

The Democratic Advocate

Published every Friday by The Democratic Advocate Company of Westminster, Maryland.

Entered at the Postoffice, Westminster, Maryland, Second Class Matter.

TERMS:—$1.50 per year; 75 cents for six months and 40 cents for three months. Single copies 5 cents.

E. O. DIFFENDAL, Manager.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON, OCT. 22, 1920

SALE REGISTERS.

November 5, at 1 p. m., buy mare, 2 cows, 9 sheep, 1 pig, corn, feed, etc. G. R. Lewis, on road leading from Stone Chapel to Marston.

BRIEFS

Mr. William H. Haines, of New Windsor, called on friends in this city a few days this week.

Hughy Jennings tendered his resignation as manager of the Detroit baseball team, to take effect immediately.

The Baltimore Orioles annexed the Inter-league championship from St. Paul Saturday when they took the deciding game.

Mrs. John M. Hood, Jr., is suing her husband for divorce, and $150 weekly alimony. Mrs. Hood has in annual income of $85,000 a year, and is worth $2,000,000.

Lawrence R. Babylon will have sale October 28, and will leave for New Orleans, Louisiana with his family to continue the christen work there with his son, Russell.

The car of Harry Germond, Union Bridge, was struck by another car going in the opposite direction and was completely demolished and the occupants more or less injured. The accident occurred near Hagerstown.

Five men were killed and one seriously injured by the explosion October 15, of a boiler in the cotton gin of the D. Bacey Gin Company near Rowland, Robeson county, N. C. The dead are Robert Bridges, one of the owners of the gin; two other white men and two Indians.

Twenty-seven drunk cases were handled by the justices of the peace during Hagerstown Interstate Fair week. The number is the lowest on fair week in many years. Little "boot-legging" was done during the week, due, it is said, to the presence of Federal agents.

Mrs. Charles Ponzl, pretty young wife of the ex-wizard, who a few short weeks ago was mistress of a fine Lexington mansion, drove about in her limousine and had millions at her disposal, is today wielding the scrubbing brush as one means of making both ends meet.

Wille Howard Davis, of near Union Bridge, was riding in his automobile on the Bark Hill road, he noticed considerable smoke. To his astonishment he found his car on fire and as he was some distance from help nothing could be done and within a short time everything inflammable was burned.

The body of David S. Paul, messenger of the Broadway Trust Company, of Camden, N. J., who disappeared October 5 with $10,000 in cash and $12,500 in checks, was found near Mount Holly, N. J. The body was buried under two feet of earth. Marks on the body convinced the authorities the man was murdered.

Miss Jennie Hunt, a school teacher, of Macon, Mo., displayed Harding's picture on the school building and the school children pulled it from the wall. She inflicted punishment on six. Miss Hunt has got herself in a barrel of trouble. She will have a hearing today and in all probability be dismissed.

Amos O. Strine, for 35 years foreman at the LeDore quarries, near Woodsboro, was struck on the head by a boulder weighing 100 pounds Friday, and almost instantly killed. It is supposed that the boulder was loosened by a blast and fell without warning a distance of 40 feet.

A joint statement by "over 100 representative men and women who have usually supported the Republican or Progressive tickets" announcing their intention to vote for Cox and Roosevelt and those Senatorial candidates "who stand honestly and frankly for ratification of the treaty and adherence to the League" was made public at New York by Hamilton Holt, magazine editor.

Tonight there will be held in the Armory a large class of initiation when all the lodges of the county will come with the large classes to be initiated. The degree team of Frederick will have charge of the work and the class will number 200 or more. Charity Lodge will have 50 or more, New Windsor 25 or more, Union Bridge 30 at least and the lodges of Taneytown and Frizellburg will each have candidates. A large number of members of the order from the state and Grand Lodge officers will be present.

Clarence Olier, of near Emmitsburg was tried before the Frederick court for assault and battery on Mrs. James Boyle, Baltimore. The evidence showed that he threw a stone into a passing automobile in which Mrs. Boyle was seated, and that the stone hit Mrs. Boyle on the head. Olier stated that he was throwing the stone at a dog and did not mean to hit any one in the machine. Judge Worthington pronounced him guilty, warned him to be more careful how he threw stones in the future and imposed a fine of 15 cents.

