

Hundreds of Dollars Worth of Goods Formerly Owned By The Miller Bros. Co., Will be Sold at a Greater Reduction Than Before.

PUBLIC SALE

Now is Your Chance to buy Your Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Furnishing Goods for Half Their Real Value.

STILL GOING ON!

There are hundreds of dollars worth of Schloss Bros. Clothing for men and boys, High Grade clothing for children; Regal Shoes for men and boys; Educator Shoes for men, women and children; a first-class line of men's Furnishing Goods of all kinds and descriptions; Queen Quality Shoes for ladies; Trunks, Underwear, Leather and Felt Boots, Rubbers, for men, women and children; and many other well known branded goods too numerous to mention, which must be sold within the next ten days at prices never heard of before in this section of the country.

Hundreds of people bought thousands of dollar's worth of merchandise during the last few days of the greatest Public Sale ever known, formerly owned by The Miller Bros. Co., and all left well satisfied with their bargains.

Don't Forget The Place ABE COHEN'S

Formerly Miller Bros. Co. Store

WESTMINSTER, MD.

All Store Fixtures Formerly Owned by The Miller Bros. Co., Must Be Sold.

We Still Have a Complete Assortment of Sizes in All Kinds of Goods, So Come Early, As The First to Come Will Be The First Served.

MANCHESTER. Mr. Thomas Riley died suddenly at his late home about one mile east of town on Saturday morning, March 27, at 1 a. m. He had been in his usual good health and he retired early. About 10 p. m., he awoke his wife, complaining of being ill. Dr. Jacob Sherman was summoned and found him fatally paralyzed. He lingered until 1 a. m., and peacefully passed away, aged 62 years. Mr. Riley was a quiet, unassuming gentleman of the old school and was held in esteem by neighbors and friends. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. Frank Koner, living near home; two sons proceeded him to the spirit world. Funeral services Tuesday morning, March 30. Interment in the Lutheran Cemetery, Rev. J. B. Lau officiating. W. L. F. Bergman, funeral director.

SILVER RUN. Mr. Charles Knipple, of Hanover, Pa., was in this place and made some improvements to his property. The public school closed the spring term on March 19 with the following named pupils present every day: Edna C. Dutterer, B. Margaret Dutterer, Irma C. Humbert, Miriam E. Shaeffer, Catherine B. Shaeffer, M. Caroline Yingling, Ralph E. Yingling, William S. Morelock, George M. Shaeffer, Miles A. Bemiller, Paul D. Bemiller. Those missing one day, Catherine R. Cratin, Florence E. Humbert, Mabel G. Yingling, Leah C. Feesser, Catherine E. Feesser, Richard G. Hoffman, John J. Dutterer, Irving J. Zacharias, Harry L. Dutterer, Harry J. Kooztz. L. Miraud Nussbaum, principal, and Ruthanna Wantz, assistant.

McSherrystown, Pa., on Tuesday. Lewis Elliott and wife left on Tuesday for their home in York Springs. Levi D. Sell and wife, of Hanover, attended the I. O. O. F. banquet on Friday night and visited friends in and near town. Mr. Sell returned home on Sunday and Mrs. Sell was visiting her sister, Mrs. Byron Still, near Keysville, Tuesday. She was summoned home by the death of her husband, he having been killed while at work, by falling from a scaffold, although at this writing not many of the particulars are known.

Charles Therit moved his family to his farm near Melrose last Monday. John Riley, near here, was paralyzed last Friday night and died a few hours later. He is survived by a widow and one daughter, Mrs. Frank Koerner. Funeral was held Tuesday. Interment at the Manchester Lutheran Cemetery, Rev. Lau officiating. Deceased was aged 61 years.

Miss Amanda Shaeffer, of near Lineboro, spent last Wednesday visiting her sister, Mrs. John Bollinger, here. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rinehart received word last week that their daughter, Mrs. Laura Bull, underwent an operation at a Virginia hospital and is improving.

PLEASANT VALLEY. Sunday school this Sunday at 9 a. m. Holy communion at 10, by Rev. J. W. Reinecke. C. E. Society at 7.30 in the evening. A very quiet wedding of the lenten season was solemnized Tuesday, March 30, at high noon at Carroll Reform parsonage, when Miss Ruth Pauline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hahn, became the bride of Mr. Elmer F. Kindig, son of Mrs. Cecelia Kindig, of near Littlestown, Pa., Rev. J. W. Reinecke, the bride's pastor, performed the ceremony. There were no attendants. The bride was being suitably attired in a dark blue traveling suit with hat and gloves to match. The groom wore the conventional black. Immediately after the ceremony the couple left for a wedding trip to Baltimore and Washington. Upon their return they will reside near Littlestown, where the groom is engaged in farming. Miss Hahn was one of our great Sunday school and Christian Endeavor workers. The happy couple have the best wishes for a long and happy life.

IMPORTANT NOTICE. Our line of Ready-Made Suits are by far the nobbiest we have ever shown and it will be a peculiar taste that we cannot satisfy. All the newest shades in browns, blues, plaids and the standard blacks, greys, etc. Prices $12.00, $15.00, $18.00, $22.00.

