LOCAL AFFAIRS.

T. W. Mather & Sons have made extensive improvements to their show windows. Mr. Fred D. Miller is having a concrete curb put down on the Willis street side of his residence.

A marriage license was issued at Ellicott City Tuesday to William Merrick, Carroll county, and Grace Fickett, Howard county.

Mr. Joseph J. Price, who moved to Wiley, Kansas, has come east and located at Hanover, Pa. Mr. Price was in this city Wednesday on business.

Play in the series for the world's championship will begin on October 9, at 2 o'clock, it was announced by President B. B. Johnson, of the American League.

Dry Day will be observed at Carroll County Fair, at Smallwood, October 9th. Exercises will begin at 2.30 o'clock. Good speakers will discuss the saloon question.

A photograph of the bus of the Westminster-Reisterstown Bus Line was shown in Saturday's Baltimore News. Crisfield has a similar line, and each doing a successful business.

An ear of field corn 14 inches in length was exhibited at the Advocate by Mr. A. A. Mitten, Spring Mills. The grains are large and healthy. It is only a sample of Mr. Mitten's corn crop.

Mr. John H. Cunningham, this city, was appointed a delegate to the fourth American Road Congress which will be held in Atlanta, Ga., from November 7 to 14 by Governor Goldsborough Tuesday.

Stone Chapel Sunday school will hold an oyster supper Saturday evening, October 17, in the hall adjoining the church. The Taylorsville Band will furnish music. If the weather is inclement it will be held Monday evening, October 19.

Nearly $500,000, part of the funds set aside annually by the State for education, soon will be distributed. Carroll county's part is as follows: Public school tax, $10,391.72; school book fund, $1,162.04; approved high schools, $1,625; and manual training schools $1,500.

The County Commissioners are having an office fitted up for the board of Supervisors of Election for Carroll county in the Court House. The room will have a cement floor and closets for the election work and nicely painted. Mr. Florence Little is superintending the work.

The bridge spanning Cat Tail Creek in the Westminster road at Roxbury Mills, near Jessups, collapsed on Tuesday under the weight of a heavily laden furniture van. The load exceeded the capacity which the bridge was designed to carry when it was built about ten years ago.

Dr. V. M. Richard, of Washington county, was unanimously nominated for United States Senator at the Bull Moose State convention held Wednesday at the Rennett, Baltimore, and accepted in a speech in which he promised to make a vigorous campaign and predicted victory for the party in 1916.

A stranger, representing himself as a special agent for Harper's Weekly, recently operated in Lancaster and fleeced a number of business men and citizens. He offers a subscription to the magazine with a bonus of ten volumes of a modern work for $2.50. Look out for him as Carroll county is generally invaded by such crooks.

Owing to a rush of freight, the Hagerstown and Frederick Railroad has found it necessary to operate a steam engine on the Thurmont division. The engine was secured from the Western Maryland and it is said, will be used for the next thirty days. The large freight motor of the railway suffered a breakdown several days ago and this increased the need of the steam engine to draw the freight cars on the division.

The remains of Joshua Frederick, who died at Topeka, Kansas, and were brought here and interred in Westminster Cemetery in November, 1912, was disinterred and shipped to Baltimore on Monday where they were again interred in the Greenmount cemetery. Mrs. Edgar Goldsmith, of Baltimore, Mrs. Frederick's daughter, came here and took charge of the remains after Funeral Director F. C. Sharrer had it prepared.

Prompt action on the part of Engineer J. V. Crum, saved passenger train No. 4, on the Western Maryland Railway from a disastrous wreck at Due Gully tunnel, west of Hancock, Tuesday morning. The train, east bound, was running at a fast rate when it struck an open switch. The engine and tender left the track, but Engineer Crum brought his train under control before more serious damage was done. The track was badly damaged and blocked. The above train is the one that arrives in this city at 4.14 p. m.

The second get-together conference of the officials in the operating department of the Western Maryland Railway was held at Hagerstown, Monday in the office of General Superintendent S. Ennis. About 40 were present, including the superintendent, train masters, chief dispatchers, agents, superintendents of motive power, master mechanics, heads of police department, timekeepers, chief clerks, yard masters and superintendents of car service. Various questions having to do with the operation of the road were discussed at the conference.

The Ladies' Missionary Aid Society met at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. M. Stoner, Pennsylvania avenue yesterday. A very enthusiastic meeting was held and the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Hersh; vice president, Mrs. William Starnes; secretary, Mrs. John Stevenson; corresponding secretary, Miss Marie Youngling; treasurer, Mrs. John Miller; secretary of cradle roll, Mrs. Holly Dell; Look out committee, Mrs. James M. Stoner, Mrs. William Wantz, Mrs. David Petry, Mrs. J. Stevenson. After election of officers refreshments were served. Mrs. John Stevenson, secretary.

