LOCAL AFFAIRS

Next Wednesday is Old Defender's Day and a legal holiday.

How easy it is to forgive an enemy when he is in a position to do you a favor!

The optimist expects a good deal even if it is the other fellows turn to shuffle.

Trying to be nice to his wife's relatives is awfully rough on a man's disposition.

Never court a girl whose father is a peasant, for he always has a kick coming.

It seems the examining boards have had less trouble with flat feet than with cold feet.

A non-leakable gasoline tank has been perfected. What is needed is a non-existible one.

Yes, we want the world safe for democracy. But, most important of all, we want it safe for ourselves.

There is, however, some satisfaction in knowing that when our shoes wear out we'll be on our feet again.

Charles J. Rowe, of Emmitsburg, has filed a bill for an absolute divorce from his wife, Mrs. Ellen May Rowe.

The Bethel Church at Warfieldsburg will hold Sunday School 1.30 p. m. and preaching at 2.30 p. m. Sunday.

It is easier to be critical than to be correct. Perhaps that is why so many of us are not correct but so critical.

Worry may be, as a great man has said, worse than drink, but it doesn't leave the same taste in the mouth next morning.

A number of our citizens attended the parade at Hanover on Monday, Labor Day. The Boy Scout Band took part in the parade.

Everybody gets a vacation except the army, the navy, and the American farmer. It is these three who are saving the country.

The county convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union will be held in Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church Thursday, September 20, beginning at 10 a. m.

The Rev. Samuel W. Coe, pastor of Brooklyn Methodist Protestant Church, underwent an operation at the Maryland General Hospital for appendicitis.

Automobiles seem to be the favorite way for traveling from what we can learn from Mr. Carroll N. Lockard, auto agent, West Green street. He reports the sales of 176 cars so far this year.

The banks in this city were closed last Wednesday at noon to allow the drafts of the drafted men who are to be sent to a training camp in the near future.

S. L. Fisher, optometrist and oculist will be at Boyle's Drug Store next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. If you need glasses call to see him. Eye examined free. No drops used, and reading glasses.

Mr. Harry Starr, who has been associated with Sharrer & Gorsuch, as a title for a number of years, has been taken over by one of the firm. The title of the firm will be known hereafter as Starr, Gorsuch & Starr.

Mr. Robert Sitzer, this city, was granted an absolute divorce from his wife Mrs. Gladys V. Sitzer, of Baltimore, Maryland, on July 7. The divorce was signed by associate Judge John H. Chesche, of Ellicott City.

Miss Virginia Troy, a graduate of the Centerville High School and last year teacher of domestic science in the Westminster High School, has resigned to enter Columbia University, where she will study for a degree in domestic science.

Announcement was recently made that the Rev. E. V. Claypool, of Parkersville, Mich., will succeed Prof. F. F. Bole, recently made president of Blue Ridge college, New Windsor, on July 7. The appointment was signed by associate Judge John H. Chesche, of Ellicott City.

Miss Madeline Powers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bowers, of Hanover, Pa., has entered the Mercy Hospital Training School for Nurses. After moving there from this city two years ago, Miss Powers was employed in the office of the Hanover Steam Laundry.

The Mt. Airy chautauqua opened Tuesday with a parade in which nearly 200 automobiles and vehicles took part. About 800 persons attended the first session. Dr. Warren Low, superintendent of the chautauqua delivered an address on "Patriotism." Mrs. Lenora Lake, known as "Mother Lake," spoke at night on "The Rights of the Child."

An accident which might have proven far more serious occurred last week when Mrs. J. L. Reifsnider, Sr., Terrence Hill was thrown from the carriage in which she was riding, injuring her hip and bruising her considerably. The accident occurred at the foot of College Hill caused by the neglect of fastening the backing strap. Mrs. Reifsnider is resting as comfortable as can be expected at this time.

But the automobile lacks horse sense. Nothing is quite so foolish as an angry fool.

But most of the old saws have lost their teeth. Pen Mar will close on Sunday for this season.

Also the path of duty leads to ultimate happiness. Better a dinner without meat than a domestic bill.

The well man often forgets the rich man's promises. Many a marked man has a tattoo artist to thank for it.

Sometimes it is the police that teach a man to reform. The under dog gets a lot of sympathy—and that's about all.

