

The Democratic Advocate

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY The Democratic Advocate Company OF WESTMINSTER, MD.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, OCT. 23, 1914

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

A marriage license was issued in Baltimore Saturday to Joseph Hook and Elsie E. Gibson, both of near this city.

Three Sunday school classes of the Methodist Episcopal Church, this city, were taken on a sight-seeing trip to Gettysburg on Tuesday.

The cottage known as the West Virginia College avenue, has been occupied by Contractor Enoch A. Cortwright Metal Roofing was used for the roofing.

A temperance rally will be held at Wakefield, Sunday, October 25, at 2 p. m. The public is cordially invited to attend. L. F. Murray, pastor.

Auctioneers outside of the state who wish to cry public sales in either Howard or Carroll counties are required to procure an auctioneer's license in these counties.

Cerebro spinal meningitis has proven fatal to three horses on the farm of Mrs. Gobert near Skyesville, Carroll county. The State Live Stock Sanitary Board will try to eradicate the disease.

The Main-Court Hotel has been taken over by Mr. Harry Gosnell, the former proprietor. Mr. Gosnell will conduct it under its usual high standard, and invites his friends to call upon him.

Fred Smith, son of Joseph W. Smith, Bond street, while playing a game of football at Charlotte Hall, where he is attending school, was hurt last week. He was brought home Tuesday and is improving rapidly.

John H. Shirk and 14 others were before the County Commissioners on Monday and petitioned for a road in Taneytown district at the point at Koons land and run to a point near Otterdale school house, on the Union Bridge road.

After December 1 the price of hair cutting in barber shops in East Baltimore will go up. At a meeting of the East Baltimore Barbers' Association Monday night, it was decided to raise the price from 15 cents to 25 cents for adults, and from 10 cents to 15 cents for children.

Miller Bros. Company, the well known gents furnishing store, who have been in business since 1887 at the same stand, went into the hands of receivers on Saturday last. State's Attorney Edward O. Weant has been appointed the receiver, and will take over the business and dispose of the stock of goods.

C. Ray Etzler, of New Market, underwent a painful operation on Monday when he had his right eye removed. Mr. Etzler has been troubled with his eye since last March and has had it treated in a hospital four times. He was given treatment with an electric wire at one time and during two of the treatments radium was used.

Arrangements are being completed for the ninety-fifth annual convention of the Maryland Synod of the Lutheran church to be held in Woodsboro, October 26 to 29. The program has not yet been completed, but there will be many important matters brought up. There are 100 ministers in the Synod and each is entitled to a delegate to the convention.

Dairymen of Frederick county have threatened a milk war on the District of Columbia, because the Health Department has issued orders that less all herds of cattle are given tuberculin tests they must not ship into the District. Shippers contend that they will not comply with the request unless they are reimbursed for each cow condemned.

The Benevolence and Aid Society of St. Benjamin's Reformed church will hold a sock social at the home of Mrs. Elias Bish, 317 Wednesday evening, October 28th, at 7:30 o'clock. In case of rain the social will be held the following evening. Light refreshments served free and oysters served at reduced prices. Proceeds will go for a new carpet in the church.

There are probably nearly 12,000 persons killed and over 200,000 persons injured every year on our railroads. The majority of these accidents are avoidable either through proper safety devices supplied by the operating company or through care in operation on the part of employees. The price paid for carelessness as shown by the official statement of fact is too enormously heavy to be tolerated.

The Smallwood Grange will hold its fair and oyster supper Saturday, October 31, afternoon and night, beginning at 12 o'clock sharp. The public is invited to exhibit their farm products consisting of corn, potatoes, poultry, canned goods, fancy work, etc. Judges will be present to award premiums on the products. Prominent speakers will also be present, their subjects being, "Best Methods of Farming," "Local Option," etc.

Mr. Edward J. Miller, residing near this city, brought to this office on Saturday a chestnut bur with three large Japanese chestnuts in it. The chestnuts were raised from a Japanese chestnut graft on one of our chestnut trees that never bore chestnuts before. The grafting was done on March 14, and on October 14, 1914, he picked 28 large chestnuts. Twenty-eight of the chestnuts made a pint. The grafts bore fruit in just seven months from the time of the grafting, something remarkable. The burrs yield from 2 to 6 chestnuts.

