

UNION MILLS.

Mrs. Elizabeth Feeser, widow of the late J. Jacob Feeser, of this place, died Tuesday night last, at 10 o'clock at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Susan Bish, aged 88 years. Death was due to the infirmities of age. Funeral services were held on Friday morning at the home of her daughter, where the dead and at St. Mary's Reformed church, Silver Run, by her pastor, Rev. S. C. Hoover. Interment in the Silver Run cemetery. Mrs. Feeser was the oldest woman in this place and with but one exception, Mr. Martin Yingling, who is in his 90th year, the oldest resident of this place. Mrs. Feeser was highly esteemed by all who knew her and during her long life was an influence for good with all whom she came in contact. For many years she was a consistent member of the Reformed church at Silver Run. She leaves the following children: Nathaniel D. Feeser, of near Taneytown; Mrs. Susan Bish, Mrs. Ephraim J. Yingling, Mrs. Edward F. Groat, of this place, and Mrs. Mary Furney, of Baltimore, and Orestus Feeser, of near this place. Her husband died 15 years ago.

Wednesday night of last week the young daughter of David Wisner, residing about 8 miles north of this place, was taken hastily to the Hahnemann Hospital, Baltimore, for an operation for appendicitis. She was taken to the city in B. F. Shriver's auto. Mr. Shriver is always willing and ready to alleviate the suffering public. She was accompanied by her mother, her physician, Dr. L. G. Wetzel and Miss Emma Burgoon. A successful operation was performed on Thursday. From last accounts Miss Wisner was doing well and expected to return home next week.

On Sunday last Dr. A. S. Fassick, Superintendent of the Hagerstown District, preached in the Methodist Episcopal Church, this place, one of the most instructive, forcible and eloquent sermons. We are sorry that owing partly to the rain and partly to the inexcusable indifference of many of our citizens, that so few heard it. These are lost opportunities that we wish in later years to come again.

Mrs. John C. Stoner, of this place, was visiting relatives and friends in Westminster last Saturday and Sunday.

Regular preaching services at the Methodist Episcopal Church, by the pastor, Rev. E. E. Davidson, Sunday next, at 2:30 p. m. Sunday school at 1:30 p. m.
