We are pleased to report that there have been few violations of law of a serious nature brought to our attention, and we congratulate the people of the county thereupon.

We have examined the license records in the Clerk's office and so far as we can ascertain the law is being complied with since the recent investigation.

We have visited the jail of Carroll County and found everything in good condition under the efficient management of Sheriff A. L. Davis.

We also visited the Alms House of the county and are glad to say that this institution was found to be clean and sanitary and seemed to be run in a very satisfactory manner, with much credit to the present steward, Mr. A. H. Humbert.