The petition of Jesse L. Hann to compel the Frederick County Commissioners to restore him as fireman of the hall was dismissed by the court. The hearing took place before Chief Judge Urner and Associate Judges Worthington and Peter. The court ruled that the position was one in which the Commissioners had absolute control and discretion. Hann was appointed fireman, but later discharged. He kept on the job notwithstanding that he was appointed for a specified time. He was refused his pay and took out a mandamus to compel the Commissioners to restore him to the place. The Commissioners alleged that he was dismissed for cause.

Smallwood Grange will hold its annual fair and oyster supper October 31st.

The stork left a boy at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brown, East Main street.

S. W. Bond & Son have purchased the stock and fixtures of the E. P. Brundidge Shop, West Main street, dealer in gents' furnishings.

A marriage license was issued in Baltimore Wednesday to James H. Cro's, of Washington, D. C., and Ethel R. Franklin, of Woodbine.

It is said that the State Roads Commission contemplates buying the Baltimore and Reisterstown turnpike from Reisterstown to Baltimore.

A mammoth red-beet was exhibited at this office yesterday which weighed five pounds. The beet was raised by Mrs. Joshua B. Shriver, of Fenby.

Mr. Irvin Little, an employe at the Western Maryland Railway Depot, has been made agent at New Oxford, Pa. Mr. Little left today to enter upon his new duties.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Salem Methodist Episcopal church will hold an oyster supper in the new hall on Saturday evening, November 7, beginning at 5 o'clock. Taylorsville Band will furnish music.

Paul Hale was arrested in Hampstead, by Deputy Sheriff Bortner on a warrant charging him with desertion and non-support, issued by Alderman Walter B. Owen, of York, and gave bail for his appearance at court.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Pipe Creek Church will hold a temperance rally, Sunday, November 1, at 10:30 a. m. An excellent program will be rendered with special music. The public is cordially invited.

A copyright or trade mark, on the name "ITZGRATE" has been granted by the patent office at Washington, D. C., to Mr. Joseph B. Boyle, of this city, for his celebrated foot powder or foot case, "ITZGRATE," which he has been manufacturing for some time, has met with success by the many who have used it.

When the resignation of Professor H. J. Patterson as president of the Maryland Agricultural College, is accepted Dr. Patterson will return to his former charge, the state experimental station, according to a member of the agricultural school. It is generally understood that the resignation will ultimately be accepted.

John W. Armacost, a resident of Greenmont, where he is living with his eldest daughter, Mrs. J. H. Stansbury, celebrated his ninetieth birthday on Sunday, Oct. 18, at the home of his youngest daughter, Mrs. Thomas Wheeler, at Upperco. Mr. Armacost is in excellent health and has very few grey hairs. He moved several miles to church on Sunday morning and from church to his daughter's for dinner and back to Greenmont in the evening.

President Scott of the Tidewater Co., was at Union Bridge recently and invited the mayor and council to go out to the plant to see what the company was doing toward eliminating the dust. Mayor Gladhill, Councilmen Little, Stonesifer and Olmstead, and several citizens accepted the invitation and were present. The company officials explained what they were doing and what they hoped for the future toward minimizing the output of dust.

The Mount Airy Poultry Association and the Mount Airy Agricultural Association have consolidated and will be known as the Mount Airy Poultry and Agricultural Association. The following officers were elected: President, Ernest L. Shipley; vice-president, Jesse Ryan; Prof. J. K. Shipley and Asa H. Watkins; secretary and treasurer, Harry R. Lepp, and assistant, J. H. Klees. The association will hold its third annual exhibit November 25, 26 and 27.

Lebanon Valley scored an easy victory, 21 to 2, over Western Maryland, Saturday afternoon, on Lebanon field, Lebanon, Pa. While Lebanon Valley's attack crumbled the visitor's line, the Blue and White fumbles were costly and spoiled whatever advantage their line plunges and end runs might have gained for them. Western Maryland's lone score was a field goal by Barrett, who landed the ball between the 35 and the 37-yard line in the final quarter.

Advertising euchre or other card parties, at which prizes are given away, in newspapers which pass through the mails, will not be hereafter allowed, according to an order issued from the Postoffice Department. The order applies to all games in which prizes are given or fees charged. The same ruling applies to all prize winning by chance, such as drawings or raffles; newspapers are not allowed to publish the names, or numbers, of winners, nor to in any way give publicity to lotteries.

