Church Notes

Burned at Manchester.
At the close of the Easter service last Sunday evening members and friends of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Manchester, witnessed an unusual, interesting and joyous scene. The pastor, Rev. C. G. Letherman, called the building committee to the front of the church. The lights were extinguished and there over the baptismal font the vast crowd had the pleasure of seeing burned one note of $1000 and another of $500 held against the church. During this impressive act great crowds of people joined their voices in singing "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow." At the same time there went out from the hearts of these people a feeling of gratitude to these faithful, earnest pastor, whose interest and effort made possible this great deed. The act being the result of the Palm Sunday offering leaving a balance of $400.
Rev. Letherman preached his first sermon in his parish July 1, 1916. Since that time $3016 has been paid on the church debt.
Easter Monday evening the Lutheran choir of Westminster presented in the Lutheran church, at Manchester, a large and appreciative audience, the sacred cantata, "Life Everlasting." In the excellent rendering of this cantata much credit is due both the director and talent. The folks of Manchester are great in their praise and sincere in their thanks to the choir for this musical treat.

Parent-Teachers Association.

The seriousness of the times is demanding of every citizen his whole thought and attention to the great economic and civic questions. The solution of them depends upon a thorough understanding of them, and requires of each one a certain amount of education. It is demanded of our children only the future can tell, but that it is our unquestioned duty to give them the best opportunities for meeting the duties of life. I think need hardly be demonstrated. To this end all parents ought and do to the best of their understanding, strive, but not all parents at all times appreciate to the full the possibilities, conditions, and aims, as well as difficulties that are to be encountered. It also is more or less true that most parents would gladly cooperate with the teacher in securing the best results, but the opportunity is lacking; that teachers generally gladly invite and accept intelligent suggestions and criticisms is also universally true, but individual efforts are, however, never fruitful to the best results. We seldom accomplish much without the general co-operation of a community, since intelligent, well thought and well discussed effort is much more satisfactory to all than sporadic individual effort.
Hence it follows that there should be a united support of all in every community; a close alliance between the teacher and the public; a willingness to help and to assist as well as to direct criticism in an intelligent manner.
This result is best attained through the organization in every community of a parent-teachers association. This type of community organization has been formed to accomplish most excellent results in moulding public opinion, in giving wholesome support to the school, and in bringing the teachers into closer touch with the people of the community, and as a result there is always a much better understanding of the mutual interests involved.
In this County such organizations now exist in Union Bridge, New Windsor, Uniontown and Hampstead. I believe I speak for all teachers when I subscribe my name in advocating such organizations in every community, and I trust for the good of all concerned, the progressive citizens in every community will organize at once in a spirit of hearty co-operation for the betterment of their schools.

Rev. Thomas E. McGuigan Who Comes to St. John's Church.

The Baltimore Catholic Review says: With the appointment of Rev. Thos. E. McGuigan to the pastorate of St. John's Church, Westminster, Maryland, the Capital City loses one of the most widely-known and best loved of the Catholic clergy. For the past fourteen years Father McGuigan has been assistant pastor of St. Patrick's, and during that time he has endeared himself to every member of the congregation, young and old. He has rejoiced in their joys, grieved with them in their sorrows, and won their unbounded admiration by his zeal and priestly devotion to duty.
Father McGuigan was born in Westport, Maryland, in 1874, and was ordained to the priesthood in the historic Baltimore Cathedral by His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons. He then came to the Catholic University to pursue advanced work in philosophy and theology, and received in 1912 the degree of licentiate in sacred theology.
Upon the completion of his course at the University, Father McGuigan was appointed as first assistant pastor to the late Dr. Stafford, then Rector of St. Patrick's.
He was in charge of St. Patrick's School, which was just then being organized in the parish. He was also the director of the Sunday School, which he organized on entirely new lines, similar to those of a graded school, and this method has proven so satisfactory that it has been adopted by many of the directors of Sunday Schools in the diocese.
One of Father McGuigan's special objects of solicitude is the welfare of the young, and appreciating the value of organized associations for social purposes, he has given himself generously to all plans that would be of benefit to the altar and altar.
Seven Deadly Sins to Begin Wednesday.
Everybody in Westminster has heard about the Seven Deadly Sins—either of the temptations themselves, or of the wonderful five-reel McClure Pictures, grouped under that title.
Managers Reese & Samios announce that they have booked these splendid plays and that the first one will be shown at the Opera on Wednesday next, the 18th.
Ann Murdock, in "Envy," with Shirley Mason and George LeGuere, is the first of the Seven Deadly Sins. Although the entire production is a series of five-reel photoplays, each is a complete production—in no way like a "serial."
The Seven Deadly Sins has an all-star cast—Ann Murdock, Holbrook Blinn, Nance O'Neil, Charlotte Walker, H. B. Warner, Shirley Mason and George LeGuere. Each will star in one of the features, which are plays of modern life. Miss Mason and Mr. LeGuere portray the sweethearts whose love story connects the seven stories. In each, Miss Mason, growing into womanhood, is tempted by one of the seven sins and conquers temptation.
The productions are magnificent and each is entirely different in theme and treatment from the other.
Austria and Bulgaria for Peace.
Washington, April 12.—Austrian and Bulgarian representatives are endeavoring to approach Entente diplomats in Switzerland on the subject of peace.
Press dispatches today reporting Bulgarian efforts in this line developed the fact that it is known here not only that the Bulgarians have taken soundings, but also that there has been similar action in the name of Austria-Hungary. Whether the two countries are working separately or together is not known, nor has any reference been made to the attitude of Germany or Turkey.
Officials here see in the Austrian and Bulgarian action merely an expression of weariness with the war and anxiety to bring it to an end without, however, involving any indication of desperation on their part which would make them propose peace terms acceptable to the Entente. As a result there is every evidence that the informal efforts now being made mark merely a step in the long road that will eventually lead to peace and do not offer hope of real negotiations in the near future.

