

The Democratic Advocate

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY The Democratic Advocate Company OF WESTMINSTER, MD.

All correspondence with this office should be addressed to "THE ADVOCATE," TERMS: $1.00 per year; 50 cents for six months and 25 cents for three months. Single copies 3 cents.

E. O. DIFFENDAL, Manager.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, NOV. 13, 1914

Sale Register.

Tuesday, November 24, at 10 a. m., 2 horses, 3 Jersey milk cows, 10 fat Berkshire hogs, 75 young hens and roosters, farming implements, corn, hay, fodder and potatoes, household goods, sandwiches served, Mordcael B. Stockdale, in the village of Pinksburg, on Westminster turnpike. F. J. Albaugh, Auctioneer.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

The cold snap for the past several days has formed ice on the ponds. Let us be thankful that the battle of the ballots was the only kind we had to fight.

Past Commanders of the Mystic Chain Lodge at Harney and Silver Run have been in Westminster, Md., at the Lodge on November 30, where a special meeting will be held. The rabbit, partridge and squirrel season opened on Tuesday for Carroll county. Rabbits are plenty, but partridges are scarce. A number of good bags have been reported.

The Chief of Police from Hanover, Pa., called up Officer Stem on Saturday night by telephone and asked him to look out for a bay horse with white feet that had been stolen from a stable in Hanover.

A large excursion from Pittsburgh, Pa., passed through this city early Sunday morning on its way to Baltimore, where the passengers spent the day in taking in the sights. The excursion returned the same evening.

Rev. Martin Schweitzer will conduct the Holy Communion at Baust Reformed Church, on Sunday at 10:30 a. m. Preparatory services and reception of new members, Saturday previous, at 2:30 p. m. Y. P. S. Sunday at 7 p. m.

Lady Butterfly, a race horse owned by Mr. Benjamin Dorsey, this city, ran at Pimlico races on Monday. Mr. Dorsey's horse did not win, but was well up to the leaders. The horse is only young, but will make good after being thoroughly trained.

Carrying out the orders of State Veterinarian Hickman, who visited the farm, in company with other inspectors and pronounced ten head of cattle suffering from the hoof-and-mouth disease, Edward M. Fuss, near Emmitsburg, killed the stock. The appraisers valued his live stock at $1,950. Thirty-nine head of cattle, 22 hogs and ten hogs.

Western Maryland downed Frederick High School on Cadet Field Monday afternoon 24 to 0 at Frederick. The visitors outweighed the home team and did everything their way from start to finish. The locals put up a good game, but were unable to hold the collegians, who broke through the line at almost every plunge. Clemson made a 60-yard run in the last half.

The Board of Liquor License Commissioners of Baltimore in impressing saloonkeepers that they must not receive donations, nor be permitted to accept more than $500 from a brewer on the license, circulars have been sent to all containing the warning that any violation of this order means a forfeiture of the license. This last order becomes effective next May 1.

Mr. James H. Reinhold, of Toneytown, went to Hanover, Saturday, in search of an automobile that had been stolen from his premises in the Maryland town a day or two ago. Inquiries were made by telephone in several adjacent cities and towns, about the machine, and its occupants, but no definite clue was obtained. It is suspected that the automobile was appropriated by some "joyriders" who are indulging in a little spree.

Governor Goldsboro issued a proclamation under the date of November 7 declaring a quarantine of the cattle in Montgomery, Howard and Carroll counties on account of the hoof-and-mouth disease alleged to be prevalent in those counties. No cattle will be allowed to be taken in or out of the county. This is in addition to the counties of Allegany, Frederick and Washington, in which the cattle quarantine had already been declared.

Frazed from the effect of morphine, Florence White, who gives her address at 610 Bradley street, Baltimore, created an exciting scene in Hillen Station Monday night, when, shrieking that devils were chasing her, she ran through the waiting-room to the platform and attempted to climb over the gate leading to the tracks. "I've got to get out on the tracks," she shrieked. "I want to be run over and then the devils will quit chasing me."