Officers Stem and Helms were given a tip that Maurice Lowery, who shot and killed George Kain, was seen working on a steamer which plys between Philadelphia and Baltimore. On Tuesday the two officers accompanied by Leander Brown, who was on the boat with Lowery, went to Pratt street wharf, Baltimore, to identify Lowery. They got aboard the boat and asked the captain to produce the colored man, which he did, but it was not Lowery as usual. Mr. Brown said that Lowery was on the boat when he came from Philadelphia.

While J. M. Strevig and wife, of Littlestown, Pa., were returning from Lancaster in their automobile last week Mr. Strevig, who was tired out, momentarily fell asleep and the auto ran into the side walls of the culvert on the York Road near the Miller farm. The front axle was badly bent, a wheel broken and the fender on the left side bent. The occupants of the car escaped with a severe shaking-up. There are 953 cities in which union carpenters work eight hours a day, the report shows. There are 290 cities which have the nine-hour day, and 74 ten-hour cities. There are 424 cities which observe the Saturday half holiday and 410 cities in which the unions have agreements with their employers.

The Church of the Brethren of the United States has adopted the report of the committee appointed to select a meeting place in the East for the National Conference of the Church of the Brethren. The committee recommended Hershey, Pa., as against Hagerstown and several other places. Hershey, the chocolate manufacturer, having offered to erect a building there. The committee to select a site included the Rev. P. S. Miller, chairman, of Roanoke, Va.; the Rev. A. B. Barnhart, of Hagerstown; the Rev. H. B. Brumbaugh, of Hagerstown, Pa.; the Rev. Charles D. Bousack, of New Windsor, Md., and the Rev. P. S. Thomas, secretary, of Harrisonburg, Va. The church meeting will be held at Hershey every three years, at Miami, Ind., every three years, and at a point on the Pacific Slope, to be selected, every three years.

Medford Grange will hold an oyster supper, November 7, in the hall, at Medford.

Quite a number of people from our county attended the Frederick Fair this week.

Mr. Adam Giggard, of Manchester, was appointed judge of election for the second precinct of Manchester district to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Simon Giggard.

Through the effort of Postmaster Coonan this city will have another morning collection. The collection will be from 7 to 9 o'clock which will be in time for the 9:19 train for Baltimore.

An address will be delivered in Finksburg Methodist Protestant church on Sunday, October 25, at 10:30 a. m., by Dr. V. M. Reichard, of Washington county. His subject will be "Conservation."

"The Gamblers" drew a record breaking crowd Thursday night at the Star. Friday will begin "The Beloved Adventurer," a 15 reel production, featuring Arthur Johnson, also one of the noted Alice Joyce serials, entitled "The Mystery of the Sleeping Death."

Between 200 and 300 citizens of Myers' district crowded into the hall at Union Mills on Monday evening to hear Mr. Charles H. Sapp, of Hampstead, and Jacob Long, Tannery, discuss why this county should not go dry. The audience was kept in a good humor throughout.

Lula M. Eyer was granted an absolute divorce from William Eyer at Gettysburg, Pa. They were married in Emmitsburg, Md., in 1902. Eyer is now serving a life sentence in the penitentiary for the murder of Henry Miller, of Mt. Joy township, in Gettysburg, on May 30, 1907.

J. L. Baust reports the recent sales of Quincy Engines and DeLaval Cream Separators: Jonas Burner, Charles Strevig, Edward Devilbiss, Nathaniel Zepp, Westminster; J. H. Horton, Craighard's, Orville Wright, Middleburg; engines: Charles Black and E. H. Barnes, of Westminster; DeLaval Cream Separators.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Western Maryland Railway Company, held in the local offices of the company Wednesday, a large majority of the stock was represented either in person or by proxy. The old board of directors was re-elected. The directors will meet next week to organize and elect officers.

On October 31 the Western Maryland Railway will run an excursion to Pittsburgh, Pa. The train will leave this city at 5:19 p. m., and will run to Hagerstown where you change to the Pittsburgh express, which will carry you through York and 14 hours in Pittsburgh. The train returns some where around 7 o'clock Sunday evening. The fare will be $4.00.

