DEATHS.

Hess.

Mrs. Elizabeth Smith Bushey Hess, widow of the late Charles M. Hess, died at the old home now occupied by her son, John E. H. Hess and family, Saturday, October 13. Funeral services were held on Tuesday morning in Trinity Lutheran Church, Taneytown, conducted by her pastor, Rev. L. B. Hafer. He used the text "There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God." He spoke beautifully of her christian life and said it should be a time of rejoicing rather than of sadness; that the influence of such a life is living on and on through eternity.

Mr. Hess predeceased her by more than 19 years. She is survived by the following children: John E. H. Hess, Taneytown; Rev. Charles W. Hess, B. D. Brunswick; Mrs. John D. Belt, this city; Mrs. Jacob D. Null, Miss Nannie Hess and Mrs. M. Ross Fair, Taneytown, and Miss Lillie Belle Hess, this city; grandchildren, Mrs. Robert Sherard, Annapolis, Md.; Margaret and Ralph Hess, Taneytown; Elizabeth Null, Dixon, Illinois; Anna Null, Anna M. Fair, Grace Null, Hubert Null and Franklin Fair, Taneytown; John H. Belt, this city. Great-grand-children, Robert and Margaret Sherard.

Many friends and relatives gathered to pay their last respects to this venerable mother in the Lutheran cemetery, Taneytown.

Rausch.

Ernest Rausch, 90 years old, 2416 Frederick avenue, Baltimore, died at his home early Tuesday morning. Death was due to the infirmities of age. Mr. Rausch was born in Germany, and came to this country in 1848. He settled at Bethel Church, near Carrollton, where he pursued the life of a farmer until 1896, when he retired and moved to Baltimore. He is survived by his widow, Johanna Rausch. Mrs. J. D. Crowl, this city, is a niece of the deceased. The funeral services and interment took place yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Crowl attending.

Somerville.

James Henry Somerville died on Friday, October 12th, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ira E. Dorsey, near Annapolis, a complication of diseases, in his 80th year. He was formerly a well known butcher of this city. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Ira E. Dorsey, and K. A. Somerville, of Baltimore, and two sons, W. E., Virginia, and C. Somerville, in Atlanta, Ga. His funeral took place at Elkridge, Md., in the family burying ground.

Funeral of Mr. Ingles.

The funeral of Roderick H. Ingles, known to his host of friends as "Doc," and son of the late John T. and Delia Ingles, of Carroll county, who died Tuesday, October 9, in the Coatesville Hospital from an attack of pneumonia, after an illness of about one week, took place in Trinity Lutheran Church Saturday afternoon at 2.30. A large gathering of friends assembled representing the various departments of the Worth Bros. Co., where Mr. Ingles was employed as Superintendent of steam fitting, also friends and relatives of immediate family.

Members from different lodges were present to which the deceased belonged and the services at the grave were conducted according to Masonic rites. The pallbearers, all members of Coatesville Lodge No. 55, F. & A. M., were Edward A. Hagerman, Hugh Moore, Clarence Poff, Stanley Steyer Roland H. Jeffries and Frank C. Moore. The body lay in a beautiful quartered oak casket, amidst a profusion of flowers.

Each department of the mills sent an appropriate emblem. Mr. Ingles was very well known and greatly liked by his mill men. His death caused a shock to his large circle of friends and acquaintances. Mr. Ingles was always much interested in the M. C. A. and was a hard worker in all its campaigns. He was one of the prime movers in the formation of the bowling leagues and for years was one of Coatesville's most enthusiastic and champion bowlers.

Mr. Ingles is survived by a wife, who was Florence Guest, of Coatesville, Pa., and six small children, Agnes C. Roderick H., Sara E., William A., Florence M. and Jeanette, and mother, Mrs. Delia Ingles, and two sisters, Daisy, wife of Chas. Elgin, of Mt. Airy, and Ella, wife of Dr. Carl M. VanPoole, of Salisbury, N. C. Interment was made at Fairview cemetery, Coatesville, Pa.

Uncle Sam Needs 10,000 Stenographers and Typewriters at Once.

Now that Uncle Sam has the young men of the country in training for military service, he finds that he needs 10,000 typewriter operators and stenographers and typewriters, both men and women, for the Departments at Washington. The Civil Service Commission has notified all of its 3,000 boards of examiners that they should put forth their best efforts to secure these urgently needed workers. While examinations are now held weekly in 450 cities, the Commission states that arrangements will be made to have an examination held at any accessible place where a small class of applicants can be secured. The entrance salaries range from $1,000 to $1,200 a year. Promotion is reasonably rapid to those whose services prove satisfactory. No appointments can be made to these or other positions in the Federal classified civil service unless authorized by the Civil Service Commission under the civil service law. Any information to the contrary is unauthorized. This is a splendid opportunity to serve your country. Full information may be secured from the secretary of the board of civil service examiners at the postoffice in your city.