Another mail pilot was killed when his plane fell at Batavia, Ill.

Mr. Albert Long, of Baltimore, was a guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Long, Tannery.

Mrs. John Foutz, of Baltimore, was a week's end guest of friends at Warfieldburg.

C. Harry Rodgers, who died in Baltimore Friday, was buried at Sandymount, Monday.

Mrs. Isaac Long, of Tannery, is spending some time with relatives in Baltimore city and county.

Mrs. Thilie Wickert, of Baltimore, visited her daughter, Mrs. Levene Billingslea, East Main street.

Miss Gail Bonebrake, of Baltimore, was a week's end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Hunter, near this city.

Mrs. Geo. Osborne, West Main street, who was operated upon at a hospital in Baltimore, is improving rapidly.

A marriage license was issued in Frederick this week to Charles E. Smith, Libertytown and Lillie M. Greenwood, New Windsor.

Mrs. Catherine Long, George street, was taken to the Maryland University for an operation. The operation was successful and she is improving.

Robert Fleagle, contractor of Frizellburg, has his force of painters applying a fresh coat of paint to Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church.

The sale of the Brown and Shilling property, Bond and Main street, Saturday, was withdrawn after a bid of $12,000 and will be sold at private sale.

Mr. Albert Anderfuren and his cousin Miss Ella Anderfuren, of this city, have returned after spending several days in Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

William Bowers, charged with the larceny of a sewing machine and other household goods from an unoccupied house near Union Bridge, pleaded guilty before Judge Glenn H. Worthington in Frederick County Court, and sentence was suspended.

During a quarrel with Miss Marie Darsh, 23 years old, at her home, in Baltimore, Sunday, Adam Kocher, 32 years old, shot her four times. The wounds, while not fatal, will necessitate her remaining at Franklin Square Hospital for perhaps a month.

Frank Iucolano, 34 years old, New York, was shot and killed early Friday, by a woman, who fired four shots at the body as it lay in the gutter. The detectives say Iucolano refused recently to marry her.

Joseph Taplen, 65, of Dutchess Junction, N. Y., is in a hospital at Beacon, suffering from a broken spine the result of falling from a tree. He lay there five days until found by hunters who happened to pass.

Convicted of murder in the first degree, Mrs. Sarah Jason, of Swan River, Alberta, has just been sentenced to be hanged. Unless a pardon is granted to her she will be the first woman to die on the gallows in Alberta, Man.

Carroll Reformed Charge—St. Benjamin's Preparatory service, Saturday, 2 p. m. Sunday School 9 a. m. Holy Communion 10 a. m. St. Matthew's, Pleasant Valley—Sunday School 1 p. m. Divine Service 2 p. m. J. W. Reinecke, pastor.

Information showing that $100,000 had been raised in Chicago to force out certain Federal prohibition agents and replace them with men susceptible to the influence of the alleged "whiskey ring" has been obtained through three men arrested.

"This has been a banner day for suicides," Dr. H. M. Warren of the Save a Life League, New York, Saturday. "We get reports from all over the country every day, and today's mail lists 115 persons who took their own lives. The largest previous number was 106."

Joshua Clayton, a Republican member of the bar at Elkton, sent a telegram to O. E. Weller, Republican candidate for United States Senator, challenging him to a joint debate. The proposed subject is Mr. Weller's fitness to represent Maryland in the Senate.

The allied reparations commission, according to Vorwarts, has presented to the German government a demand for the immediate delivery of 10,000 bulls and 500,000 cows to France, 11,150 head of cattle to Italy, 210,000 cows to Belgium and 157,000 head of cattle to Servia.

Norman Hyle, Mount Pleasant, was fined $100 and cost by Justice Waish Saturday evening for driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor and for reckless driving. Hyle figured in an automobile wreck and escaped life by a miracle. The car upset upon him after striking a buggy on the Littlestown pike a short time ago. His license was also revoked.

Fifty-seven years ago there occurred an incident in the burial of a Union soldier in Cumberland that created a sensation at the time when the supposed corpse came to life, walked away from the cemetery—stopped in a saloon and got a drink of whiskey, and lived to be killed on the B. & O. Railroad eighteen years later. Col. Charles Enochs, who was eye-witness to the scene, told the story.

