

THE DEMOCRATIC ADVOCATE.

FOUNDED, 1838.

$1.00 PER ANNUM.

WESTMINSTER, MD., FRIDAY AFTERNOON, SEPTEMBER 14, 1917.

VOL. 54.—NO. 10

SCHOOL OFFICIALS BUSY.

AWARD SCHOLARSHIPS TO VARIOUS INSTITUTIONS IN THE STATE—SAMUEL EVERHART MADE REPAIRMAN—MAIN COURT HOTEL TO BE USED AS A SCHOOL.

At the regular meeting of the Carroll county Board of Education held in the office of the Board on Wednesday Sept. 13, all members were present except Dr. Hopkins.

After the reading and approval of the minutes of the previous meeting the regular order of business was taken up.

The list of unpaid bills was next considered and all bills as outlined were ordered paid by the Board.

Applications for the available scholarships were considered by the Board and awarded as follows:

Senatorial Scholarships to the following applicants subject to the approval of the Senator:

To Raymond Hyson, Hampstead, Md. State Senatorial Scholarship to St. John's College, he having made the highest average in the competitive examination.

To George D. Lippy, Greenmount, Md. Senatorial Scholarship to Johns Hopkins University.

To Lewis Hitchcock, Taneytown, Md. Senatorial Scholarship to Washington College.

Miss Olive E. Ebaugh, Patapsco, Md. Senatorial Scholarship (female) to Western Maryland College.

The Board awarded County Scholarships to Western Maryland College to the following candidates: Charles Keefe, Westminster; Norman Hunter, Westminster; Alice E. Bihmyer, Westminster; Vivian Engler, Linwood; Ruth Penly, Woodensburg; Wilbur F. Yingling, Finksburg; Eldie Helwig, Westminster.

The County Scholarship to Maryland State Normal School was awarded to Miss Elizabeth Harris of Woodensburg, Md.

The County Scholarship to Blue Ridge College was awarded to Miss Edna A. Dotterer, Union Bridge, Md.

The annual report was next considered at length, and approved as presented, and authorized to be printed in pamphlet form for distribution over the county.

The matter of auditing the books of the Board of Education was brought to the attention of the Board, who ordered that the books be audited by a certified public accountant.

The matter of purchasing oil stoves for the Domestic Science Department and a furnace for Manchester, was brought before the Board and left in the hands of Superintendent Unger and Commissioner Atteiler for purchase.

The application of Miss Crass for a position was presented to the Board and approved.

The Board appointed Mr. Grover C. Taylor as attendance officer for the coming year at the salary of $700.00 per year and mileage at 10 cents a mile.

The appointment of Mr. Samuel Eberhart as repair man at the salary of $800.00 per month was made by the Board, this to include the housing of the repair automobile.

Superintendent Unger made a report to the Board of his investigation of Freedom and Pool's school to the effect that both Freedom and Pool's schools would have a sufficient number of pupils to justify opening these schools and the Board approved the same. Superintendent Unger also made a report on the Cross Roads school which matter was left to the discretion of Supt. Unger and the Commissioner of that district, Mr. Atteiler.

The matter of electric lights in that part of the Main Court Building used for school purposes, was considered, the Board left this matter to the discretion of Superintendent Unger and President Wantz. The question of employing a janitor for this building was also left to their discretion.

Additional salaries for janitors at Union Bridge, Manchester and Hampstead was brought to the attention of the Board and this matter was left in charge of Superintendent Unger and the Commissioner in their respective districts.

The matter of additional repairs at St. Mary also the bids of Messrs. Erb and Easton and Hendrickson on this renovation, was brought to the attention of the Board. The bids were rejected and the work authorized to be done by the repair man.

The petition from the patrons of New Windsor school regarding the repairs to that school, was read to the Board. The Board left this matter to the discretion of Superintendent Unger and Commissioner Devliss to open and repair the third room in the New Windsor school.

The matter of land in Hampstead was again considered by the Board and the Board authorized Superintendent Unger to settle the matter and pay for the land upon receipt of the State Superintendent's approval.

