

Music in the Home. Music in the School Room.

There is nothing more elevating, entertaining or tending to better the moral side of the child's life than music. Now is the time to look for this. Prices will be higher as all material and labor are advancing and will necessitate the advance. Let us bring an instrument to your home on trial. We have some very fine ORGANS for schools.

HANOVER, PA.

SYKESVILLE.

Rev. Claude Leyfield and wife are spending some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Harris. Miss Anna Hughes is quite sick. Miss Kate McDonald is convalescing from a sick spell. Miss Lillian Thomas, of Cooksville, spent the week's end with Miss Elenore Gaither. Dr. Henry Buetner, Miss Mary Lullie, Miss Naoma Harper and Miss Harriet Revere motored to Sabillasville Friday and much enjoyed the scenery over the mountain. Mr. Harry DeVries, Dr. Norris, Wm. Chipley and Harry Bevard attended a Masonic meeting in Baltimore Friday night. The little baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Carter fell off a bicycle Saturday afternoon and broke his arm. Mr. Jas. Hughes went to Baltimore Sunday to visit his wife who is under going an infusion of blood at a hospital there. Misses Florence and Lillie Ritter, of Ellcott City, were week's end guests here. Mr. and Mrs. Hewser and Miss Mary Phelps, of Rockland, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Harris. Miss Ruth Berrett spent several days this week in Charlottesville, Va. Miss Mamie Taylor, of New York, was the week's end guest of Mrs. Thos. Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merceron spent part of this week with Mrs. Victoria DeVries and will spend the week's end with Mrs. John Morris. Miss Mary Weller, of Frederick, is spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weller. Sergeant Chas. Gladding and Private Jas. Greene and Jas. Graham of the 10th New York Infantry, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. David Deane. Captain B. G. Gorsuch, of Wheeling, W. Va., spent several days here last week with relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark, of Baltimore spent the week's end with Mr. and Mrs. John J. Wilson on Front avenue. The Out-Look Club was entertained Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. P. Shultz. Miss Grace Welling read an excellent paper on the West Indies, recently purchased by United States. Rev. Wm. K. Marshall is attending in Baltimore this week at St. Paul's church, the 134th annual Episcopal Convention of the Diocese of Maryland. The Misses Harriet and Elenor Bennett entertained Sunday their cousin, Mrs. Donald Macclair, of Washington, who is a granddaughter of Francis Scott Key. Mrs. Chevalier died suddenly Monday night of heart trouble at the home of Miss Ursula Brooks, where she was a guest. Mrs. Chevalier was before her marriage Miss Kitty Langtry and was well known here.

SANDYVILLE.

Preaching this Sunday morning at Sandy Mount by Rev. Clough. The Union revival services will begin Sunday night, November 4. The Mite Society will meet at the home of Mrs. William Westaway Saturday afternoon, November 3. All members invited. Christian Endeavor was led last Sunday night by Fillmore Hoff. Topic "Putting Religion into Politics." The leader gave a splendid talk as did Mr. Frank Magee, who concluded if anything needed religion it was politics. He related many incidents where politics had been corrupt and under the men to pray toward having politics pure. A large number of Legions, friends and others motored and drove to the County Home last Sunday afternoon and spent a most pleasant and profitable afternoon with the inmates. A fine looking around the Home. It was an ideal autumn day. Children were happy and made the inmates happy by rendering a program of songs, recitations and readings. Miss Mary Shellman welcomed all in her cordial manner, as did one of the young men from the Seminary. Mrs. Frank Magee, superintendent of the Legion, made a few remarks. Mr. Ulysses Shipley read scripture and offered prayer. A short address was given by a student from the Seminary. At the close the children distributed candy to the inmates. It would be splendid for other religious organizations to visit the Home on Sunday afternoon and see Miss Shellman making these people bright and happy. Mrs. Lena Shilling spent a week recently visiting friends in Baltimore. Mr. and Mrs. James Shilling, Mrs. Wm. Westaway and Mrs. Thos. Shilling spent Saturday and Sunday with the latter's uncle in Harrisburg, Pa. A large number of persons from this county attended Frederick Fair. Farmers are busy sowing wheat and husking corn. A heavy rain fell on Wednesday morning, also light electrical storm and some hail. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Martin entertained on Sunday a large number of friends from Baltimore and elsewhere. Mr. Geo. Rausch is erecting a fine monument in Snady Mt. cemetery for his mother.

TANEYTOWN.

