Stem will be given on the evening of July 3rd. Fireworks and music. Mrs. Catherine Dell wishes to thank her neighbors for their kindness, which was shown her during her husband's death. Want to know who your friends are? Just let it become known that you have "a little something" hidden away and you will soon learn. Mr. Joseph Scherer, who sold his farm on the Baltimore pike and moved to Baltimore, has gone to Akron, Ohio, to make his future home. Sterling Galt, of Emmitsburg, a member of the State Board of Education addressed the graduates of the State Normal School at Towson. Daniel E. Houck, of Mt. Pleasant, Frederick county, died Saturday, aged 68 years. Besides his family he leaves a brother, Milton Houck, Winfield. All barbershops in this city will close at 8 p. m. instead of 9 as has been the usual custom. On Saturdays the closing time will be the same. Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Warner, of Baltimore, are visiting Mrs. Warner's sister, Mrs. Josephine Fowler and Miss Alice Gist, near this city. There is one sweet consolation in being poor. We don't have to worry over how to prevent the government from annexing the most of our income. In the sixth annual Statewide Athletic meet under the auspices of the Public Athletic League, held on Home wood Carroll county school boys made 4 points. Our canneries are busy canning peas at present. B. F. Shriver Co.'s force has been increased by a number of foreigners brought here from Baltimore. George Hoff, of the firm of Klee & Hoff, left Sunday with three other men for Detroit, Mich. They will arrive home this week with four of the latest model Studebaker cars.

IN MEMORIAM. Sacred to the memory of Mrs. A. P. Albaugh, who departed this life three years ago, June 21, 1917. Some sweet day when life is over, And the flood tide has been crossed; We shall catch a glimpse of faces, Faces we have loved and lost. Day by day the ties are broken, Seems like nothing here can last. Day by day we meet the roses, That have cheered us in the past. He has called for many a loved one, We have seen them leave our side; With our Saviour we shall meet them, When we too have crossed. By the Family