The leasing of a room in Hampstead for school purposes was reported to the Board, and all matters pertaining to this were left to the discretion of Superintendent Unger and Commissioner Atteiler.

The program of the teacher's Conference was read to the Board and noted by them.

Commissioner Feesser reported the necessity of repairs to be made to Union Mills and Cherry Grove schools, and the Board left this matter in the hands of Superintendent Unger and Commissioner Atteiler.

Commissioner Zentz reported the necessity of repair to be made to Morgan Run school, and this matter was left to the discretion of Superintendent Unger and Commissioner Zentz.

The matter of buying coal was again

OFFICIAL RETURNS FOR CARROLL COUNTY.

The Vote at the Primary Election on Tuesday Was the Lightest Ever Cast in Carroll County. Some of The Candidates Did Not Receive a Vote in Several Districts. Charles F. Beck Received 722 Votes and James D. Haines 486, Mr. Beck's Majority Being 236. Harry K. Oursler Received 324 Votes Over His Closest Opponent, John L. Freyman. The Official Vote For the County is as Follows:

DEMOCRATIC
Districts:
For Associate Judge of the Fifth Judicial Circuit of Maryland:
Nicholas Harwood Green.....	15 17 10 7 21 6 25 21 25 12 25 12 38 10 19 23 13 24 17 8 16—364
Robert Moss.....	10 25 17 24 15 14 22 49 44 45 41 38 50 50 51 26 15 25 15 40 77—693
For County Commissioner:
Charles F. Beck.....	9 18 6 21 13 15 15 51 45 40 50 30 60 49 47 32 18 43 20 43 97—722
James D. Haines.....	23 25 25 10 28 8 53 25 35 27 31 23 40 13 23 26 18 14 15 8 12—486
For Sheriff:
Jesse W. Eyer.....	10 18 6 4 7 0 1 8 11 11 0 1 3 3 9 2 31 2 12 1 3—143
John Louis Freyman.....	2 6 1 1 6 2 2 1 27 6 4 13 13 28 11 12 60 3 39 4 5 49—314
Harry K. Oursler.....	11 13 20 23 24 20 48 26 50 39 70 21 69 36 41 2 5 15 15 39 51—638
Jesse F. Stem.....	7 5 5 3 4 3 1 9 12 11 12 22 10 13 8 2 1 3 4 4 7—146
REPUBLICAN
For Sheriff:
Edwin M. Mellor, Jr.....	24 12 11 4 11 1 15 84 16 13 11 11 19 12 42 16 25 18 15 23 18—401
Frank T. Shaeffer.....	8 11 4 5 7 6 1 2 10 5 14 79 25 52 3 7 2 13 8 8 0—270

DEATHS.

Snyder.

Elisha Snyder, a highly respected and well-known citizen of Hampstead died yesterday morning, aged 81 years.

Mr. Snyder was a pioneer merchant of Carroll county having begun the merchandise business in 1862 at Snyderburg, later transferring it to Hampstead where he actively engaged in the business until 2 years ago when he was paralyzed, and the business taken over by his son, J. Oliver Snyder. He was the son of the late Michael Snyder who owned that land west of Hampstead known as Michaelsville and afterwards changed to Snyderburg in honor of the Snyder family. He was the last of a large family of children. Mr. Snyder was twice drafted during the Civil War.

He is survived by the following children: Albert and Charles, Baltimore; Harvey C., near Pittsburg; Augustus, Howard S., J. Oliver and Preston W., of Hampstead; Mrs. Samuel Hare, Millers, and Mrs. Samuel Hann, Hampstead.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at the house at 1 o'clock with services in the Lutheran Church, Rev. Spangler assisted by Rev. Derr, officiating. Interment in Hampstead cemetery, C. V. Tipton & Son funeral directors.

Beaver.

