

The Democratic Advocate

SUPPLEMENT

JULY 14, 1916

STATEWOOD.

Rev. Harry G. Spencer, of Winchester Va., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Amanda Spencer, of near Statewood.

The Aid Society of Mt. Pleasant Methodist Episcopal church, met at the home of Mrs. Margaret Haines, July 6. Mrs. Alice Parrish presided. The program was entertaining. Readings by Miss Catherine Miller and Miss Emma Parden were much enjoyed. Refreshments were served. Two new members were enrolled. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Alice Parrish, August 3.

The Misses Grace and Annabel Parden have returned from a visit to friends in Caroline county.

Don't forget the Mt. Pleasant Sunday school picnic, July 29. Everybody welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bengal, Mrs. Katie Shipley, Mrs. B. F. Poole and Miss Daisy Poole, were Sunday guests of Mrs. Jane Blizard.

Dr. T. Wells visited his brother, Dr. R. F. Wells, of Statewood, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jinks Griffie, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nelson, Miss Dora Schmelz, and Mrs. Mamie Thomson, of Baltimore, and Mr. William Winters of Heisterstown, were Sunday guests of Laetitia Griffie, Statewood.

Miss Estella Brauning, of Norris-town, Pa., is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Louis Brauning, of Lewisville.

Mr. Elmer Monroe and bride, of Norfolk, Va., are spending sometime with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Monroe, of Statewood.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hunt and daughter, Florence, and Mr. Horace Barnes, of Baltimore, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Bush.

Mrs. Alice Williams is having her residence repaired. Carroll Haines contractor.

Remember the Statewood ball game Saturday afternoon, July 15, with Patasco. Game called at 3:30 o'clock. Refreshments will be sold on the ground.

MT. OLIVE.

We are having very beautiful weather at this writing, and most of the farmers are taking advantage of it, by making hay and threshing grain.

Mr. James W. Flemming, of this place, made a flying trip to Baltimore quite recently.

Mrs. Oscar Baumgardner, of Harrisville visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Dempsey, last week.

Miss Mamie C. Mathias and Miss Daisy W. Hinton, of Baltimore, called on Miss Alma Ecker, last Thursday afternoon.

Miss Alma Ecker, was taken to the Frederick City Hospital last Friday to undergo an operation for appendicitis. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Fleming and family, of Dannel, visited Mrs. Lucinda Ecker and family, Sunday last.

Miss Barbara F. Olive of Ridge Road, called on Misses Olivie and Elizabeth Poole, of Mt. Olive, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Belt Townsend and family, of Westminster, visited Mrs. Lucinda Ecker and family, of Mt. Olive, last week.

Health of community, good.

EMORY.

The Ladies' Aid Society will hold its annual supper on Saturday. All are cordially invited.

The Epworth League will hold a festival on the Church lawn, Saturday, July 15. All are welcome.

The Sunday school will hold a celebration on Saturday, August 19. The Conway Band will be present. A fine program is being prepared.

The Y will meet at Mrs. Charles Leight's on Friday, July 21. All are cordially invited to be present.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet at Mrs. Richard Harris' on Thursday, August 3. Be sure and turn out.

Mrs. Wm. E. Hand, of Daniel's Park, has returned after spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bond and family.

Miss Helen Wisner has returned to her home in Baltimore, after visiting her cousins, Misses Hazel and Mildred Taylor.

Mr. J. T. Raver and family, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Sellers and family, of Finksburg.

Mr. Samuel Myers, spent Sunday with Miss Fannie Leight, of Baltimore.

Mrs. James Taylor, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Raver, is now spending some time with her daughter, Mrs. Howard Sellers.

Mr. Donald Cromer, of Chambersburg, Pa., is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Wesley Bond.

Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Blizard and family, spent Sunday with her brother, Mr. Wm. Beam, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Graf and son, Charles, Jr., spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Bond.

Misses Mary and Naomi Upperco, of Fowlesburg, spent Sunday with their sister, Mrs. Ralph Raver.

WATERSVILLE.

Watersville, our live little town, is as usual, looking neat, and the spirit of progress and improvement is apparent.

The improvements to the residence of Mr. D. L. Wheeler, are nearing completion, which adds greatly to its appearance, and convenience.

