Monday tax supervisor for Carroll county by the State Commissioner. The supervisors for the several counties were selected from lists, each containing five names, submitted by the county commissioners.

City Solicitor Field, of Baltimore, proposes to break up, if possible, tandem riding on motorcycles, and with this purpose in view he says he will prepare an ordinance which is to be submitted to the Baltimore Council when it meets in the fall prohibiting the practice.

It has been his observation that the practice is dangerous not only to the riders, but to pedestrians and other vehicles. He also recalled that there have been a number of motorcycle accidents recently which might have been due to lack of control.

Zion Sunday school will hold its annual picnic Saturday, August 8, and will continue after night.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Thomas Chapel, Tannery, will hold a lawn party on the lawn of Mr. Marion J. Abbott, on the Manchester road, Tuesday evening, August 4.

Beating his way from Baltimore to Hagerstown where he was promised work, John Ward, 35 years old, Baltimore, was found in a Western Maryland Railway freight car with his leg broken at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Stephen H. Perry, of Bethesda district, Montgomery county, arrested upon complaint of his wife, who charged him with assault, was adjudged by the County Commissioners Tuesday to be of unsound mind and committed to Springfield Asylum, Sykesville, for treatment.

Protests are being made by the residents of Ellicott City and the farmers of Howard, Montgomery and Frederick counties over the delay by the State Roads Commission in reconstructing a bridge over the Patapsco river between Baltimore and Howard counties, at Ellicott City in place of the old wooden bridge destroyed by fire more than a month ago.

A. J. Koontz, of Hagerstown, formerly of near Fountain Valley, the champion cherry picker, gave another demonstration of his remarkable vigor, despite his 73 years, by walking to Smithburg and back on Tuesday, a distance of 18 miles, in ten hours.

While shifting freight cars from the Western Maryland to the Northern Central tracks, at Key-Mar, Saturday night, three left the track, two of which toppled over an embankment.

J. W. Heater, a brakeman, 30 years old, of York, Pa., was on top of one of the cars that went over, and jumped. He was hurled some distance into a field and received a bad fracture of the right leg, the bone protruding through his trousers.

Penn Grove Camp, Pa., which is attended annually by thousands of United Brethren worshippers from Maryland and points in Pennsylvania, will open July 31 and continue until August 9.

That the Good Roads Commission of Maryland means business in keeping threshing machines off the improved roads under its care, became evident Thursday afternoon when resident Engineer Tenny, acting under orders from the Commission, swore out warrants for ten persons located either at Jefferson or Knorville, and about New Market and New London and the section around Boyman Cashour, New London; J. Harry Grove, Randall Wachter, Frederick; Samuel Molesworth, New Market; John Horine, of near Jefferson; George Kefauver, of near Jefferson; O. P. Davis, Arthur Peddicord, Mt. Airy.

An effort made at the session of the Legislature last winter to pass a law permitting any traction engine to use the State roads failed, and the State Roads Commission has sent out instructions to country road engineers to enforce to the letter the law against the running of traction engines without smooth drive wheels on the State roads.

The neighbors of John H. Strong, at Pleasant Grove, are very much puzzled over a light green crystallized bug that was found on the farm last Sunday.

The neighbors of John H. Strong, at Pleasant Grove, are very much puzzled over a light green crystallized bug that was found on the farm last Sunday.

Harrison Palmer, who escaped from Officer Charles Hoffman, of Frederick, on July 14, while being taken to jail, was arrested at Emmitsburg Sunday by Sheriff Conrad and deputies, where he was employed about the Slagle hotel.

Ladies' drawers of good muslin, cut full size, made with tucks and some have a hemstitched hem, extra value at 15c or 2 pairs for 25c.

Heavy china matting rugs, size 9x12 in several good patterns; regular price $2.50, special price $1.98.

3 rolls of Cook's linoleum just received, perfect goods, full 2 yards wide and three very good patterns. $1.00 value for 78c.

Any pair La France low shoes in the house for $2.45. This includes pumps, conical ties, and oxfords, in patent kid, gun metal calf, vici kid and white canvass, high or low heels, all to be sold at one price $2.45.

Lot of Ralston Oxfords, this season's styles in either black or tan, regular $4.00 goods for $3.35.

Many Waynesboro merchants have adopted the plan of selling by weight entirely, thereby doing away with measures.

The Western Maryland Railway Company is making another much needed improvement by running a new culvert along the Rosenstock property.

Dr. T. H. Lewis, president of the Western Maryland College, preached Tuesday night at the Biblical Institute in progress at Wesley Grove Camp. He also gave a lecture in the morning.

The Westminister Base Ball Club will have its opponents on Saturday the Baynesville Athletic Club of Towson. The game will start at 3 p. m.

The State Supreme Court of Washington State, held in a decision Tuesday that if a boy and girl under legal age marry without their parents' consent, such marriage is legal and binding regardless of the fact that the license upon which they married was illegally issued.

The Pittsburgh Express on Tuesday morning was derailed a short distance east of Highfield. The engine, tender and two baggage cars hopped off and bounded over the ties for a considerable distance.

Mr. Paul Fowler, Webster street, was painfully injured on Sunday about noon by running into the automobile of Mr. George Neudecker, at the railroad, while riding his bicycle.

Dr. A. P. Herring, secretary of the State Lunacy Commission, has completed the removal of insane patients from the Montevue Asylum, Frederick county, to Springfield Hospital and Montevue has been closed.

T. W. Mather & Sons WESTMINSTER LEADING STORE Summer Clearance Sale Specials.

Boys' Wash Suits 45c. Russian blouse suits of white linen finish and striped percales and gingham, made with either military or sailor collars, sizes 3 to 8 years, values 50c to 75c, to close out 45c.

$1.50 Wash Suits $1.19. Russian blouse suits of fine galatea cloth in white and attractive stripes in light and dark colors, sizes 3 to 8 our regular $1.50 suits to close out $1.19.

75c Baby Dresses 49c. Dresses of fine white lawn with tucked yoke and embroidered skirts for children from 6 months to 2 years, 75c value for 49c.

$1.00 Waists 49c. A small lot of regular $1.00 waists, some tailored styles and some lingerie styles, slightly soiled, to close out only 49c.

$1.00 Dressing Sacques 50c. Small lot of fine lawn dressing sacques in light colors, figures and stripes, our regular $1.00 goods for 50c.

50c Dressing Sacques 35c. Large lot of percale and lawn dressing sacques in light and dark colors, some have collars and some square neck and short sleeves, all regular 50c goods to be closed out at 35c or 3 for $1.00.

Ladies' Gowns 35c. 5 dozen ladies' gowns, made of good muslin, cut with low neck and short sleeves, sleeves are edged with narrow torchon lace and neck is edged with torchon lace and a draw string of narrow ribbon, regular 50c value to close out 35c or 3 for $1.00.

Ladies' Drawers 15c. Ladies' drawers of good muslin, cut full size, made with tucks and some have a hemstitched hem, extra value at 15c or 2 pairs for 25c.

Matting Rugs $1.98. Heavy china matting rugs, size 9x12 in several good patterns; regular price $2.50, special price $1.98.

Linoleum 78c. 3 rolls of Cook's linoleum just received, perfect goods, full 2 yards wide and three very good patterns. $1.00 value for 78c.

Ass R. Watkins, of Mount Airy, has been elected secretary and treasurer of the Prohibition County Committee of Frederick county.

The atmosphere has made a decided change to cooler, after heating us up for several weeks. Heavier wraps felt comfortable on Wednesday evening and last night.

A burglar entered the house of Mrs. James E. Garver, at Liberty, Tuesday during her absence and stole $35 in cash and other valuables. Before he finished Mrs. Garver returned and the thief hid in the garret. Finding her home ransacked, she called in several neighbors, who searched the premises, but failed to find the robber.

Rev. W. L. Seabrook, State Vice President of the Patriotic Order Sons of America, motored to Woodsboro last Saturday, accompanied by Miss Frances Guyon Seabrook. At Woodsboro, he made an address at the big demonstration of Camp 44, P. O. S. A. In the afternoon they continued their journey to Boonsboro, where Mr. Seabrook delivered an address on Saturday night. On Sunday morning, he conducted the service in the United Brethren Church, and preached the memorial sermon for Camp 30, of Boonsboro. A number of members from Camps 17 and 79 of Frederick were also present.

Why don't our city fathers, the board of health, or some other authority whose duty it is to abate nuisances do something to remedy the condition of that nasty ditch, gulch, or ravine which has its beginning on Court street, and ends the Lord knows where; we have never traced its course, our stomach is much too sensitive for such an exploration.

Why don't our city fathers, the board of health, or some other authority whose duty it is to abate nuisances do something to remedy the condition of that nasty ditch, gulch, or ravine which has its beginning on Court street, and ends the Lord knows where; we have never traced its course, our stomach is much too sensitive for such an exploration.

Why don't our city fathers, the board of health, or some other authority whose duty it is to abate nuisances do something to remedy the condition of that nasty ditch, gulch, or ravine which has its beginning on Court street, and ends the Lord knows where; we have never traced its course, our stomach is much too sensitive for such an exploration.

Why don't our city fathers, the board of health, or some other authority whose duty it is to abate nuisances do something to remedy the condition of that nasty ditch, gulch, or ravine which has its beginning on Court street, and ends the Lord knows where; we have never traced its course, our stomach is much too sensitive for such an exploration.

Why don't our city fathers, the board of health, or some other authority whose duty it is to abate nuisances do something to remedy the condition of that nasty ditch, gulch, or ravine which has its beginning on Court street, and ends the Lord knows where; we have never traced its course, our stomach is much too sensitive for such an exploration.

Why don't our city fathers, the board of health, or some other authority whose duty it is to abate nuisances do something to remedy the condition of that nasty ditch, gulch, or ravine which has its beginning on Court street, and ends the Lord knows where; we have never traced its course, our stomach is much too sensitive for such an exploration.

Why don't our city fathers, the board of health, or some other authority whose duty it is to abate nuisances do something to remedy the condition of that nasty ditch, gulch, or ravine which has its beginning on Court street, and ends the Lord knows where; we have never traced its course, our stomach is much too sensitive for such an exploration.