Oliver Beaver died at his home near this city, Saturday, September 8, aged 81 years and 7 months. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. A. R. Beaver, three sons, Ulysses L. Beaver, of Cocksylvia; Frank S. Beaver, of Dayton, Ohio, and Charles H. Beaver, of Brookville, Ohio; and four daughters, Mrs. Mary Brightwell, of Dayton, Ohio; Mrs. Martha Marker, of Dayton, Ohio; Mrs. Annie Blizard, of Fredericksburg, Va.; and Miss Bessie E. Beaver, of this city. A short funeral service was held at his late residence Tuesday at 2 p. m. and the remains were then taken to Deer Park M. P. Church for further services. Rev. W. A. Sites was in charge of both services. Interment was made in the cemetery adjoining the church. The pallbearers were John G. Hoffman, George Freyman, James Case, Harry Buckingham, John Burline and Harry Ogg. A magnificent pall of pink and white roses and chrysanthemums presented by the children covered the casket. F. A. Sharrer & Son, funeral directors.

Cooper.

Frank H. Cooper died at his residence, Patapsco, Sunday, September 9, in his 65th year. He is survived by his widow and several brothers and sisters. Funeral services in charge of Rev. John G. Fields were held at his late residence Wednesday, September 12th, at 10:30 a. m. The remains were then taken to Wesley Chapel for further services, and interment was made in the adjoining cemetery. The pallbearers were Charles Spencer, Jefferson Leppo, Joseph Leppo, Ezra Evans, Grant Dell and George Hill. F. A. Sharrer & Son, funeral directors.

Hughes.

Eva Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hughes, Fair Ground Hill died Tuesday night of convulsions aged 16 years. Besides her parents two brothers, William and Arthur and two sisters, Jane and Thelma survive. Funeral services were held yesterday morning at the home, Rev. John Gosno officiating. Interment in Westminster cemetery. James M. Stoner & Son funeral directors.

Maynard.

Mrs. Emma J. Maynard, New Market, died on September 2 of a complication of diseases, aged 66 years and 25 days. She is survived by two brothers, Mordecai Jones, New Market, and W. D. Jones, Ridgville, and two sisters, Mrs. Frank Downey, Sandy Spring, Montgomery county, and Miss Nettie Jones at home.

Emory.

Mrs. J. H. Markey, Braddock Heights, received a telegram September 11 announcing the death of Mrs. Tene Emory, at her home in Denver, Col., on August 30, Mrs. Emory was a native of Maryland and is well known in that section. Mrs. Harold Willard, of Mt. Airy, is a niece of the deceased.

RAY SPENCER DEAD

DIES FROM INJURIES RECEIVED IN RAILROAD WRECK ON AUGUST 24.

Ray Spencer, this city, died at 9:50 o'clock last night in a hospital in (Chicago, Ill., from injuries received in a railroad wreck.

Mr. Spencer was under contract for the season with the Dayton (Ohio) Ball team in the Central League and was on his way to another city on a B. & O. passenger train on August 24, when a freight train ran into the rear end of the passenger at Mansfield, Ohio, receiving injuries to his head and had his back broken from which he lingered until the above time. He was with the Dayton Club six years. His wife was at his bedside when he died.

He was 29 years of age. His body will arrive in this city tomorrow evening for burial.

Mr. Spencer was a son of Geo. R. Spencer, Patapsco. He is survived by his wife and two daughters, Helen Frances and Mary Henrietta Spencer, also ten brothers and sisters.

Tawney.

Anna Catherine Tawney, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hurst C. Tawney, of Baltimore, died Thursday, September 6, aged 3 months. The remains were brought to this city Friday. Funeral services in charge of Rev. Wm. H. Hetrick were held at the home of the child's grandparents, Pennsylvania Avenue, Sunday, September 8, and interment was made in Leister's cemetery. The pallbearers were Charles Chrest, Harry Manger, Gordon Cootes and Joseph Massicot. F. A. Sharrer & Son, funeral directors.

Reese.

Katherine Prudence Reese, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Reese near New Windsor, died last Friday, aged 2 months and 29 days after an illness of four days of gastro-enteritis.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, September 8 at 2:30 p. m. in Leister's Lutheran Church, by Rev. Stephen Traver officiating. Interment in adjoining cemetery. The pallbearers were Masters Lawrence Basler, Edward Mancha, Clark Leister and Leslie Leister. C. M. Waltz funeral director.

Barnes.

Paul Levere Barnes, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Barnes, near Taylorville, died Sunday morning aged 3 months and 10 days.

