

AUCTION SALE OF LOTS!

THURSDAY, 29 OCTOBER AT 1:30 P. M. RAIN OR SHINE

WESTMINSTER, MD.

60 residence lots will be sold at Auction to the highest bidder, let the owner win or lose. These beautiful lots are located at Friendship Heights, addition to Westminster, Md., two blocks from business section, known as the Emanuel Shaffer property, and fronting on East Main Street, overlooking the city. Elevation high and dry. Streets are now being highly improved through the property. This sale will afford every investor and home seeker a rare opportunity to buy at his own price. One of the saddest regrets of old age is being without a home. Attend this sale and hear our auctioneer sell these lots at the rate of one a minute. Music by a tango brass band. DON'T FORGET THE DATE AND HOUR.

Terms Easy.

WRITE US---WE BUY AND SELL LAND IN ALL PARTS OF THE UNITED STATES.

NATIONAL LAND AND AUCTION COMPANY

J. M. WOLFORD, Manager.

908 DISTRICT NATIONAL BANK BLDG.,

Oct. 16 2 times

WASHINGTON, D. C.

RURAL NEWS.

CHRONICLES OF HAPPENINGS AMONGST OUR NEIGHBORS.

SHIPLEY.

Mr. Henry Wagner entertained Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. George Yingling.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Wagner is spending several days visiting her son, Mr. John T. Wagner and wife.

Miss Cora Walking and Mrs. Valline, of Baltimore, who had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Walking, have returned home.

We wish to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Truman Hook, who were married Saturday in Baltimore. They have returned home and will reside with the groom's parents at present.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hook entertained the Rev. and Mrs. William F. Bauscher and sons, Elmer and Allen, at dinner Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Hughes had as her guests Sunday evening, Mrs. Margaret Caples and Miss Susanna Caples.

Mr. John Walking finished papering Mr. Thomas Cushman's house, near Warfieldsburg, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Caples, of Bloom, and son, Ralph, called on G. W. Caples Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Logue had as their guests Monday, Mrs. Sarah Davis and lady friend, of Baltimore; they also spent Monday night and Tuesday morning with Misses Elizabeth and Amanda Williams.

Mrs. Harry Hughes, who was on the sick list, has improved, and is able to be up again.

Mrs. Martha Bellson, who had been ill at the home of Mrs. and Mr. Columbus Shipley, is improving at this writing.

The family of Mr. Hanson Barnes have our sympathy in the sad death of Mr. Barnes, whose death was reported here Sunday. He has many relatives and friends here and many of them attended his funeral Tuesday, on Sunday, October 11, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Shipley entertained Mr. and Mrs. George A. Shipley and family, of Fenby.

Mr. Aaron Shipley had the misfortune of getting a buggy stuck on Saturday while returning from Stone Chapel oyster supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Ward, Mr. John Jordan and Mrs. Alice Jordan spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bollinger, near Reisterstown.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Shipley had as their guests Sunday, Mrs. Luther Zahn and son, Levi, Miss Ethel Zahn, Mrs. Robert Zahn and Miss Gladys Zahn.

Mr. Andrew Polster's callers Sunday were: Messrs. Harry Hughes, Orville Zepp, J. P. Wildbide and others.

Sunday, October 11, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bair had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bloom and son.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Fouts had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Polster, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bair, Miss Marie Polster, Lester Polster, Reuben Prizell, Melvin and Earl Gibson.

On Wednesday Miss Marie Polster called at Mrs. Albert Gibson's.

On Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. John Hook, in company with Miss Lillian Fouts, Misses Mary and Pauline and Sterling Hook autoed to Sykesville to visit Mr. and Mrs. Lester Waltz.

MILLERS.

Mrs. Henry Rinehart was taken ill Sunday night with lumbago and is confined to bed. Dr. Sherman is attending her.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Sullivan, of Hanover, Pa., are visiting their daughter, Mrs. Jacob Zepp, and family, here.

Rev. Ness, who was appointed by the conference to preach at Millers, preached his first sermon here on Sunday morning, which was much enjoyed.

Miss Edith Crumrine, of Melrose, visited Mrs. Jacob Zepp Sunday.

Charles Miller, of Baltimore, is spending this week visiting his parents, here.

Mordecai Boring and wife, of near

Arcadia, visited Luther Wentz and family last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Logisdon and daughters, of Baltimore, visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Miller Sunday.

Walter Miller, of Baltimore, is visiting his parents, Henry K. Miller and wife.

