SUNDAY SCHOOLS MEET

FOURTEENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION HELD AT KRIDER'S REFORMED CHURCH—OFFICERS ELECTED—103 SCHOOLS WITH A 12,000 ENROLLMENT.

The fourteenth annual convention of the Carroll County Sunday School Association was held in Krider's Reformed church, near this city, Rev. J. Reinecke, pastor Tuesday.

Sessions were held morning, afternoon and evening, presided over by the president, Rev. J. Walter Englar, of New Windsor.

The secretary reported that there are 103 schools with an enrollment of more than 12,000 in the county. Ninety-nine of these schools furnished statistical reports showing them to be in a growing condition. Forty-five schools reported cradle rolls; eleven schools reported Home Departments. More than 40 schools are Honor Roll schools, having contributed 5 cents or more per member for county and State work.

The treasurer's report showed the receipts for the year to have been $428.54 and disbursements $22.28, leaving a balance on hand of $406.26. An invitation to hold the next convention in the Methodist Protestant church, Uniontown, the last Tuesday in July, was accepted.

The nominating committee presented the following who were elected officers for the coming year:

President, J. Walter Englar, New Windsor; First Vice-President, G. W. Yeiser, Union Mills; Second Vice-President, George Mather, Westminster; Third Vice-President, Herbert W. Wooden, Hampstead; Cor. Secretary, Edgar Neubaum, Westminster; Assistant Sec.-Treas., Denton Gehr, Westminster; Elementary, Pest Gehr, Westminster.

One of the highlights of the Convention was the music in charge of Dr. Adam Gebel, of Hall-Mach Co., Philadelphia. Dr. Gebel, who is entirely blind, with both voice and violin charmed and inspired the great crowds present. The climax of the "whole convention" came in the evening, when Dr. Don S. Colt, of Baltimore, brought the soul thrilling sermon on "Evangelism."

Everything was ideal, the weather, the place, the attendance, the speakers, the music, the hospitality of the convention congregation and we pray the results.

WOMAN'S NUDE BODY DISCOVERED IN TRUNK.

Twelve Inch Knife Wound Marked It—Shipped to New York From Detroit.

The nude body of a young woman with a 12 inch knife wound in her abdomen was found stuffed in a trunk under a pile of clothing by James De-marest, delivery foreman of the American Express Company, at New York Friday. The trunk was consigned to "James Douglas, New York city," and was marked shipped from "A. A. Tietrum, 105 Harper street, Detroit, Mich."

The body was taken to the morgue, where physicians declared the knife wound showed it to have been a "ripper" murder. This opinion was also expressed by the police. There were no identifying marks upon the body. The woman was apparently about 30 years old, and two upper teeth protruded from the upper left jaw.

Besides the clothing, several Detroit newspapers of June 17 date, an old fedora hat and a man's shirt were found in the trunk.

Dr. Charles Norris, chief medical examiner, declared the lungs, heart and other organs had been removed from the body. These parts were not in the trunk. There were marks showing an effort had been made to hack the body to pieces, Norris said, and added that something must have interfered with the murderer in his work, as the limbs were still intact when the body was found.

Norris declared the examination was hampered by the absence of vital organs. He said there was no way of determining whether the woman had been poisoned before being put into the trunk.

Dr. Norris declared the appearance of the wounds on the body tended to indicate the murderer had used a long, sharp instrument, probably a sword.

Police were working on the theory that the crime had been committed by a degenerate or a mad.

The woman's teeth were in very good condition. She had blue eyes and was good looking. Her nose was flattened probably by the lid of the trunk.

The trunk in which the body was found was a cheap one of the kind generally used by immigrants. It was four feet long, three feet high and was three feet wide.

FIRE CAUSES $10,000 LOSS

BANK BARN OF CLYDE DORSEY DESTROYED BY FIRE—SMALL INSURANCE.

A disastrous fire of unknown origin, swept every outbuilding from the fine farm of Clyde Dorsey, in Berrett district, Wednesday afternoon. The wind carried the sparks away from the house and this was the only building saved. The fire started in the barn-rack, in which was stored about 250 bushels of unthreshed wheat. Hay and other crops in the barns and all the farming implements, wagons, etc. were destroyed.

It is unlawful to export any game (water fowl excepted) out of this State. Licensed hunters may carry out one day's bag limit. It is unlawful to shoot wild fowl from any boat propelled by power or sail. Unlawful to shoot game at night or on Sunday.

Unlawful to sell, offer for sale, purchase or offer to purchase, bob-white quail (partridges), ring-necked pheasant, ruffed grouse or wild turkey. Unlawful to kill Chinese ring-necked pheasant hens (female). This is done to permanently establish this game bird in our State.