The Daily News of London says that a White Paper will be issued announcing a substantial increase in the pensions for disabled soldiers, but it will not concede a pound weekly, which has been asked. The childless widow will receive seven shillings six pence weekly and may qualify for an old age pension. The additional pension for a first child is five shillings weekly and a half crown each week for the next three. For the fifth child, and onward two shillings is allowed weekly. Thus a widow with five children would get 22 shillings each week. The children's allowance ceases when they leave school.

The Court of Appeals of Maryland has issued the following notice: "The Court will hereafter sit on Saturdays and Mondays. After carefully going over the docket the Court finds that it is doubtful whether the arguments for the term can be concluded early enough to allow the Court sufficient time for consultation and preparation of opinions before the January term, if the time allowed attorneys by the present rules be occupied as fully as it has so far been this term. The court would prefer, if it can be avoided, not to change the rule fixing the limit on the time of attorneys, and for the present will simply urge the attorneys not to occupy more time than they deem absolutely necessary in justice to their clients."

A man gives a party to entertain his friends. A woman gives a party to snub her enemies.

Fortunately the foot-and-mouth disease did not become epidemic until all the campaign speakers had stopped talking.

Mr. Charles W. Fritz, Medford, received a stroke of paralysis on Monday while in this city and had to be sent home.

A man who can fool some of the people all of the time and all of the people some of the time can't buffalo his wife any of the time.

To prevent the spread of the foot-and-mouth disease a number of calves were held under quarantine at the freight depot this week. After an examination 11 were shipped out without further delay.

It was stated in last week's issue that Mr. Frank Welsh, at Shipley, raised for 1 1/2 acres of ground, 3 tons of tomatoes for Mr. Sayer's factory. This is a mistake. He received 6 tons from 3/4 of an acre.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Civic League, of Westminster, will be held at the Opera House, Thursday, November 19, at 3 p. m. Remember the entertainment Tuesday night, November 24.

The grand jury has heard a few witnesses this week who were reported by an official of the 10-hour law bugaboo, who claims the parties were worked over 10 hours a day, and wants the employers prosecuted.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Zion will hold an oyster supper Thanksgiving evening and the following Saturday night, at the home of Mr. Harry Hughes, commencing at 4 o'clock. All are invited to attend.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Mt. Zion Methodist Protestant Church, at Pinksburg, will hold an oyster supper in the basement of the church on the evening of November 21, commencing at 4 o'clock. Come and bring your friends.

Mr. Elias N. Davis, this city, has taken up the agency for the Provident Live Stock Insurance Co. This is the only insurance company of this kind in the state and should be successful. All horses, cows, hogs, &c., are insured by this company.

Senator John Walter Smith sent to the secretary of the Senate Tuesday his post-election campaign expense statement. This shows that the Senator disbursed a total of $1,927.75 for advertising, travel and incidentals. He received no contributions.

The first suspected case of foot-and-mouth disease in humans was discovered in Akron, Ohio, Tuesday in the Bowen School by the city school's medical examiner. A 10-year-old girl, named Mabel, was suffering with all symptoms of the malady was placed in immediate quarantine. The Bowen School has 1,000 pupils.

Mr. Norman H. Earhart, this city, has opened a motorcycle and bicycle repair shop and store in the Gehl building on Liberty street, next to B. F. Shriver Co. Mr. Earhart is an expert on the motorcycle and bicycle. He will handle the well-known Indian and Henderson motorcycles and bicycles and supplies.

As the returns from the past election come in the Democrats gain in both House and Senate. According to these estimates the Democratic plurality over the Republicans in the House 40, and a majority over all by 51. In the Senate the Democratic plurality over the Republicans by 17, and a majority over all by 16.

Norman F. Reddick, colored, who committed suicide at his home in Baltimore, on Friday by shooting himself, was buried on Tuesday at Mount Olive Cemetery, near Taylorsville, by Harvey Bankard & Son, funeral directors. Reddick attempted to kill his brother, who was sick and failing in his attempt, turned the revolver upon himself.

Outdoor gymnastics were inaugurated at Franklin High School during the past week, and a class of between 50 and 60 boys enjoyed the work. Soccer practice between the regulars and scrubs proved beneficial. The High School played in good form in the Catonsville High game. Smith's work in goal is improving with every game.

