Wesley Sunday school will hold its annual picnic Saturday, September 4, in the afternoon and evening. The Hampstead Conway Band will furnish the music. The picnic was postponed on account of the weather.

The people of Houcksville had a stone hauling party and filled the flat with stone in front of Mr. George Richard's house. No refreshments were served. It is no wonder we have such poor roads. Carroll county is so poor she can only pay 30 cents an hour for labor and fifty cents a perch for stone. Some price.

Mr. J. Clarke Abbott and family, of Laurel, Del., were guests of their father, Mr. John W. Abbott, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Shaffer, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Shaffer.

Mr. Elmer Richards has sold his farm, the Jacob Richard place, to Mrs. Gray, of South Carolina.

Mrs. Jennie Oursler, of Jessups, is visiting her friends in this community.

Mrs. Eleanor Hoffman is indisposed and at present is confined to her bed.

Houcksville school house is now undergoing repairs. Mr. Howard Shaffer is master mechanic.

Mr. and Mrs. McCoy, of Baltimore, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Else-road.

Patapsco Wins Again.

The Patapsco A. C. defeated the strong Rex A. C. of Baltimore last Sunday 7 to 2.

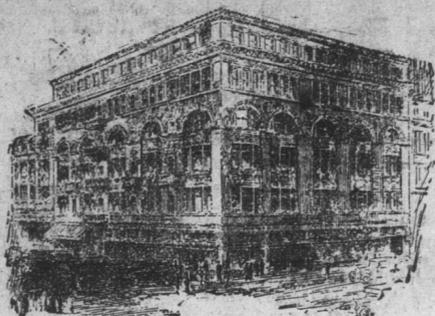

Sunday, August 29, the Waverly Independent Club of Baltimore will visit Patapsco and play a double header. The Waverly lads have annexed their last 20 starts and the country boys will sure have to play real base ball. Evans, who has been pitching air tight ball all season, for P. A. C., will be called upon, and looks like he is equal to the occasion.

To the red blooded sporting fans of Carroll county, the Patapsco A. C. extends a welcome invitation to see these games which promises to be the best of amateur ball. First game 2 p. m. Second game 3.45 p. m. The P. A. C. have another pitcher concealed. Come see who he is and what he will do with the visitors.