All persons who hunt game in this State must have a license and arm tag, the arm tag to be worn on the left arm while hunting, and the number of the tag must correspond with the number of the license, which must be in their possession (except landowners, their tenants or children may hunt on land owned or leased by them without a license). Sent's Flour Mill, at Harney, Destroyed by Fire Yesterday.

The large flouring mill of Mr. David Sentz, sometimes spoken of as Sell's Mill or Myers' Mill, on the Monocacy near Harney, was destroyed by fire on Thursday afternoon. The Men's Bible class of Grace Lutheran church, this city, was enjoying its annual outing, at Starners' dam, when the fire was discovered in the roof of the mill, two members of the class, Messrs. James D. Mitchell and J. P. L. Reaver were at the mill. Other members of the class, scattered along the stream fishing, or lounging in the grove a mile away heard the mill's alarm whistle and hurried to the fire, and with the neighbors who hastily gathered, did everything possible to save the building. The dwelling house and large barns were in danger, but fortunately the favorable direction of the wind saved them. At present values the loss approximates $8,000, with insurance of only $1400 in the Carroll County Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

Newly Weds Given Reception.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lockard given a reception by Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wenger, at Lebanon, Pa., Saturday afternoon. Mr. Wenger being a brother of the bride. The account given by the Courier and Semi-Weekly of Lebanon, says:

"The event was featured with an elaborate wedding dinner with a number of relatives and friends attending. The bride, a former resident of Lebanon county, was born at Jones-town, where she resided until a few years ago. She was formerly Miss Maude Wenger, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin B. Wenger, residing at Westminster, Md. She is an accomplished young lady, a graduate from Finley College and various other educational institutions. Her father is a prominent minister of the Church of God congregation and is well known in this county. The groom, Mr. Lockard, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Locke, also of Westminster, Md., and is a successful business man. The couple were wedded privately at the parsonage of Rev. D. A. McDonald of Mt. Joy, and immediately following the ceremony the couple left for this city to spend some time with relatives while on their wedding trip. The wedding dinner served at the Wenger home afforded an opportunity for large relatives and friends to tender felicitations for many years of happy wedded life."

Cox Sure Winner in Voodoo Luck Counts.

Senator-elect Tom Hefflin, of Alabama, and other Democratic senators from the South, who have no political fences to take care of at home are going to take the stump for Governor Cox and the Democratic ticket in a number of Northern States, it was announced Friday.

"Governor Cox will be elected," Hefflin said.

"Which reminds me," he added "of what an old darkey just said to me."

"Mr. Hefflin," he said, "Gunner Cox cannot lose, no sah.

"Cause why he was named on the forty-fifth ballot at San Francisco, and the forty-fifth number is de luckiest in all voodoo history." Fo' times 'leven is fo'ty-five and if dat ain't a sure winner for Gunner Cox den dere is nuthin' to any rabbit's foot alive."

The Annual Lawn Fete.

St. John's school grounds have all the appearance of an extensive and entertaining fete. The flying horses are painted in real carnival colors and despite the H. C. L., we understand will carry passengers at the old five cent rate.

The committee will provide the organ with a new roll of late music. Among the attractions for the men is a shooting gallery, where boasted marksmanship can be proved. The supper room has been tastefully decorated and will be set to accommodate family parties.

We wish to suggest to some of these staunch church members that make mountains out of mole hills, that they had better look into their topic more thoroughly before going so far as to publish it.

We will admit there was a skirmish on the home diamond last Sunday one week, but it certainly was not as black as it was painted so it is necessary for us to correct and criticize some of your statements. But first let me tell you, good author, hadn't you better take in the future Sunday ball games and get things straight instead of staying away and getting them from some gossip, who takes a pleasure in emphasizing. And shall I say, stretching the truth. Also let me advise you to look after your neighbors or perhaps relatives and preach a little to them about their sticky fingers, before meddling with your neighborhood. They may be bad, but you can't see them disappear. We think if a person wants a thing bad enough as to take it without permission, (note the soft pedal) why, let them have it. Perhaps he took it for a good cause, for we do not condemn anyone without a hearing.

There was a little argument between two brothers, but there were positively no blows struck between them. We want to state that Woodbine certainly did not start the fight which caused so much excitement and unrest in the community for they have not that kind of a reputation. Also the young ladies of this town knew their place, as neither joined in nor had tear dimmed eyes as stated, for they had enough confidence in their friends and home town boys to know they would stop it as soon as possible and their interference would only make matters worse. There were a few young ladies from outside who grew hysterical and ran to the rescue; tho' we do not condemn.

We wish to inform you that Billy Sunday preached, John Keefe's funeral in Norfolk, Va., about a year ago, so it was quite impossible to state that he was present at the game. There may have been some "Old Hen" it would be more likely; perhaps you can tell us, for you seem to know and we will most assuredly try and put a stop to it.

A WITNESS.