Funeral services were conducted in Taylorville Methodist Episcopal church by Rev. C. H. Wagner, Wednesday morning at 10:30 a. m. Interment in adjoining cemetery. The pallbearers were Nathan Wagner, Truman Franklin, William Franklin and Alison Gosnell. C. M. Waltz funeral director.

Eyer.

Amos V. Eyer, a well-known retired farmer of New Midway, died August 21 of general debility, 76 years old. Besides his widow he is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Roberta Smith, of New Windsor, Mrs. Anna Mary Shank, near Frederick, and Mrs. E. M. Shank, of New Midway.

The Lutheran Parish, Manchester.

9 a. m., Sunday school 10 a. m., Harvest Home Services. Offering for Benevolence. The Synod expects of each member $1.80 for all purposes for the year. We want ours in full. Subjects, "Keeping in the Love of God," 7:30, Perilous Perfection.

Great Rally Day services on the 23rd. Dr. Wiles of Philadelphia will be with us all day. Special Conference of Sunday School Workers at 3:15. Bachman's—At 1 p. m., Sunday school. At 2 p. m., The Pastor preaches. Subject, "Appreciation." The public is invited to these services. C. G. Leatherman, pastor.

Myerly—Crebs.

Mrs. Clara Crebs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Crebs, Taneytown, and Robert Myerly, son of Mrs. Sallie Myerly, West Main street were married Tuesday evening by Rev. W. F. Young.

WEDDINGS.

Young—Marker.

Miss Virgie Naomi Marker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Marker, West Green street, and D. Sterling Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Young, near Uniontown were quietly married last Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the parsonage of Salem Lutheran Church by Rev. Stephen Traver, pastor. Immediately after the ceremony they left for a trip to Harrisburg.

Both bride and groom are held in high esteem by all who know them, Mr. Young being a prominent farmer in his community and Miss Marker, one of Westminster's attractive maids is very popular among the young people of this city. They have the best wishes of their many friends.

Harner—Harner.

A very attractive wedding took place September 6 at 7 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Harner, near Emmitsburg, when their daughter, Stella G., became the bride of Luther R. Harner, son of Mr. Charles E. Harner, Harney. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. E. Stockslager, pastor of both bride and groom. The house was tastefully decorated with vines, golden-rod and ferns, the color scheme being yellow and green. Miss Ruth Eyer, of Littlestown, Pa., rendered the Lohengrin march as the bridal party entered the parlor under a beautiful arch. Before the ceremony Miss Virginia Myers, of Gettysburg, Pa., sang "Perfect Day."

Warrenfeltz.

Soule J. Warrenfeltz, a well known citizen of Church Hill, died September 6 after several weeks illness from heart trouble and other complications, aged 61 years. For many years Mr. Warrenfeltz was a well known huckster.

Mr. Warrenfeltz is survived by his widow, three daughters and five sons, as follows: Albert and Edgar at home; Cliff, at Hagerstown; Curtis at Sykesville; Howard in Germany; Albert Moser, and a married daughter, Ruth, both at Hagerstown, and Zorah, at home. One sister, Mrs. Grace Rowe, also of Hagerstown, survive.

Bullington—Haines.

On September 12, at the Lutheran parsonage, at Berrett, Earl Roth Bullington, of Union Bridge and Miss Anna Myrtle Haines, of New Windsor, were married by Rev. G. W. Baughman. The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Haines, of New Windsor, and the groom is the son of T. M. Bullington, a former teacher in the county schools. The bride was tastefully dressed in a coat suit of plum blue cloth with hat to match. The groom wore the conventional black. Both are popular in their respective localities, and have the best wishes of their many friends.

Lau—Miller.

Austin V. Lau, son of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine M. Lau, of Hanover, and Miss Bertha M. Miller, daughter of Nelson Miller of Silver Run, were married at the groom's home on Sep. 3. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Ralph H. Bergstreeser of St. Matthew's Lutheran Church in the presence of the immediate families. The bride was prettily attired in a blue messaline dress.

Atno—Huñ.