WANT 50 RECRUITS FOR THE NAVY

MEETING HELD AT THE OPERA HOUSE TUESDAY AFTERNOON—EVERY DISTRICT REPRESENTED.

At the call of John Milton Reifsnider, chairman of the Carroll County Association, an organization formed at the time the Maryland soldiers went to the border, committeemen from three to five from each of the 14 districts met in Fireman's Hall, Tuesday afternoon. The object of the meeting was to recruit for the navy. Mr. Reifsnider was chairman, H. Peyton Gorsuch, secretary.
The chief address was made by Arthur Henry Dodman, secretary of the Navy League of the United States. Other speakers were: Judge James C. Brown, Ezra Caylor, George W. Yeiser, Frank Magee, Lamotte Zile Pickett, Henry Foss, Dr. J. H. Sherman, Dr. Charles H. Diller, Senator Warfield and State's Attorney Seabrook.
Arrangements were made to hold mass-meetings in Taneytown, Uniontown, Union Mills, Union Bridge, Mount Airy, Sykesville, Westminster and other places in an effort to secure at least 50 recruits for the navy in Carroll.
Five young men have gone to Baltimore in the last few days to join the navy. They are: Fred Bittel, Tannery, and Francis Hunter, of this city; Dr. B. J. Asper, James B. Noyes and Edward Burke, of Springfield State Hospital, Sykesville.

Letter From Manchester District.

It will be remembered that I have correspondents in every state and territory, and I am sure that you learn much in this way which is both interesting and beneficial.
A correspondent writes, "In an old newspaper published in 1826, the prices of foodstuffs were as follows: Lard, 8c; wheat, 76c; butter, 10c; eggs, 8c; ham, 16c; bacon, 8c; shoes, 25c. In these days of high cost of living, are not these prices restful?"
The newspapers in flaring headlines are now printing war news in the most sensational manner. "The lines," as it were, we learn that the cause of war is not so much the spirit of patriotism as is greed for gain. There are thousands of millionaires in this country. Not only do these individuals want to increase their possessions, but the Nation seems to be in a hurry to get into new territory even if it must be at the expense of the noblest and best young men of our land? Americans have been, and the majority are yet peace-loving citizens.
There was a good thing organized it in the plan to grow more vegetables on heretofore neglected land. Our All-Wise Creator gave us the soil with sunshine and rain, then why should we neglect it when our population is increasing and more food is needed? A number of years ago I had occasion to travel through Eastern Virginia, and saw hundreds, yes, thousands of acres of land uncultivated. Occasionally, here and there was a negro but with just enough ground cultivated to keep the tenant fed. Even in lowland areas there are vacant lots which, with a little attention, will "blossom like a rose," and yield abundant crops of much needed fruits and vegetables.
Another hopeful sign of peace and progress is the increased love for the beauties in flowers. People generally are beginning to realize as never before that there is no home without flowers. Truly they are God's gifts to us, the delight of the eye, that which is purest and loveliest in our nature. Can anyone look into the depth of a flower and see anything impure, or even think an impure thought? We, the people of America, in the desire to help others and have pleasure as they have pleasure, neglect one of the greatest gifts to man—that of thinking. Recently a minister of the gospel told me, "Because we do not take time to think is the reason we are not as thankful for our many blessings as we should be."