Maurice Formwalt, of Marston, formerly of this city, was badly injured in an automobile collision near Reisterstown early Tuesday morning. Mr. Formwalt's car was mashed up considerably, but the auto he struck was only slightly damaged. It was a head-on collision. Mr. Formwalt was taken to the Maryland General Hospital for treatment. Besides a five inch cut on his head he was bruised upon the body. The driver of the other car received an injured leg.

Mrs. Sophia Zenigra, Pennsylvania avenue received a stroke of paralysis Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Berman have returned home after a very pleasant visit to Litchfield, Conn.

Miss Derma Yeiser, has returned to Washington, after spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Yeiser, Pennsylvania avenue.

Bernard Sullivan, of Union Mills, recently lost two cows valued at $300. They broke into a sweet corn patch and died from an overloading of their stomachs in eating the corn.

From reports the busiest day known on the W. M. R. around this city, was Wednesday. It was a freight train continuously in the block for several hours.

Mr. Albert Myers, George street, received an injury to his ankle while working in the Congoleum plant, at Asbestos, yesterday morning. His injury is not considered serious.

J. Wilbur Frock, Union Mills, has purchased the stock, good will and fixtures of the store of O. A. Haines, Silver Run, and will take possession of the property about Dec. 1.

The Deer Park school will hold a Halloween Social at Smallwood Hall, on Saturday evening, October 30. Singing and recitations by the children. Everybody welcome.

More than 12,000 owners of Liberty Bonds and Victory notes have lost their bonds either through theft, through destruction by burning, or through some form of carelessness.

St. John's (Leister's) Church Missionary Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Lizzie Mathias, Saturday October 30, at 1:30 p. m. Every member is expected to be present. Please bring your Thank offering boxes to this meeting.

The Willard Hotel, Littlestown, was sold at public sale by Mrs. J. D. Mayers to Joseph Krug and Mrs. Anna Study, Littlestown. The price paid was $12,000. The building is three stories in height and contains 35 rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Westaway, "Ever Green Farm" entertained on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Mummaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mumaugh, and children, Helen and Walter, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Briscoe, of West Arlington; Mr. Morrison, Miss McGinnis, of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Schaeffer and two children, Elton and Louise Zentgraf, of Snyderburg; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Karner, of Greenmount; and Miss Florence Blizard spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder, of Carrollton.

Police are searching for a woman bandit, who held up a motoring party at Mommestown, Ohio, and forced the occupants of the car to give up $90. The woman was in an automobile driven by a man. The motoring party were stopped when their tires were punctured by bullets.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Centenary M. E. Church, will hold an oyster supper in the Social Hall, of the Church, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, December 2, 3, and 4. A marriage license was issued at Towson, Wednesday, to Talmage K. Hill and Frances E. Warden, Finksburg.

Launching a powerful offensive drive in each quarter the Mount St. Mary's eleven easily defeated Western Maryland, at Emmitsburg, Saturday, 41 to 9. Johnny Chapman, fullback and captain of the Emmitsburg riders, was the individual star, scoring a touchdown in each of the first three periods.

The pupils of Warfieldburg school invite you to a Halloween festival and entertainment. The hour is eight on Thursday night, October 28, at the schoolhouse. The door is open to all. Music will be furnished the entire evening. Refreshments will be for sale, the proceeds being used for a victory in the school. Come and spend a pleasant evening with us.

Reclamation of coal from the bottom of the Susquehanna river has begun at Pegasus, Pa. Each foot of river brings downstream thousands of tons of fine coal, which settle in the Holwood dam. By the use of suction dredges this material will be drawn from the water and pumped aboard cars. Millions of tons of serviceable coal are in sight and the operation will be carried on an extensive scale.

Those who gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Horning, near Wakefield, Sunday, October 17, were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Horning, Lester and Mildred Horning, Mr. and Mrs. Moses Horning, of Hagerstown; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. Yingling, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Yingling, Beatrice and Edith Yingling, of Crumery Valley; Mr. and Mrs. David Watson, Elizabeth, Marie, William and Weldon Watson, of Westminster; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fritz, William, Sarah, Kenneth and Harry Fritz, of New Windsor; Mrs. Edna Dull, of Tannery, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Yingling, Weldon and Woodrow Yingling, and Charles Greenholtz, of Jasantown.