Barn on the Walden Estate Burned.

About 8 o'clock Saturday night one of the barns on the R. W. Walden estate, at Middleburg, was destroyed by fire of incendiary origin. In the building were farm horses, machinery, hay, etc. The horses were saved but the other contents were destroyed. The fire destroyed the hay racks also, and some small buildings. Shortly before the fire broke out a man was seen running from the barn. An investigation disclosed the fact that the building was set on fire in three places.

WEDDINGS

Myers—Devilbiss.

Clarence G. Myers, Hanover, and Miss F. Mildred Devilbiss, were married last Saturday evening. The ceremony took place at 7.30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Devilbiss, Pleasant Valley. Elder J. Walter Thomas officiated.

The bride was attired in a white silk crepe-de-chine dress and carried a shower bouquet of roses. The bridegroom, who is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Myers, wore a blue serge suit. The ceremony was witnessed by a number of relatives and friends. The bridesmaid was Miss Lottie V. Myers, a sister of the bridegroom, who wore steel colored messaline, while the best man was William B. Yingling, Baltimore, cousin-in-law of the bride.

As the bridal party entered the parlor which had been previously made more than usually beautiful and attractive by its added decorations of pink and white dahlias, ferns and autumn leaves the wedding march from Lohengrin was played by Miss A. Gertrude Royer, this city. Following the ceremony a luncheon was served. The bride and groom were the recipients of a number of beautiful and useful presents.

Mr. and Mrs. Myers have taken up their residence in a home furnished for them by the bride's parents at Hanover. The wishes of the community are theirs for a long and prosperous life.—Pleasant Valley correspondent.

Harman—Lemmon.

Miss Esther A. Lemmon and Elwood G. Harman, son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Harman, near Frizellburg, were married Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Amanda A. Lemmon, near this city with whom she resided.

The parlor was beautifully and artistically decorated in Autumn leaves and ferns. The ceremony being performed before a bank of ferns, by Elder J. Walter Thomas, Miss Marjorie Yingling, this city, played the wedding march from Lohengrin. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white organza and carried white roses. Mrs. Sterling Young, cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, wore white and carried pink roses. Mr. Sterling Young was the best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was given after which they left for a wedding tour accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Young, who were recently married.

Zepp—Powell.

Mr. Archie Zepp and Miss Hilda Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Powell, were married on the evening of October 6th. The ceremony was performed at the Silver Run Lutheran parsonage, Rev. Wolfe officiating. The writer regrets his inability to give a full account of the reception given the young people at the bride's home. The young folks are both residents of our community, are respected by all of their many friends who unite in wishing for them a long and happy life.

Both the residences of Mr. Powell and Mrs. Devilbiss were visited on the same night by the callithumpian band. Some neighborhoods are slow to lope off antediluvian practices. Let us keep up the old serenade.—From Pleasant Valley correspondent.

New Naval Base Completed.

With the completion of the new naval base and training station on the site of the Jamestown Exposition, a handicap on recruiting for the United States Navy has been removed. Ample accommodations for recruits are now afforded and the 10-a-week limit on stations of the Eastern Division has been removed.

The recruiting authorities of the Maryland District call special attention to the need of apprentice seamen, and point out the unusual opportunities for advancement. Young men enlisting in the Navy in this rating can soon promote themselves to the best ratings of the service.

Chaplin Duffa of the Atlantic Fleet visited the Maryland Recruiting Station, a few days ago and was loud in his praise of the type of young men going into the Navy from this State. He reported that the Maryland boys were well pleased with the treatment they were receiving.

Laywers Hold Meeting.

The members of the Carroll County Bar Association met Friday evening in the library, at the Court House, and formed an organization to help secure subscriptions to the Liberty Loan throughout Carroll county. The meeting was called to order by Chief Justice William H. Thomas, who explained the object of calling the bar together. Judge Thomas was elected chairman and Charles O. Clemson secretary. The chairman appointed on the committee to assist George R. Gehr, chairman of the Carroll County Liberty Loan Committee Messrs. Francis Neal Parke, Guy W. Steele, Edw. O. Weant and William W. Seabrook. Meetings will be held in churches throughout the county and nearly every public place.
