TO UNVEIL MONUMENT.

AT SAM'S CREEK CHURCH, THURSDAY—THE LOT GRANTED BY MR. DAVID E. STEM—MR. GEORGE W. ALBAUGH BOUGHT PROPERTY AND PRESENTED TO THE M. E. CHURCH.

In honor of the sesqui-centennial of American Methodism, a pilgrimage will be held Thursday, October 15th. The main point of interest will be Sam's Creek, where Robert Strawbridge, the first Methodist preacher in America, ministered in the last century. "The Log Meeting House," the first Methodist church built in America was erected by Mr. Strawbridge in 1764. "The Evans House," where Strawbridge preached and gathered the first fruits of American Methodism, stands as the oldest building in America, where Methodist services were held. Close by are the graves of John Evans and his wife, Eleanor, the first converts of the movement which now reaches round the world.

The pilgrimage will arrive at Westminster from Baltimore at 9 a. m. The first stop after leaving Westminster will be stone chapel, near Warfield, where George N. Nunsen, of Baltimore, will preside. Addresses will be delivered by Rev. W. S. Bovard, D. D., secretary of Methodist Brotherhood, and Hon. Thomas G. Hayes, of Baltimore. From Stone Chapel the caravan will proceed to the Evans House, where Rev. John S. Bowers, D. D., will preside. The address will be delivered by His Excellency Governor Phillips Lee Goldsborough. From the Evans House the company will go to "Bethel," where lunch will be sold. Mr. Daniel Baker will preside and addresses will be delivered by Bishop Berry and Rev. Farrest Prettyman, Chaplain of the U. S. Senate. From Bethel, the company will proceed to the site of the Log Meeting House, where the monument will be unveiled. Bishop Cranston will preside and Ex-Gov. Warfield will speak. The people from Baltimore will take the 6:18 train from New Windsor.

It is a bit of pleasure for our readers to know when and in what manner the John Evans House came into the possession of the American Methodist Historical Society. The first pilgrimage to that famous Strawbridge region was made in October, 1894, at the Conference of 1896, Rev. Thomas S. Long was appointed preacher-in-charge of New Windsor Circuit. This charge contained the major portion of the historic territory. The pilgrimage had awakened a considerable degree of interest. At the time of William Yohn, the owner, with his family, was living in the Evans House. When Mr. Long received his appointment, Mr. Yohn had built a handsome home several hundred feet distant from the old house, and was occupying his modern dwelling. Desiring to sell the other property, the price asked found no one willing to pay. A determination seized our zealous pastor of New Windsor to become the proud purchaser of the ancient place where Strawbridge, Asbury and others had preached.

Mr. George W. Albaugh, a progressive citizen of Westminster, is the great-grandson of John Evans. Mr. Long at once called upon him, and this kind-hearted descendant said that he was willing to pay a reasonable amount in order to present it to the Methodist Episcopal Church. An early and businesslike visit was made to Mr. Yohn. Diplomacy played its hand well. Four successive visits were made, each requiring a drive of fifteen miles. Finally, through the help of Mrs. Yohn, the house, including ten feet of ground on the sides, was secured for the sum of one hundred dollars. The next morning the happy preacher early at Westminster. He at once called upon Mr. Albaugh, who was at breakfast, and showed him the following statement, signed by Mr. and Mrs. Yohn:

I hereby agree to take One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) for the John Evans House, situated on my farm near Dennings, Md.

I sell the house as it stands, with ten feet on each side. I also give the right of access to the said John Evans House at any time.

(Signed) WILLIAM YOHN, M. L. YOHN.

August 26th, 1896.

Witness: Rev. Thos. S. Long.

Mr. Albaugh was so greatly pleased that at once he secured his check book and drew a check for the entire purchase price. The story passes on with increasing interest. Pastor Long immediately, at the suggestion of the donor, wrote Dr. John F. Goucher to make a trip to the Evans House and assist in deciding how best to repair and keep in sound preservation this property now so valuable to Methodism. Thursday morning, September 3, Dr. Goucher, his eldest daughter and the late Rev. Charles D. Smith came to New Windsor, and were taken to the house. After plans were agreed upon a carriage drive followed to the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Stem, near Bethel Church, where a sumptuous dinner was in waiting. By way of parenthesis, it may be written down right here that many Methodist preachers have fond recollections of the Stem dinners. An afternoon drive took the party to the farm of Mr. Peter Cover, now the property of Mr. David Stem. The privilege of placing markers and a fine monument to designate the spot where the Strawbridge Log Meeting House, the first in America, stood, was asked. Since Mr. and Mrs. David E. Stem have granted a lot in which this monument is erected and deed it to the Methodist Historical Society of Baltimore.

Mr. Albaugh had plans of restoration of the Evans House placed before him, and he at once generously agreed. Later on, according to arranged terms, the property was deed-

DIES FROM WOUND.

CHARLES HANN, ACCIDENTALLY SHOT HIS FATHER, ELMER HANN, WITH A GUN.

While playing with some guns Charles Hann, aged 11 years, accidentally shot his father, Elmer Hann, aged 41, of near Union Bridge, Sunday morning while they were visiting at the home of Mr. Hann's father-in-law, George Powell, near Thurmont. The bullet entered the father's head just above the eye and penetrated the brain. He died two hours after being shot, while arrangements were being made to have him removed to the Frederick City Hospital.

The shooting occurred in the kitchen of the Powell home. The boy had been cautioned to stay away from the guns, but he picked up several while no attention was being paid to him, and soon after he laid his hands on a .32-caliber cat rifle it exploded. The father was sitting in the dining room, the bullet going through the open doorway and striking him.

The members of the family hearing the report, and seeing Hann throw his hands to his head, did not realize just what had happened. Hann tumbled and fell from his chair at the breakfast table. Death came before he could be moved. Young Hann apparently does not realize what he has done.
