

The Democratic Advocate

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY BY The Democratic Advocate Company OF WESTMINSTER, MD.

All correspondence with this office should be addressed to "THE ADVOCATE," TERMS—$1.00 per year; 50 cents for six months and 25 cents for three months. Single copies 3 cents. Entered at the Postoffice, Westminster, Maryland, Second Class Matter.

E. O. DIFFENDAL, Manager.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 2, 1915

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Mr. George K. Mather is building a residence on Willis street.

There will be an athletic meet by the county schools on May 7.

Loyola College, Baltimore, is scheduled to play a game of ball with Blue Ridge College, New Windsor, April 15.

Mrs. Harry Ditman, who has been ill at her home, near this city, with pneumonia, is somewhat improved at this writing.

Sheriff Davis brought a man from North Branch last week and delivered him to an officer from Baltimore. He wanted for jumping his board bill.

Moorhead Methodist Episcopal Church, Union Mills, Sunday school at 1.30 p. m. Divine service at 2.30 p. m., April 4th, and every two weeks at the same hour thereafter. Rev. A. Byron Albertson, pastor.

Carefree, lounging, reading, sleeping—16 prisoners housed in the jail seem to be enjoying their confinement and workless existence. Nearly all of these prisoners are held for the action of the May term grand jury.

Frech & Allen, contractors, who built the state road to Gamber, have sent samples of their oil to this county. The contractors while working in Virginia struck oil and are now getting oil from a well 2953 feet deep.

An Italian barber by the name of Frouzino, was arrested at Hampstead last week by Deputy Sheriff Arnold, who brought him to this city and delivered him to a detective, who took him to Philadelphia, where he is wanted.

The directors of the Farmers & Mechanics National Bank Tuesday elected O. D. Gilbert, vice-president in place of Judge Jas. A. C. Bond, resigned, and Joseph N. Shriver was elected a director to fill the vacancy of Judge Bond.

When the Chautauqua meets here August 28, we will again have Dr. Turner as platform manager. Dr. Turner as all know who attended the Chautauqua sessions in its first visit here, was the platform manager and made many friends.

The following appointments were made at the 101st session of the Baltimore Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Baltimore, Monday afternoon for the following churches in this county: Freedom, J. A. Ford, and Mount Airy, W. T. Gover.

At Centenary Methodist Episcopal Sunday school, last Sunday, the missionary collection reported for the month of March amounted to $225.72, making a total for the year of $278.91. At the morning church service thirty-eight persons were received into the membership of the church.

Russell Baxter, an employe of the W. M. Railroad, Thurmont, performed an aerial feat accidentally and unexpectedly last week by falling from a 20-foot trestle to the ground. He landed particularly hard on the ground, but was not injured to any great extent according to reports.

Our city is over run by chicken thieves. Last week the henery of J. Webster Elanich, Meade Ohio, Joe L. Mathias and Charles Wampler were broken into and chickens stolen. At Mr. Wampler's chicken house the thieves left a pick which had been recently pointed for the purpose of prying open locks.

Through the activity of the standing committee of the Junior Steam Fire Engine of Frederick, the board of aldermen may call on the county commissioners to contribute toward the support and maintenance of the fire equipment of Frederick. To ask for the purchase of additional hose.

The Executive Committee of the Carroll County Christian Endeavor Union will meet Saturday afternoon, April 3, at 2 o'clock in the home of Mrs. J. D. Belt, West Main street. Each society is requested to have at least one representative at this important business meeting. Arrangements will be made for the convention to be held in May, and other business.

The funeral of Walter C. Armacost, 44 years of age who died on March 24, at the Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore, was held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock from the home of his sister, Mrs. J. C. Wheeler, Hampstead. The services were conducted by Rev. Walter B. Stehl, rector of Holy Innocents' Protestant Episcopal Church, of Baltimore. Burial was in the Hampstead Cemetery.

The residence of Oscar Barnes at Gamber, was entered by thieves on Friday night while the Barnes family was visiting friends and $125 and several pieces of silverware were taken. The thieves also helped themselves to some pie, ham and biscuits which were in the pantry in the kitchen. They entered the house by prying open a back shutter of the kitchen and removing the window sash.

