DEATHS.

Buckingham. Mrs. Jane E., widow of B. W. Buckingham, of this city, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. R. Neeley, Washington, D. C., on Sunday, April 29, after a lingering illness, aged 74 years. She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Neeley and a step-daughter, Miss Lizzie Buckingham; one grandchild, four brothers, Joseph Ebaugh, Cory, Pa.; John Ebaugh, of New Brighton, Pa.; Edward Ebaugh, of Hanover, and Howard Ebaugh, of Baltimore; also a number of nieces and nephews and other relatives.

The family moved from West Main street, this city, to Baltimore, some years ago, and later to Washington. Mrs. Buckingham was a daughter of the late Ex-Sheriff Joseph Ebaugh, and a native of Hampstead, but had been away from here many years, and was the last one of the daughters.

She had many friends and relatives in this community, who held her in high esteem. Her remains were brought to this city on Tuesday morning, and buried beside her husband in the Westminster cemetery, after funeral services at the grave by Rev. C. W. Walck, of Baltimore, and Rev. A. S. Weber, of Baltimore. At the grave Mrs. Ralph Reifsnider and Mrs. Cleavie Hines, sang "Nearer My God to Thee". The funeral was largely attended at the cemetery. The floral tributes were many and very beautiful.

The pallbearers were Oscar D. Gilbert, J. Hoffman Fuss, Wm. Weagly and John H. Mitten, Harvey Bankard & Son, funeral directors.

Gorsuch. Phineas A. Gorsuch, a former resident of this city, and the last of this old Carroll county family, died in Baltimore, on Monday, April 30, aged 84 years, 9 months and 26 days. He was a native of Woolley's district, where he has many relatives. He moved to this city years ago, and was an auctioneer and at one time clerk of the Court.

Some four years ago, he moved to Baltimore. He had been blind for 11 years, and unable to do anything. He had a large acquaintance in this city and county, and many friends.

He was twice married, his first wife was Sarah Gorsuch, of Carroll county, who died in 1872. His second wife was Annie E. Beam, of Pikesville, Md., who survives him. He leaves four children, Mrs. W. H. Wheeler, of Philadelphia; Agnes R., and E. Alfred Gordon, at home, and three grandchildren, Miss Mildred Wheeler, of Western Maryland College, Dorothy Wheeler, of Richmond, and C. C. Young, of Philadelphia. He was the son of George Washington Gorsuch, of Gamber.

He was buried Thursday at 2 o'clock from 2008 Harlem Ave., Baltimore, in Woodlawn cemetery. Funeral services by Rev. L. T. Lambert, of Central Methodist Episcopal church, South, and Joel Brown, a former pastor of Centenary Methodist Episcopal church, this city.

Clousher. The funeral of Mrs. Mary E. Johnson Clousher, widow of Verley J. Clousher, was held from her residence in Taneytown, Md., Tuesday. The Rev. Seth Russell Downie, of the Piney Creek Presbyterian Church, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. Marks, and interment was in the Lutheran cemetery. She died Sunday, aged 61 years, 4 months and 17 days.

Mrs. Clousher was born in Baltimore December 11, 1855, and was the daughter of the late George and Catharine Mourer Johnson. She graduated at Western Maryland College in 1872 and after teaching for 10 years in the schools of Carroll county, married Mr. Clousher, who was farm superintendent of McDonogh School.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Robert W. Clinean, Mrs. J. N. O. Smith and Miss Alice Clousher, all of Taneytown. Pallbearers were George Arnold, Robert S. McKinney, Scott Clemson, John A. Eckard, Norma Hess and John Shoeemaker, C. O. Fuss & Son, funeral directors.

Bosley. David F. Bosley died at his home at Finksburg, Sunday, April 29, aged 74 years, 3 months and 8 days. He is survived by his widow and the following children: John Bosley, of Arlington; Preston, of Baltimore; William, Basil and Miss Mary Bosley, at home.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p. m. in Finksburg Methodist Protestant church, Rev. M. C. Clough officiating. Interment in the adjoining cemetery. The pallbearers were William Shroyer, Frank Ward, Frank Fenby, Michael Beck, George W. Stair and Frank Stockdale. F. C. Sharrer, funeral director.

Miller. Mrs. Hattie E. Miller, died at her home, Pleasant Valley, yesterday morning, of heart trouble, aged 70 years, 8 months and 8 days. She is survived by her husband and the following children: John Bosley, of Arlington; Preston, of Baltimore; William, Basil and Miss Mary Bosley, at home.

Wisner.