In a suit brought by Basehor & Mehling, of Littlestown, against Charles Bucher, justice of the peace in Mt. Joy township, before Justice Howard Blocher, at Littlestown, judgment was rendered against Mr. Bucher, who took out a writ of certiorari, at Gettysburg, this week. Bucher appeared in his own behalf, declaring that he was unable to retain counsel. The court after hearing his plea to have the decision reversed, affirmed the judgment as rendered by Justice Blocher.

The celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Winebrenner, was held at Union Mills, Monday evening. A photograph was taken of the bride and groom and Mrs. Wirt Shriver, who was their bridesmaid fifty years ago, in the same room in which the wedding ceremony took place. A wedding took place, and Mr. and Mrs. Winebrenner received the heartiest congratulations of members of their family and friends who were present upon the happy turning of the half century milestone in their wedded life.

Hurled through the windshield of an automobile Tuesday night, Miss Margaret Ware, of near Skyesville, was painfully injured. Three other persons who were in the machine were hurt, all of them being thrown out and landing in the road. The accident occurred about 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, when the party was returning to their homes, in Carroll county, after a trip to Baltimore. In the car at the time were Fred and all, who was running the machine; Miss Ware, Mrs. Philip Lee and Milton Harvey. The automobile was badly damaged, the entire front part of the machine being broken.

Notices were sent out Wednesday to merchants all over the State, by the State Tax Commission, notifying them to take out new licenses immediately, such licenses to be based on the actual values of their stocks as assessed for taxation, and not upon an assumed valuation. At the same time notices were sent out to the County Commissioners of the counties notifying them that the large stocks of a number of merchants throughout the counties were not assessed properly.

The temperance forces of Westminster and the surrounding country are planning a large parade for Saturday afternoon, October 31st. The parade will consist of several bands of music, lady and gentlemen horse back riders, floats, carriages and straw wagons filled with women and children. It is hoped to have 1500 men, women, girls and boys in line carrying banners, flags and pennants and singing temperance songs. Come and join in this great demonstration for home and the safety of our boys and girls. The parade will form at Belle Grove Square and will start at near 2 o'clock as is possible. Individuals as well as organizations are invited to join in and make this one of the greatest demonstrations Westminster has ever seen. Twenty-two young ladies with appropriate banners will represent the dry states of the nation.

The Just Government League of Carroll County was represented at the semi-annual convention of the State League, at Annapolis, on Monday, October 19th, by Mrs. S. K. Herr, vice president of the league, and Mrs. William H. Vandford. These ladies motored to Baltimore on Monday morning and joined the delegates from that city, reaching Annapolis at 10 a. m. The meetings were held at the "Lucky Bag Inn," where the delegates were most hospitably entertained by the Annapolis County League. Every county in the State was represented and a large increase of membership reported. The members of the Carroll County League, and their friends will please remember the box of Jellies, &c., which will be sent from Westminster next week as a donation to the Suffrage Box to be held in Baltimore in November, and send their donations not later than Monday next, October 26th, to Mrs. O. D. Gilbert, where the box will be packed.

There will be a temperance mass meeting on the Square, in Manchester, Saturday evening, October 24th, at 7:30 p. m. Rev. S. C. Hoover, pastor of St. Mary's Reformed Church, Silver Spring, Md., will deliver the address. The subject of the meeting is "The Temperance Question." The question of the saloon will be honestly presented. All invited.

WANTED.

Agents wanted by a Ladies and Childrens Cloak & Suit Manufacturer to sell direct to consumer. Apply American Mds. Co., West New York, N. J.

WANTED—A young man or man for general store clerk; give reference, experience not really necessary. Oct 23-2t No. 10, Advocate Office.

LOST.

A Black Lace Scarf. Finder will please leave same at Rose's Drug Store or at the Star, and receive reward. It

There is lots of concrete work being done in this city.

Mr. H. H. Harbaugh is building an addition to his garage on East Main street.

Mr. J. D. Baile, Medford, has been appointed postmaster of that place by the postoffice department.

Messrs. John E. Stonesifer and Joseph Stewart, this city, have taken the agency for the Grant car.

The board of County Commissioners inspected the bridge at North Branch today, which is being built by Thomas, Poole & Hunter.