The Mite society of Mt. Pleasant Methodist Episcopal church was entertained at the home of Mrs. Herbert Gorsuch on the afternoon of October 17, with 20 members and 7 visitors present. Meeting was opened with singing. The president, Mrs. Parrish, read 3rd chapter of Matt. and Rev. J. G. Field led in prayer. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Roll called and dues taken in to the amount of $15.50. After all business had been transacted ladies then decided to hold a "Halloween Festival" the 30th of October in the Jr. O. U. A. M. Hall, Mechanicsville, commencing 5 o'clock. Everybody invited to attend. Mrs. Gorsuch served delicious cake and ice cream to every one. All had a good time. Mrs. Geo. A. Barnes will entertain members first Thursday in November.

Poultry Judges Selected

The Carroll County Poultry Association has prevailed upon the Grand Old Man of Poultrydom, Mr. George O. Brown, to act as one of the judges of the poultry display to be held in conjunction with the County Agricultural exhibit at the Armory, Nov. 17, 18, 19, and 20. The other judge will be Mr. H. W. Rickey, poultry specialist of the Extension service of the State College. Mr. Brown is president of the Baltimore Poultry Association, and a former President of the American Poultry Association, and a judge of National reputation. Mr. Rickey is the official poultry booster of Maryland and an acknowledged expert on care and breeding. These gentlemen will be on hand Poultry Day, November 18, to give their advice and counsel.

Friends of the better poultry movement are making it possible for the Association to offer many liberal prizes of cash and poultry supplies and every exhibitor will find his entry eligible to some valuable special award.

Entries to the exhibit which is confined to residents of Carroll County, will positively close Nov. 10. An account of limited cooping facilities the Association has reserved the right to reject entries beyond the available capacity, therefore it is desirable to get your entry in early. The fee is 25c per bird, $1.00 for pen of one male and four females, Pigeons 25 cents per pair. Send your entries to D. F. Shipley, Jr., Secretary, Westminster, Md.

Community Shows Successful.

Community shows will be continued this week. Tuesday at Finksburg; Wednesday, at Taylorsville; Friday at Hampstead, Exhibit and program, every afternoon.

Judges and speakers will be: Finksburg and Taylorsville: Mr. Baird, Garden Specialist, University of Maryland; Mr. Gminder, Visiting Dietitian, Baltimore City.

Hampstead—Mr. Oldenburg, Agronomist, University of Maryland; Mr. Richardson, School of Expression, University of Maryland; Miss Gminder, Visiting Dietitian, Baltimore City.

Union Bridge and New Windsor had wonderful exhibits. Nearly seven hundred separate entries were brought. It shows an interest by the community, and much work by all, especially the teachers and pupils. New Windsor sold many of the products after judging, realizing over $87.

A beautiful art exhibit has been secured for Westminster through the efforts of Miss Everett, and the courtesy of the Maryland Institute. It will be on exhibit in the County Agent's Office, November 18th, 19th, 20th. Miss Stewart, of Baltimore, will be in charge, and will explain the exhibit. This is an opportunity for everybody. No charge. Miss Stewart will also give a talk one afternoon to women, on "Art in the Home."

Parent-Teacher Association to Meet.

The Parent-Teacher Association of Westminster will hold its first meeting of the present school year in the high school building on October 26, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

The committee has made special efforts to provide an interesting program. The principal feature will be a moving picture entitled "The Call of the Hour," presented by Prof. T. L. Gibson, State Supervisor of Music of the public schools of Maryland.

The regular business proceedings will be dispensed with and the moving picture will be first on the program immediately after the opening exercises. For this reason those who wish to enjoy this part of evening's entertainment should be present at the opening of the meeting.

At the conclusion of the program a reception to the teachers will be held to which all are invited. Members of the Association are urged to be present and bring as many of their friends as possible. Music by the High School orchestra.

Zepp.

Joshua Zepp, died at his home, near Spring Mills, Monday, aged 73 years, 2 months and 7 days. Funeral services were held Thursday, at the home of Rev. John Ruppely, pastor of Grace Lutheran church. Interment in Kilduff cemetery. The I. O. O. F. Lodge had charge of the service at the grave. Mr. Zepp was a member of that order for 35 years, in Westminster. James M. Stoner, funeral director.