This community was saddened by the death of Mr. Thomas England, which occurred last Friday morning, 7th, instant, at the old homestead of the England family, which is now the home of Mr. Howard England, in Howard county, near here. Mr. England, was the oldest son of the late Abram and Elizabeth England, and was a man of integrity of character, and kind and unassuming manner, and was esteemed and respected. For many years he was engaged in merchandizing in Baltimore, and was connected with the firm of Johnson Sutton & Company, but of late years lead a retired life from business. He is survived by his brothers—Messrs. George England and Howard England, of Howard county, and Mr. William England, of Washington, D. C., and sisters—Mrs. Lillie A. Steele and Miss Mary England, Watersville, and Mrs. Cordelia R. Warfield, Howard county. Mr. J. Harry Steele, of the Westminster bar is a nephew of the deceased. The funeral service was held last Sunday afternoon, at 2 p. m., at his late home, and was largely attended. Rev. P. M. Boyden, of the Protestant Episcopal church, was the officiating minister. Interment in the family burial lot on the place.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Seilman, of Baltimore, after visiting their relatives here, left for an extended trip West.

Mrs. Josephine Winebrenner has returned from Washington, and is spending some weeks at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kencaid, Mrs. John Adams and son, Master Jack Adams, of Baltimore, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Griffin, for the Fourth of July.

Mrs. Elizabeth Bender, of Baltimore, spent the week's end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Griffin.

Mrs. Mary E. Englar, of New Windsor, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Pharnay.

Miss Jennie Selby is attending the Hopkins Summer School, Baltimore.

Miss Estelle Waters paid a visit recently to Baltimore, and Lock Haven.

Mr. William Dempsey is successfully operating his new motor truck, which he has recently purchased.

Our rural mail carrier, Mr. Irvine Harrison, has made the record of almost continuous service, having only missed five days in ten months.

HOUCKSVILLE.

Mr. Simon Leister, of Tiffin, Ohio, and Mrs. Clara Hull, of Taneytown, spent the past Sunday, with Mr. and Mrs. John M. Reese.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet in the social hall, July 29th, at 1:30 p. m.

Mrs. Frank Barrack and daughter, of Hagerstown, spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. H. Clay Eby.

Wesley Sunday school, will hold its annual harvest festival on the lawn in front of the church, at their usual time, July 15th, beginning at 6 p. m.

Edward Brown and Miss Eta Snyder, of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Grubine, several days last week.

Wesley Sunday school will hold its all-day picnic, August 19, beginning at 10 a. m., and closing at sunset.

Mr. Harry Barrack, of Trenton, N. J., visited his sister, Mrs. W. H. S. Allgire, a few days last week.

Messrs. H. Francis Hunter and Irvin Sies, of Westminster, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Harris.

Mr. Benjamin Croft, Sr., and family, and John E. Leather, spent Sunday in Baltimore.

Mrs. Josephine Harris is quite ill at this writing. She had been paralyzed.

Mr. and Mrs. August Weaver and Mrs. Peas, of Baltimore, spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Slinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Davidson, of Baltimore, spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Buchman.

Roland Buchman made a flying visit to Baltimore, Monday.

E. J. Hoffman and family, and Bernard Oursler and family, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bud Oursler, of Jessups.

Mrs. Malissa Snyder, of Oklahoma City, visited Mr. and Mrs. John W. Davidson.

Misses Anna May and Fay Elsegood are spending a week in Baltimore, as the guests of their grandmother, Mrs. John Scherrimm.

Rev. Trip, of Westminster, will give a demonstration of the Ware-Ever Aluminum cooking utensils at the home of T. W. Buchman, July 25th, at 1:30 p. m., to which the neighbors will be invited.

PINEY CREEK.

Mrs. George Shorb and daughter, Miss Marie, Mrs. E. Z. Utterback, of Lewistown; Mr. Harry Shipley and children, of Frederick; and Miss Beatrice Hahn, of Kumps, spent Sunday with Mr. John Sauerwein and family. Mrs. William Lemmon and daughter, Miss Carman, and son, Wilbur, spent Monday at Hanover.

We are very glad to report that Mr. Harry Cutsall is able to be out after several weeks illness. Mr. Noah Cutsall, his father, of Taneytown, was assisting with the farm work during his illness.

The stork visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Reaver, and left them a fine boy.

Miss Mary Bollinger, is visiting her home folks at Greenmount.

Mr. Austin Sauerwein spent the week's end at Lewistown.

MELROSE.

While Mr. William Therit and several boys were fishing, Mr. Therit caught a large bass measuring 18 inches in length and 4 1/2 inches wide, and weighed 2 pounds.

Carroll, the 10 year-old son of Mr. Ezra Frock, is the most successful angler in catching fish. About two weeks ago he caught two fish measuring 13 and 14 inches respectively. On Monday afternoon he out did himself by catching a monster fish weighing 2 pounds, and measured 15 inches in length. He had his photograph taken with his home-made fishing rod and line and the fish in his hands by one of our photographers.

Mr. Edward Fuhrman lost two valuable cows last week, by bloating on young clover grass.

Mr. Lester Shaffer, of this place, is very busy making porch swings, which he has ready sales for.

Farmers have finished cutting grain and some have it stored away. What is a good crop this year, both in straw and grain.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Folk, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Therit and son, Paul and Foss Weaver, motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Myers, of Union Mills, on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Frock and family visited relatives in and near Pleasant Valley, on Sunday last.

Mr. John Eisenhuth, our freight agent, spent a day's vacation with his brother, helping to store away grain.

Went's Union Sunday school, Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

DETOUR.

At a family reunion on Sunday, Mrs. Mary A. Weybright and daughter, entertained the following guests: Jesse P. Weybright and wife, Samuel R. Weybright and wife, of near here; John S. Weybright, wife, son and daughter, of Thurmont; John T. Royer and wife, of Westminster; Mrs. Baker and daughter, Irene, of Edgemont; Rev. Tobias Fike, of Ladysburg; Rev. F. Slosser, of Elizabethtown, Pa.; Miss Maude Stoner, of Dayton, Ohio; Mrs. Wampler, of Idaho.

Those who spent Sunday with A. C. Miller and wife were: Mrs. W. M. Eller and son, Miller; Mrs. Luther Miller, Otto Gabroski, wife and son, Herald, of Philadelphia; John H. Miller, of Westminster; Edward Essick and family, of here, and Samuel Haines, of Westminster.

On Sunday Charles Horner and wife visited Mr. Winemiller and wife, of near Ketyman, who motored with them to Gettysburg.

Mrs. Webster Harnish and daughter, Anna, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are visiting Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Diller.

Lemuel Myerly, wife and son, Edgar, Baltimore, recently visited Mr. Myerly's parents, James Myerly and wife.

Misses Louise and Leoma Hahn spent one day last week with their uncle, James Foy, of Loye.

Rhoda Weant spent several days last week in Baltimore, visiting relatives.

Meade Ohler, wife and daughter, Mary, of Emmitsburg, spent Tuesday with their daughter, Mrs. Charles Horner.

LINEBORO.

The Volunteer Fire Company of Lineboro cleared $21.00 at a festival held recently.

Rev. Leatherman will preach Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, in the Lutheran church. Sunday school will be held at 9 a. m.

C. F. Kirchner, who broke his leg twelve weeks ago in falling from a scaffold is still confined to his bed.

The Lineboro Furniture factory is rushed with orders, manufacturing tabourettes, pedestals and hobby horses.

The Lineboro Canning factory has completed packing peas for this season. They are now canning beans.

Miss Mary Stough, of New Oxford, is the guest of William Kopp, and family.

Mrs. I. Frydinger, and Miss Bernice Kopp visited friends in Manchester last Sunday.

Miss Irene Ziegler, of Dover, was a recent guest of Miss Eva Gentz.

Dr. T. H. Wertz and family, of Hanover, visited Mrs. A. Tracey last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Gentz and son Edward, and daughter Eva, motored to Pikesville, last Sunday.

TANEYTOWN.

C. F. Daley and wife, and Maurice C. Duttera and wife, motored to Harper's Ferry, Va., on Sunday.

Miss Eugenia Gardner, of Baltimore, is spending some time with friends in and around town.

Mrs. Mary Clouser and daughter, Miss Alice, returned from St. Agnes' Hospital, on Sunday evening.

Hubert McSherry spent the week's end with Wallace Reindollar and very acceptably filled the pulpit in the Lutheran church. Every one was glad to see Hubert and hear him preach. He is a son of a former pastor, Rev. G. W. McSherry.

Jacob Buffington, of McSherrytown, spent Tuesday in town.

Joseph Althoff, of York, spent Sunday here.

Rev. Wm. B. Duttera, wife and six children, of Salisbury, N. C., are the guests of his father, Amos Duttera.

Mrs. E. C. Sauerhammer, is visiting in Littlestown.

Roy Creager and family, of Lebanon, Pa., are the guests of his mother, Mrs. J. S. Bower.

Mathew Galt and family, of St. Louis, Mo., are the guests of his sisters, Miss Anna Galt and Mrs. Margaret Stott.

Miss Emma R. Ecker, of New Windsor, is the guest of Miss Mabel Lambert.

Miss Bessie Roop and Miss Iva Fowler, of New Windsor, are the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Walter A. Bower.

Mrs. Samuel Johnson who has been ill for some time, was taken to Frederick City Hospital, on Tuesday.

Master David Sellson of Oscar Sell, fell from the second floor of the ice factory, to the concrete floor, a distance of ten or twelve feet, on Tuesday.

MANCHESTER.

Mrs. Annie Loringier entertained a house party for the week's end at her home, South Main street. The guests were her sister, Mrs. Susan Painter and daughter, Mrs. Naomi Baily and son, Messrs. Gugler and Painter, of New Freedom; Mr. John Lacabacher of Indiana; Mrs. Loringier's uncle, her children, Mr. and Mrs. John Loringier and Mrs. Linnie Loringier, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Laurie, and Mr. Eckenrode, all of Pikesville.

The Lutheran Sunday school picnic held Saturday, July 8, in Warner's Grove, was well attended. The Alecia band furnished the music. A festival was held at night.

Miss Cecilia M. Shower is visiting her sister, Mrs. Maurice Unger, of New York.

Mr. Walter Folk and Miss Anna Ridgley, are taking the six week's teachers' course at the Johns Hopkins, Baltimore.

Rev. J. B. Lau, former pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran church, who accepted a call in Brooklyn, N. Y., motored here, on Friday, accompanied by his son and daughter. Mr. Lau remained but a few hours, but Miss Irene and Master Laver, will spend a week here as guests of Mrs. H. S. Musseiman.

Miss Carrie Baker is visiting her sister, Mrs. Shaffer, of Thurmont, Md.

Mr. Walter D. Hanson, who was operated upon at the U. P. I., Baltimore, returned home Sunday. He is convalescing as rapidly as could be hoped for, from a painful operation.

Mr. H. J. T. LaMotte, went to the U. P. I., Baltimore, Monday. He was operated upon Tuesday for his veins.

Mr. George M. Hoffman, who had his leg broken in an automobile accident, returned to the hospital Thursday. The old cast was removed and a new one placed. The knee was found very satisfactory. The professor assuring him, there would be no stiff joint as was at first feared.

Rev. Brown, of Hampstead, will preach in the Reformed Church, Sunday morning, at 10 a. m.

Mr. George Folk, North Main street, had a handsome porch built around the front and side of his residence.

The carpenters are busy erecting the frame work for the new residences being built by Mr. Edward Trump, on the hotel site.

Mr. J. B. Baker, superintendent of the Reformed Sunday School, placed a flag in the Sunday school room, in honor of two of their members who are in Texas, Mr. H. M. Loats and Mr. Paul Frankforter.

The "Preparedness" parade in Hanover, Tuesday night, was largely attended by people from this town and surrounding country.

UNIONTOWN.

Washington Camp, No. 100, P. O. S. of A., Uniontown, has elected as delegates to represent them at the State Camp, to be held in Hagerstown, August 1st and 2nd: Delegate, Melvin W. Routson; Alternate, H. B. Fogle. The camp of Uniontown is in a flourishing condition.

Mrs. Wm. Rodkey is visiting in Baltimore.

Thursday morning relatives of Rev. Simon Stonesifer, received the news of his death, which occurred at his home in Duncannon. Rev. Mr. Stonesifer was a brother to the late Mrs. Josiah Erb, and his widow was Miss Emma Gilbert, sister of Mr. Wesley Gilbert.

Mrs. Annie Hoyt is visiting Mrs. Lany Shaw, of Black Oak Spring.

Mrs. Nettie Starr, of Westminster, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Myers, the past week.

Mr. James Waltz, of Clear Ridge, was taken to a hospital in Baltimore for treatment, the past week.

Mrs. Nellie Haines, who has been an invalid for several years, died at her home near Linwood, Wednesday night, July 5. Funeral services were held at her late home on Friday, at 4 p. m., by Rev. T. H. Wright. Interment on Saturday, at Loudon Park cemetery. Mrs. Haines was the daughter of the late Rev. J. W. Charlton of the Methodist Protestant church. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Mary Charlton.

Dr. Newton Gilbert, of Annapolis, spent the week's end at home.

Miss Nellie Weaver came home on Sunday and on Tuesday left for Suffolk Sanatorium, Holtsville, Long Island, N. Y., where she has accepted the position of superintendent.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Repp entertained at dinner on Sunday, Mrs. Rose Repp, Mr. George Bellison, Mr. and Mrs. D. Myers Englar.

An interesting Sunday school meeting was held in the Methodist Protestant church, on Sunday afternoon, July 2nd. The meeting was held under the direction of the county president, George W. Yeiser, and was for the purpose of organizing the district into a district association. There are eight schools in the district, five of which were represented. Addresses were made by G. W. Yeiser, Elder W. P. Englar and Dr. Weaver. The district was organized with the following officers: M. H. Zollicoffer, president; Guy W. Haines, vice president; Mrs. Margaret Englar, secretary and treasurer, and Mrs. Nettie Fowler, superintendent of Cradle Roll.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Myers Englar, entertained at supper on Sunday evening, Mrs. Rose Repp, Mr. Bellison, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Repp and family, Mr. Obedia Fleagle and son, Russell.

The Methodist Protestant Sunday school on last Sunday donated its organ to the Church of God at Pleasant Hill. The church there has been recently organized, and we wish it success.

The Lutheran Church will hold its annual bazaar on the school house lawn, on Wednesday evening, August 9th. The Union Bridge Band will furnish music for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Myers Englar, Mrs. Philip Englar, and Mrs. Rebecca Myers, motored to Berryville, Va., on Monday, to attend the funeral of a relative.

Mrs. Howard Hymiller is spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Heck.

Dr. and Mrs. John Weaver and Mrs. J. Wesley Little visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weaver, on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Judson Hill, of Taneytown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Price.

Mr. Harry Weaver, received a card from Corporal J. D. Mitchell, of Westminster, Company H, First Regiment, National Guards, Eagle Pass, Texas. He says: "We arrived here on the 5th, at 8:45 a. m., 116 degrees in the shade, and do not mind it as much as we did in Maryland; had rain here yesterday, the first since last October. Most of us are well."

BERRETT.

Rev. G. W. Baughman, will preach at Woodbine Sunday, at 10:30 a. m., and at the Messiah church, at 8 p. m.

Rev. W. A. Sites, will preach at Brandenburg Methodist Protestant church, Sunday, at 10:30 a. m. Christian Endeavor at same church at 7:30 p. m., led by Mrs. F. J. Brandenburg.

Mrs. Rachel Penn is visiting her niece, Mrs. Hewitt, for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Morley Farver, accompanied by Mrs. Penn and Mrs. Hewitt, motored to Daniel, Sunday afternoon, calling on Mrs. Michael Glennan.

Mr. Henry Garheart, Sr., was in Baltimore, Wednesday, on business.

Mrs. Eddie Dorsey and baby, Joseph, visited Mrs. B. F. Dorsey, Tuesday.

Mrs. G. W. Baughman is sick. Master Gilbert Flemming is also on the sick list.

Mr. Eddie Dorsey is suffering with tonsillitis.

Miss Polly and Mr. Blair Brooks, of Alfa Farm, Howard county, motored to this place Saturday afternoon, calling on Mrs. Robert Shipley and family.

Misses Mary and Elsie Shipley spent Tuesday and Wednesday with their aunt, Mrs. Ersie Wilson, at Gist.

Mrs. R. E. Paynter, spent Wednesday at her home, Berritt. Don't forget our Sunday school picnic, on July 29th.

BARE BRANCH.

Mrs. Sarah Davis and Miss Prude Logue, who were spending sometime with Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Logue, have returned to their home in Smallwood.

The weather is very warm. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Starner entertained on Sunday, Mr. Edward Welk, of Pleasant Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wantz, and two children, of Bachman's Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Wolf, of Bark Hill, spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Helwig and family.