SYKESVILLE.

We have a brand new store in Sykesville, Phelps & Berry. They will sell you everything for table, and to wear.

Mr. Elmer Jenkins, who was recently hurt in an automobile accident, is able to be about.

We have had several severe electrical storms in our town lately. Monday evening the lightning struck a chimney on Mr. E. M. Mellor's store, and ran down the chimney, setting some papers on fire and burning out the chimney. The fire department, boy scouts and the whole town turned out to help put out the fire. Fortunately for Mr. Mellor, and the town, they soon had it under control.

Much gloom was thrown over Sykesville Sunday, when the news reached here of the death of little Edgar Ritter, son of Walter and Margaret Ritter. He died in a hospital in Baltimore, where he was taken on Friday. His parents have the sympathy of the community, for he was a very promising little boy, and much loved by his little mates. His funeral was held Tuesday afternoon from St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church. Rev. Deale, of Baltimore, a former pastor here, preached the funeral. Edgar was a member of the Boy Scouts, and they turned out in a body. Six being pallbearers, and the rest carrying flowers, a wagon load, as tokens of love. He was buried in Springfield cemetery. Mr. Weer had charge of the funeral.

The Ladies' Aid of St. Paul's Church met at the home of Mrs. James Wheatly, last night. There will be a lawn fete Monday evening, August 9th, on the church lawn of the Methodist Episcopal church by the Boy Scouts. All are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. Frank Brown and children are visiting relatives in Montgomery county, for a week.

Mr. Brooks Mellor and family and Mr. Henry Bennett and family motored to Baltimore Sunday in Mr. Brooks Mellor's handsome new French car.

Rev. Thomas Marshall West is spending a month in Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Ella V. Thomas, of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. L. P. Schultz.

Rev. Albert Dudley, of Lafayette, Ind., gave Sykesville a short visit this week on his way home.

Mr. Joseph Lippy visited Sykesville last week.

Mr. Scott Lane Heffinger is visiting his brother, Dr. Heffinger.

Mr. James Vernay, of Baltimore, paid a visit to his sister, Mrs. Harry Gosnell, on Tuesday.

The barber shop formerly run by Eugene Berry, and was bought by a Mr. Young, will be continued.

Mrs. John Firoved, of Baltimore, paid Sykesville a visit Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Shipley visited Baltimore Sunday.

Quite a number of children in Sykesville have the whooping cough, and several babies are ill with it.

LOCUST HILL.

A large congregation gathered at Bart's U. B. church on Sunday night to hear an excellent sermon preached by Rev. J. P. Koonz, of York, formerly pastor of Bart's church.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Duce entertained at their home on Sunday the following visitors: Miss Fay Erb, Frank Jacoby, Miss Viola Kershaw, Leon Erb, of Baltimore, and Miss Alma Steyer, of near Silver Run. The trip was made by automobile. Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Wentz and son, Lester, were visitors also.

Those who spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kindig and Mr. and Mrs. Elder Sheely were: Mr. and Mrs. James Sheely, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Remer, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ohler and daughter, Lottie, Mrs. Ernest Sentz, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Snyder and children, Edna, Sterling, Earl and Melvin, Levi and John Kindig, Emory Sell, Maurice Utz, George and Chas. Warner.

The following took a trip to Richmond, Va.: Mr. and Mrs. John M. Zapp, of near Nace's Mill; Mr. and Mrs. George W. Zapp, of near Sells Station; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wampler and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Markle, of Pleasant Hill. They left Hancock on Monday morning and got back on Friday evening. They report having had a splendid time. They attended a re-union at the home of Gust Hancock. Mrs. Hancock was a sister to Mrs. John Zapp, and Howard Wampler, they also have another sister and mother living out there, she being an aunt to George Zapp and a grandmother to Mrs. Markle. Refreshments were served.

Sunday school at Pine Grove on Sunday at 5.30 p. m.

Some of our people attended Penn Grove camp on Sunday.

Carroll County Reed Band furnished music for Baughman's Sunday school picnic, at Bachman's Valley, on Saturday.

Harry Raubenstein, of near Bart's church, had the misfortune to lose a horse from colic on Sunday.

John Myers and family made a trip to Sunbury, Pa., over Saturday and Sunday.

Sunday school at Bart's U. B. church on Sunday at 9 a. m. Prayer meeting at 7.30 p. m.

Sunday school at St. Bartholomew's church at 12.45 p. m. Preaching at 2 p. m., by Rev. George E. Sheffer.

He Won.

Baths are not popular with this man. It is his custom to show up each morning wearing the grime he carried as he left the shop the previous night. He appeared one day last week with a touch of the yolk of an egg upon his lip.

Seeking to have a little fun, a fellow employe observed: "Hello, Jake, bet I can tell what you had for breakfast this morning."

Words were bandied back and forth, and finally a wager was made. Then came the climax:

"Eggs."

"You're wrong," said Jake. "We had eggs yesterday morning."

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear father, Nicholas Benson, who departed this life, one year ago Aug. 2, 1914.

One year has passed our hearts still sore; As time flies on we miss him more. He sleeps; we leave him in peace to rest. The parting was painful but God knew best.

Off to the grave yard we wander. Flowers to strew with tender care On that grave of our dear father, Who is sweetly resting there.

You are not forgotten, father dear. Nor ever will you be. For as long as life and memory last We will remember thee.

BY HIS CHILDREN.

In loving remembrance of our dear son, Snyder Wantz, who departed this life two years ago, August 6.

In memory of our dear son. The one we loved so dear; The vision seems so clear sometimes. We feel he must be near.

But we are left with an aching heart. To bear our loss and pain; And that in the better world. We will meet him once again.

BY HIS MOTHER, MRS. R. J. WANTZ.

In loving, but sad remembrance of our dear mother, Margaret Freeman, who died 6 months ago, August 6.

Death has robbed us of our mother. Whom we loved and cherished dear. It has mother, yes, dear mother. Can we help but shed a tear?

We do not know the pain she bore. As we sat and watched her die; But we only know she slipped away. Without bidding us good-bye.

By faith again we trust to meet. Our dear mother above; Where pain and sorrow never comes. In that bright land of love.

How can we think she's gone. Our mother whom we loved so well; How can it be that such a flower. No more with us can dwell.

Our mother's troubles all are past. Her pains disturb no more. But Jesus in his arms at last. Bore her to heavens bright shore.

Weep not for me, my children dear. I am gone to rest, you need not fear; My stay on earth is done, you see. So now prepare to follow me.

BY HER DAUGHTERS.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear brother, H. Augusta Feizell, who departed this life one year ago to-day, August 7th, 1914.

I love him to-day, yes I love him. Just as well as I did one year ago; I miss him, oh how sadly I miss him. And my heart is still aching so.

But one thought comes to me in my sadness. He is free from all sickness and pain. And I trust when my journey is ended. I will meet him brother again.

BY LOVING SISTER, ESTELLA GOSNELL.

Look Out For The Picture Man.

The company from Utica N. Y., who came to your house and told you he was making pictures free, just to start an art school here. After getting your Photo in their possession they charged you $2.00 and required 50c deposit. They told you they only charged for the three tubes of paint. They also told you people they were graduates of the High School of Westminister, and they were working for the High School to get appropriation enough to build an art department to the High School Building. This is positively false, for none of these men ever went here to school. The man will be here soon with the proof and will require another deposit and will want you to select a frame and you will find his prices will be 50 per cent higher than the usual price. Don't lose your money and photo as you well know it has been done here.