Recruits For Company H.

Following are the recruits to Company H to date: Harold S. Rupp, Elting S. Reifsnider, Arthur H. Riney and William Myers, this city; Albert S. Mann, Roger C. Peeling, Jerome L. Day and Albert G. Larramore, Finksburg; John H. Lyner, Harry S. Kressler, Carrollton; Alfred D. Fields, Pikesville; James A. Null, New Windsor, and James W. Bowers, Bird Hill. The Company needs 23 more men for a full enlistment.

CARROLL WAKING UP SCHOOL COMMISSIONERS

TWO BIG MEETINGS IN THE INTEREST OF THE NAVY AT SILVER RUN AND SYKESVILLE.

Two meetings in the interest of securing recruits for the Navy were held last night. That at Silver Run was one of the most remarkable meetings ever held in Carroll county. Messrs. Robert and William Shriver had on Wednesday mailed five hundred letters announcing the meeting, and at the appointed hour well nigh 500 people from all sections of Myers' tract assembled. The building in which the meeting was held, arrangements were held two large halls, on first and second story. Both were packed with people and many stood on the outside. Two bands of music were present, the Carroll County Band in the upper hall, and the Union Mills Band in the lower hall. Mr. George W. Yeiser presided at the meeting in the upper hall and Mr. Calvin Bankard at that in the lower. The first speaker in the upper hall was Mr. Seabrook, of Seabrook, and the first in the lower hall by Dr. Najob Kathibah, a Syrian physician, of Baltimore, who has seen service in the Sudan and other wars, and has offered his services to the Secretary of War. After speaking in the upper hall, Mr. Seabrook relieved Dr. Kathibah in the lower hall, while Mr. W. J. Burdy, of the U. S. Navy, in uniform, followed him in the upper hall. Dr. Kathibah then spoke in the upper room, and Mr. Burdy followed Mr. Seabrook in the lower. A deep and lasting impression was made by all the speakers. From the first word spoken that interest was manifest in the expression of the men, old and young. After the addresses, many commented on the fact that the spirit of the gathering reminded them of a religious revival. An after meeting, for such it really was, at which the speakers one after another made direct and personal appeal for recruits, had been the interest already awakened, and one young man, Denton Dull, offered himself as the first to be placed on the honor roll from Myers' district. Leaving the hall, little groups formed around each of the speakers, and many of them a number of young men manifested their desire to serve their country, and it can be predicted almost to a certainty that others from old Myers' will follow the example of Mr. Dull.
A meeting was also held at Sykesville, in the hall at the Springfield State Hospital. It was not so largely attended as that at Silver Run, but good seed was sown that will bear fruit. Senator Wade E. D. Warfield, and addresses were made by Mr. Seabrook, Mr. Burdy, Mr. Kathibah, and Guy W. Steele, Esq., of this city. Dr. J. Clement Clarke also spoke and urged those of the employes, who could do so to enter the service.

Delegations From Hampstead and Union Bridge Were Before The Board in Regards to New School Buildings.

The Board of Education of Carroll County met in regular session at the office of the Board, Wednesday, April 4th. All members were present except Commissioner Fesser. The usual order of business followed.
The greater part of the Board's time during the session was taken up in hearing delegations from Union Bridge and Hampstead, and petitions from Sykesville and Franklin district regarding enlarged facilities for their schools. In all cases new buildings are demanded. The Board, however, was compelled to reply to all these applications that there was not sufficient funds to do any constructive work this year.
The Board ratified the action of the Committee for the purchase of the Smith land at Union Bridge to enlarge the public school grounds of that community. The Board also ratified the action of the Committee in acquiring the old Manchester Academy in the town of Manchester for school purposes.
In view of the chaotic state of the coal business in this country, it was impossible for a number of the coal dealers in this county to offer their bids for supplying the schools with coal in time for this Board meeting. The Board, therefore, extended the time for receiving bids until the next regular meeting in May, and it is hoped that all bids will be in by that time.
The Board authorized the standing Committee for the Westminster District to consider further the question of providing additional quarters for the increased demands for the schools of Westminster for next year and make report at the next meeting.
The Board contributed $10.00 to each of the following schools for the purposes designated:
Pearl Garrity, teacher, Ridge School, organ.
Mabel Lambert, teacher, Piney Creek, library.
E. W. Craumer, teacher, Union Bridge, library.
F. B. Young, teacher, Mt. Airy, stable on school premises.
Other incidental matters being discussed and passed upon the Board adjourned at 5 p. m.

