FARMER'S CLUBS. It is interesting to look through the agricultural papers and see how large a proportion of the farmers have local clubs to promote community and agricultural interests in their own neighborhood.

All kinds of progressive efforts are promoted by these clubs. Many of them are building halls needed as a social meeting place and center for cooperative action. Many clubs promote co-operative buying and selling movements.

Some of them make arrangements by which a group of farmers agree to grow a certain crop, then buy machinery for joint use of the group which would be too costly for them to buy individually.

Some clubs standardize crops so that the district shall get a reputation for a certain standard product. Some form cow testing associations and work for better milk production. And so on in a hundred different lines.

It used to be said that the farmer was an intense individualist, that he could never work with others, nor get the benefits that flow from combined effort. These clubs prove that in so far as this notion ever had any truth, it is fast becoming obsolete. It is certainly proving so in the section around Princess Anne.

Farmers have no more objection to working with other people than other classes of the population have. The difficulty is that they are scattered around the country and there are unusual difficulties in the way of their getting together. After the farmer finishes his 12 hour or more day, there is a temptation for him to sit down on the porch and try to recover his mental poise by rest, which many times is the best thing he can do. But he sees the advantages of associating himself with community movements and at considerable sacrifice of his ease he is doing it.

organizations in the county were present. Special arrangements were made and committees appointed for the county exhibit which will be held November 19, 20 and 21st. The most important committee appointed was the committee on prize money. In order to award prizes for the best products and to the Boys' and Girls' Clubs $400 will be necessary. This amount will have to be raised by subscriptions from the business men of the county and towns. As the most popular counties of the country are noted for their fairs and exhibits it is up to every Carroll county to help make the Carroll County Exhibit this year a success. This can only be done by seeing that everybody has several exhibits, and those who can, will help swell the prize fund.

FRIZELLBURG.

The weather man is sending us plenty of rain when we compare the weather with what it was a few weeks ago.

Mr. Wm. Yingling has returned home from the hospital and is very much improved.

Mrs. Jane Sullivan is about the same at this writing.

Mrs. Walter Grimes and children, of Westminster spent Wednesday with Mr. Wm. Sullivan and family.

Don't forget the festival to be held on August 12th on the ground of Mrs. Ella Rinehart, instead of Mr. John Fowler's. All come and patronize the Christian Endeavor of Frizellburg.

The Christian Endeavor of Frizellburg will meet at 8 o'clock Sunday evening in the chapel.

For several days the mail service between New York and points farther west was held up because of dissatisfaction among carriers. It was a small affair, but shows the possibilities after this has been installed as one of the regular means of carrying mails.

IN MEMORIAM. In loving remembrance of my dear daughter, Mabel E. Ogg who died three years ago today, Aug. 8, 1918. Every year the Savior calleth, Some loved one to endless rest, And the heart though filled with sadness, Can not say He knoweth best. Had He asked us, well we know, We would have said, oh, spare the blow; Yes, with streaming eyes would pray, Lord we love her, let her stay. In love she lived, in peace she died, Her life was asked, but God denied. By her devoted mother, ANNIE E. FLATER.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, Harriet E. Glover, who departed this life one month ago today, July 2, 1919. In life I loved you mother dearly, In death I do the same, I often sit and think of you, And wish you were here again. I think of you in silence, No eyes can see me weep, But many a silent tear I shed, When others thought I was dead. O God, what a weight of sorrow, Must I lonely bear, A bitter grief, a shock severe, To part with one I loved so dear. In the grave she is softly sleeping, Far away from care and pain, May she rest in Jesus' arms, For we hope to meet again. By her loving daughter, BLANCHE TUCKER.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear sons, Walter C. Wantz who departed this life February 17, 1912 and Snyder C. Wantz who departed this life August 6, 1913. Although they are absent from me, And these weary years have fled, Since I stood by their beds in sorrow, And knew that they were dead, I love them yet I love them, Just as well as I did years ago, And I miss them, oh how sadly I miss them, And my heart is still aching so. But one thought comes to me in my sadness, They are free from all sickness and pain, And I trust when my journey ended, I will meet my loved ones again. What happy days I once enjoyed, How sweet their memories still, But they have left I am thinking, This world can never fill. By their devoted mother, MRS. R. J. WANTZ.

