

STATEWOOD.

The Y. P. B. was entertained at the home of the Misses Carrie and Ella Buckingham last Saturday evening. The devotional and business sessions were conducted by Miss Carrie Buckingham. Two new members were enrolled. The following interesting program was very much enjoyed: Duet, "Till We Meet Again," by Alma Haines and Marie Haines; reading, "Sliding Down Hill," by Madeline Spencer; reading, "As a Husekeeper," by Miss Alice Kries; reading, "The Coming of the Water Wagon," by Miss Mildred Knox; Hymns and temperance songs were sung. Cake and lemonade were served in abundance and all present enjoyed a pleasant and profitable evening.

Mrs. Alverda Barnes was taken to the University of Maryland Hospital Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Bossom, of Baltimore and Mr. and Mrs. Elias Powble, of Pwllensburg, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. William Shauck.

Farmers are busily engaged in cutting their wheat. The straw is very heavy and the head is not very well filled. The yield will be very light.

Mr. Jinks Griffie, Isidore Rockwell, A. J. Kries, Clayton Huson, of Baltimore spent Sunday with the former's mother, Mrs. Lucretia Griffie.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Farrell, of Baltimore, spent Sunday with Mrs. Farrell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Gyer Parrish.

Mrs. Irvin Kelley and son, Arthur, of Hanover, Pa., spent on Wednesday until Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Henry M. Griffie, of near Statewood.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hill and Mrs. Herbert Gorsch, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Monroe spent Sunday evening with friends in Lansdown.

Mr. Arthur H. Griffie, Mrs. Henry Griffie and Mrs. Chas. H. Barnes spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Kelley, of Hanover, Pa.

Mrs. Elizabeth Benson, of Baltimore spent Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Emma R. Arnold.

FRIZELLBURG.

When a state road can make a town popular. Look at Frizellburg! It used to be a little slow and unknown town but it is becoming so attractive that even people from New York stop and wish to know the little town's name.

The community was terribly shocked when they learned of the death of our faithful citizen, Mr. Lewis Fleagle. Mr. Fleagle has been in ill health for some time but not until recently did he start to fail rapidly. Mr. Fleagle has lived around this vicinity for a number of years and possessed many friends. Many people mourn the loss of a faithful friend.

Miss Helen Hesson and Mr. Earle Candler are spending a week with Mr. Ed Hesson and family.

ary Society will hold the festival Wednesday, July 9 or if inclement on Wednesday evening it will be held on Thursday evening. Sandwiches, candies, ice cream and cake will be the eats for this occasion. Come one and all. Its for young and old.

On Sunday the state road was just rushed with traffic. Harvesting seems to be very much on the way as the farmers have started to cut their wheat crop.

PLEASANT VALLEY.

A birthday surprise was given in honor of Mrs. A. L. Wagner on June 21 at her home in Pleasant Valley. She received beautiful presents consisting of hand painted china, glass ware and linen. They also brought with them many good things for the table. An elegant dinner was served and later in the day ice cream, cake and pop were in abundance. All present expressed themselves as having spent a very pleasant day and when time came to say good bye all wished Mrs. Wagner many more happy birthdays. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Barton, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hall, Mrs. Carrie Selby, Miss Irene Barton and Mr. Earl Wagner, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. James Warren and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Warren, of Detour; Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Conoway, Mr. and Mrs. John Conoway, of Sykesville; Mr. and Mrs. Archer Wantz, of Union Mills; Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Wantz, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warehime, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gilbert, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Devilbiss, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Myerly and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Myerly, of Gist; Misses Nora Shorb, Ruth Warehime, Mary Myers, Catherine Wagner, Eva Gilbert, Louise Warren, Nellie Conoway, Louise Myerly, Louise Devilbiss, Louise Conoway, Hannah Warren, Miss Webb, Messrs. The Lend-a-Hand Book Club. Mrs. O. M. Hiteshew, of Forest Park, Baltimore, might conjure by the figure nine, if there is anything in continuity of numbers as on June 19, 1919 nineteen members and friends of the Lend-a-Hand Book Club of Mechanicsville journeyed to her home for the regular monthly meeting. After spinning over the good roads of Carroll and Baltimore counties, the warm reception and cool refreshments were quite agreeable. A fine program was rendered. Mrs. Leister and Mrs. Yingling sang a duet, Mrs. Oscar Monroe accompanied. Instructive mental music followed, "Le Chant Du Seraphine" by Gregby, "Beloved Evening Star," Lang and "Second Mazurka" Godard were executed in fine style by Miss Annie Shephard Walles, of Baltimore. The social hour was most enjoyable. During the serving refreshments quotations and after dinner stories were given. The dining table was graced with a Hiteshew pie. If five and forty black birds were not baked in it, it was large enough, and merriment crowned the success of drawing from the cover by gaily colored ribbons, the favors, from tacks, tack hammer, dillies, drinking cups, hair pins, tea strainers, rolling pins and egg beaters. Mrs. Hiteshew was assisted in serving refreshments by her daughter, Miss Margarette. Salads, olives, cakes and ice cream merange were charmingly arranged on the table. Mrs. Palmer was toast mistress.
