LOCAL AFFAIRS.

The doctor isn't apt to give up a patient when he is well healed.

Two hundred and seventy gunners have taken out licenses at Towson to hunt in Baltimore county.

The saloon keepers have raised the price of liquor to 15 cents a drink on the colored people, it is said.

Some people never accomplish anything because they spend all their lives talking about what they are going to do.

Halloween passed off as usual and with the same destruction to property as in past years. A show case at the Eagle Clothing store was pushed over and smashed.

Mrs. J. J. Groh, youngest daughter of Frank T. Manahan, died at Springfield, Ohio, at 12.30 o'clock Sunday morning, November 1, aged twenty-nine years.

Rev. Calvin S. Slagle, D. D., pastor of St. Paul's Reformed Church, Bond street, was elected president of the Potomac Synod of the Reformed Church at the opening session in Altoona, Pa., on October 27.

Mr. Harry D. Fowble, West Main street, has purchased the E. O. Grimes property, opposite John street, from W. Frank Thomas, trustee.

When an erroneous statement gets into a newspaper the Hammer Club gets mighty busy. But if you are always as careful what you say as newspapers are you won't get into much trouble.

The Ladies' Aid and Christian Endeavor Society of Providence Methodist Protestant Church will hold an oyster supper at the Gamber Hall on November 26, 27 and 28, beginning at 5 p. m. All are very cordially invited to attend.

All the base ball world received with a gasp of keen surprise the announcement that Eddie Plank, Chief Bender and Jack Coombs, than whom a greater trio of pitchers never performed at one time for the Athletics, had their names erased from the roster of the team they helped win five American League pennants.

Ten tickets were sold from this station on Saturday night on the special excursion run by the Western Maryland Railway to Pittsburgh.

More than 600 were on board when the train reached Pittsburgh. The excursion was a success. The excursion on its return trip arrived in this city at 5 o'clock Monday morning.

Clarence Coates, colored, who was arrested about two years ago in Annapolis for robbery and sent to the House of Correction, where he escaped last August was located in York, Pa., by Chief of Police John A. Stem, and arrested on Friday in that place and delivered to the House of Correction on Sunday morning.

There was soon after the arrival of the foot and mouth disease broke out. This led the Department of Agriculture to establish a quarantine against cattle shipments from Maryland. In the same order quarantine against New York State was ordered. This prohibits the shipment of cattle, sheep, swine and goats out of the States until further notice.

Finkle H. Birely, of near Ladiesburg, has entered suit against Mrs. Ida Kolb for $100 damages, alleging assault and battery, false arrest and malicious prosecution. The case was heard before Justice Fabian Posey of Frederick on Friday and the attorney will argue the case on Monday.

It appears that on October 19, Mrs. Kolb had Birely arrested for hunting on Sunday and cruelty to animals. He was tried before Justice Miller, of Woodbury, and found guilty on both charges and fined $50 in all, which he paid. Following this, Birely took civil action against Mrs. Kolb.

Charles O. Clemson, attorney, was in Calvert county on Friday and Saturday of last week and made a political speech there for the Democratic candidates. This is the native county of our fellow townsman and well known lawyer, former Judge James A. C. Bond, who has many relatives now living in Calvert county.

Mr. Clemson says that the people of Calvert county are proud of the record of Judge Bond, whom they still claim as one of their own. This is a well deserved compliment to this distinguished lawyer, whom both Calvert and Carroll counties, as well as in truth as the whole State of Maryland, delights to honor.

Smith, teacher of agriculture.

The Rev. A. F. Campbell, long and well-known in this county, will conduct a limited party of tourists to the Panama Exposition next summer, and will be glad to correspond with anyone who may contemplate this trip.

Total cost including all expenses for 45 days will be $425. Full information may be had upon application to Rev. A. F. Campbell, Burlington Route, 1184 Broadway, New York City, care of R. V. Bowen.

The matter between Frederick county and Mrs. Lauretta Kinney, of near Creagerstown, was given attention by the County Commissioners on Monday. An effort will be made to adjust it or legal steps will be taken. The Commissioners claim that Mrs. Kinney dammed some water so that it backed on the county road. The county opened the dam several times, but each time it was closed. The water, when the dam is open, runs over Mrs. Kinney for a short distance.