Kelly, pastor. A very interesting program has been arranged. On the evening of the seventh, Miss Jessie Brewer, Gunter, India, will make the address. On Thursday, Miss Gertrude Simpson, Muhlenberg, Africa, will make the address of the evening.

Mr. George E. Benson, a prominent resident of Gamber and salesman for Tidewater Portland Cement Company, Union Bridge, was seriously injured at Shippensburg, Pa. Mr. Benson had taken refuge in a car on the Chambersburg & Shippensburg railroad, thinking it a regular car. Just as he was alighting a work car struck this car throwing Mr. Benson over a barge of wire. His left hip and knee were injured. The company's physician was called and rendered aid. Mr. Benson came to Gamber Friday morning but is not getting along as well as is expected.

A tax on automobiles in place of the tax on gasoline, contained in the House war tax bill, was recommended yesterday by the subcommittee of the Senate Finance Committee in charge of that section, and decided to strike out entirely the tax on gasoline and to substitute a tax of 25 cents per horsepower on all passenger automobiles, paid by the individual owners, and a tax of $1 per horse power paid by the manufacturers on all sales of such machines. It is estimated by the sub-committee that this tax will raise approximately $16,000,000 revenue.

The State Live Stock Sanitary Board Wednesday added a number of additional milk inspectors to its force, and announced that it intends to make a thorough milk investigation in every county of the State. The appointments made include the following: George E. Scott, Berlin; Galtner Hall, Pocomoke City; Harry Stevens, Easton; Robert G. Cooper, St. Michaels; David G. Harry, Pylesville; William L. Plumer, Hurlock; Thomas A. Keenan, Cambridge; Dr. W. B. Lowery, Elkton; Dr. John G. Hooper, Chesapeake City; William A. Hill, Mechanicsville; Edward B. Daniels, Berwyn; Jesse Leatherwood, Mount Airy, and Frank B. Galion, Alpha.

A saw and feed mill operated on the property of Marshall W. Harden by Frederick Fowble, a half mile from Reisterstown, was destroyed by fire Wednesday afternoon, which broke out in the engine room while the men were at dinner. The blaze was discovered by Mr. Fowble, who notified the Reisterstown Fire Department, and the firemen succeeded in saving about $500 worth of the contents and keeping the flames from spreading to other buildings. A lot of valuable machinery and material were destroyed. The loss is estimated at $1,500, partly covered by insurance. Mr. Fowble had his hands burned in taking material from the building, and William Uhler, one of the firemen, was badly burned about the right hand and by chemicals.

Herbert Hooper, president of the company; Attorney G. Ridgely Sappington and George W. Stanfield, a woolen manufacturer of Philadelphia, were Tuesday appointed temporary receivers some weeks ago. The receivers were authorized to continue the business indefinitely under the supervision of the court. The company was incorporated April 9, 1894, with an authorized capital stock of $200,000, for the manufacture of woollens. In its answer to the bill of complaint, the company denied that it was insolvent. On June 30 its assets were $282,464 and liabilities $82,464.

Preaching at 3 p. m. All members are expected to be present. William F. Bauscher, pastor.

Mr. George Rupp's carpenter shop, at Lineboro, Md., with all its contents was destroyed by fire Wednesday afternoon. He was a successful furniture maker. The loss of the machinery and seasoned lumber will be quite heavy. Origin of fire unknown. Patent insurance in Dug Hill Company. Loss about $2,000.

Fire destroyed the home of John Wilcox, near Woodstock, Saturday, together with all its contents, causing a loss of about $2,500, partly covered by insurance. Mr. Wilcox and his family were away at the time and the flames were discovered by neighbors, but owing to the scarcity of water in that locality their efforts to save the burning structure were unsuccessful.

A. D. Morganthall, near Rouzerville, Pa., at the foot of South Mountain, finished this week picking his peach crop, which amounted to 25,000 baskets. His apple crop will amount to 30,000 barrels. Picking, which began last week, will continue until the latter part of October. Many peach growers lost money this year, although the crop was a bumper one, because of the low prices.

In a fast and interesting game the Western Maryland College Reserves won from the Reisterstown Athletic Club on college field Saturday, 7 to 6. With the exception of a few fumbles in the first quarter, the game was well played and evenly contested. After Pfeffer made the first touchdown for Western Maryland in the first quarter the Reisterstown team steadied down. Those who starred for Western Maryland were Pfeffer, Darner and Blakeley. Sisk, Uhler and Ruff featured for Reisterstown.