In a report on crop production in Maryland by the United States Department of Agriculture Maryland is credited with producing 13,158,000 bushels of first-class Southern wheat, as compared with only 8,113,000 bushels in 1913, which means that with wheat prices up to $1.14 per bushel, as compared with less than 90 cents last year, Maryland has almost doubled her output.

Klee & Hoff, proprietors of the Square, have sold the following cars: Dr. Glenn Horner, this city, Maxwell 25, 1915 model; Joseph T. Parrish, near Gamber, Maxwell 25, 1915 model; Reinhold & Leister, Toneytown, Maxwell 25, 1915 model; Robert Wheeler, Bird Hill, model 30-40, Buick, 1915; S. L. Weybright, Fritzelburg, model 30-40 Empire 1915, and Chester Harden, Green Spring Valley, Chalmers, 36.

A stock company is being formed of the Baltimore & Reisterstown Bus Line by two young men of Baltimore. This company, when a sufficient amount of stock is subscribed, will carry on the business which is owned at present by Mr. William Bowers. The regular run to Reisterstown will be continued with a possibility of extending it to Littlestown, Pa., if it justifies. Mr. Bowers will run a bus line between this city and Littlestown.

The latest information obtainable, and which appears exclusively in the Independent Tuesday, indicates that Eddie Plank, the hero of many a world's series baseball game, as well as being one of the best known ball players in the major leagues for the past dozen years, will this week sign a contract with the Chicago Federal League Club, at a salary said to be twice that which he received from the Philadelphia Athletics during his share in the world's series money.

Through prompt discovery and effective work on the part of the fire fighters, a very serious fire was averted at Graceham, on Friday. Fire broke out in the home of Chester Joy, it starting in a "spare" room adjoining that of Mrs. Joy, who has been quite sick. The alarm was promptly given and on the help of neighbors was the fire quickly extinguished. Mrs. Joy was carried from the house to a neighbor's. Owing to the strong wind, it was unwise to open the windows. The bed caught fire and it was torn down and thrown from the house. The mattress was entirely consumed and also other things in the room. It was considered most fortunate that the house was not destroyed. The water did some damage. It is thought that the fire started from a chimney.

A new bookkeeper's and cashier's office has been moved in the hardware store of D. S. Gehr, this city.

Officer Helm arrested a drunk that tried to board a freight train on Saturday morning.

Mr. H. C. Fogle, proprietor of Fogle's Bowling alleys, is putting in a third alley and installing electric lights.

D. S. Gehr has just finished the installation of a modern hot water heating apparatus in the residence of Mr. John J. Reese, this city.

Motion pictures of the Methodist pilgrimage will be shown at the Opera House, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, November 17 and 18.

The contract for a steam heating plant in the new garage of Hoff & Klee has been awarded to D. S. Gehr, the hardware man on the corner.

Mr. H. D. Fowle and family, West Main street, moved into their new home which Mr. Fowle purchased from W. Frank Thomas, Trustee.

The Carroll county executive committee of the W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of Miss Lizzie Herr, West Main street, November 24th, at 2 o'clock.

On account of the delay of receiving fine stone for the top dressing upon the stone which are being laid on our streets, the work of rolling has been stopped.

One of the cannons on Confederate avenue, Gettysburg battlefield, was fired with a charge of powder, Wednesday night, and the trail of the gun carriage demolished.

Saturday, October 31st, the members and friends of the Pipe Creek Methodist Protestant church came with a very generous donation to the Methodist Protestant Church Home, for which the ladies return thanks.

Charles A. Geller, Baltimore, was Saturday awarded a verdict of $125 against the Western Maryland Railway Company. Mr. Geller alleged that on May 3, 1914, as he was getting off a train at Fulton Station he fell over a stool which is used as a step.

Charles H. S. Robinson, of Roxbury, Mass., who ran for Congress in his district on the Republican ticket, filed his report at the Capitol Wednesday. It said: "I received nothing, promised nothing, expended nothing, got nothing. I must have done some strenuous work."

Wednesday night on Liberty street extended the neighborhood was greatly alarmed by hearing a large bell ringing, thinking it was the fire alarm, but such was not the case. The cause of all the disturbance was Ryland's Company of Irish Bell Ringers who were serenading Mr. Clarence Cook and bride. After the concert all were given invitations to enjoy in light refreshments.