Mrs. Benner, of Libertytown, is the guest of her son, Dr. C. M. Benner. Norval P. Shoemaker, wife and son, Norval, and daughter, Carmen, and Mrs. Lester W. Angell and son, J. Albert, Jr., spent Sunday with Mrs. Shoemaker's parents, Chas. E. Lamber and other friends. Dr. J. Hesson gave his clerks an outing by taking them to Camp Meade to see his son, Corporal Clyde Hesson, and the Taneytown boys. To say that the trip was enjoyed by the clerks is expressing it mildly. The day was delightful and the boys gave us a hearty welcome. All are in the best of health. Those in the party were: D. J. Hesson, Chas. Hesson, E. C. Sauerhammer, Lester

W. Angell, Julia Smith and Nan Diefendorf. Our town has been in darkness since Friday night, owing to a shortage in carbide. Saturday evening about 8 o'clock the lights in the stores began to grow dim and a little before nine they had disappeared entirely. The stores had to finish the evening with lamps and lanterns. Tuesday night the lights could be used in the stores, but the streets were in total darkness. Mrs. Elizabeth Nissly, of Landisville, Pa., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jesse Myers. M. A. Koons and wife, Jos. A. Hemler and Chas. Arnold spent Sunday with their son, Corporal Earl Weant Koons, and the Taneytown boys, at Camp Meade. Mrs. Mary Hockensmith, of Emmitsburg, is the guest of her son, John, and wife. Mrs. Jas. B. Galt and sister, Miss Ada Reindollar, spent Monday in Hanover. Rev. D. J. Wolf, of Apollo, Pa., spent several days here last week. Rev. Wm. J. Marks moved his household goods to his new home, Dundannon on Wednesday. F. W. Mariner and son, Wesley, of Oregon, Ill., are the guests of her sister, Mrs. Thomas Linz. John Null and wife and Margaret Fowler, of Frizellburg, spent Sunday with Mrs. Jesse Myers.

MOUNT OLIVE.

Well since I last wrote Jack Frost has made his appearance and kissed the flowers and turned the pretty green woods to a golden hue, which looks to us like winter is coming by and by. Next Wednesday night is Halloween. Look out for the spooks and goblins. Mrs. James W. Fleming, of this place, who has been quite sick, is able to be up and about the house again. Mrs. Carrie Dempsey, of Springfield State Hospital, visited Mrs. William Dempsey and family quite recently. Mr. Bryan Gartrell, of Gaitthers, visited Mr. Ulysses Poole Saturday last. The farmers of this community are very busy husking corn. The ladies' occupation seems to be house cleaning. Miss Mattie Mathias went out Monday last to gather chestnuts and was gone two hours when she returned with a half bushel of nice chestnuts. Mrs. Mary Dietrick and son, Phillip, and Mr. Wicker, all of Baltimore, motored to the home of her aunt, Mrs. Samuel Mathias Sunday last. The canning season is about over as Jack Frost visited the tomato fields and done considerable damage. Mr. Samuel Mathias raised 1200 bushels of tomatoes. Mr. and Mrs. James E. Mathias and daughter, Geneva, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Mathias Sunday last. Health of community, good, at this writing.

STATEWOOD.

The Ladies' Mite Society of Mt. Pleasant Methodist Episcopal Church will hold a chicken supper in Jr. O. U. A. M. hall, Statewood, on the evening of November 3. Mr. B. Peyton Pool, of Poole's School, has purchased a new 7-passenger Studebaker touring car from Klee & Hoff, Westminster. Mrs. Melville A. Shauck, of Statewood, spent from Saturday until Sunday with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Alvin C. Bossom, of Fowlesburg. Miss Maude Shauck, of Shauck's Heights, is spending a week with her sister, Mrs. Alvin C. Bossom, of Fowlesburg. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Miles and family Miss Florence Wheeler, of Washington, D. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wheeler, of near Columbus, Ohio, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wheeler, of Bird Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Washington T. Wheeler, of Statewood. Mrs. Mattie Harris, who purchased the Albert F. Gamber property, will move to her new home in the near future. The Parent Teacher's Association will meet in the school house in Statewood, November 1, at 7.30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Come and bring a friend with you. Don't forget the chicken supper by the Aid Society of Mt. Pleasant (Church) in the hall November 3. Rev. Guy Owens, of Betterton, is visiting his brother, Rev. H. C. Owens, of Statewood. Mr. and Mrs. William N. Shauck and family visited their daughter, Mrs. Alvin Bossom Sunday last.

ANNEXATION BILL EXTREMELY UNFAIR

THE PRESTON-FIELD FORCE BILL, which is designed to annex about half the people and wealth of Baltimore County to the City, IS SO UNFAIR THAT ITS SPONSORS DARE NOT SUBMIT IT TO THE PEOPLE TO BE AFFECTED BY THE CHANGE. The Constitution of Maryland declares that there must be a referendum, or vote of the people in such cases, but the annexationists claim, in effect, that the Constitution is unconstitutional.