Being popular consists largely in remembering what to forget. When a man tries to stand on his dignity he puts his foot in it.

The woman who hesitates usually has an impediment in her speech. Nothing worries some wives like absence of worry in their husbands.

Anyway, an ounce of prevention costs much less than a pound of cure. There are many kinds of foolishness, but the meanest kind is selfishness.

Never judge a man by his big automobile; it is possible that it isn't paid for.

If a married man doesn't grumble at home it's usually because he isn't there. Inventors of excuses seldom require the assistance of a patent attorney.

It takes a man to explain things to a woman that he doesn't understand himself. It's as risky to praise a woman's husband to her face as it is to criticize him.

Among other things that fail to impress a man favorably are his wife's relations. The wife of a lazy man always thinks that other people misunderstand him.

There is more money to be made by humoring people than by handing them advice. On Wednesday The Real Estate Company of Carroll County sold the property of Miss Loretta Jackson, located in Hampstead, to Mr. Jacob T. Armacost, of Upperco, Baltimore county.

Harry Dorsey, of near Libertytown, has been granted an absolute divorce from his wife, Rachael Dorsey and he is given custody of their infant children, Bernietta, Margaret, Mary, Ruth, Harvey, Milla, and Della Dorsey.

In correcting the names of the official nominations that were published in our issue of last week, the name of Jesse P. Stem, candidate for Sheriff in the Democratic ticket was taken out by mistake and the name of Wm. Bower inserted. We assure you Mr. Stem is a candidate and is making a red hot fight for the nomination.

The matrimonial differences of Rev. J. Edward Snyder, of the Ellicott City Methodist Episcopal Church, and Mrs. Ada L. Snyder, his wife, will be aired once more in the Circuit Court, where Mrs. Snyder Tuesday afternoon filed a bill for an absolute divorce and alimony against the minister. Rev. Mr. Snyder filed a bill for an absolute divorce against his wife in August, 1914, but this case was dismissed. The wife then filed a crossbill against her husband and this was also dismissed.

Just about this time of the year, it would be well for those contemplating having a job of printing to be done to place the order now. The best investment the business or professional man can make is in neatly printed stationery. When you send out a letter or any other printed matter, you want it to represent you personally. Therefore, it is to your interest to make the "first impression" count. The job printing department of The Advocate is fully equipped to do that job for you, and guarantee satisfaction in every detail.

Learn this lesson, my son; then learn it over and over again. The world does not owe you a living. It doesn't owe any man a living. True there are those who have gotten a notion in their heads that they have a right to be taken care of by others regardless of any exertion themselves. They will find out in time, however, that while they are waiting for the procession to come along with a feather bed on which to carry them to fame and fortune, the hustler has gotten a long way to the front; while he who waited for others to "boost" him along, waited for what never came.

Not many voters were registered in this city on Tuesday last. There being but few contests and a lack of apathy by the workers on both sides was the cause of the small number being registered.

Vacation time is over with the telegraph operators at the Western Maryland depot. Tonight Mr. Harry Ryland will take up his old position and Mr. Geo. Wertz will return to his same post.

Two Circus wagons were dumped from the cars near the Gas House yesterday morning when the air breaks went down on the train for a sudden stop. The wagons were gathered up in a damaged condition in the afternoon.

The Western Maryland Railroad opened its passenger siding this afternoon that runs from this city to the Coal Chute. The siding will accommodate 165 cars. On Sunday the siding leading to the freight depot will be opened below Shriver's Canning Factory. This is a great improvement as the yards of this city lacked space for the freight business, many times the tracks would be congested with cars.

The men of Company H take this means of thanking the people of Westminster and Carroll county who contributed towards the base ball outfit, which was sent just before leaving Baltimore. It has been a great source of pleasure to us since our arrival in Alabama.

A marriage license was issued in Baltimore yesterday to Herbert L. Zeigler and Katherine, Yingling, both of this city.

The circus left early this morning for Middletown, Del., where it will show today. The rainy weather did not have much effect on the people from the country and city in patronizing the afternoon and night shows. Some of the citizens were disappointed when the parade did not traverse every street in the city. There were others who will remember the side show attractions when they look over their bank roll if they indulged in the games of the fakers. One citizen who plunged into their get rich games lost $90.
