

AMERICAN RED CROSS TO GIVE RURAL HELP

Program for Public Health and Community Welfare Is Now Well Under Way.

Rural communities and towns of less than 8,000 population benefit in a very large part by the public health and community welfare work of the American Red Cross.

Briefly, the purpose of Rural Service is to assist people to get out of life more health, wealth and happiness. In this purpose public health instruction and general educational progress of both children and adults play a big part.

Recreation is found to be one of the biggest needs in rural life. There is lack of sufficient play-life for the children and social life for the adults.

As a result of community organization, townships in which there had been neither plans nor interest in community progress have been organized to work together with the unified purpose of bringing their community up to the most enlightened standards.

JUNIOR RED CROSS ACTIVE IN EUROPE

Garden seeds for Polish orphans, milk for anaemic Greek babies, carpenter's tools for Czech-Slovakian cripples—these are only a few of the gifts that young Americans are sending to the war-crushed children of the Old World.

Through the Junior Red Cross the boys and girls of the United States are giving a fresh start in life to little war orphans scattered all over Europe.

They have set up orphan's homes in France, school colonies in Belgium and Montenegro, and day schools in Albania.

They are sending dozens of young Syrians, Montenegrins, and Albanians to American colleges in Constantinople and Beirut, and maintaining more than a hundred orphans of French soldiers at colleges and trade schools.

Last winter a thousand French children from the inadequate shelters of the devastated regions were sent by the Junior Red Cross to spend the cold months in warmer parts of France.

RED CROSS RELIEF IN CENTRAL EUROPE

But for timely assistance of the American Red Cross during the last year, a large proportion of the 20,000,000 population of the Balkan States might have starved or perished from disease or exposure.

The money expended by the Red Cross in this stricken portion of Europe has been used to set up hospitals, orphanages, dispensaries, mobile medical units and to help in the general reconstruction of devastated areas.

By the last of this year probably all American Red Cross agencies administering relief in Central Europe will have withdrawn.

CATTLE EXHIBIT TO BE BIG ONE

The cow with the blue ribbon hanging to her horn wouldn't stand still a moment until Miss Overalls volunteered to hold the strap. You'll probably see both of them when you attend the coming show. Some very liberal prizes for cattle are offered by the coming Timonium Fair, Baltimore County, Aug. 31 to Sept. 4, inclusive.

HOME SERVICE FOR EVERYBODY IN NEED

Do you know what the present day Home Service of the American Red Cross is?

Many people do not know that, besides completing the work for ex-servicemen, especially the disabled, it provides the same neighborly service to families in general that it formerly gave families of soldiers, sailors and marines.

"Home Service covers a wide and varied field," says Frederick C. Munroe, general manager of the American Red Cross. "It gives aid to families in solving such problems as budget, planning, marketing, tiding over times of financial stress, keeping children in school, helping crippled children, widowed and deserted mothers, children backward in school and children in conflict with the laws.

When solar casts a friendly beam, Upon the wildwood green; Did dreamer ever dream such dream, Or painter paint such scene?

That dances in the sun and shadow, That sparkles o'er the sand, While coursing through the wood and meadow, Enlivening the land.

Strong zephyrs play upon the trees, Soft pedaled strains that sway, And vibrate trees like sounding keys Tuned to the streamlets lay.

When solar casts a hearty beam On bland nature serene; Did dreamer ever dream such dream, Or painter paint such scene?

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of our darling baby, Stanley Ray, who departed this life one year ago August 11, 1919.

In a casket white as snow, All nestled among the flowers; Lie our darling brown eyed baby Who such a little while was ours.

Oh, how hard we tried to save him, Prayers and tears were all in vain Happy angels come and bore him From this world of toil and pain.

Oh, could we see our pet once more, And hold him on our knees, And feel his arms around our necks, How happy would we be.

When you ask me do I miss him, Yes, it fills my heart with pain, But his spirit softly whispers, Courage, mamma, we shall meet again.

Weep not for me, my life is past; You kindly lover me to the last; Prepare yourself, make no delay For I was early called away.

By his mamma and papa, brothers and sisters.