In 1888 the city proposed a fair annexation bill, the Legislature passed it and THE NORTHERN AND WESTERN SUBURBS voted to go into the city. Most of them have been regretting it ever since, BUT IF THEY HAVE BEEN BURNT BY A FAIR BILL, WHAT WILL HAPPEN TO THE PEOPLE OF THE PROPOSED NEW ANNEX UNDER A BILL WHICH ITS FRAMERS REFUSE TO SUBMIT TO THEM, SAYING "A REFERENDUM MEANS NO ANNEXATION."

Next week we will point out some of the many iniquitous provisions of this bill, which the Democratic Convention refused to indorse, but which the Republican party indorsed with emphasis.

THE BALTIMORE COUNTY NON-PARTISAN CITIZENS' PROTECTIVE COMMITTEE

MILLERS.

Mr. and Mrs. Dietz and children and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shaffer, of Paradise, Pa., visited Mr. and Mrs. George Hoover Sunday. Miss Minnie Hoover is visiting relatives at Hanover. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Bollinger and daughter, Neta, and Mr. Mumert, of New Salem, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bowman and son, Geo., of Black Rock, visited Emory Bollinger at Baltimore Sunday. Charles Giller, of Jersey City, and William Giller and family, of Arlington, visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Giller, Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Daniel Redding and children, of Glasp. Pa., visited relatives here Sunday. Rev. Young preached his first sermon here Sunday morning. Ross Hoffacker and wife spent Saturday at Baltimore. George Lauer and wife spent Sunday at Baltimore. Miss Lizzie Fisher, of Baltimore, visited Mrs. Harry Brillhart Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. William Sterner and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Huggins, of near Jefferson, Pa., visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sandruck last Sunday. At a meeting of the patrons of our school held at the school house last week, it was decided to send our 6th and 7th grade pupils to the Manchester High School. The new project went into effect last Monday morning. Mr. David Brown and Mr. James Frederick are delivering the pupils to Manchester in their automobiles for the present until other arrangements can be made. The plan seems to be favorable and we hope it will be a success the entire school year.

McGINNIS SIDING.

Colonel Murdoch has had bad luck again. While hauling water the past week the wheel of his cart run over his large toe. Last Monday morning Miles Long was aroused from a sound slumber by a great noise. Miles thought the threshers were coming in long and discovered that the noise was made by Tom Bizzard's new corduroy trousers, as Tom was leaving the "shack." To determine who is the champion corn husker of this place Fred Boisvert and A. L. Wolf started in soon after dark to husk and working hard Fred came out with a lead of four ears. The witnesses were Charles Cress, Wm. Smoot and Robert Long. Apples being scarce Jacobus Long has made a barrel of pumpkin cider. "I don't say," says Wm. Smoot, of New York, spent Sunday at this station. All were glad to see Bill. Bill expects to stay for several weeks. After a month's search Robert Long has found a cow. Robert said he never looked for one thing so long in his life. He discovered the cow in a back woods. Whose owner was impossible. Robert just took the cow and came home with it. Wilbur Shaffer and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Miles Long. John Green had a finger partly missing by getting it caught in the machinery of a gasoline engine.

FRIZELLBURG.

There was quite an excitement in our little village on Tuesday about 10.30 a. m. when fire was discovered at Mr. Bernside Hively's house, the chimney, having caught fire. It took some work to get it under control. The house on the inside is damaged a great deal. Mr. Sterling Hively, who is training at Camp Meade, visited his uncle, Bernside Hively and wife from Saturday until Sunday. He is looking fine. Miss Emma Snader, who had been sick for the past two years, died Sunday night at 9.30. She was buried Wednesday afternoon with services at the house, after which the remains were interred at Meadow Branch. The school is preparing to have a Halloween social. Mr. Harry Myers and wife, Mr. Stevens and wife, of Baltimore, motored to Luray on last Saturday.

BENNEBURYVILLE.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young had as their guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cummings, of Westminster; Miss Helen Miller, of Westminster; Miss Gertrude Stultz and Mrs. Ross Hill, of Uniontown. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel R. Miller and son, Irvin, spent Sunday with Mr. John Durr and family, of Mt. Union. Mr. and Mrs. John Storms, of Westminster, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Dickensheets. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel O. Miller had as their guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Dutterer, of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. William Flickinger and daughter, Alice, of Frizellburg. Mr. Samuel O. Miller spent Thursday evening with his father, Mr. Geo. W. Miller, of Taneytown, who is paralyzed.

Farmers' Headquarters!

Corn King Manure Spreader THE SPREADER YOU NEED.

An economical spreader because it gets you more for your time—your labor—your money.

You can haul more loads in a day because you do not have to drive so far to get a load off. The spreader is more than twice as wide as the beater. In one trip down the field you cover twice the amount of ground covered with the average spreader. The apron is speeded up so that the quantity of manure per square foot is the same.

JUST RECEIVED 2 CARS CORN KING MANURE SPREADERS.