Clarence Atno, proprietor of the National Hotel, Littlestown, and Mary Huff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Huff, Hanover were married at the Lutheran parsonage, Littlestown about 7:30 Monday evening by the Rev. W. K. Fleck. There were no attendants. Mr. and Mrs. Atno, it is understood, will reside at the National hotel.

Snader—Graybill.

Miss Mary Graybill, daughter of Mr. C. Graybill, near this city, and Earl Snader, of Waynesboro, Pa., were married at Waynesboro, Pa., Wednesday, by the bride's grandfather, the Elder Uriah Bixler. The bride is a graduate of Westminster High School.

Leister—Cutsail.

Saturday, September 8th, at the Lutheran parsonage, 162 Pennsylvania avenue, Norman Carroll Leister, this city, and Miss Ethel Virginia Cutsail, of Taneytown, were married by the pastor, Rev. Stephen Traver.

COURT HOUSE NEWS PRIMARIES A THING OF THE PAST.

Transfers of Real Estate, Marriage Licenses, Etc.

Orphan's Court.

Monday, September 10.—The Union Bridge Banking & Trust Company guardian of Nellie R. Austin, ward settled its first account.

The Union Bridge Banking & Trust Company, guardian of Upton L. Austin, ward settled its first account.

Emma J. Feesser, guardian of David M. Feesser, ward, settled her third and final account.

Elias A. Garner and Daniel J. Hesson, executors of Emma Garner, deceased, received an order to sell real estate.

Oliver L. Myers, administrator of Elizabeth A. Logue, deceased, returned an inventory of money and settled his first and final account.

Howard R. Marker and Oliver T. Myers, administrators of Theodore Logue, deceased, settled their first and final account.

Tuesday, September 11th.—The sale of real estate of Peter F. Sharrer, deceased, was finally ratified and confirmed.

Emma A. Stambaugh, administratrix of Seright M. Stambaugh, deceased, returned an inventory of personal property and money.

Clayton M. Black, executor of William H. Hahn, deceased, settled his first and final account.

Mabel G. Billingslea, administratrix of Charles C. Billingslea, deceased, returned an inventory of personal property and debts.

Letters of administration on the estate of Annie M. Hoffman, deceased, were granted under Frank E. Hoffman, who returned an inventory of money and settled his first and final account.

Albert V. Gibson, administrator of Mary E. Gibson, deceased, returned an inventory of personal property and received an order to sell same.

John C. McKinney and Andrew B. McKinney, executors of Robert C. McKinney, deceased, reported sale of personal property and real estate, and settled their first and final account.

BECK FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER; OURSLER FOR SHERIFF.

The primary fight is now over and Mr. Charles F. Beck, of Woodbine was nominated for County Commissioner, and Mr. Harry K. Oursler, this city, for Sheriff. Judge Robert Moss carried every county in the circuit for the nomination for Associate Judge for the Fifth Judicial Circuit.

The Democratic ticket will be as follows: For Comptroller, Hugh McMullen; Associate Judge, Judge Robert Moss; House of Delegates, J. Harry Steele, Frank J. Brandenburg, Charles C. Wright, John F. Maus; County Treasurer, Ross J. Blocher; Sheriff Harry K. Oursler. The office of surveyor will be filled in and will probably be M. Theodore Yeiser. All of the above candidates are well qualified for the positions they aspire and will make good officials if elected, which no doubt they will be on November 6.

The Democratic State Convention will be held in the Academy of Music, Baltimore, on Thursday, September 20, at 12 o'clock. The committee from this county will be J. V. Steele, Edward O. Weant, John Milton Reifsnider, Charles Jones and Alonzo B. Sellman.

HOW MARYLAND CAST ITS VOTE.

McMullen and Atwood Unopposed for State Comptroller.

For state comptroller in the statewide joint primary election in Maryland Tuesday W. O. Atwood, Republican, and Hugh A. McMullen, Democrat, were unopposed.

The vote polled by the two parties was small.

In the First circuit Judges William F. Johnson and Joseph L. Bailey, Democrats, were nominated. Robert F. Duer is the only Republican candidate for judge in the circuit.

