American Road Congress.

Elaborate preparations are being made by the railroads to accommodate the good roads workers who will gather at Atlanta, Georgia, for the Fourth American Road Congress during the week of November 9. A special train will be operated by the Pennsylvania and the Southern Railway, leaving New York on Saturday, November 7, and arriving at Atlanta, on November 9. Special cars will be put on for the Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Richmond and Norfolk. Delegates from the west and middle west will have the advantage of a special train leaving Chicago on the evening of November 7, and passing through Indianapolis, Cincinnati and Chattanooga en route to Atlanta. Arrangements are now being made for special service from Texas and southwestern points. Exceptionally low rates have been granted, particularly in the territory south of the Potomac and east of the Mississippi, where the rate per mile will average 1/2 cents. Greatly reduced rates have also been granted in western territory, as well as on the eastern trunk lines, so that all delegates and visitors will find travel possible at an exceptionally low cost.

On account of the great improvement made within the past few years in the public highway south of Washington, considerable interest is manifested in touring facilities. Among the parties arranging to make the trip by automobile are members of the State Board of Public Roads of Rhode Island who expect to attend the Congress in a body. Not least among the important factors which have made for better road conditions between Washington and Atlanta is the co-operative object lesson in maintenance inaugurated by the American Highway Association and now in practical operation by the U. S. Office of Public Roads. Despite the general impression which exists to a certain extent in other sections of the country that the south is backward in the use of modern road building methods, Fulton county, Georgia, of which Atlanta is the county seat, is planning to show the delegates actual samples, completed or in course of construction of every known type of road adapted to modern traffic conditions.

An interesting comparison of results accomplished by the various states and their subdivisions will be afforded by the series of models, maps and materials which will comprise respective state exhibits. The New York Highway Department is planning an exhibit of such striking proportions and comprehensiveness as will rival even the remarkable series of models to be shown by the Federal Government. Temporary structures are now being prepared to house the overflow of exhibits, which are to be extended from the auditorium a distance of three entire city blocks.

Help the Red Cross.

The National Red Cross Association has issued an appeal for aid in carrying on its work of humanity among the warring Nations of Europe. Physicians, surgeons and nurses have voluntarily left their homes and country and crossed the Ocean, facing many dangers and privations to help the Red Cross of Europe to minister to the sick and wounded, and the suffering thousands, who, by no will of their own, have been forced into this cruel, useless war. The Maryland Branch of the Red Cross, always ready and willing to bear its share, is already at work, collecting money and hospital supplies, and they appeal to the generous people of this Heaven blessed State, which we so proudly and affectionately claim as "Maryland my Maryland," for aid and sympathy. Shall we, of this banner County of Carroll, fail to respond, willingly, promptly and generously? We never have done so, but whenever there has been occasion to give of our means; whenever there has been a call for aid in the hour of trouble and calamity, the response has been liberal, and we feel that the record will not be broken now, when the call is so urgent and the need so great. It is not sympathy alone that prompts this action on the part of the Red Cross Association, but as the President of the United States has called for a day of prayer, that the Angel of Peace may speedily spread his wings over the battle torn countries and that the Nations of the world will again enjoy the blessings of Peace and tranquility, we owe a debt of gratitude to Almighty God, that we are living in a land at peace with all the world; that we have been blessed with abundant crops, that we have been mercifully spared from calamities of any kind, and, that, as a Nation, we are united, and at the end of the year, can look back on one full of blessings and prosperity. Some of the articles needed are men's underwear, wooten and cotton socks, slippers, pajamas, bath robes, mitts, wristlets, wooten scarfs and caps, old linen and muslin for bandages, and money to purchase necessary hospital supplies. A full list of articles needed will be given next week. In the meantime let us look over our household supplies and see if we can not find some article we can spare for the comfort of at least one of the sick and wounded. Committee is being organized to aid in the work. In the meantime any articles can be sent to the care of Miss Mary B. Shellman 206 East Main street, who has consented to receive and forward the same.

Common Causes of Farm Accidents.

In the current issue of Farm and Fireside D. S. Burch, associate editor of that publication, writes a highly entertaining and suggestive article entitled "Farm Tragedies—How They Happen," in which he describes many such accidents and tells how farmers might avoid them. He cautions farmers to be careful in dealing with the things mentioned below, and tells how to escape danger in dealing with many of them.

The Government Must Come to the Rescue.

It is our hope—and it seems to us well founded—that the European war will be comparatively brief. In any case, it seems safe to say that before spring the war should be over, and the survivors of the present struggle ready to resume their wonted occupations. While all the nations will suffer heavily in money as well as in men, the people will have to be clothed, and the weavers will continue to be the cheapest clothing folks can wear.

While for a few weeks, therefore, the cotton trade will be seriously upset—both by reason of the deranged commerce of Europe and by reason of the fact that European ships will not be available for carrying our cotton abroad—the hopeful fact is that within a few months, anyhow, the world must have our present 1914 cotton crop, and must pay a fair price for it. The only question is as to whom the world will pay—the farmer or the speculator. At present it is going to the hands of the speculators, unless something is done.

Doctor Wu As Matchmaker.

"Once I was an involuntary matchmaker," says Dr. Wu Ting Fang in a reminiscent chapter of his book, "America Through the Spectacles of an Oriental Diplomat." Some years ago, during my first mission in Washington, I was invited to attend the wedding of the daughter of the chief justice of the Supreme court. When I entered the breakfast room, I saw the bridesmaids and a number of young men.

How to Get Forty Cents a Pound for Your Chickens.

In the current issue of Farm and Fireside B. F. W. Thorpe, associate editor of that publication, writes a little article in which he says that a few poultry raisers are getting forty cents a pound for chicken—not capons but roasters, and he adds that more can do so. He describes as follows how the fortunate ones do their work so that they may get this high price.

Why Clothes Should be Boiled.

In the October Woman's Home Companion appears a most practical article entitled "The Washing of Clothes." The author gives a complete description of what she considers the best methods in the whole process of clothes-washing. Following is what she has to say about boiling clothes:
