

CARROLLTON HEIGHTS.

The sun looks on us now and then, And smiles with cheerful grace; To make us sure that once again We're bound to see his face.

One of the worst electrical storms of the season passed over Thursday night one week. The thunder was terrific and the lightning intensely vivid.

Mrs. R. F. Shaffer, Jr., and daughter of Baltimore, spent last week with friends and relatives here.

Mrs. Eugene Abell and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Wiley DeMoss, of Baltimore, are guests of their mother, Mrs. Emma Green.

Mrs. Lewis Greene, Jr., spent last Sunday with her son, Harland, at Pen Mar. Harland with six other fellow students held temporary positions in the vicinity during the summer months.

As has been her custom for some years, Mrs. Mattie Chenoweth, Baltimore, is spending sometime with Mr. and Mrs. John Houck.

Mr. Irvin Hahn, of Philadelphia, Pa., spent the week's end with his sister, Mrs. E. C. Ebaugh and family, of "Hill-don Ridge."

"Rest-A-While" seems a far more appropriate name for the beautiful summer home of Mr. T. A. Smith, since quite a few of their Washington friends find both rest and pleasure at this place.

Mr. Edson Long spent last Sunday at Pen Mar. The 15-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. DeWitt swallowed half a glass of kerosene which made it very sick.

Mr. Eugene Shipley, of Baltimore, spent last Thursday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Shipley.

Mr. J. C. McKinney and family motored to Frederick on Sunday. Mr. Arthur Hentzenberger visited at Mrs. Reese Shipley's Wednesday.

Mr. F. J. Brandenburg's relatives and friends gave him a very enjoyable surprise on his birthday Tuesday evening.

Mr. Guy Dorsey and son from New Jersey, are visiting relatives here. Mrs. Tom Gonnell and little daughter, are visitors of Mrs. George Cook and family.

Mrs. Laura Rineheart is spending a few days with her mother, near here. Mr. Wilson Rineheart has been visiting friends for about a week here.

Mrs. J. Ross Galt, of New Windsor, is spending the week with the family of Robert S. McKinney and other relatives here. Misses Clara Rowe and Mary Eyster, of Emmitsburg, are the guests of S. C. Ott and family.

Miss Mary Koontz has returned home from a Baltimore hospital, where she was operated on four weeks ago, for appendicitis. Mr. and Mrs. David Brillhart, of Manchester, and their daughter, Mrs. Charles Brown, and daughter, Mrs. Harry Brillhart, last Sunday. Miss Marguerite and Maester Bender-Giller, of Arlington, are visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Giller.

Everett Miller lost a horse last week by death. Miss Evelyn Miller, of Baltimore, visited her grandmother, Mrs. Jane Miller, the past week. Mr. and Mrs. John Null and daughter, visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Null, at Black Rock, Pa., recently. John K. Miller, spent Wednesday at York, Pa.

Last Saturday Henry K. Miller, while unloading hay fell from the partly unloaded wagon to the barn floor. Mr. Miller was operating the hay fork and the rope which shifts the fork tore, which threw him to the floor, with great force, rendered him unconscious, cutting a gash in his head, and severely injuring his back and shoulder, while he is yet suffering a great deal of pain, is somewhat convalescent.

Mrs. John Null entertained her cousin from Baltimore and her sister, Miss Mary Ely, of Harpsdat, last Friday.