Last Sunday a very pleasant day was spent at the home of Mrs. Martha Hoffnagle when her children and grandchildren visited her, and gave her a surprise. A grand dinner was served with all the delicacies of the season. The table was beautifully decorated. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crumrine, of Melrose; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Smith, Misses Laura Hoffnagle, Irene Myers, of Baltimore; Mary Crumrine, of Melrose; Mr. and Mrs. Will Kelbaugh, Messrs. Howard Hoffnagle, Leroy Myers, Talbot Smith, of Baltimore. The following friends and relatives were also present: Misses Emma Burgemeister, Margaret Ruskell, Gladys Morrison, Ada Loman, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Frank and children and Daniel Frank.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Folk, of Lineboro, visited at the home of Leonard Berkeimer last Sunday.

Isiah Miller, of Baltimore, was unable to come this week to attend to his huckstering business, he being ill with erysipelas.

LOCUST HILL.

There were no preaching services at our church on Sunday on account of the Lutheran pastor, Rev. S. G. Heach, being ill with rheumatism.

A graphophone concert will be given at E. M. Raubenstine's store on Saturday evening by C. Victor Brenneman's talking machine.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Raubenstine and son, Edward, of Hanover, spent Sunday at the home of his brother, Emory Raubenstine.

The concrete bridge built over the Conewago Creek, on the Toad Road, is completed. The first big team to pass over the new structure was that of Steward Waltman, and the first light team was that of Henry Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Victor Brenneman spent Sunday, October 11, at the home of his parents, near Brodbeck's Store.

The squirrel hunting season opened on Thursday, October 15th.

Visitors at the home of Claude Kindig on Sunday were Mrs. Israel Crouse and children, Nevin, Esther and Marine, and Mrs. Elder Sheeley and son, Guy, of Littlestown.

Messrs. Harvey Leppo, George Mustelman, Edward Zumbum and Paul Null made an automobile trip to Baltimore on Sunday. They covered 135 miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Houck and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Raubenstine and son, Ralph and George, of Hanover, and Misses Cora Myers and Martha Utz were Sunday visitors at the home of Geo. M. Raubenstine.

Mr. and Mrs. David Leppo and Harry Raubenstine, of Hanover, spent Sunday at the home of their son, Frank Leppo.

On Sunday morning at St. Bartholomew's church Sunday school at 8:45 a. m. Preaching at 9:30 a. m. by Rev. J. H. Hartman.

Our farmers are nearly all done seeding and most everybody is husking corn.

TANEYTOWN.

B. O. Slonaker spent several days in Baltimore last week.

Miss Mary V. Arnold, daughter of Wm. Arnold, proprietor of the Central Hotel, and Peter S. Graham, son of John Graham, were married last Wednesday evening at the Lutheran parsonage by the bride's pastor, Rev. L. B. Haber.

Robert Fair, of Baltimore, spent the week's end with his parents, Daniel Fair and wife.

Prof. Wilbur Koonz moved on Monday into the Witherow house.

Mrs. Amos Basehoar, of Littlestown, moved on Tuesday into the Basehoar and Mehring house on the square.

Frank Crouse has been elected manager of the Farmer's Grain and Supply Co., and Wm. Hawk is to fill Mr. Crouse's former place. The change took effect on Monday.

Miss Mary Hesson, a student of Hood College, and Verl Snider, of Gettysburg College, spent Sunday with their home folks.

Mrs. C. F. Daley spent last week in

York and Gettysburg.

Quite a number of our folks are attending the fair at Frederick this week.

J. A. P. Garner and wife spent Sunday with their daughter, Mrs. Roy Keefe, of near Mt. Union, and were accompanied home by little Miss Isabelle Keefe.

Roland Stump, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with his friend, Harry Reindollar.

Mrs. Harry Keefe, of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. John Stouffer.

Daniels, the protégé of Miss Hattie Bollinger, is visiting Mrs. F. H. Seiss.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Holburner, Mrs. Welling Fisher, of Baltimore, and Mr. George Biddinger, of Woodsboro, are visiting John T. Fogle and wife and Charles Boyd and wife.

WATERSVILLE.

The fine October weather is very propitious for the farmers, enabling them to do their late seeding, husking corn, and gather the apple crop of which there seems to be an abundance.