Life Everlasting.

The choir of Grace Lutheran church splendidly rendered the cantata, "Life Everlasting," text by Rene Brimmer, and music by H. W. Fetrick, in the church last Friday evening. A large crowd was present and enjoyed the beautiful music so well rendered. Rev. William H. Hetrick, the pastor made a few remarks and read the scripture lesson, after which the following musical numbers interspersed by the reading of appropriate scripture verses made a most impressive and beautiful service: Opening chorus, "Darkness Reigns;" duet, for soprano and contralto, "Come, Only Salvation;" chorus, "Easter Dawning;" soprano solo and chorus, "Ye Slow of Heart;" chorus, "Life Everlasting;" solo, "Earth Could Not Hold Him;" quartet, "Crown the Risen King;" soprano solo and chorus, "Praise Him;" trio for soprano, tenor and bass, "Teach Me to Love Thee;" bass solo, "The Great Example;" finale, "Joy to the World." On Monday evening their rendered the same cantata at Manchester.

From the Bishop of Maryland 1110 Madison Avenue.

Baltimore, Easter-Day, 1917.
My Dear Brother:—
Invoking upon us all Divine counsel, comfort and courage, I request you to read to your congregation at your principal service on Easter-Day the communication from me herewith appended; also use at your discretion the accompanying prayers.
Affectionately Your Friend,
JOHN G. MURRAY,
Bishop of Maryland.

To the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese of Maryland.

Grace, mercy and peace be unto you, my dear Brethren, from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ.
Upon this blessed day commemorative of release from sin and deliverance from death, our country calls us to arms for the cause of divine justice and human liberty.
To us this call is that of God. Never before has any Government so diligently sought to escape war, or been so unavoidably driven into it. The divine will has been most clearly revealed to us through the medium of human words.
God's peace is at present impossible upon earth because His purpose has been perverted. His mercy mocked and His love crucified, premeditated and persistently, by human and satanic personalities and powers.
Others may be willing to have it so, but not the people of God. They must have His peace, and that the destroyers of that peace shall be banished from earth, as were they from heaven, the battle between Michael and the Dragon must be fought to a finish here, as was it there.
That we may not become a party to the present defiance of divine law and destruction of human freedom, we must take a positive stand for universal justice and perseveringly strive for the successful establishment and permanent maintenance of eternal truth. As followers of Christ, we must recognize our relation to Him and through Him to all mankind, and endeavor to discharge the obligations growing out of this relationship to the full extent of the ability we possess.
This is God's call to us, I am fully persuaded, in this most momentous crisis in the history of the world. As citizens of our common country we will make patriotic response to the appeal of our country's leaders. As Christian men and women let us add the strong virtue of piety to our patriotism and, with no thought of material gain, extension of territory, or increase of selfish prestige and power, offer ourselves to God and our country upon the altar of service and sacrifice for the establishment of divine sovereignty and human democracy among all the nations of earth and the people who inhabit them, so that universal permanent peace may succeed the present world-war.
Let us have no war except that of God, country, and humanity, and let us leave no service unrendered and no battle unfought that will make for the overthrow of the power of hate and the establishment of the principle of love. Better the immediate liberty of the future life and continuance of the present life without liberty.
So to this end, and no other, I suggest:—
First: That all who are eligible for service under existing law, immediately voluntarily offer themselves for that service without delay.
Second: That all who may be exempt under existing law, but who believe themselves fully qualified, with proper training, for service, declare a waiver of their exemptions, and follow the example of those subject to the law.
Third: That all who are ineligible and disqualified, physically, or otherwise, show the willing spirit that is in them and assume responsibility, according to reasonable ability, for the necessary support of all dependent upon those who shall enter into righteous battle for the enjoyment of human freedom through the vindication of divine justice.
Fourth: That common cause be made for the prompt enactment of such legislation, both state and national, which will provide reasonably for the support of the families of enlisted men of the Army and Navy until the war shall cease and those engaged in it have returned to their several vocations of peace. This support should be made a matter of legitimate discrimination, regular compensation, and not left to the intermittent, indiscriminate emotional efforts of charitable dispensation. The war is for the protection of a government of all the people. All the people should contribute through that government for the proper, perfect prosecution of that war. Our women and children will be found cheerfully willing in all necessary sacrifice. This necessary sacrifice will be sufficient for them to bear. The government of the people, by the people, for the people, should see that no unnecessary burden is added thereto.
Fifth: That we all pray continually for the guidance of Divine wisdom, the courage of Divine grace, the gift of Divine power and the perseverance of Divine patience, so that we may endure to the end for the full accomplishment of that surely directing Divine purpose of this titanic universal struggle which will be eventually manifested to the eternal glory of God and permanent righteous development of man. And that while we thus persevere and endure, we unceasingly supplicate God in His own goodness to hasten the time when this and all earthly hate and war shall cease and heaven's happiness and peace unite in one the hope and hearts of all men everywhere for all time.
Affectionately yours,
In the love of Christ and loyalty to His Church,
JOHN G. MURRAY,
Bishop of Maryland.

