

CARROLLTON HEIGHTS.

"The wind, the mist and the cloud
The rain, the cold and the sleet;
But under the gloom of the darkest shroud
Still something to make life sweet."

Many of our folks are looking forward with pleasure to the big temperature tour next Tuesday, which promises to be a big success. We trust the weather man will smile on us and give us good weather.

A number of persons from here attended the Frederick Fair last Friday, and reported it a good fair.

Mr. Herbert Davidson, of Mt. Washington, spent the week's end with his brother, Mr. Lester Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley DeMoss, Mr. Milton Watson, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Eugene Greene, and family, of Eastview, and Miss Ruth Chew, of Patapsco, spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Nimrod Greene.

The P. O. S. of A. supper was a decided success in every way. A fine supper was served for the small sum of twenty-five cents per supper, which seems too cheap considering the high cost of living.

Last Saturday morning the Rev. Fraser, of New York city, preached to a large and appreciative audience at Leister's church; in the afternoon Rev. S. H. Culler, of Reisterstown, delivered a fine temperance lecture. He was accompanied by Mr. August Heise, of that place, but who was once a resident of Carrollton. They were very pleasantly entertained to supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Myles Sharer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Buell, of Baltimore, spent last Sunday with Mr. John Houck and family.

Several large flocks of wild geese have been seen to fly southward for their winter quarters. This is an indication of cold, rough weather, so the old prophecy goes. The fall has been a most remarkable one this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Elough and son of Philadelphia, spent the week's end with his brothers, Wilson, Allen and Simpson Elough and families. They returned to their home Sunday.

Boys and girls, do not forget the L. T. L. meeting this Sunday at 2:30 p. m. "Autumn day dreams" take yuh back to the good old summer time.

Some of our folks enjoyed the splendid C. E. rally at Sandy Mount church last Sunday evening, and the very helpful address by Mr. George Mather.

Pumpkin pies galore! Well, what else do you want in this world? Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Belinda Martin by her many friends, who is again very much indisposed. Her son, Mr. James Martin, wife and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wine and son, of Cranberry, recently visited her at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jesse Blizard.

Plasters are at work in Mr. Wm. Blizard's house.

An article appeared in one of the daily papers recently of a "Stage Coach" drawn by four spirited horses, was seen in Baltimore, it having started from New York. It evidently carried a recent bride back to the good old days of horse-back riding. This trip was made to the Old Manse (Man's) House, however.

Mrs. Wm. L. Greene and family, of Arcadia, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Greene, Jr., "Forest Glen," last Sunday.

We have always felt proud of the little village of Carrollton, but feel that we have a just right to feeling doubly proud of it now because of the extensive improvements that are being made by Mr. William Long to the property which he recently purchased.

We congratulate you, Mr. Long. The Misses Weaver, of Mexico, were week's end guests of Misses Gladys and Hilda Evans. On Sunday about a dozen of their friends joined them on a stroll for chestnuts.

BLUE RIDGE COLLEGE.

Mrs. Parcells, of Philadelphia, gave an excellent temperance talk in New Windsor. The students of the college attended in a body.

Rev. Stewart, of Crisfield, spent Tuesday at the college, visiting his daughter, Miss Myrtle.

Mr. M. G. Miller, student of Mt. Morris College, Illinois, was a visitor at the college. He gave a very interesting talk in behalf of the Students Volunteer Band.

A party of the college students went on a chestnut hunt to the mountains last Saturday.

Miss Sabra Ridgely, a student at the college, has resumed her studies after a successful throat operation.

The first number of the lecture course will be given in the college auditorium November 4, by Mr. M. V. Wickersham. The Emersonian Literary Society rendered a very interesting program, Saturday evening.

Miss Arbogast, the head of the cooking department, is slowly improving. Mr. Leslie Grossnickle, a member of last year's graduating class, was a visitor here Tuesday.

Miss Anna Belle Pardew, a former student, returned home after a several days' visit here.
