

"An Arizona Cowboy, at Opera House Tomorrow Night.

Of particular interest to local theatergoers is the announcement that the latest Western comedy-drama success, "An Arizona Cowboy," with Herbert K. Betts and Little Dorothy Lull in the stellar roles will be the attraction at the Opera House on the evening of Saturday, November 20.

This remarkable play deals with the cowboy of the West as he exists today, and not as he has always been pictured in fiction and motion photography, and in this interesting play of frontier life we are introduced to the several characters in their home life and everyday clothes. The story is most gripping in its intensity and there are several moments of most exciting situations, and yet the familiar gun-play is missing and there is not a shot fired through-out the entire four acts. The author has happily blended the pathos and comedy so delicately that they follow each other in rapidly dissolving order so that the smiles come through the tears and stir the several emotions so constantly that an evening of exquisite happiness leads a charm to the entertainment.

Interspersed through the acts there is a smattering of polite vaudeville introduced by Jack Lyle, Hal Florence, Janet Merle, Harry Foster and the delectable of all dancing wonders, Little Dorothy Lull, whose teekwork and acrobatic dancing is the height of terpsichorean possibility.

The performance of "An Arizona Cowboy" promises to be the dramatic hit of the season.

Western Maryland Beats Washington College

In a game featured by brilliant playing on both sides Western Maryland defeated Washington College, 21 to 7 here Saturday.

Taking advantage of every break and playing a consistent game, the Western Maryland warriors gained a lead in the first half and were never overtaken. The Washington College players, although outweighed almost 20 pounds to the man, fought desperately, and it was only in the last few minutes that the result became certain.

The contest early developed into a struggle between a team possessing a strong heavy line and one possessing a brilliant backfield. Time after time the Western Maryland backs plunged with the ball through the big gap made through the center of the Eastern Shore line. Robbins, of Washington College, and Kinsey, of Western Maryland, were continually in the limelight each making long gains and putting up a strong defensive game.

ROCKY RIDGE

Mr. Harry M. Pittinger and family moved from Loy's to Rocky Ridge on Thursday last.

Those who spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey M. Pittinger were Mr. Geo. Whitmore and family, of Franklinsville; Mr. John Clem and Ida Clem, of this place; Mr. Clarence C. Pittinger and sister, of Loy's; and Mr. Elmer Gruber, of Pleasant Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pittinger attended the funeral of their uncle, Mr. Charles E. Poole, at Creagerstown, on Sunday and also spent the afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hahn, of Woodboro.

Mrs. Geo. Whitmore and daughter, of Franklinsville, spent a few days of last week with her mother, Mrs. Ida J. Miller, of Rocky Ridge.

A meat supper will be held in the hall at Rocky Ridge on Saturday evening, November 27.

1000-Pound Grizzly Caught.

An immense 1000-pound bear-Silver Tip Grizzly, as he was known to inspectors of the Biological Survey of the United States Department of Agriculture—who for years had been killing stock in the vicinity of Dubois, Wyo., and on whose head a $100 bounty had been placed by stockmen, is dead.

His undoing was accomplished by a 50-pound No. 6 bear trap, which had been anchored to a 24-foot tree trunk. His body was found nearly eight miles from where the trap had been set. His end was brought about by Government Hunter Rowley, and since Government hunters are not allowed to accept bounties from any source the stockmen were saved the money.

Fordson Farm Tractor

More than 1000,000 Fordson tractors have been sold to farmers in the United States. They are helping those farmers do more and better work in less time and at less cost. North, East, South, West—everywhere the Fordson has proven itself a money-maker and a real necessity to the farmer. Besides it is helping mightily to solve the labor problem.

These one hundred thousand and more practical farmers have affirmed the economy—the exceptionally low fuel and operating cost—of the Fordson; its time and labor-saving qualities and its ability to increase production. The Fordson was built to be the most economical tractor; it is compact and devoid of excessive weight. And it is built of the same strong iron and steel as is the Ford car.

Winter or bad weather does not hinder the Fordson's usefulness. Day or night—twenty-four hours a day if you choose—you can utilize the Fordson.

Only so many Fordsons are allotted this territory. Orders are being filled in sequence—first come first served. Let us have yours now.

There's a practical use for the Fordson every day of the year. Let's tell you. Come in and have a tractor talk. Give us the chance to make a demonstration on your own farm.