All the discussion between Washington and Frederick counties over school children from one county, attending school in the other, and the desire of one county or the other to charge fees, is settled, it is said, by a by-law of the State Department of Education in which provisions are made in just such cases, giving scholars in one county privileges to attend school in the other without paying tuition fee.

The woman vote in Chicago kept in office two men on a sanitary board, controlling the expenditure of millions of dollars annually, when these men would have been displaced by the male vote. The women voted for these men because the latter consistently protested against extravagance on the board; the men voted against them for reasons of political expediency. The feminine vote in this defense of the sanitary interests of the city, so closely affecting the home, is significant, and furnishes a good argument why women should have a voice in public affairs.

Libertytown was given its share of excitement on Friday when a horse attached to a drummer's buggy, which was tied in the street of Mt. Vernon, slipped its bridle and dashed wildly through the town. There were several very narrow escapes. The team plunged into the horse and buggy of Rural Carrier Charles Rhoads, of Route No. 1, and completely demolished the carrier's vehicle, which was in front of the postoffice. Fortunately Mr. Rhoads had just gone into the postoffice. Both horses escaped with slight injuries.

Arrested at Camden Station, Baltimore, shortly after 9 o'clock Saturday morning because, the police say, he was intoxicated and disorderly, Marion Poole, 37 years old, of Mount Airy, was given a hearing before Justice Golden, at the Western Police Station. In addition to the charge of disorderly conduct, there is lodged against him a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. When searched at the station house a pistol containing four cartridges was found on him. Poole said he purchased the pistol 20 years ago, put the cartridges in at the time and has never used the weapon since. His story was believed after it had taken Lieutenant Boone a quarter of an hour to explode the cartridges in the cellar of the station house.

The Department at Washington has informed Joshua W. Miles, Collector of United States Internal Revenue that the new license stamps to be issued on account of the war tax and which are effective today, will be run before November 15. As soon as they are received those affected will be expected to call and pay the tax promptly. The classes affected by the tax are: Bankers, brokers, pawnbrokers, Customhouse brokers, commission merchants, theaters, museums, concert halls, tobacco dealers, tobacco manufacturers, cigar manufacturers and cigarette manufacturers. The general stamp tax, which will affect the public the most, does not go into effect until December 1, and it is expected that by that time the new stamps will be ready.

The new Workmen's Compensation Law of Maryland went into effect on Sunday. Whenever any employe, engaged in any of the numerous occupations mentioned in the Act, or in "extra-hazardous" lines of business not mentioned, is injured or killed the employer will be required by the new law to pay certain amounts according to the nature of each individual case. The employe or his heirs cannot sue for damages. The law says what he shall be given in every instance. The State Industrial Accident Board administers the new law. The employes are paid for all injuries except those self-inflicted or due to willful misconduct or intoxication. The largest sum an employer would have to pay to a single employe is $5,000. Most of the employers of labor in Frederick are having insurance companies carry their risk.

Card of Thanks.

We beg to thank the friends and neighbors for their valuable assistance during the illness and burial of our mother, Mrs. Kitty A. Gosnell, who died Nov. 7, 1914. MR. AND MRS. JESSE L. MANAHAN Enterprise, Nov. 10, 1914.

HOMEOPATHIC DOSES OF COAL CHEERFULLY DELIVERED.

This will be a year of smaller orders probably—we take them and deliver them as promptly as if they were big ones. Order as early in the day as you can from Smith & Reifsnider.

Today is the 13th day of the month. The hoodoo.

It's a question now whether a town has more garages or moving picture shows.

All railroads of the United States unite in offering farms for tens of thousands of Belgian immigrants.

The back of a new hair brush can be removed, permitting it to be cleaned by pouring water through it.

There ought to be enough steel and lead in the soil of Belgium to make mining profitable as soon as the war is over.

Mr. N. H. Baumgardner, cashier of the Westminster Deposit & Trust Company, who has been dangerously ill with a carbuncle on his neck, is now well on his way to recovery.