Mr. J. M. Pharney is filling his silo. Frederick Fair has the benefit of the good weather and the attendance from Watersville and vicinity was large. Among those who attended were: Messrs. Robert and A. B. Sellman, Dr. S. R. Waters and many others.

Miss Emma Hood visited Frederick on Tuesday.

Mr. George Hood, of Ohio, is visiting Mr. Rufus Burdette and other relatives. Mr. Hood is a former resident of this county.

Miss Nollie Orr, who had been visiting her niece, the Misses Burgess, of Washington, returned on Sunday accompanied by Miss Burgess.

Mrs. James Poole has returned from a trip to Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Pa., and other points.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin is visiting her sister, Mrs. John M. Steiner.

Mrs. Albert Nice, of Mt. Airy, was at Watersville on Tuesday.

Mrs. George Main, who has been indisposed is much improved.

Miss Lydia Selby, who is attending College in Baltimore, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. William Selby, last Saturday.

Dr. Waters and daughter recently took a drive which was very enjoyable, at this season of the year. They went by way of Poplar Springs, Florence, passed near the historic Annapolis "Rock," crossed the Patuxent River to Montgomery county soil, on to Lugtownsville, and near there to the comfortable home of their relative, Mr. George T. Waters, where they remained several days, returning home by the same route.

SILVER RUN.

The young people's missionary band of the Lutheran church had an outing on last Saturday, October 17. Denton Bowersox came down with a four horse wagon and took the young folks, accompanied by the pastor, J. Luther Hoffman, and wife, up to Noah Newman's, near Deep Run, where they all enjoyed themselves hunting chestnuts. They had refreshments along and took dinner under a large tree.

Rally day was observed in the Lutheran church on Sunday afternoon, October 11, and was well attended, and in the evening the temperance meeting was very largely attended. Addresses were made by Prof. Tiffany, Theodore F. Brown, of Westminster; G. W. Yeiser, Rev. S. C. Hoover and others.

On last Sunday evening, October 18, Rev. Hersh, of Westminster gave a splendid lecture on temperance to a large crowd, showing that the people are very much interested in the cause of temperance.

The canning factories in this place are still running on full time. The tomato crop is the largest we have had yet.

Farmers are very busy seeding and husking corn. The grain is coming up nicely and looks fine.

Mr. Wayne Kroh and family, of Hanover, Pa., visited his brother, C. Irving Kroh, and family, on Sunday, October 18.

Miss Esther Dell and George Hahn, of Hanover, Pa., visited his brother, Jacob Hahn, near Frock's school house, on last Sunday, and in the evening stopped a few minutes with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R.

TRESPASS NOTICE.

All names appearing under this head will be 10 cents each.

Robert E. Lee Hutchins.
Benjamin Sherfy.
W. L. Jordan.

Lippy, in this place.

On Saturday afternoon, October 24, the sale of Mrs. Magdalene Myers will take place in Silver Run.

FINKSBURG.

Mr. and Mrs. William Horner, of Baltimore, spent the week with G. W. Horner.

Miss Mary Benson, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with Miss Cordelia Benson.

Mrs. George P. Beaman and son, Paterson, of Freedom, are spending some time with Mrs. Dora Zepp, at Sunset Cottage.

Miss Cordelia Miller has returned to her home after spending some time in Hagerstown.

Rev. Carroll Maddox was called to his home in Virginia, on account of the death of his brother, Charles, who has visited here.

Miss Maud Flater and brother, of Reisterstown, spent Sunday with Miss Agnes Frazier.

Mrs. S. L. Moores and daughter, Jennie, will spend the winter in Baltimore.

Mrs. W. R. Bentz spent several days in Baltimore last week with her mother, Mrs. Martha Gore, who is quite ill at this writing.

Miss Martha Hughes, of Glyndon, spent the week's end with her uncle, George Brandenburg.

Many of our people attended the funeral of Hanson Barnes, as he had many relatives and friends in this vicinity. The aged father and mother have our sympathy.

FRANKLINVILLE.

Mr. Oscar Baumgardner, wife and two children visited Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hooper and family Sunday.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Farver on Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wagner and daughter, Gladys, of Daysville; Mr. and Mrs. Pearce Lowman and family, Miss Alice Wagner and Mr. Greenbury Ecker, all of Unionville.

Mr. Oliver Price has gone to Frederick to visit relatives and to attend the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Grimes and children, Mary and Albert, and Miss Rena Scheller spent Sunday with Mr. Charles Wright and family.

Mrs. Effie Scheller and son, Frank, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Oliver Keefe, and family, near Denning's.