An attempt was made on Wednesday night to stop the Westminster and Reisterstown Bus at the spring on the Finksburg Hill, by two tramps.

Tomorrow the civil service examination for rural carriers will be held in this city and Mt. Airy. Quite a number will take the examination.

Mr. Edward H. Winter, of St. Louis, Mo., formerly of this county, but has been a resident of the above place for the past 10 years, writes: "The West is now at this time dull. Lots of people out of employment."

Our citizens were much surprised this week to hear of the wedding of Mrs. Mary S. Schaeffer, of Hanover, Pa., formerly of this city, who married Mr. George Myers, of Pen-Mar, on Wednesday in Baltimore.

A social will be held in the Mexico school house on Friday evening, October 30, to which all are invited. Admission will be charged. If the weather is unfavorable it will be held the first fair evening the following week.

The Republicans held a mass meeting at the Opera House Tuesday evening. Col. Carrington was the attraction. The crowd just about half filled the opera. The meeting was everything but a success. Col. Carrington led the Progressive party in this State in 1912.

A colored man was arrested Tuesday by Officer Stem and turned over to the Baltimore county officers. The colored man, it is alleged, robbed the house of Geo. Hann, Glyndon, recently. The negro was taken to Glyndon and given a hearing last evening.

Mr. William Belt, of Wakefield, while taking an ear of corn from a fodder cutter, which had choked the machine, the knives caught his glove and pulled his right hand in cutting and mangled it in such a condition that he was taken to a hospital in Baltimore on the evening train where his hand was amputated. The accident happened about 4 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Engineer William A. Gutshall, of the Pittsburgh Express, was severely injured Wednesday night at Hoke Sliding, on the Western Maryland Railway. While in his engine cab he was struck on the head by a piece of wood projecting from the side of a gondola car. His face was cut and bruised. Notwithstanding his injuries, he took his train to Hagerstown and was then given surgical aid.

The following new telephones were installed by the C. & P. Telephone Co.: R. Wesley Barnes, Uniontown road; Westminster 835-2; J. O. Wright, Mt. Zion, Union Bridge 35-21; W. A. Judy, Westminster 95k; H. C. Morningstar, near Westminster, Westminster 132r; J. Harris Vandever, Hampstead 123r; W. Morris Haines, near Linwood, Union Bridge 14-12; Antonio Goreri, Westminster 59r; E. Joseph Englar, New Windsor Ir.

Miss Lina Foote Reese, who has been in Portland, Me., all summer, is now at her home, the Anchorage, No. 1, and occupy the apartment she has taken at West Mount Royal avenue. Miss Reese, who is the organizer of several of the most popular dances, has just issued invitations for the cotillion of fifty, a series of eight dances to be given at the Belvedere, beginning November 27.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart McAllister, of Washington, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Guy Segatoose on Saturday.

Mr. Augustus Romsper, of Oak Orchard, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Romsper.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver attended the funeral of their brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas R. Smith, of Lincoln, Va., on Tuesday.

Mrs. William Rodkey spent several days last week at Mr. Levi Rowe's, Bark Hill.

Mr. Samuel D. Heltbride has improved his property by putting 96 feet of concrete pavement in front of it.

Miss Lucille Weaver returned on Wednesday from a visit to Baltimore and Westminster.

The funeral services of Mrs. Catherine Stevenson, widow of the late Charles Stevenson, were held in the Methodist Protestant Church on Sunday by her pastor, Rev. T. H. Wright. Interment in the Westminster cemetery.

The home of the late James Cover and John Clingan were offered at public sale the past week, but were not sold.

Mrs. G. W. Baughman attended in Baltimore on Monday evening a farewell service in honor of six Missionaries who were about to start for India. They are sent out by the General Synod of the Lutheran Church.

Miss Urith A. Routson celebrated her sixth birthday on Friday evening. The guests were her relatives and a happy little girl was the hostess. We hope that this was only one of many happy birthdays for little Miss Urith.

Miss Fannie Wright, of Westminster, is visiting Mrs. Lanye Shaw, at Black Oak Spring.

NUSBAUM & JORDAN WESTMINSTER'S BEST STORE

Underwear

Few stores, if any, outside the large cities carry as complete and large stocks of underwear as we offer for sale this season. The fast changing style of women's outer-dressing has brought with it an active demand for new style underwear. We have these new garments in a great variety of kinds and qualities.