Forget the election, but remember the millions of homeless and hopeless people of bleeding Belgium, who are facing starvation and the rigors of a cold climate, through no fault of their own.

There will be a meeting of the Loyal Temperance Legion Saturday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in assembly hall, High School Building. All the members and their friends are urged to be present.

Hunters will do well to consult our classified columns and note the many farms that are advertised against trespassing. More are added each week and land owners and the tenant farmers say they intend to enforce the law.

Four brothers, members of the Boy's Corn Club of Georgia, produced 824 bushels of corn on four acres of land this year. Luther Allred of Pickens county, one of the brothers, won first prize at the State Fair for the greatest yield from one acre. He produced 227 bushels.

Foot-and-mouth disease now raging among cattle in 14 States is communicable to humans, the Department of Agriculture announced yesterday, but its effect rarely is serious. The Department urged, however, that humans keep away from diseased cattle to avoid spreading the infection, and recommended the using of pasteurized milk.

Champion Tillie Alcartra, a Woodland cow, of Woodland, Cal., has set a new record for milk production in excess of 30,000 pounds in a year. The year will be up tomorrow, but the 30,000-pound mark was passed several days ago. Tillie Alcartra is a 5-year-old Holstein-Friesian. She set a new record last year, surpassing by a few to go to school a cow mark made by a Massachusetts cow.

Chairman Arthur P. Gorman, Oscar Lewis and Lewis W. Wickes, of the State Tax Commission together with the secretary, Allan C. Girdwood, paid their first official visit to Carroll county yesterday. They went to the Court house, where they met the County Commissioners and the tax assessor of Carroll county, and went over the assessment books with a view to equalizing the assessments in this county.

At a meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union held at the home of Miss Elizabeth L. Herr, Thursday evening, November 12th, a vote of thanks was extended the gentlemen who marshaled the parade. The farmers who so kindly loaned their horses and buggies to the women who helped to make the parade such a wonderful success. Signed by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Westminster.

Records kept by Secretary Howard Hill show that 87 accidents were reported to the State Industrial Accident Commission from November 1st, when the workmen's compensation law went into effect, up to Monday of this week. Of the number reported only two were fatal. The commission has not as yet examined the reports for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not all the injured are protected under the law.

The following new telephones were installed by the C. & P. Telephone Company: Elder Thomas Eckard, Toneytown; F. M. Thomas, Hoffmansville, Hampstead 29-3; Jos. Burke, near Hoffmansville, Hampstead 29-5; J. L. Eckard, near Hoffmansville, Hampstead 29-6; G. Frank Lawton, near Hoffmansville, Hampstead 29-2; Charles H. Smith, near Beckleysville, Hampstead 29-4; Thomas E. Holzner, near Beckleysville, Hampstead 29-12.

The Frederick County Medical Society, at a meeting Wednesday, elected Dr. Thomas B. Johnson president; Dr. Levin West, Brunswick, and Dr. William Crawford Johnson, of Frederick, vice-presidents; Dr. Bernard O. Thomas, secretary; Dr. E. L. Beckley, Middletown, treasurer; Dr. Ira J. McCurdy, Leegs, and Dr. E. L. Beckley, Middletown, and Dr. C. B. Kefauver, Thurmont, censors. Dr. C. P. Gorman, of Mount Airy; Dr. H. H. Hopkins, New Market; Dr. J. W. Long, Walkersville, and Dr. Charles Bates, Jefferson, were admitted as new members.

A sudden change of wind saved thousands of dollars' worth of timber on the land of the city when shed at Hunting Creek, Md., when another forest fire broke out Wednesday morning. Wind fanned into a blaze the embers of the first fire. A total of nearly 10,000 acres of mountain land was burned over the last week, and the damage is estimated from $20 to $30 an acre. About 2,000 acres was burned over Wednesday, which will average $100 an acre loss. About 20 acres of woodland belonging to William H. Runkles, near Mount Airy, was burned over.