Plans for a trolley line connecting Hanover with Gettysburg and Gettysburg with Chambersburg are being talked of in that vicinity, says the Gettysburg Star and Sentinel, following the visit there last week of J. B. Carmichael, a civil engineer formerly in the employ of the W. M. railway company and now president of the Williamsport, Neshle and Martinsburg R. R. Mr. Carmichael formerly lived in this city.

Charged with stealing wheat from the farm of William Hockenschmidt, of near Emmitsburg, William Vahn, of Carroll county, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Smith, of Frederick county, on Wednesday and when given a preliminary hearing before Magistrate Shuff, of Emmitsburg, was held under $500 bail. It is alleged that Vahn went to the farm of Mr. Hockenschmidt and carried six bushels of wheat into a field alongside the road. He succeeded in carrying away two bushels, but when he returned for the remainder, he was met by Mr. Hockenschmidt, who frightened away the thief. Deputy Smith was notified and Vahn was arrested at his home in Carroll county.

Attorney J. H. Steele, of Mt. Airy, after a long absence made his appearance at his office Tuesday.

The bus line which has been operated between this city and Silver Run has been extended to Littlestown, Pa.

The Carroll Printing Company fitted from its old stand to Edw. W. Case's residence, East Main street.

Dr. J. H. Preston, of Hampstead, was taken to the Springfield Hospital for treatment on Saturday evening by Sheriff Davis.

Yesterday was moving day and from the looks of the loads of household goods that passed through our city a great many had the "move on."

Jason E. Crout, for several years manager of the Pen-Mar restaurant and for many years associated with his father there, has awarded a contract for a 40-room hotel on the old skating rink site at Pen-Mar.

Ernest Dell, who was locked up in jail for recklessly using a revolver, was examined as to his sanity this week and was found to be insane. Tuesday morning Sheriff Davis took Dell to the Springfield Hospital for treatment.

The largest attended and best sale in this county this spring was held by Mr. Elmer J. Myers, near Pleasant Valley, on Tuesday. The sale amounted to $5410.66. The hogs alone netted $1,000. Mr. Myers had every article so conveniently arranged to be sold that it reminded one of a well selected program.

Leroy Owens, alias "Texas," was arrested on Monday by Officer Stem on the charge of stealing a set of tools from Mr. Levery Snader, West Main street. The harness was sold in Baltimore and by the shrewdness of Officer Stem Owens was found to be the party.

Mr. Abe Cohen, who purchased the Miller Bros' Company stock, has enjoyed one big success. On the opening day the crowd was so great that only a certain number could be left in at a time so the clerks would have time to please and show each customer before purchasing.

We noticed a scorching article in the last issue of the Union Bridge Pilot against Officer Franklin T. Bachman, bailiff, of that place. We are at sea to know that Mr. Bachman should be lampooned in that way, as Mr. Bachman was an officer of our city for several years and was very attentive to his duties.

President Carl R. Gray of the Western Maryland Railway Company yesterday announced the appointment of M. C. Byers as assistant to the president to succeed W. Taylor Stringer. Mr. Stringer has been named as superintendent of the relief department of the railway company. Both appointments became effective yesterday.

The United States Postal Department played an April fool joke yesterday on a Baltimore liquor house and a "dry" Eastern Shoreman, when a package containing a quart of whiskey was held up at Centerville postoffice and delivery refused because of an order of the department forbidding shipments of "booze" by parcel post.

The contract for the erection of the Francis Scott Key monument, to be erected at Keyville was awarded to Mr. Joseph L. Mathias, East Main street. There were several bidders from Baltimore. This shows that Westminster has a marble and granite business, that is second to none and that his work is equal to the best in the state.

Chief Judge William H. Thomas and Judge James R. Brashears sustained yesterday at Ellicott City the demurrer of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company to the bill of complaint of John F. O'Malley and William J. French, both of complainants on the main line and Washington branch of the railroad company, and the preliminary injunction granted by Judge William H. Forsythe, Jr., was dissolved.

Burglars entered the home of Charles Hoover, at Glen Rock, Sunday night, and stole $20 in cash, the funds of the Trinity Reformed church, of which Mr. Hoover is the secretary. The money was taken from a bureau drawer on the second floor, the only thing in the house disturbed. The window of the room, opening on to a back porch, was up about a foot, and it is thought the burglars made their way out of the house through it.