Mrs. Annie Scheller visited Mrs. Elsie Grimes on Tuesday.

Mrs. Estella and Margie Wright spent Friday last with their sister-in-law, Mrs. Della Wright.

BETHEL.

Mrs. Beulah Abie and daughter, Letta, of Baltimore, have returned home after visiting her mother, Mrs. Nimrod Greene.

Quite a good many from this place attended the Maryland and Virginia Eldership, held at Zigler's, Washington county, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leppo entertained at their home Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Alligre and children, Herbert and Ellen, Mr. and Mrs. George Mann and son, James, Messrs. Howard Blowfelt, John Basel, John Mann and George Arbaugh. All had a very pleasant time.

Mrs. Ellen Chew, who had diphtheria, is able to be-out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Noah Arbaugh, spent Sunday with their daughters at Patapsco.

The farmers are busy seeding and husking corn.

Mrs. Ann Arbaugh is visiting friends at Patapsco.

SNYDESBURG.

The rain that fell on Thursday night has been a benefit to the grain that had just begun to come up. The farmers have about all finished their fall seeding and are now husking corn.

Owing to the large number of Babylon & Lippy Co.

THE DEPENDABLE STORE.

WE ARE MAKING A FEW

SPECIAL PRICES

On Merchandise

That is an Every Day Necessity in the Home. These Prices Should Interest the Thrifty Housekeeper who Believes that Pennies Saved Makes Dollars Earned.

BLEACHED MUSLIN.

We place on sale about 2000 yards of regular 9 cent bleached muslin at the price of 7½c by the yard or 7c by the bolt.

BOYS' SCHOOL SUITS.

About fifty boys' school suits, regular price $4.00 to $5.00; Double Breasted, and straight pants, Special $1.98.

Another lot consists of about 100 boys' Suits, Norfolk Pattern, regular $2.00 and $3.00 Suits. Special 98c.

LADIES' WINTER UNDERWEAR.

We have on sale an assorted lot of Ladies' heavy weight underwear which regularly sold at 50 and 75c a garment. All are placed on sale at the price of 25c each.

OUTING.

Beautiful patterns in light and dark outtings. Just the kind for night gowns, petticoats, underwear, etc. Special price 7½c yard.

CANTON FLANNELS.

We have exceptional heavy weight Canton Flannels, in bleached and unbleached. Prices 7c yard to 12½c yard. Ask to see the quality.

CHEER UP!

Peaches - R - Ripe

ARE YOU GOING TO PRESERVE?
ARE YOU GOING TO PICKLE?
Listen To What
Frank S. Stewart & Co.
MAIN AND JOHN STS.
Have To Say About
Mason Jars (all sizes)
Sure Seal Jars
Lightning Jars
Mason Jar Tops
White Crown Jar Tops (Sanitary)
Jar Gums To Fit Any Jar
WON'T THIS JAR YOU?
- VORL -
The best flavoring for Cakes, Custards and Ice Cream - that money can buy. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.
FOR LUNCHEON
Can Salmon, Sardines and Potted Meats.
Frank S. Stewart & Co.

Our Job Printing Plant is complete.

WESTMINSTER MARKETS.

By N. I. Gorsuch Son Co. October 23, 1914.

Wheat	$1.07
Oats	81.07
Rye	81.07
Flour, Sea Foam, (patent)	5.75
Middling	31.00 per ton
Timothy Hay	$10 to $12 per ton
Mixed Hay	$10 to $12 per ton
Clver Hay	$10 per ton
Rye Straw	$7 to $8 per ton
Cob Corn	$2.50 per bu.
Sucrose Dairy Feed	$28.00
Cotton Seed Meal	$4.00
Linseed Meal	$5.00

Englar & Sponseller, October 23, 1914.

Wheat	$1.07
Rye	81.07
Cotton Seed Meal (choice)	1.75
Middling	1.50
Hammond Dairy Feed	1.50
Dried Beet Pulp	1.40
Hominy Chop	1.60
Brewer's Dried Grains	1.30
Screenings	1.25

SYKESVILLE MARKET, October 23, 1914.

Wheat (new)	$1.07
Rye (new)	81.07
Ear Corn (new)	$2.25
Timothy Hay	14 to 16
Mixed Hay	12 to 14
Clver Hay	$13 to $15
Wheat Straw	6.00
Rye Straw (tangled)	7.50
Rye Straw (straight)	8.00