Mrs. Ellen Leese gave a dinner Sunday, March 28, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Leese. A delightfully served dinner was enjoyed by all. Those present were Misses, Ellen, Ada and Mary Leese, Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Leese, George Leese, A. Bixler, Ernest W. Leese and sons, Wilbur and Raymond.

Those who attended school every day during the spring term at Humbert's school were Ruth Lawyer, Helen Warner, Myerl Warner, Annie Streivig, Alice Streivig, Ruthetta Bowman, Mary Heltbride, Ethel Study, Edna Mathias, Dewey Streivig, Albert Leese, Albert Lawyer, Luther Bowman, James Streivig, Howard Study, Nevin Lawyer, Milton Miller, Clarence Warner, Edgar Study, Stanley Bower, six, Raymond Lawyer, Ralph Bowman and Thurman Heltbride. Mary Copenhaver, teacher.

Work on the last section of the state road was commenced this week. As this is the worst section of the road it is hoped it will be completed in the near future.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fraley, Miss Clara Rowe, Mary Ellen and Virginia Eyster, of Emmitsburg, spent Saturday with Mrs. S. C. Ott.

Miss Evelyn Jones and grandmother Jones, of Westminster, are visiting the latter's son, David F. Jones.

Mrs. H. B. Miller spent the week's end in Philadelphia on a visit to Mr. Miller, who is a patient at a hospital there.

Our tailoring line consists of 384 nobbiest patterns on the market.

What might have been a most serious accident was averted by timely assistance. The family of Mr. Wm. Zepp was partially overcome by gas from their coal heater. A wrongly adjusted draft caused the trouble. Mr. Zepp is an invalid, but his wife called the assistance of neighbors and the doctor relieved them. At this writing they are almost fully recovered from the effects.

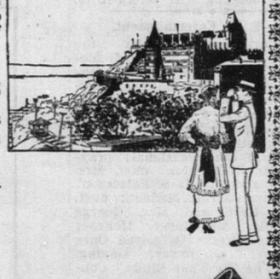

The Young people of Trinity Reformed Church will give a play the first day of May in the I. O. O. F. Hall for the benefit of the new parsonage. Miss Fannie G. Ross held her spring opening Saturday afternoon and evening. A large and appreciative crowd of ladies viewed the latest in Millinery. Before buying call around. Mr. Valentine Manthey sold his household effects and farming implements Saturday, March 27. A big crowd and good prices made it a successful sale.

Work on the last section of the state road was commenced this week. As this is the worst section of the road it is hoped it will be completed in the near future.

Mrs. Wm. R. Westaway and Mrs. Thomas Shilling were the week's end guests of friends in Baltimore.

Miss Myrtle Cable spent several days the past week with friends in Baltimore.

Until you have seen our line of Men's, Ladies' and Children's Oxfords and Pumps you have not seen the finest display to be found in Westminster. Bottom prices.

Mr. Irvin Streivig moved into the Manthey home Tuesday. Mr. George Leese has moved into the Mrs. Elie Berwager flat. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Werheim will move into the Berwager home, formerly occupied by Mr. E. Weaver.

The I. O. O. F. Lodge held a large banquet Friday evening as a farewell to Rev. D. J. Wolf, who will soon leave for Apollo, Pa. Some very fine addresses were made by Deputy Grand Master Wm. Arthur, and Wm. A. Jones, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Maryland. Impromptu speeches were made by Revs. Wolf, Marks and Downie. There were also visitors present from Frederick.

Miss Edyth Mason and Miss Daisy Bell, of Baltimore, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Spencer.

Mrs. J. P. Albaugh and daughter, Madeline, are spending some time with relatives in Greenmount.

Mrs. George Caltrider and sons, Charles and Marion, of Worthington Valley, attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Flater, Wednesday last.

The man who comes to us for his outfit receives a rebate. We can save you money. Give us a trial.

Mr. Valentine Manthey sold his household effects and farming implements Saturday, March 27. A big crowd and good prices made it a successful sale.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Wells spent Sunday with the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Wells, of Hampstead.

Miss Myrtle Cable spent several days the past week with friends in Baltimore.

Mrs. George Caltrider and sons, Charles and Marion, of Worthington Valley, attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Flater, Wednesday last.

Mrs. George Caltrider and sons, Charles and Marion, of Worthington Valley, attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Flater, Wednesday last.

Mrs. George Caltrider and sons, Charles and Marion, of Worthington Valley, attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Flater, Wednesday last.

S.W. BOND & SON UP TO DATE OUTFITTERS WESTMINSTER, MD.

Mr. John Denners, who was a patient at the Union Protestant Infirmary, Baltimore, has returned home. She is improving rapidly from a serious operation.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Wells spent Sunday with the former's parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Wells, of Hampstead.

Mrs. J. P. Albaugh and daughter, Madeline, are spending some time with relatives in Greenmount.

Mrs. George Caltrider and sons, Charles and Marion, of Worthington Valley, attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Flater, Wednesday last.

Mrs. George Caltrider and sons, Charles and Marion, of Worthington Valley, attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Flater, Wednesday last.

Mrs. George Caltrider and sons, Charles and Marion, of Worthington Valley, attended the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Flater, Wednesday last.

Tommy—Pop, what is discretion? Tommy's Pop—Discretion, my son, is merely the art of bluffing a fellow you know can lick you.