Road Notice!

Notice is hereby given that application will be made to the County Commissioners of Carroll County, at their next meeting, thirty days from date hereof, to-wit, the 8th day of August, 1919, to locate and open a public county road, leading from a point on the Westminster and Manchester State Road in said County, about 1 1/2 miles east of the City of Westminster, at or below the section bridge spanning a stream immediate-ly south of the Electric Power House on said State Road, and running thence southeasterly over the bed of an abandoned mill-race on the land belonging to the heirs of John Flohr, deceased, and the land of Emory Merryman, thence continuing in a southeasterly direction and following an old road (commonly known as the "Dark Hollow" road) through and over the lands of Edward Witte, Smith, Yingling & Co., August Witte and the Carroll Oak Tanning Company, and the Tannery Road, and thence through and over the lands of E. C. Wright, Charles Conaway, The Carroll Oak Tanning Company and Jefferson D. Green, to intersect the Gorsuch Road about 1/2 mile south-east of Tannery Station, Carroll County, Maryland, for the distance of approximately 1 1/2 miles from the place of beginning. CARROLL OAK TANNING COMPANY, E. C. WRIGHT and 50 others.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, ANNAPOLIS, MARYLAND.

PROCLAMATION DECLARING SOLDIERS' VOTE LAW NO LONGER OPERATIVE

WHEREAS, by proclamation issued the 15th day of January, 1919, I suspended the operation of the election laws of the State, and all rules and regulations adopted thereunder, as and to the extent authorized by Chapter 78 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1918, to the end that the provisions of said Act authorizing and providing the means for duly qualified voters absent in the military or naval service of the United States to vote by mail at general, primary or special elections, might be and become effective, as therein set forth.

AND WHEREAS, said Act was passed and my Proclamation thereunder issued as a war measure, with the object of giving the soldiers and sailors of Maryland, who enlisted especially for the war with Germany, the opportunity of voting during their absence in service during said war.

AND WHEREAS, the said war is practically over and peace is about to be declared, and the soldiers and sailors of Maryland, for whose benefit as aforesaid the said Act was passed and my Proclamation issued, have practically all returned to Maryland and been demobilized, so that the condition for which the Act was passed and aforesaid Proclamation issued is now or is about to be over.

AND WHEREAS, section 228 of the said Act provides that whenever the condition which resulted in the issuing of said Proclamation terminates, it shall be the duty of the Governor, as soon as convenient and proper, by proclamation to end the suspension of the election laws, whereupon the provisions of said Act for absent voting shall become inoperative.

AND WHEREAS, in view of the foregoing, it is now convenient and proper that the Proclamation contemplated by said section 228 should be issued.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, EMERSON C. HARRINGTON, GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND, by virtue of the authority conferred upon me as aforesaid by said Act of Assembly, do hereby proclaim and declare the aforesaid suspension of the election laws terminated and at an end, so that the provisions of said Act of 1918, Chapter 78 may be and become inoperative, to the same extent as if my Proclamation of January 15, 1919, with reference to voting by absent soldiers and sailors, had never been issued.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Maryland, at the Capitol, in the City of Annapolis, on this 23rd day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and nineteen.

EMERSON C. HARRINGTON, By the Governor. THOMAS W. SIMMONS, Secretary of State.

Make your plans to enjoy a full week of instructive lectures and delightful entertainments.

THE PIETRO MORDELLA COMPANY Italian Musicians AT CHAUTAUQUA

The Italians have an enviable reputation as musicians. They take to it as a duck does to water. Their music is most delightful. Within the last few years they have developed a big hit in musical instruments. It is known as the "piano-accordion." It is a queer instrument and in the hands of a master musician such as Pietro MordeLLa, is capable of affording most pleasing music. Be sure to hear it at Chautauqua, on the opening day.

During the past two years on our Chautauqua and previous to this wherever they appeared, Pietro MordeLLa and his company, consisting of the Misses Golding and Buck, were an unequalled success in every town. Miss Golding is an artist with the violin. Miss Buck, as an entertainer and vocalist, is sure to please. And Mr. MordeLLa himself is capable of holding an audience an entire evening without assistance. He is a musician and novelty entertainer without a superior in his chosen field. A real treat is in store for lovers of music and entertainment on the opening afternoon and evening of Chautauqua.