Card of Thanks.

I take this method of thanking my friends and neighbors and the members of the Westminster Fire Department, who fought so heroically to save my dwelling house from the flames when my summer house was consumed by fire on Wednesday last.

WANT FARMERS TO INCREASE ACREAGE

B. F. SHRIVER COMPANY SOLD 400,000 CASES OF CANNED GOODS—FURNISHED NAVY WITH 500,000 CANS OF CORN—RAISES PRICE ON CORN TO $15 PER TON.

In view of this advance and at this late period in the season, we feel it our duty and pleasure to explain the reasons for so doing, also to emphasize the sacrifice or cost entailed.
In accordance with the Company's long-established business principles and methods, the Management some months ago sold to customers in twenty-five states in the Union about 400,000 cases (meaning upwards of eight million cans) of goods based on the cost of production with corn at our present contract price of $13 per ton. We further wish to state that we have already contracted with the farmers of Carroll county for sufficient acreage to cover these requirements at our figure. In the meantime as every one knows our Nation has taken sides in the world war now waging on foreign soil and in lining up positively with the Allies, notably England and France; the entire country is called upon by our President and Congress and specifically in this State by our Honorable Governor, Emerson C. Harrington, to produce the utmost limit of good.
We have endeavored to urge by our solicitors for acreage the farmers and growers in Carroll County particularly to come forward and increase their acreage. We have already been able to handle thousands of more acres of Sweet Corn than we have so far contracted for.
So far our efforts have met with very meagre support, though we are happy to state with some little support from patriotic citizens.
Our ideas in making this advance is principally and solely to make the price paid for the crop so entirely attractive that the farmer will almost as force to increase his acreage which naturally will result in large increases in Carroll County's assistance in the Preparedness move.
It is hardly necessary to advise you all that the package goods like canned vegetables are a tremendous assistance to the Quartermaster Department of both the Army and Navy in giving our soldiers who are to bear the brunt of this war proper food supplies. A balanced ration absolutely calls for green vegetable food and there is no way that these vegetables can be obtained with some little support from the canners of the United States.
We urge the farmers, therefore, to step forward now and help us increase Carroll County's quota of assistance. We have already taken certain steps and will continue to get into close communication with the proper authorities and intend to let the Government have over and above contracts made.
We also would like to call the attention of the farmers in Carroll County that through the efforts of medium of the B. F. Shriver Company their produce has for years been part of the ration of both our gallant sailors and soldiers. Only two years ago Mr. Shriver's company incurs a loss of 500,000 cans of corn.
You can well appreciate the fact that it is impossible for us to go to our five hundred or more customers and ask them to help us absorb the advance which will run into tens of thousands of dollars.
If we are to pay this advance and suffer this severe monetary loss, our effort in assistance will, of course, go for nothing if on the other hand the farmers of the county and others in the neighboring countries will show their appreciation of the effort as well as their appreciation of the call of the President and our Honored Governor, the amount spent by the Company will be amply justified in increasing Carroll County's quota of food assistance.
We would just like to call the attention of the citizens of Carroll County to one other similar effort we are making in the general Preparedness move, that being that we are planting on our own farms approximately thirty acres of Potatoes which as you all know should produce many thousands of bushels of this staple, the value of which will be very great in helping the Quartermaster.