Why don't our city fathers, the board of health, or some other authority whose duty it is to abate nuisances do something to remedy the condition of that nasty ditch, gulch, or ravine which has its beginning on Court street, and ends the Lord knows where; we have never traced its course, our stomach is much too sensitive for such an exploration.

Why don't our city fathers, the board of health, or some other authority whose duty it is to abate nuisances do something to remedy the condition of that nasty ditch, gulch, or ravine which has its beginning on Court street, and ends the Lord knows where; we have never traced its course, our stomach is much too sensitive for such an exploration.

Why don't our city fathers, the board of health, or some other authority whose duty it is to abate nuisances do something to remedy the condition of that nasty ditch, gulch, or ravine which has its beginning on Court street, and ends the Lord knows where; we have never traced its course, our stomach is much too sensitive for such an exploration.

Why don't our city fathers, the board of health, or some other authority whose duty it is to abate nuisances do something to remedy the condition of that nasty ditch, gulch, or ravine which has its beginning on Court street, and ends the Lord knows where; we have never traced its course, our stomach is much too sensitive for such an exploration.

Why don't our city fathers, the board of health, or some other authority whose duty it is to abate nuisances do something to remedy the condition of that nasty ditch, gulch, or ravine which has its beginning on Court street, and ends the Lord knows where; we have never traced its course, our stomach is much too sensitive for such an exploration.

Why don't our city fathers, the board of health, or some other authority whose duty it is to abate nuisances do something to remedy the condition of that nasty ditch, gulch, or ravine which has its beginning on Court street, and ends the Lord knows where; we have never traced its course, our stomach is much too sensitive for such an exploration.

Why don't our city fathers, the board of health, or some other authority whose duty it is to abate nuisances do something to remedy the condition of that nasty ditch, gulch, or ravine which has its beginning on Court street, and ends the Lord knows where; we have never traced its course, our stomach is much too sensitive for such an exploration.

Why don't our city fathers, the board of health, or some other authority whose duty it is to abate nuisances do something to remedy the condition of that nasty ditch, gulch, or ravine which has its beginning on Court street, and ends the Lord knows where; we have never traced its course, our stomach is much too sensitive for such an exploration.

BABYLON & LIPPY CO. The Dependable Store.

LAST CALL ON SUMMER GOODS. Ladies' China Silk Waists, all white striped, white with colored trimmings at 98c.

MEN'S SILK SHIRTS. Regular "dollar" silk front shirts, new selections of patterns, 69c. LADIES' OXFORDS. Special sale on Oxfords at 50c. Not all sizes.

Annual Sale of "ANDERSON GINGHAMS" Regular 15c and 25c Anderson gingham, 32 inches wide, to be sold for 12 1/2c yd.

Regular $2.00 and $2.50 pumps and oxfords $1.19. RUMMAGE SALE. Lawns, Ladies' Hose, Ribbons, Unbleached Muslins, Linen Hats, Calicoes at 5c.

BOYS' SUITS. A small lot of boys' suits in small sizes, 4 to 9 years. Excellent school suits, 98c while they last.

ORIENTAL LACES. Just received 25 patterns of the new net laces in nice desirable widths, special price 12 1/2c.

LAST CALL ON MILLINERY. Any ladies' trimmed hat 98c. Ratine and Duck hats 98c. Children's "ready-to-wear" hats 25c.

White Rubber Sole Canvass Oxfords. Regular $1.50 values $1.25. Just the picnic kind.

SPECIAL SKIRT SALE. We have on sale now an assorted lot of ladies' white, linen colored, wash skirts at 98c.

Sweeping reduction on all Summer Goods, Crepes, Voiles, Lawns, Lenens, Raines, Laces and Embroideries.

Babylon & Lippy Co.

WESTMINSTER MARKETS. By N. I. Gorsuch Son Co. July 31, 1914. Wheat .87, Oats .42, Rye .50, Flour, Sea Foam, (patent) 5.00, Bran .25, Middlings $25.00 per ton, Timothy Hay $10 to $12 per ton, Mixed Hay $10 to $12 per ton, Clover Hay $10 per ton, Rye Straw $7 to $8 per ton, Cob Corn $3.50 to $3.75 per bbl., Suetene Dairy Feed $3.00, Cotton Seed Meal $4.00, Lined Meal $5.00.

July 1/4 Price Sale NOW ON Of Our Entire Stock of Men's, Young Men's and Boy's Clothing

RIGHT HERE IS WHERE YOU SAVE. Buy four choice juicy meats that are unequalled even in the more expensive butcher stores. Prompt deliveries will please you and you will find this a reliable store all around. Give us a trial and you will receive full satisfaction. Why not call today? M. E. CAMPBELL, No. 71 East Main Street, Westminster, Md.

These haven't been bad times, if they have made us think. Many people are having us deliver them one ton of coal a week this summer, and paying as they go. The summer time is the time to buy coal of Smith & Reifsneider. SALE BILLS PRINTED ON GOOD PAPER AT SHORT NOTICE.