The board of directors of the Hoffman Orphanage, held its annual meeting yesterday afternoon at the Reformed parsonage on Abbottstown street, Hanover, Pa. The following members of the board were in attendance: President, Rev. T. J. Barkley, of Gettysburg; Vice President, Rev. F. S. Lindaman, D. D., of Littlestown; Secretary, Elder J. L. Gerber, of York; Treasurer, Rev. Calvin Single, of the largest sum in the world. Rev. Stewart Stine, of York; Dr. M. H. Hartman, of Gettysburg; Elder O. D. Gilbert, of this city; Rev. Stewart Hartman, superintendent of the Orphanage.

NUSBAUM & JORDAN WESTMINSTER'S BEST STORE

Now Is The Time—This Very Week For Everyone To Buy Winter Goods For Wear or Use.

Sweater Coats for Boys and Girls 98c. Elegant warm wool coats, made with roll collars, that fasten close to the neck, also V neck styles, two pockets, colors, cardinal, navy and gray.

Women's Sweaters at $3.00. Fine wool coats, that keep their shape and will not change color, plain stitch weave, shawl collar or V neck, pockets, buttons to match color of coat, these shades, cardinals, navy, tan, Oxford, also black, sizes 36 to 44 inches.

Shaker Knit Coats $3.00 and $5.00. For young women and very stylish, a very heavy stitch weave that is decidedly mannish in appearance.

Fur Wearing Weather Arrives At Last. Our complete new line of furs is ready—some pleasant surprises for you—the luxurious qualities at prices that are less than usual.

Good Table Linens—Under-priced and Thanksgiving is Coming Soon. At this special popular price we have included all our fine damasks that are marked $1.25 regularly, for this ten days sale only.

Fine Linen Damask $1.00 Special. These heavy bleached damask come in the best selling patterns, bow-knots, fleur-de-lis, lillies of the valley, spots, stripes and scroll designs, widths are 70 and 72 inches.

50c Table Damask 39c Yd. Heavy mercerized satin damask, of snow whiteness, in a variety of pretty patterns, 64 inches wide. These fine cotton damask wear well and keep their fine satin appearance after washing.

These Napkins Hemmed-Ready-for-Use. Mercerized napkins of excellent wearing quality, assorted patterns. 18x18 inches 90c dozen. 20x22 inches $1.20 dozen.

Flannel Gowns for These Chilly Nights. Children's Sleeping Gowns 50c. Cute little garments with warm feet, for children 2 to 7 years old, made of neat striped outing cloths of good quality.

Children's Flannel Gowns 50c. Made of heavy outing cloth, with warm fleecing, attractive patterns, for children, ages 6 to 14 years.

Women's Outing Gowns 50c, 75c, $1.00. In solid white and colored stripes, cut roomy and full length, neatly trimmed with narrow braids, well made, sizes 15, 16 and 17 inches.

Balmacaan Coatings $1.50 Yd. Heavy all wool cloakings, mannish mixtures in shades of blue, green and brown, stylish, serviceable and warm, 58 inches wide.

NUSBAUM & JORDAN 9-11-13 E. MAIN STREET, WESTMINSTER, MD.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS. This is to give notice that the subscribers have obtained from the Orphans' Court of Carroll County, Md., letters testamentary on the Personal Estate of WILLIAM E. T. SMITH.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS. This is to give notice that the subscriber has obtained from the Orphans' Court of Carroll County, Md., letters Testamentary on the Personal Estate of LOUISIANA HITESHAW.

THE HIGH COST OF LIVING is partly the fault of the buyer not knowing just where to purchase to get the lowest prices, and the most for the money expended. When it comes to meat, our shop is the place to come. Our prices are equitable, our meat always fresh, and we give full value for the money.

GUTTERS FLOW WITH LIQUOR Militia Dump "Wet Goods" From Butte Saloon. Several thousand persons gathered in West Broadway and watched the militia on duty here empty the "wet goods" of one of Butte's largest saloons into the gutter.

FINE BAY HORSE FOR SALE. Eight years old and has a tract record of 2:40; weight between 1000 and 1100 pounds; good rider. Sound and alright. Apply to Dr. R. F. WELLS, Gamber, Md.

GREAT FALL-FOR THE OPEN FIRE PLACE WE SELL THE FIRE PLACE FILLING. Smith & Reifsnider can furnish it cut long, dry and satisfactory. More real cheer for the money than you can usually get.