Joseph Wisner, died at his home, at Arcadia, Saturday afternoon in his 55th year. He was a member of Trenton Lodge No. 33, I. O. M., who attended and held services at the grave. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Mrs. Gertie Sipe, Miss Lovenia Wisner, Albert Wisner, at home; and Earl Wisner, Baltimore; one sister, Annie Wisner and four brothers, Peter, Edward, John and Christopher Wisner, of Baltimore. 40 MEMBERS ENROLLED

IN THE PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION—COMMITTEES APPOINTED.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held in the auditorium of the High School building, on Friday, April 27th. The meeting was very ably conducted by the president, Mrs. J. Pearce Wanzel. The secretary's report showed an enrollment of about forty members. Mrs. Unger read a paper giving a resume of an address delivered by Dr. Claxton, United States Commissioner of Education, before the State Federation of Women's Clubs, in Baltimore. Among other interesting topics, Mrs. Unger said that Dr. Claxton made a strong appeal for the children, contrasting present conditions with ideal ones. The key note of his theme was "Education for Health, for Comfort, for Beauty." Mrs. Jesse S. Myers showed some excellent reasons why Parent-Teacher Associations are worth while. Miss I. Jewell Simpson gave a short talk, recommending teachers to invite the patrons to come to the schools, to inspect the work of their children. She made a plea for libraries for the children in the grades. Superintendent Unger was then asked to address the meeting, and he spoke at some length upon the imperative needs of the Westminster schools. He emphasized the fact that conditions are inadequate; and that there is need for expansion along the lines of buildings, equipment, and playgrounds.

The president then appointed the following committees: Program, Miss Evelyn J. Rinker, Miss A. R. Mowbray, Mrs. J. S. Myers, Press, Mr. J. F. Reese, Miss Margaret Moore, Charles Ways and Means, Mr. H. P. Gorsch, Rev. W. H. Hetrick, Dr. L. K. Woodward, Lawrence Gillelan, Mrs. Howard Koontz, Library and Art, Miss I. J. Simpson, Mrs. M. S. H. Unger, Mrs. Hetrick, Music, Miss Ida F. Lockard, Playgrounds, Miss J. Corrinne Troy, Miss Ethel Manahan, C. G. Mather and Mrs. Jos. L. Franklin. Sanitation, Miss L. Moore, Miss Alma McAffrey, Mrs. J. L. Reifsnider, Mrs. E. O. Weant.

The next meeting will be held on Monday, May 28th, at 3 o'clock, when it is earnestly hoped that a large number of friends and patrons of the school will be present. At 2 o'clock on the same afternoon in the various schoolrooms, there will be an exhibit of children's work, done during the year. All who are interested, are cordially invited to inspect the work and afterwards attend the meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association. Those desiring to become members will pay an annual due of 25 cents; but all members are welcome, whether they wish to become members of the Association, or not.

Banquet of Welcome. The Knights of Columbus of Westminster held a banquet at the Westminster Hotel on Wednesday evening at 8 p. m., in honor of Rev. McGuigan, the newly installed pastor of Saint John's church.

The Knights attended in a body and had as their guest Mr. Harry F. Burkhardt, of Frederick, District Deputy for this Council. After the banquet a very amusing entertainment was staged in the dining room by Mr. Norman, a magician of fame, who held the attention of all and delighted the attendants by clever tricks, card plays, and slight of hand.

In a short address Father McGuigan assured the Knights that he thoroughly understood the intention of the banquet and wished to voice his approval of their co-operation in matters pertaining to the religious and civic advancement of the community.

Takes the Wm. C. Devilbiss Store. Mr. J. Thomas Anders, who for the past 18 years has been in the shoe and hat business at the late Wm. C. Devilbiss' West Main street, took over the stock on Monday and will continue the business at the old stand, with a full and complete line of hats, shoes, gents' furnishings of the latest styles which he offers to the public at the lowest possible prices, at these times of high prices of everything. He asks for a liberal share of the patronage of the public and hopes by fair dealing to merit the same of those who have never been customers at the store.

Flag Raising. Next Tuesday evening, at 7.30 p. m., a flag will be presented to St. John's school by the members of St. John's Beneficial Society. The flag is being made by some of the ladies of the congregation. Mr. M. E. Walsh will make the presentation speech and the flag will be received by Father McGuigan in the name of the school. The girls of the graduating class will raise the flag. A patriotic program of songs, salute the flag, etc., will be rendered. Music by the Boy Scout Band. Everybody invited.

Attention Please. In conformity with the request sent out by the Governor of our State, the Carroll County Women's Commission on Agricultural Preparedness makes this second earnest appeal to the men and women, boys and girls to utilize every available patch of ground for gardening. Everybody get busy and feel the importance of this matter. If you know of an idle piece of ground, or if you have a patch which you are not going to cultivate please help in this work by notifying Mrs. Gallagher or some member of the committee. Chairman, Mrs. Austin Gallagher; Mrs. H. M. Fitzhugh, Mrs. Joseph N. Shriver, Mrs. E. O. Weant, Mrs. Geo. K. Mather.