Miss Emily Lynch Married

Miss Emily E. Lynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O. Lynch, of Baltimore, and Mr. A. Norman Doster, also of that city, were married on Thursday, October 24th, at St. Martin's Church, Baltimore.

The bride is a grand-daughter of Mrs. Emily E. Lockard, this city.

NOTICE TO TRESPASSERS.

I hereby warn all persons not to trespass on my lands at Mayberry in and near Westminster, as the law will be enforced against all offenders.

CHARLES W. KING.

THE WAR ISN'T OVER YET WITH THE RETAIL COALMAN.

No! No! the conditions since the Armistice was signed, have been many times worse. Think what the cost of making small deliveries must be to him. It will all be over some day.

Smith & Reifsnider

COURT HOUSE NEWS

TRANSFERS OF REAL ESTATE, ORPHANS COURT, MARRIAGE LICENSES, ETC.

Orphans' Court

Monday, October 18th.—The last will and testament of Mary E. McKellip, deceased, was admitted to probate and letters testamentary thereon were granted unto John McKellip, who received an order to notify creditors.

The last will and testament of Charles W. Lee, deceased, was admitted to probate and letters testamentary thereon were granted unto Emily A. Lee, who received warrant to appraise and an order to notify creditors.

Nathan W. Clair and Benjamin F. Myers, executors of Perry G. Walker, deceased, returned an inventory of debts.

Tuesday, October 19th.—Joseph B. Smith and Lawrence A. Smith, executors of Edmund F. Smith, deceased, returned inventories of personal property and money.

Milton T. Bowman, administrator of George W. Bowman, deceased, settled his first and final account.

The Westminster Deposit and Trust Company, guardian of Sarah G. Leppo, settled its first and final account. Letters of administration on the estate of George Rigler, deceased, were granted unto Benjamin F. Rigler, who received warrant to appraise and an order to notify creditors.

Jesse C. Reese and James W. Reese, executors of Andrew J. Reese, deceased, reported sale of personal property and real estate on which the court granted an order nisi.

Letters of administration d. b. n. c. t. a. on the estate of Hannah M. Hollenbaugh, deceased, were granted unto Roland R. Diller, who received an order to sell real estate.

Walter H. Davis, executor of Thomas A. Cook, deceased, settled his first and final account.

Transfers of Real Estate.

Francis Neal Parke, trustee, to John Albert Myers and wife, 7 1/2 acres, for $250.

Francis Neal Parke, Assignee, to John Albert Myers and wife, 12 1/2 acres, for $750.

Jesse Reisler and wife, to Union Bridge Milling & Supply Co., 82 acres, for $5.

Joseph E. Hunter, Trustee, to Irvin L. Hunter and wife, 4 acres, for $243.75.

Joseph E. Hunter, Trustee, to Irvin L. Hunter and wife, 89 acres, for $18,721.50.

Joseph E. Hunter, Trustee, to David Martin and wife, 7 acres, for $485.

Theodore Eckart and wife, to Harry B. Fogle and wife, 1/2 acre, for $100.

Herman Therit and wife, to George R. Ensor and wife, 5280 square feet, for $10.

Elizabeth C. Shilling, to Edward O. Weant, 2 tracts, for $5.

Edward O. Weant and wife, to Elizabeth C. Shilling, et al., 2 tracts, for $5.

Ruth Amelia Myers, to Isaac M. Waters and wife, 1 acre, for $100.

Anna M. Frounfelder, et al., to H. Earl Frounfelder, 11385 sq. ft., for $5.

H. Earl Frounfelder to Edgar M. Frounfelder, et al., 11385 sq. ft., for $5.

Guy W. Steele, trustee, to Harvey B. Caple, 38 acres, for $100.

Winter C. Dell, to Charles H. Brown, 4760 sq. ft., for $10.

Henry Buchsbaum and wife, to Patapasco Feldspar Co., 87 sq. per., for $5.

Albert E. Droman, et al., to Patapasco Feldspar Co., 10 1/2 acres, for $1.

John Weetenkamp and wife, to Patapasco Feldspar Co., 3 tracts, for $5.

Amos Fred Stiner and wife, to Peter R. Thines and wife, 92 1/2 acres, for $10,000.

Jacob Wesley Mathias to Andrew B. McKenney and wife, 7840 square feet, for $10.

