

The Democratic Advocate

WESTMINSTER, MD.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, APRIL 9, 1915

A WESTERN MARYLAND CANDIDATE.

The Democratic party organization in the counties of Maryland is about to face a crisis. Strenuous efforts are being made by that section of the organization which represents the Eastern Shore politicians to nominate an Eastern Shore politician as the party candidate for Governor this year, and all sorts of arguments are being used to line up certain of the Western Shore counties in favor of Mr. Emerson C. Harrington, of Dorchester county, at present Comptroller of the Treasury.

It is the opinion of the Advocate that such a course is a serious mistake. The Eastern Shore has been in control of the State Government for twelve out of the past sixteen years, and Easternshoremans have held, and still continue to hold a very large proportion of the state offices—a number vastly out of proportion to the population and revenue production of that section of Maryland—and the people of the other five-sixths of the state are very much dissatisfied, at this situation and are almost in a state of revolt at any prospect of its continuance for four more years.

Western Maryland is entitled to the Governorship, and by Western Maryland the Advocate means that section of the state on this side of the Chesapeake Bay, including, of course, Baltimore city.

Carroll county presents to the consideration of the Democratic party, former Senator Beasman, a sterling Democrat of the old, time-honored regular school of Democracy, who has a record of more than a generation of faithful and efficient party service. Large numbers of Democrats, including many party leaders of tried ability and efficiency, in all parts of the state, are openly in favor of Mr. Beasman's nomination, and it will be the part of wisdom for the Eastern Shore Democrats to consider the real welfare of their party and aid in the nomination of the Carroll county candidate, who is also the candidate best representing the Western part of the State.

THE FREDERICK CITIZEN ON SENATOR BEASMAN.

"Ex-State Senator Beasman of Carroll county is well known in Frederick county, and throughout the State, because of his long and valuable services at Annapolis during the past thirty years, as a member of the House and Senate, where he won the reputation of being the real watch dog of the Treasury. He has a consistent and unvarying record in favor of economy in the way of appropriations, and during the twelve years he was a member of the Senate he was the persistent opponent of all extravagant appropriations. During two sessions, the sessions of 1906 and 1908, his strenuous opposition to certain measures saved the State a total of about six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000) and through his efforts the annual appropriation to the Johns Hopkins University was reduced from $50,000 to $25,000. He was also an opponent of all salary increases, as well as other raids on the Treasury."

KEYSVILLE.

SMALLWOOD.

Perhaps spring has put in its appearance at last, as we now have had several balmy days. On April 1st there was a very sociable party given by Mrs. Maggie Horton in honor of her oldest son. The hostess received her guests in her kind and amiable way, in making everyone feel welcome and at home. The guests kept arriving until 9 o'clock when they numbered about 70. Games and dancing were indulged in until a late hour. All enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. About 12 o'clock refreshments were served consisting of lemonade, cake, bananas and peanuts. As each departed for their homes they expressed themselves as having spent a very pleasant evening. Music was furnished by Charles A. Wagner and son.

There has been a great many movements passing Smallwood, among them Mr. Thomas Paynter, moving to the place vacated by Mr. Robert Nelson. Mr. Harmon Wardenfelt to the place vacated by Mr. Thomas Paynter. Mr. Jasper Bloom to the Lewis Davis place, which was vacated by Mr. Wm. Reese, who has returned to a home of his own at Louisville. Mr. and Mrs. Rhinehardt from the State of Washington, have moved to the house vacated by Jasper Bloom.

Miss Duvall was an Easter guest of Mrs. Francis Arnold. Misses Marie Kessler, Alice Decker, Julia May, Messrs. George Wick and George Mide, all of Baltimore, were Easter guests of Mr. Charles A. Wagner.

The P. O. S. of A. held its banquet on March 31, which was well attended.

The P. O. S. of A. will hold its annual festival on May 22. The annual Easter dance given by three ladies of the community was very well attended. The guests numbered nearly 300. They were from Baltimore, Sykesville, Gamber, Bird Hill, Shipley, Westminster, Reese, Eastview, Smallwood and a number of other places. All had a very pleasant time. Refreshments were served at 11 o'clock. Music was furnished by Messrs. Charles A. Wagner, Walter Wagner and Snyder Arnold.

BLOOM.

Mr. William Zile, of near Enterprise, had a narrow escape of having his barn burned down on Monday evening. The fire started in the straw stack in the barnyard which was burned, the barn caught on fire but through plenty of help and good management it was saved.

Fire broke out in the new ground of Mr. Jesse Bair and burned over a piece of woods of Mr. Charles Sellman.

Mrs. John Cook, who had been sick most of the winter, is improving.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Salem will hold their chicken and oyster supper on Saturday evening, April 10. The Taylor's Band will be present. Come early as the days are lengthening and the nights are shorter.

Mr. Edward Barnes has erected a new blacksmith shop and is working at his trade.

A large crowd of people attended the sale of the late Sarah L. Prugh on Friday last, and good prices were received.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kiler have moved to the property of the late Sarah L. Prugh.

Death has again come into our midst and has taken away Mr. Carroll Myerly, youngest son of Mr. David E. Myerly. Funeral service took place on Thursday morning, April 8th, by his pastor, Rev. Hersh, of Westminster. Interment was in Kridger's cemetery, near Westminster.

He was a member of Camp No. 7, P. O. S. of A., of this place who had charge of the service. The following brothers were pallbearers: Leonard Yingling, Wm. A. Myers, Harry Wantz, Paul Myers, John Kemper and John Myers. Mr. Myerly was in his 31st year.

The farmers are busy plowing and some are planting potatoes. J. Wesley Coker moved from L. G. Snyder's farm to Mrs. Kate Lockard's house along the new state road, and Roy Simmons moved to the farm he purchased from C. W. Sprinkle.

Edward Houck tore his old log barn down last week and will replace the same by a large frame barn.

The Easter entertainment held by the Mt. Union United Brethren Sunday school on Easter Sunday night was largely attended considering the condition of the roads.

There will not be any preaching at Mt. Union United Brethren Church on Sunday morning. Mrs. Susie Gummel is spending a week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Warchine, near Silver Run.
