WHAT DO YOU KNOW?

Do you know that an editor or a reporter for a newspaper can in his rooms stop and ask a hundred persons "what is the news?" And ninety out of the hundred will reply, "Nothing special" and yet fifty out of that number know something that, if not found in the next paper, will astonish them greatly and disappoint them more. Don't be afraid to let the newspaper man know it.

MANUFACTURERS HIT BY WAR.

Despite the so-called "war orders," says an official analysis of foreign trade just issued by the Department of Commerce, "the exports of manufactures of all kinds, other than foodstuffs, have been less than in the similar period before the war." The statement refers to the foreign trade for the ten months ended in April, which shows a trade balance of almost a billion dollars. "The nominal sales of manufactures during peace," says the statement, were greater than those under existing war conditions. Because of this fact and the extraordinary shrinkage of exports of crude materials, it is found that the net increase in our total exports has been wholly in foodstuffs.

One of the outstanding features of the analysis is that more than forty-eight million dollars' worth of American horses and almost ten millions of dollars' worth of mules have been fed to the battlefields. Ten million dollars' worth were sent to Europe in April alone. In Europe alone, of the world's grand divisions, has American foreign trade increased. European nations took $287,000,000 more of American goods during the ten months than during the same periods the previous year. North American nations took $55,000,000 less; South American nations, $33,000,000 less; Asiatic nations, $8,500,000 less; African countries, $900,000 less, and Oceania countries, $9,200,000 less.

Sunday newspaper readers who know what's come to look upon the tabloid fiction magazine in colors as one of the most desirable and attractive features of the complete Sunday paper. Therefore it will interest them to learn that at this time "The Philadelphia Record" Sunday Magazine is the only publication of its kind regularly issued each week by a Philadelphia Sunday newspaper.

If you don't know "The Philadelphia Record" Sunday Magazine, now is the time to get acquainted with it. From the beginning it has been at the head of its class. Its contributors are men and women of literary reputation whose names are familiar to the readers of the better grade of monthly magazines. Its serials and short stories are as strong and as gripping as its articles from gifted pens are informative and interesting. It is illustrated in the best style of well-known artists, printed on good, calendared paper and bound in a fetching and always varied colored cover. It is worth by itself more than the price of the Sunday newspaper of which it is only a supplemental part. "The Sunday Record" for itself—for its reliable news, its authentic sports, its authoritative weekly departments—but you will especially appreciate its superior fiction magazine. Be sure to get your newsdealer to reserve a "Record" for you next Sunday. After that you'll be a regular reader of "The Philadelphia Sunday Record"—and you'll have to settle the family question as to who is to have the first chance at the magazine, only one copy of which is furnished with each copy of the newspaper.

PLEASANT VALLEY.

Sunday school this Sunday at 9 a. m. Divine service at 10 a. m., and 7.30 p. m., by Rev. J. W. Reinecke. Miss Edith Myers, Miss Harris, Miss Preston Myers and Stevenson Yingling, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Yingling. Miss Jane Young, of Westminster, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. Herbert Myers. On Sunday last the following persons spent the day in Waynesboro, making the trip in automobiles, Mr. and Mrs. David Warehime, son, Harry, daughters, Mary and Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wanz. Miss Amy Hahn and Mr. Edward Black spent Sunday at Hampstead. The sale of the personal property of the late Joseph Helwig was purchased by Mr. Harry D. Wanz, for $1700.

SMALLWOOD.

Mr. and Mrs. William O. Lockard entertained at their guests on Sunday last: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Rittler and two daughters, Mrs. J. T. Egan, Miss Lottie Caple, all of Baltimore; Mrs. Harry Hill and three children, Harry, Mary and George. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Leppo and two children, Emily and Ollie, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Myers and son, Harold, of Westminster; Master William O. Lockard, Jr., and Miss Almeda L. Lockard, of Smallwood. After partaking of the dinner prepared by Mrs. Lockard, an automobile trip was made. The repast was greatly enjoyed especially by the guests from Baltimore. Mr. Rittler delighted Mr. and Mrs. Lockard, Almeda and Willie Lockard, Mr. William Myers and wife, with a spin over into Howard county in his auto. About five o'clock cake, ice cream, lemonade and bananas were served. At 6.30 they all departed for their homes in Baltimore, thanking Mr. and Mrs. Lockard for their day's enjoyment.