Many farmers in Washington, Carroll, Frederick, Howard and other counties bring, each year, cattle, principally steers, from the West to fatten on their farms for the Eastern Market. Recently some carloads have been diseased and after the animals arrive the foot and mouth disease broke out. This led the Department of Agriculture to establish a quarantine against cattle shipments from Maryland. In the same order quarantine against New York State was ordered. This prohibits the shipment of cattle, sheep, swine and goats out of the States until further notice.

At 2 a. m., Tuesday morning while our citizens were in deep slumber the fire alarm was sounded for the stable of Mr. William B. Thomas, on East Green street, tenanted by Mr. Phillip Flater and Mr. Frank Dillard. Before the firemen could get the hose line run and water turned on, the stable was burned to the ground. The stables of Miss Mary Gardner and Rev. I. Emory Bennett, on the opposite side of the alley, caught and were considerably damaged before the fire was extinguished. The loss is covered by insurance. This is the second fire within a week. The C. & P. Telephone Company's cable line was melted from the heat of the fire, putting 900 telephones out of commission. The repairs were made to the cable by a cable man on Tuesday evening.

W. H. Davis & Co., John street, are erecting a garage to repair automobiles.

Mr. Jacob Handley, cashier of the Westminster Savings Bank, is at a hospital in Baltimore, for treatment.

Those who visited Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dull, of Patapsco, last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dull and children, Roy and Madeline, of Westminster, and Mr. Atlee Wampler, of Westminster, and Mr. Peter Buchman, of Houcksville.

We are glad to note the return of Mr. C. C. Beach, who has spent some time on the Red Cross ship, which crossed the ocean to Europe. Mr. Beach is well and hearty. On the first page of this issue will be found a good account of his trip, which will be very interesting to our readers.

Tuesday night, about six o'clock, what might have been a serious accident, occurred on Pennsylvania avenue, at Union street, when a motorcycle ridden by Clarence Manger, this city, collided with an automobile coming down the avenue. Neither party had their lights lighted and neither one blew their horn.

No one was injured but Mr. Manger, who escaped with a sprained ankle and a few bruises, but all had a complete shaking up. The automobile was not damaged much so they proceeded to Baltimore, from whence they came. The motorcycle was considerably damaged.

With impressive exercises, attended by members of the Patriotic Order Sons of America and the entire battalion of soldiers with band from Fort Howard, the tablet placed on the Battle Ground Methodist Episcopal Meeting House, on the North Point road, was unveiled Saturday afternoon. The tablet was placed on the church by the Patriotic Order of Sons of America of Maryland, and the presentation address was made by W. L. Seabrook, State President, and accepted by Rev. Harry D. Stewart, pastor of Patapsco Neck Methodist Episcopal Church. The "Birth of the Star-Spangled Banner" was recited by Miss Alice May Youse, the author, and the tablet was unveiled by Miss Clara Alma Brooks.

On October 28 Grand Master William J. Arthur journeyed to Taneytown and from there, in company with 50 members of Taney Lodge, I. O. O. F., No. 28, to Mason and Dixon Lodge, No. 69, of Harney, where they were met by the members of said lodge, 55 members of Sylvania Lodge, of Littlestown, Pa., and a delegation from Gettysburg Lodge, of Gettysburg, Pa.

The procession moved to the hall Mason and Dixon lodge, where they met and were received in a most cordial and brotherly manner. After addressing by a number of brethren, including John J. Reid, Grand Conductor of the Grand Lodge of Maryland, the Grand Master delivered a stirring and inspiring address.

Now that the North Point monument is completed the camps of the order are reminded that there is another and larger undertaking by the order for the erection of a monument at Terra Rubra, the birthplace of Francis Scott Key, in this county. It is the purpose of the J. O. U. A. M. order to erect a suitable monument at this point next spring and unveil it June 13. A number of camps have responded to the appeal for funds for this enterprise, but the appeal has not been taken up by a large majority, and it is the hope of the committees that each camp will at once make plans to raise a proportion of money for this undertaking.

A Halloween party was given by Irma Byers on Friday evening, October 30, to a number of her friends. The house was prettily decorated with black and yellow crepe paper. Many games appropriate to the evening were enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served.
