Among the interesting features of Public School Contest and Athletic Day this year were the spelling and number contests held in the recitation rooms of the High School on last Friday morning. There were more than fifty entered in each of the contests, and as a great deal of interest in the result was shown by the teachers, pupils and patrons throughout the county. The hearty co-operation of the teachers in encouraging the pupils to enter the contests, and the willingness of the pupils themselves to participate are highly gratifying.

planning contests of any kind, it is often found difficult to get people to take part because the idea prevails that there is a certain amount of disgrace attached to being beaten. This is an erroneous idea, and one that should be discouraged among school children. They should be taught that it is right and proper to enter in any contest with the determination to win, and that it is more honorable to be defeated by fair means than to win by fraud or trickery. Such lessons if properly impressed will have a salutary influence and may be useful in every transaction of life.

The winners in Class A Spelling Contest were: Beulah Mathias, of Leisters School, first prize, and Lake Weant, of Piney Creek School, second prize. These two contestants had spelled correctly all but one of the two hundred selected words. Of the two hundred selected words, the following deserving special mention are: LaRue Shamer, of Patapsco School; Wilmer Newman, of Cherry Grove School; Carey Knauff, of Sykesville School, and Lillian Trump, of Manchester School.

In Class B, Minnie Marquet, of Baus School, and Treva Markel, were first prize, each having spelled correctly all of the two hundred selected words. Lorylline Taylor, of Bethel School; Bertie Snyder, of Otterdale School; Helen Reese, of Westminster School; Lillian Barnes, of Pleasant Gap School; and Esther Ridinger, of Harney School, each spelled all but one correctly and tied for second prize. Other contestants deserving special mention in this contest are: Edna Leister, of Reese School; Hattie Shreen, Sandy Mount School; Wilbur Simpson, Westminster School, and Elizabeth Stockdale, of Finksburg School. None of these misspelled more than three of the two hundred words.

In the number contest eleven of the contestants performed all of the one hundred combinations correctly in the time allowed, while ten succeeded in getting 98 of them right. The names of those making one hundred are: Lillian Hoffman, W. H. S.; Olive E. Shreeve, Sandy Mount; Margaret Michael, W. H. S.; Herman M. Arter, Cherry Grove; Grace L. Brown, New Windsor; Wm. Westminister School, Brown, Meadow Branch; Elizabeth M. Gehr, W. H. S.; Rhoda Yelzer, W. H. S.; Ruth Starner, Shade's; Roland Armacost, Mount Salem. Those making ninety-eight, Effie Wheatley, Sykesville; C. Robert Brown, W. H. S.

The prizes will be given out at the Teachers' Meeting in June. In all cases where the ties occur, the prize will be divided equally.