In the Fifth circuit Judge Robert Moss defeated N. H. Green for the Democratic nomination for judge.

Of the Democratic contests in the counties, that in Harford attracted the widest attention J. Royston Stiffler has defeated W. W. Preston.

Senator Orlando Harrison is renominated in Worcester by 800 majority.

Dr. George Wells has swept Anne Arundel county.

Congressman J. Fred C. Talbot's candidacy won in Baltimore County as was expected.

Omar D. Crothers leads in the fight in Cecil for nomination for state senator.

Former Senator Gorman's organization is again victorious in Howard county.

In Frederick the old Lee organization was defeated.

Governor Harrington's ticket won in Dorchester.

In St. Marys M. Lee Maguire won Republican nomination for the Senate. Charles S. Grason is the Democratic nominee for the same office.

George L. Eppler leads in the Republican primary in Allegany for state Senator.

Watermelon Social.

Wednesday evening, September 12, Mr. and Mrs. George U. Sullivan, Deep Run entertained a number of their friends at their hospitable home and an enjoyable evening was spent by all present. The early part of the evening was pleasantly spent in general conversation and singing until the guests were invited out to a table, laden with watermelon and cantaloupes which they quickly made disappear. At a late hour the guests returned to their homes. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. U. Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Denton Warehime, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Leppo, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leppo, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sterner, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sterner, Mr. and Mrs. James Hann, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wine, Misses Lillie Sullivan, Sadie Sullivan, Norma Warehime, Elva Wine, Grace Swenk, Marie Alban, Louise Leppo, Carrie Stegner, Messrs Fern Sullivan, Vernon Sullivan, Paul Sterner, Paul Wine, Maurice Fuhrman, Herman Hann, Clark Sullivan, Melvin Sullivan and Oscar Wine.

W. C. T. U. Convention.

The twenty-fourth annual convention of the W. C. T. U. of Carroll county will be held in Centenary Methodist Episcopal church, this city, Thursday, September 20th, beginning promptly at 10 o'clock in the morning. The white ribbon army with all the other temperance forces has had many encouragements the past year, and efforts are being made to make this the banner convention of all the years.

Miss Mary B. Sellman will deliver the address of welcome and Mrs. Ruby K. Brown at Hampstead, the responsive. Miss Flora Strout returned from Burmah, will be one of the speakers. Mrs. Mary R. Haslup, of Baltimore, will also be present. There will be an election contest for a gold medal. Those taking part in the contest are: Miss Flora Armstrong, of Finksburg; Miss Ruth Fowle, of Emory; Miss Mildred Taylor, of Woodensburg; Misses Elizabeth Hood and Helen Dieffenbach, of Westminster. There will be three sessions beginning promptly at 10 o'clock in the morning, at 2 in the afternoon and at 7:30 in the evening. Mrs. Philena Fenby will preside, and to all of these sessions the public is most cordially invited.

Grace Lutheran Church.

Harvest Home and Rally Day. Sunday school 9:15 a. m. Rally Day and Quadracentennial celebration. Rev. E. T. Mowbray will speak. Harvest Home 10:30 a. m. sermon, "Firstings." Christian Endeavor 6:30 p. m. Preaching 7:30 p. m. sermon, "Threshing the Mountains." Every member is urged to be present at these services. All are welcome. William H. Hetrick pastor.

Salem Lutheran Charge.

St. John's—Saturday at 2 p. m. Preparatory service. Sunday at 9 a. m. Sunday School. 10 a. m. Holy Communion. 7:30 p. m. Christian Endeavor Society. St. Benjamin's—1 p. m. Sunday School. 2 p. m. Preaching. Stephen Traver, pastor.

27 Pass Examination.

Twenty-seven out of the 160 called have been passed by the exemption board for service, the balance asking for exemption on the grounds of being married or having some one dependent.

Salem Lutheran Charge.

St. John's—Saturday at 2 p. m. Preparatory service. Sunday at 9 a. m. Sunday School. 10 a. m. Holy Communion. 7:30 p. m. Christian Endeavor Society. St. Benjamin's—1 p. m. Sunday School. 2 p. m. Preaching. Stephen Traver, pastor.