

SANDYVILLE.

A rousing and enthusiastic temperance meeting was held at Sandy Mount church, Sunday afternoon, October 15, by the Women's Christian Temperance Union. The church was filled with people and a large number of Loyal Temperance Legionnaires from Pinksburg and Carrollton were present with their superintendents. Together with Sandyville Legionnaires they sang a couple Temperance songs, gave their yell and a number of recitations dialogues, and duets, which was very inspiring. Miss Nettie Ebaugh, president of the W. C. T. U. read the scripture; Mrs. Blanche Magee presided over the meeting. Rev. Hetrick, of Westminster, delivered a forceful temperance address, he gave us figures of tax rates of different counties and said Carroll has lowest tax rate of any county in the state, and how much more money has been deposited in the Banks in Carroll since the county has been dry. A large amount of literature was distributed at the close of the meeting.

Miss Clara Blum, who resides near here, was cut on the head, leg and face at 7:30 Sunday night when she was struck and knocked down by an automobile driven by Mrs. William Depkin, 1645 East North avenue. The accident occurred on the Annapolis Boulevard at Glenburnie. Mrs. Depkin was going at a slow rate of speed and this perhaps saved the young woman from serious injury. Just as the car made the turn Miss Blum crossed the road in front of the machine and was knocked down. When she was picked up those who witnessed the accident were surprised to find she was not more seriously injured. Dr. Thomas Brayshaw was summoned and after rendering first aid took Miss Blum to the home of William Claus, at Glenburnie, where she was visiting.

Mrs. Walter Blizard, of Sykesville, spent several days last week at Mrs. Raymond Blizard's.

Mrs. Lucinda Blizard spent last week with her daughter, Mrs. Daniel Young, of Baltimore, invited to attend.

The Willard W. C. T. U. will meet Thursday afternoon, October 26, at the home of the Misses Read, at Reese.

The L. T. L. will meet at Sandy Mount, Saturday afternoon, October 21, at 2 o'clock, instead of Sunday afternoon. All members invited to attend. Those who attended the Maryland State Sunday school convention held in town this week from Sandy Mount, were Mrs. Anne Tanner, Emma Tanner, Lizzie Shilling, Ida Greene, Addie, and Myrtle Caple and Fillmore Hoff, and enjoyed all sessions. Some attended the banquet.

Messrs. Bertrand Caple, Albert and Fillmore Hoff, Wilson Zepp, Lewis W. and Guy Caple, motored to Hagerstown Fair last Friday.

Sandy Mount C. E. Society will hold special Maryland Day services this Sunday night, at 7:30. A special program has been arranged. Mr. George Mather and another speaker will be present and give addresses. All cordially invited to attend.

The weather is cool at this writing. Thin ice formed on Tuesday night.

Farmers are busy husking corn. Mrs. Lena Shilling spent a couple days in town this week.

Miss Grace Yingling visited Miss Mary Fuss, at Glyndon, this week.

MT. AIRY.

The Mt. Airy High School was called together by the faculty and a motion was made that the school be organized into two societies, the Longfellow and Emerson, each of which meets every other week. The officers of the Longfellow Society are: President, Earl Mullinix; vice-president, Annie Warten; secretary, Eader Belle Runkles; treasurer, Parker Glover, literary director, Emma Selby; sergeant-at-arms, Sophia Dorsey; pianist, Paul Mullinix. The officers of the Emerson Society are: President, Hazel Clary; vice-president, Sadie Moxley; secretary, Margaret Mullinix; treasurer, George Bowman; literary director, Paul Mullinix; pianist, Elizabeth Jones.

The Longwell Literary Society met last week and rendered the following program:

Song, society; address, president; essay, Madge Lewis; current events, Jessie Selby, Mary Steiner and Ada Franklin; recitation, Ivah Day; piano solo, Myrtle Day; reading, Parker Glover; editor's report, Sophia Dorsey; sporting news, Frank Conway, Mitchell Frain; jokes, Ruth Mullinix, Fay Norwood, Eva Dreaner; readings, Sadie Glisan; song, society.

The societies are divided according to number and scholarship and they are scheduled for debates during the year which will arouse great enthusiasm. Great rivalry is expected between the societies. The public is cordially invited to all the meetings.

The two societies have subscribed for the following magazines: Review of Reviews, American, Cosmopolitan, Current Opinion, Everybody's, Country Gentleman, Saturday Evening Post, Ladies' Home Journal, Boys' and Scientific American. The pupils are given the privilege to read these magazines.

The enrollment and attendance of the grades on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Rob-Elizabeth Hood, teacher, enrollment 32, average attendance, 32; room 2, Miss Anna Horn, teacher, enrollment, 33, attendance 32; room 3, Miss Rudy, teacher, enrollment 30, attendance, 24; room 4, Miss Devillbiss, teacher, enrollment 28, attendance 26; High School enrollment is 65 and attendance is 56. It is very evident that the compulsory law is bringing more pupils into our schools and keeping up the attendance.

MINISTER'S SON A MARINE MARKSMAN.

Gilbert S. Livingstone, This County, Hits Bulls-Eye in Three Positions.

By hitting the "bulls-eye" with unerring skill from the standing, kneeling or sitting position, Gilbert S. Livingstone, of this county, has qualified as a marksman in the United States Marine Corps, according to late advices from Washington, D. C.

This keen-eyed young man received his preliminary instruction in gunnery at the U. S. Marines Port Royal training station, where the "soldiers of the sea" are drilled for their duties ashore and afloat. When scarcely more than a novice with the modern high-powered rifle, his splendid record at slow and rapid firing gained for him this coveted distinction. Hereafter he will wear the badge of marksmanship and receive an increase of pay as a result of his success.

Gilbert, who is a son of the Reverend Frank Gilbert, of Alesia, enlisted in the United States Marine Corps at its Hagerstown recruiting station on June 22, 1916.