Put "UNDERWEAR" on your shopping list and ask to be shown.

Women's Underwear 50c.

In both bleach and cream, several weights, from the best makers. Extra and regular sizes, all 50c.

Women's Union Suits.

The use of these has greatly increased. We have a complete line—made from selected fine cottons, with or without fleecing, low neck, no sleeve; low neck, elbow sleeve; high neck, long sleeve; high neck, short sleeve; open or closed, knee length and ankle length pants. Prices are 25c, 50c, $1.00, $1.50.

Children's Underwear 12 1/2c to 50c

Vest, pants and union suits for children of every age and size, in both cream and bleached, all cut full and regular to fit, soft, warm fleecing, every one a good value at the price.

Women's "Stout" Suits $14

These are for the women of large figure, that cannot be fitted in the regular size suits. The materials are fine serge of all wool quality, in black and navy. Styles are new and becoming, linings are of good wearing satin. Other stout suits at $25.00.

Latest Fall Coats $8, $10, $12.50, $15, $18.

A variety that will make it a pleasure to choose your new coat. Models in Astrachan, Chinchilla, Zibeline, Manish Fabrics and broad cloth. Among the pretty styles are the new cape coats, lengths are from knee lengths to 51 inches.

Bargain in Canton Flannel 12 1/2c

Extra heavy unbleached canton flannel, with good warm fleecing, 32 inches wide (note the width). The regular price is 15c. This lot special at 12 1/2c until all is sold.

Women's Vests and Pants 25c

An unusually fine finished garment, from the mills of the makers of the well known "Merode" brand, perfect bleach, fine elastic ribs, a medium weight, with soft, warm fleecing, in all the regular sizes. Extra sizes of same, 29c.

Boys' Underwear 25c.

The same good quality we have been selling at this store for several seasons. Shirts and drawers, with heavy white fleecing, sizes 24 to 34 inches. An elegant line of boys ribbed union suits, at 50c.

Men's Underwear 50c.

The well known "High Rock" brand, the very best fleeced garment made to sell at this price. All sizes of shirts and drawers.

Misses' and Children's Coats $1.98 to $10

For the girl of 6 years to the miss of 15 and 17 years, pleasing new models made of fancy plaid, stripe and heavy cloakings.

Bleach Domet Flannel 8c

Several pieces of extra good weight flannels, in regular widths, much used for night gowns.

Outing Cloth 8c yard

About 1500 yards, extra good outing cloth in lengths of 10 to 20 yards, all perfect, neat stripes in both dark and light colors, full widths, good, for sleeping garments for young and old. This same quality sells for 10 cents cut from full pieces.

Bed Blankets $1.98 Special

These blankets are extra large size and extra good weight; the long warm nap can scarcely be told from pure wool, in gray only. For a really good blanket at a fair price. Buy these.

The New REDINGOTE DRESS

Easy to make at Home when Developed by the Use of Pictorial Review Patterns

S. W. Bond Son Shop 28 W. Main St., WESTMINSTER, MD. Having purchased the entire stocks of E. P. BRUNDIDGE, wish to announce we will carry the same line of GENTS' AND LADIES' FURNISHINGS as our predecessor has with a few more specials. Asking the public for their patronage, I am yours to serve, S. W. BOND SON, WESTMINSTER. WATCH FOR OUR AD NEXT WEEK.

ALL'S WELL A LUMBER BILL THAT PLEASURES THAT ENDS WELL. You'll always find your business relations with us ending as well as they were begun. We accord to you every accommodation always. Our meats are a challenge and a defiance to the keenest competition. You come but once to come again. It is an economic necessity in the long run to patronize us.

M. E. CAMPBELL, No. 71 East Main Street, Westminster, Md. TWO WEEKS TO ELECTION TIME, THEN WINTER COMES COASTING ALONG. A few tons of Coal in the bin, and a little fire-place wood piled up in the cellar will give you a comfortable feeling every time you think of it. We would order them today of Smith & Reifsnyder.

C. L. Cline & Son The verdict of a jury in a criminal case in Arkansas has been set aside because the jury consumed nine quarts of whisky in reaching a conclusion.