The State Roads Commission will construct the link from Emmitsburg to the Maryland and Pennsylvania line as soon as the weather permits the beginning of the work. However, there are several hundred yards of the road just on the other side of Emmitsburg, which will be piked at this time and later, when the commission has more money on hand, these several hundred yards will be built the same as the rest of the State roads and the same as the remainder of the link which will be constructed this summer.

Maryland Day was observed at the Mt. Airy High School, March 25, with a special program given by the Literary Society. The address of the occasion was delivered by Rev. W. L. Seabrook, of this city, who was chosen by the Carroll County School Board, while Superintendent of Schools George F. Morelock also made an address. Readings on Maryland history were given by Ellsworth Poole and LaRue Dunn. Blanche Spurrier recited the "Star Spangled Banner." The exercises were concluded by the singing of "Maryland, My Maryland."

Professor Jacob Houck, of near Wesley, is preparing to teach a class the notes of music, and how to sing. The class will meet in Carroll Hall each Friday evening beginning at 8 p. m. To this class all who would learn to sing are cordially invited to join. Mr. Houck is an able singer, and has been teaching music for many years. The larger the class the better pleased will Mr. Houck be. Any member of the class, but an offering will be lifted each evening, and all members of the class are invited to contribute. On Friday evening April 8, will be the first meeting of the class. The public is invited.

Ridgely Sparks, colored, Friday night was taken from near Mt. Airy, where he had his leg cut off below the knee, to Montevue Hospital, Frederick. The negro kept saying that he had $125 in his pockets and he seemed more concerned over supposed loss of his money than his leg. An investigation showed that Sparks' "wealth" amounted to 28 cents. It was all the effect of John Barleycorn. Sparks, who is a well-known Frederick negro, was trying to "hop" a fast freight below Mt. Airy Junction, and because of his intoxicated condition fell beneath the cars, which cut his leg off about midway between the knee and ankle. Some persons nearby saw the negro meet with the accident and before they could go to his assistance he got up and crawled across four or five tracks. He never lost consciousness.

The Hanover and McSherrytown Street Railway was sold yesterday by J. W. Stacey, president of the York Trust Company, and his associates, to interests connected with Brooks & Co., bankers and brokers, of Scranton.

The third illustrated sermon on the Life of Jesus will be given this Sunday evening in the Methodist Episcopal Church. The subject is "The Crucifixion and Resurrection of Our Lord," illustrated by over sixty beautiful views, mostly from the master paintings.

The following new telephones were installed by the C. & P. Telephone Company: Howell R. Leppo, near Snyderburg, Hampstead 13-4; Jesse O. Leister, near Snyderburg, Hampstead 13-5; George W. Reed, Greenmount, Hampstead 120w; Henry R. Mathias, near Mexico, Westminster 819-24; Mrs. F. M. Hall, Asbestos, Westminster 812-5.

A special Easter service will be held at Sandy Mount Church Sunday morning, at 10.30. All cordially invited.

The Ladies' Mite Society will meet at the home of Mr. William Tanner Saturday afternoon, April 3. Sandy Mount Sunday school was re-organized Sunday morning with the following officers for the ensuing year: Superintendent, J. Fillmore Hoff; assistant superintendent, Wilson Zepp, secretary, Ernest Stockdale; treasurer, William Tanner; Librarian, Ennis Brown; Roy Bowman; organist, Myrtle Caple; President of Missionary Society, Mrs. L. W. Caple; President of Temperance Department, Myrtle Caple; primary teachers, Misses Ida Green, Grace Yingling and Mrs. Guy W. Caple.

The Mite Society of Pleasant Grove is arranging a splendid program for the Easter Egg Social to be held at the home of Mr. Ira Dorsey, Easter Monday night. It unfavorable weather Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Zepp and L. W. Caple attended the funeral of Mr. Elias Shipley Sunday afternoon at Mt. Zion Church. It was a large funeral.

Mrs. Sarah Caple, who has been very sick for a couple weeks, is much better at this time.

Mrs. Katherine Flater was buried at Sandy Mount Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Carroll Maddox preached the sermon. She was a former resident and kind neighbor of this community. For a number of years she has resided with her son, Thomas Flater, at Gamber.

The remains of Mrs. Lucinda Hering, who for many years formerly resided in this neighborhood, was interred in the cemetery at Sandy Mount, Thursday noon. She was an active and faithful member of the church and had many friends at this place. She was a member of the Mite Society until the last.