Marriage Licenses.

Stephen Hedian Stone, of Baltimore, and Anna Ruth Mackley, of Lineboro.

Elias Gordon Brauning and Sarah Rena Snyder, both of Westminster.

Lowin L. Budd and Helen L. Thompson, both colored, of New Windsor.

Hugo Donald John, of New Windsor, and Ella Myrtle Rittenhouse, of Easton, Md.

Bernard Alvin Todd, of Chester, Pa., and Mary Irene Berwager, of Hanover, Pa.

Ezra Davis Gosnell and Mildred Margaret Harrison, both of Woodbine.

Ernest Chapin Ridgely and Irene Adele Harris, both of Skykesville.

Karl Edwin Yount and Pauline Weybright Royer, both of Westminster.

Herbert F. Greenholtz and Hazel T. Venson, both of Westminster.

Robert W. Baumgardner and Anna Mae Harman, both of Westminster.

Soccer Ball Game.

The first game of Soccer Ball will be played by the Westminster High School on Friday afternoon, October 23, beginning at 3:45 p. m. The game will be played in a field of Thomas' farm, near the road leading to the swimming pool.

The opposing team will be the Mt. Airy High School Soccer Team. This will be the first game of soccer ever played by the local high school boys. Soccer is encouraged by the Public Athletic League which is doing so much for school athletics in Maryland. The boys are showing great interest in the game and are practicing hard to win a place on the team. The public is invited to attend the game.

The following Friday the team will go to Mount Airy to play a return game.

ALL SIZE SALE BILLS PRINTED ON GOOD PAPER AT SHORT NOTICE

Democratic Mass Meetings

List of Democratic Meetings to be held in Carroll County, as follows:

Taneytown, Saturday, October 23rd

Union Bridge, Monday, October 25th

Woodbine, Tuesday, October 26th

Mt. Airy, Wednesday, October 27th

Gamber, Thursday, October 28th

Manchester, Thursday, October 28th

Hampstead, Friday, October 29th

Westminster, Saturday, October 30th

These meetings will be addressed by Members of Congress, and other Gentlemen of National reputation; also by Members of the Local Bar.

Enameled Ranges

For Your Kitchen

Maids are scarce and hard to get. But housewives need not worry.

The Enameled Range is cleaner, requires no blacking, saves time and energy. Clean with a damp cloth and your kitchen range; always looks like new; is guaranteed satisfactory; a real baker.

Special Prices ON OUR Chunk or Wood Stoves

To close out our stock, a reduction will be made of 10 to 20 per cent on all Wood Stoves.

You are requested to see our line of Ranges, Heating Stoves and Cook Stoves.

Carefully built for careful buyers.

Atlee W. Wampler HOME FURNISHINGS

DEATHS.

Boone

Mrs. Ann H. Boone, widow of the late John S. Boone, died at her home in Louisville, on October 6, aged 78 years and 8 months. She leaves the following children: John H. Boone, William Boone, George E. Boone, all of Louisville; Walter E. Boone, of Baltimore; Mrs. William Harry, of Mt. Airy; Mrs. Thomas Barnes, of Finksburg; Mrs. M. J. Wirha, of Baltimore, and Louis Boone and Ruby Boone, at home. The funeral was held at Mt. Pleasant Methodist Episcopal Church, Gamber, on October 8. Interment in adjoining cemetery.

Brown

John Thomas Brown died Wednesday at his home at Gist at 6 a. m. aged 68 years, 3 months and 14 days. He is survived by one brother Charles H. Brown, of Gist and two sisters, Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Jane Parrish. The funeral was held yesterday at Bethesda Methodist Episcopal church at 2 o'clock conducted by Rev. Link. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery. The pallbearers were Harry Criswell, Clayton Barnes, Geo. Shipley, Robert T. Shipley, Albert Smith and Howard L. Barnes. C. M. Waltz, funeral director.

Eyer

Mrs. Mary C. Eyer, wife of Joseph Eyer, died Wednesday at 6:30 p. m., at her home near Lisbon, Howard county aged 78 years, 9 months and 4 days. Besides her husband four children survive: Harry Eyer, near Lisbon; Joseph Jr., and Mrs. Robert T. Mercer, near Ellicott City and Miss Lily, at home.

Funeral services will be held at her home Saturday