in Ba. ton visit. home. Aurora Re. Aurora, probably the camp in the state of Nev. mer home of Mark Twain historic persons of the early West, which was thought a camp, has not only revived as a mining community, but is beginning to show an unusual metropolitan aspect. The Fourth of July celebration in Miner county, writes a correspondent of the San Francisco Chronicle, was held at Aurora and close to 2,000 people were entertained. The entrance of the Goldfield Consolidated Mining company, the big Wingfield concern, into the camp has stimulated an unusual interest in Aurora. The old mining property has been taken over by the Wingfield interests, a new mill erected and a month production of close to $50,000 is now being realized.

SYKESVILLE MARKET

WHEAT—Opinions differ greatly as to future prices—much depending on the movement of the new crop from the great wheat belt of the Northwest and in turn this will be governed greatly by weather conditions. If you believe in higher prices we will store and insure your wheat for one cent per bushel per month. It is impractical to quote wheat in a weekly advertisement, as prices vary from 1 to 2 cents daily. Phone us for quotations. RYE—Free of garlic, 70c bushel. EAR CORN—We have a demand for prime yellow cob at $4.00 per barrel. HAY—The demand continues good—all shipments are being readily absorbed. New hay will begin to move about the 20th of July; in the meantime we quote old hay as follows: Timothy, $16 to $18 ton; Mixed $15 to $16 ton. STRAW—The demand for wheat straw has suddenly fallen off—possibly buyers waiting for the movement of the new crop. We quote for immediate acceptance to be loaded in ten days. $6 ton for Tangle Rye; in blocks, $7.00 ton; Straight Rye (loose) $7.00 ton.

FERTILIZERS--If you have not already placed your order for Fall goods we advise you to do so at once.

There is undoubtedly a shortage in the supply and prices will be higher. We offer you Organic Fertilizers, containing more plant food and have more lasting properties than chemically prepared goods.