Mrs. Ida Shilling, who has been confined to her bed for a couple weeks with bronchitis, is still very sick.

Dr. James Zepp, who spent several weeks in Florida, returned to Sandyville, and spent a week with his brother, Emory Zepp, before returning to Westminster.

Misses Carry Greene and Myrtle Caple attended a Loyal Temperance Legion Institute at the W. C. T. U. Headquarters in Baltimore on Thursday, returning home Friday evening.

Mrs. William Westaway and Mrs. Thomas Shilling spent a few days visiting relatives in Baltimore last week.

Mrs. Lucinda Blizard and family attended the funeral of her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilderson, at Finksburg, Monday morning. She was a great sufferer for several years. She formerly lived in this neighborhood, was a good neighbor and kind friend.

Misses Myrtle and Lottie Caple attended the Operetta Play "The Princess Chrysanthemum," at Hampstead, Saturday night.

Mrs. L. W. Caple, Mrs. Bertrand Caple and Mrs. Guy W. Caple spent Thursday with Mrs. Mary Zepp, who entertained a number of her friends at her home, near Emory.

Miss Phillips, of Sykesville, is spending two weeks with her cousins, Misses Margaret and Nola Heagy.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meckley spent Sunday afternoon with Miss Myrtle Caple.

Mrs. Burnett Peterson and daughter, Miss Gretta Hering, of Belair, visited friends in this community last week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gorsuch and son, George, Jr., of Mt. Carmel, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John W. Abbott.

Mrs. Frank Buchman and Mrs. Abraham Buchman, of Philadelphia, are visiting friends of this community and attended the funerals of Mrs. Feig and Mrs. Finster.

Miss Edna Smith boiled a large egg last Saturday for her grandmother, on opening it she found the egg a solid yolk.

The Ladies Aid Society of Wesley will hold an entertainment and social in the Hall, Easter Monday night.

Mrs. Bud Oursler, of Jessups, is spending a fortnight with friends in this community.

Mrs. Roy Myers and children, Sterling and Morris, of Hanover, Pa., are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Allgire.

Miss Carrie Leppo, of Baltimore, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leppo.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leppo and son, Wilson, and Mrs. Wm. Leppo were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Sprinkle, of Bachman's Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sprinkle spent Sunday with Mrs. Alverta Wisner, of Putapsco.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet this Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Simon Ebaugh, Carrollton.

Mrs. Thomas Albaugh and daughter, Madeline, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Albaugh, of Greenmount.

PERSONALS

Mr. Charles Waesche, of Arlington, Md., was in this city yesterday.

Messrs. Fred and Paul Smith are home from Charlotte Hall school.

Deweels L. Farrar, East Green street, moved to Baltimore on Saturday.

Ex-Senator Johnnie E. Beasman, of Sykesville, was in this city on Friday last.

Miss Grace Gunther spent several days of this week with her sisters, in Baltimore.

Mr. Bernard Nusbaum, East Main street, spent Sunday with his parents at Union Mills.

Mrs. John Yingling and daughter, Miss Louise, spent the week's end in Baltimore.

Misses Corinne Myers and Mary Yeiser spent Sunday with Miss Mary Sneak, Mt. Pleasant.

Mr. Levi Zahn and family have moved from Unionville to a residence on Washington avenue.

Miss Pauline Sneak was the week's end guest of Miss Derma Yeiser, Pennsylvania avenue.

Mrs. Edward L. Kaufman and son, of Baltimore, are spending the holidays at the Elkheim farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zepp, Pennsylvania avenue, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son.

Mr. William Martin, of Graceham, spent Sunday with his aunt, Mrs. A. Mary Diffendal, Liberty street.

Mrs. D. S. Gehr, Bond street, spent Sunday and Monday with her daughter, Mrs. Carol Twigg, of Twiggstown, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore F. Brown, Pennsylvania avenue, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Carol Twigg, of Twiggstown, Md., are guests of Mrs. Twigg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Denton S. Gehr, Bond street.

Mr. Mack, of Baltimore, and Mr. Howard Menchey, of Hanover, Pa., spent last Monday with Milton Study and family.