UNIONTOWN.

Messrs. Irving Harbaugh, of York, Pa., and Robert Harbaugh, of Hanover, Pa., visited their father, Mr. Samuel Harbaugh, on Sunday. Mr. Harbaugh has been on the sick list for several weeks. Mrs. Ellen Smith, of Lincoln, Va., and Mrs. F. T. Darby, of Hagerstown, are spending some time with their sister, Mrs. Dr. Weaver. Mrs. Dr. Felix, of Boston, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Harbaugh.

Miss Ruby Rodkey has returned from school. Miss Reba Stremmel, of New Windsor, visited her sister, Mrs. Frank Haines, the past week. Miss Sarah V. Wertz, of Hanover, is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Saltz-giver.

Friends of Mr. Carroll Weaver, of Baltimore, were sorry to hear that he was obliged to go to the hospital and undergo an operation for appendicitis. He is reported improving. Misses Dorcas Babylon, of Fountain Valley, and Etta Corbin, of Westminster, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Casper.

Miss Effie Wagner visited her aunt, Mrs. Jacob Snare, of Middleburg, the past week. Mr. Earl Senseny has returned from the hospital. He is improving, but weak.

Miss Sallie Barnhard has moved to the west end of town, into the house adjoining W. P. Englar's store. Mr. and Mrs. George Selby entertained at dinner on Sunday in honor of Mrs. Selby's birthday: Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Eckard and family and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Selby and son, Paul.

Mrs. Lanye Shaw is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Edwin Cover, and family, of Easton. The Methodist Protestants observed Children's Day successfully at Pipe Creek and Uniontown.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Smith and son, Carroll, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fair at dinner on Sunday. Mrs. Kate Gilbert has improved her home by the addition of a long porch at the front of the house and concrete pavement, also by cutting the windows down.

The Lutherans are having the well at the parsonage dug deeper, in order to secure a permanent supply of water. The young ladies of Mrs. McMaster's class and the young gentlemen of Mr. Routsen's class held a very successful lawn festival the past week.

LOCUST HILL.

Those who visited at the home of William Kirkhoff and family on Sunday were: Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Lookingbill, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rusher, of Kingsdale; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Bankert and daughters, Florence and Helen, Miss Maria Smith and Mr. Walter Spomer, of Littlestown; Mr. and Mrs. Verley Brown and children, Russell, Fern, Grace and Helen, of Brushtown; Mrs. Alva Arter and daughters, Carrie and Cathryn, Misses Annie and Ida Basehoar, of near Silver Church; Miss Bertie Leppo, of Cliver Run, and Mr. Robert Wisner, of Mt. Pleasant; Mrs. Lookingbill, of Union Mills.

Reminded of His Birthday.

Ex-Sheriff E. N. Davis was down town on the 22nd of this month and returned home to dinner not thinking it was his birthday. On arriving home he found that his wife and daughter, Mrs. McCaffrey, had prepared a nice dinner for him, and on the center of the table was a large cake with seventy candles, representing Mr. Davis' seventieth birthday. He received a large number of birthday cards and a nice umbrella, which came by mail from his children and friends. In the afternoon he also received more cards, and among them was one sent by a friend wishing that Mr. Davis would be elected to the office of one of the Judges of the Orphans' Court and would live to serve his four-year term. I hope he has many more such friends. Mr. Davis has very good health, and is active for a man of his age. People that do not happen to know his age would take him to be a man of not over fifty-five or sixty years.—By a friend.

Armies Have Lost Ten Million Men.

