After the Wayside Tree Law. Through the efforts of Delegate Mitchell, of Charles county, the Wayside Tree Law, passed in 1914, was saved from entire emasculation in the House Tuesday. Delaplane's House bill 515, originally was drawn to exempt only Frederick county from the provisions of the Wayside Tree law, which gives the State Board of Forestry control over cutting and trimming of trees along the public roads of the State.

Through an amendment, 13 other counties were added to the exemption—Allegheny, Garrett, Washington, Carroll, Montgomery, Howard, Talbot, St. Mary's, Calvert, Queen Anne's, Prince George's, Cecil and Caroline.

Courageous Child. Nellie, aged four, was gazing intently at the visitor's new bonnet.

"Well, dear," asked the lady at last, "what do you think of it?"

"Oh," replied the small observer, "I think it's all right. Aunt Mary told mama it was a perfect fright, but it doesn't frighten me any."—Kansas City Star.