Mr. William Sneak, of Harlem avenue, Baltimore, spent Sunday with his cousin, Mrs. Sarah Sheeler, Pennsylvania avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi W. Nace and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Alexander, of Hanover, Pa., visited Manchester and Hampstead Sunday.

Miss Mary Owings Shriver, of Union Mills, is the guest until Easter of her niece, Mrs. Robert Sargent Shriver, Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Kaufman, of Baltimore, spent Saturday and Sunday at the Elkheim farm, with his brother, Daniel J. Kaufman.

Mrs. Rose Forsythe and daughter, Miss Louise, of Baltimore, are guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Coonan, Pennsylvania avenue.

Mrs. Edward L. Kaufman and son are spending the Easter holiday at Elkheim, and have as a guest, Miss Gillen, of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stoner Liberty street, moved to Littlestown on Tuesday where Mr. Stoner will conduct a barber shop.

Mrs. Alice Tompson, of Tioga, North Dakota, and Miss Ethel Study, of Silver Run, spent several days last week in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Ralph Williams and son, Roger, of Carlisle, Pa., are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Liberty street.

Mr. Emanuel D. Whitmore, Pennsylvania avenue, left yesterday on the Chicago Limited for Larned, Kan., where he will visit his brother.

Mr. E. D. F. Brady, a special agent of the Department of Commerce, from Washington, D. C., is in this city looking over the statements filed in his department.

Mrs. F. W. Reese, Mrs. Emory Biddinger and Miss Louise Reese were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frick, Smallwood, from Wednesday until Thursday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bankert, Mt. Pleasant, will leave tomorrow for Cape Charles, Va., where they will spend the summer with their daughter, Mrs. William Milliken.

A marriage license was issued in Baltimore Saturday to Edward T. Bowers, of Baltimore, formerly of Fellsburg, and Mrs. Fannie Byers, living on East Main street.

Mr. Charles Lantz, East Main street, spent from Sunday until Thursday at St. Michaels, Talbot county, with friends. Mr. Lantz is very much pleased over his trip.

Mrs. Lydia Frownfelter and Mrs. Alice Tompson and children, Cecil and Clark, left on Monday for their home in Tioga, North Dakota, after spending the winter with Milton Study and family.

Mrs. Austin Gallagher, near this city, will leave after Easter for a short stay at Atlantic City, later going to New York, where she will visit for a few days her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Winslow S. Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Riley Myers, Center street, attended the funeral of Mrs. Bridget J. Bortell, of Woodstock, Md., who died suddenly March 28, in her 65th year and was buried Wednesday morning. Mrs. Bortell was a cousin to Mrs. Myers.

Mr. Benjamin Spencer, this city, who has signed to play ball with the Rochester Club, left today for Rochester, N. Y. Mr. Spencer plays in the outfield and has made a rapid stride toward success at his profession. He is owned by the Washington Americans.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Fowle, West Main street; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shrliner and Mrs. Claude Billmyer, Union Bridge; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Shaffer, Henry Z. Buchen, Walter Sullivan, Hampstead, attended the funeral of Dr. A. Z. Buchen, at Hanover, Pa., Sunday.

Mr. Noah W. Miller, near this city, will leave tomorrow morning for Glenville and York, where he will spend about 15 days. Afterward in company with his cousins, Mr. Adam Sharrer and Mrs. Amon Newcomer, of York, will leave for Columbiana, Ohio, where they will spend several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse H. Null and family entertained at dinner on Sunday Rev. and Mrs. W. F. Hersh, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fuhrman, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Neudecker, Mr. and Mrs. Milton A. Sullivan, Mrs. E. C. Little, Mrs. Wesley Mathias, Misses Margaret Little, Katherine Sullivan, Mary Little and Master George Sullivan.

Trinity Lutheran Church. Good Friday services were held at Trinity Lutheran Church, Deer Park road. Easter services will be held on Sunday morning, at 10.30 a. m., with sermon by Pastor Seabrook, followed by celebration of the Holy Communion. The Sunday school will be re-organized on Sunday, April 11th.

To keep a gun from scattering put in a single shot.

Safety first at sea calls for the long, long way around.

A rumor doesn't need fertile ground in which to grow.

NUSBAUM & JORDAN WESTMINSTER'S BEST STORE.

One More Day and Then Easter! Have You Forgotten any of These Items?