Denver, Cal., June 19.—Upward of 10,000,000 men have been killed, wounded or taken prisoners in the European conflict up to March 1, according to unofficial figures subscribed today by Dr. Kurtz Zeigler, German consul here. Without Belgians, Serbians, Montenegrins and Japanese, the Allies' casualties are put at 6,044,000. The Teutonic allies, not including the Turks, suffered losses of 2,979,000 in the first seven months. The total of 8,831,000 is unofficially increased to upward of 10,000,000 when the casualties of the other belligerents are included. The tabulated figures he made public follows: Germany, dead, 482,000; seriously wounded, 760,000; prisoners, 97,000; Austria, dead, 341,000; seriously wounded, 618,000; prisoners, 83,000; France, dead, 464,000; seriously wounded, 718,000; prisoners, 439,000; England, dead, 116,000; seriously wounded, 185,000; prisoners, 49,000; Russia, dead, 733,000; seriously wounded, 1,500,000; prisoners, 452,000.

EIGHT DROWN AT ATLANTIC

Many Thrilling Rescues Reported—Caught in Undertow.

Atlantic City, June 20.—Lashed and beaten into helplessness by merciless waves and powerless in the grip of an undertow against which human might was puny and futile, eight persons met their deaths on the beach today, while heroes, red-shirted beach guards and bathers who took their lives into their own hands battled desperately against tremendous odds to save them. Thousands lined the Boardwalk and beach, women wringing their hands and weeping bitterly, as a tragedy, heartbreaking in its intensity, was enacted before their eyes. For the space of more than 30 minutes more than 200 lives were placed in direct peril by the pounding surf herding them into deep "slue" run-ning seaward from the strand at Chesapeake avenue. Three others, one of them a young woman, are missing, and many have met the same fate.

THE FELLOW WHO THINKS A BARKING DOG NEVER BITES SOMETIMES BARKS UP THE WRONG TREE.

MT. AIRY.

Three cheers for Gov. Slayton, say we. Mr. Winter Jones has sold his splendid farm near Lisbon, and has bought the residence owned by Mrs. Smith, of Ridgeville. We are glad to welcome Mr. Jones in our midst, and have room for many more like him. We are glad to report Mr. C. A. Runkles as very much improved after a long tussle with the grip. Mrs. E. S. Cleary is spending five days with friends in Baltimore. Miss Lannie Turner took a flying trip to Kingston and New Market last Wednesday.

Mr. Earl Mercer is placing a concrete walk in front of his residence. Mt. Airy Country Club will hold its June dance at Wild Wood Park tonight, Friday. Guests from many parts of the State will make it a pleasant occasion. The chaperons are Mrs. Nathan Dorsey, Mrs. Norman Hood and Mrs. C. W. Selby.

Mr. A. Frank Miller attended the farwell ball at St. John's College, Annapolis, last Tuesday. Miss Alice Toon left for her home in North Carolina this week.

Mr. Cline, the general manager of the Farmers' Milling Co., is now driving a new Overland car, and we notice some of the fair sex eyeing him with tender glances.

Mr. L. Victor Barnes, the popular young merchant, spent Sunday in Baltimore.

Mr. W. B. Harn and sister were prominent shoppers on our streets last Wednesday.

Miss Anna Horn returned last Wednesday from a pleasant visit of a few days in Baltimore.

The young gentleman who has been making daily visits to the Sanatorium, is reported as having a critical case of heart trouble.

Duty Has Limits.

Officer—"What's the matter with that soup you're turning up your nose at?" Private—"It's full of sand and grit, sir."

Officer—"Now look here, young man, did you come to camp to grub or to serve your country?" Private—"Well, I did come to serve my country, sir; but not to eat it."

THERE WILL BE A MIGHTY SCRAMBLE FOR COALS THIS FALL. BETTER TAKE YOURS NOW. On account of the fact that many people cannot buy as usual this summer, we will be very busy in the fall. Better take yours this month and be sure of it. Give Smith & Reifsnider the order and they will do the rest.