GLOVES GLOVES

KID GLOVES at $1.00, made from fine lambskin, two press button fastening, attractive braidings and stitchings, new shades for Spring, also white with black contrast and black with white contrast.

SILK GLOVES, "Kaysar brand" which is a guarantee of quality, double tip fingers, short gloves with two press buttons, at 50c and $1.00 pair; 12 and 16 button lengths at 75c and $1.00 pair, in black, white and colors.

LEATHERETTE GLOVES, a washable fabric glove, resembling leather and extremely serviceable, in white and colors at 50c and $1.00.

HOSIERY HOSIERY

WOMEN'S SILK STOCKINGS at 50c, "Onyx" Brand, pure thread silk boot with lisle "Dub-e" top; Reinforced heel, sole and toe; black, white, tan and colors.

WOMEN'S "ONYX" all pure thread silk, silk garter tops, high spliced heels and double soles of silk; black, white and colors at $1.00, $1.25, $1.50.

AN "ONYX" SILK STOCKING now at 25c, ask to see them.

CORSETS CORSETS

Royal Worcester and American Lady. Are the most widely known corset trademarks and the ones that women think of first when "corsets" are mentioned. The new spring models are here. In one of these new models your comfort is insured and the fit of your gown perfect. Prices are $1.00 to $3.00.

NECKWEAR—DAINTY and FRESH FOR EASTER—25 and 50c

An entire new showing of about fifty, crisp, new styles, in white, black and sand shades, military collars, chemisettes, collar and vest, collar and cuff sets, made from laces, organdy and swiss.

For Spring—Suits, Coats, Skirts

Our ready-to-wear department is filled with these new spring garments. The new suits with the short coats and wider skirts make instant appeal. The prices will interest you—so reasonable, $12, $14, $16. The new coats, of fancy mixed wools have a jaunty appearance. The popular length is 38 inches. They are priced at $5, $7.50 and $10.00. Separate skirts are greatly in demand. We are showing a great variety of new models that will surely please you. Materials are serges, poplins, gaberdines, checks; prices are $2.50, $3.98, $5.00 and $6.00.

NUSBAUM & JORDAN, - Westminster, Maryland

Babylon & Lippy Co.

Our annual special spring price sale of reliable Floor Coverings. This is the sale on which we specialize by giving regular merchandise at reduced prices. We ask that you compare these values and prices on advertised and well known brands.

LINOLEUM LINOLEUM

Cook's, Potter's, Armstrong's, first quality linoleum, not two cuts, drop patterns or seconds, these are first quality.

Table with 3 columns: Linoleum type, Price per yard, Price per 3 yards. Includes 1 yard wide Linoleum 50c yard, 1 1/2 yards wide Linoleum 75c yard, 2 yards wide Linoleum 85c yard, 2 1/2 yards wide Linoleum $1.00 yard, 3 yards wide Linoleum $1.35 yard.

Twenty Patterns From Which To Make Selection.

MATTINGS MATTINGS

Here you will find the most patterns. The largest selection of popular priced mattings. These range in price 1 1/2c yard to 30c. Here is the piece price quotation on forty yards. For your comparison.

Table with 2 columns: Matting type, Price per 40 yards. Includes 12 1/2c Quality Matting, roll price $4.75, 15c Quality Matting, roll price 5.85, 19c Quality Matting, roll price 6.90, 25c Quality Matting, roll price $ 8.80, 30c Quality Matting, roll price 10.00.

RUGS RUGS RUGS

CREX RUGS AT THE FOLLOWING PRICES:

Table with 2 columns: Rug type, Price. Includes Regular 9x12 Crex Rug $6.50, Wool and Fiber Rugs, regular 9x12 $ 7.00, Stenciled 9x12 Crex Rug 7.75, Nine Wire Brussels Rugs 12.75.

Twenty-five patterns in Brussels, Velvet and Axminster Rugs, size 9x12, ranging in price $12.75 up to $40.00. This is the largest and most complete line we have ever shown in rugs in room size. You will find these in floral patterns, conventional designs and plain colors. We also carry rugs in odd sizes for small rooms, halls, bath rooms, etc.

VACUUM SWEEPERS

The regular $7.00 Torrington Model "K" Vacuum Cleaner at the very special price for this spring, $5.75.

We ask a comparison of Quality, Values and Prices on these lines of Merchandise.