

SANDYVILLE

The third quarterly conference of the Finksburg church will convene at Finksburg church next Monday night, December 6, at 7:30 o'clock. All the officials and members of the four churches are urged to attend. The Women's Foreign Missionary Society will also meet in connection with it, and the ladies are requested to be present and make the meeting interesting.

The Mite Society will meet Saturday afternoon, December 4, at the home of Mrs. Wm. Westaway. If inclement it will be held on Monday afternoon. Members invited to attend. Messrs. Jabez Shreve, Wm. Westaway, Wm. Tanner, Frank Magee, Henry Meckley, Walter Robinson, George Caple, Wilbur Yingling, Miss Ida Greene and Mrs. Claude G. Buckingham attended the banquet and conference of the different churches in the county held at Westminster Methodist Protestant Church last Friday night.

The festival held at our public school last Wednesday night was a success. A nice sum was realized. The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. L. W. Caple Thursday afternoon, November 16. A barrel of provisions was sent by members this week to the Baltimore Kindergarten.

Members and friends of the W. C. T. U. sent a large box of garments to the "Near East Relief" this week. Mr. Wilbur Arnold, who was hurt in an auto truck accident several weeks ago, is still suffering very much and not able to be up. People are engaged in butchering this week. Some of the farmers are finishing husking corn. The weather has been splendid for such.

KEYSVILLE

Charles Cluts and wife entertained the following at a turkey dinner on Thanksgiving: George Cluts and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Boller, of Loy's; Guy Boller, wife and children, of Rocky Ridge; Byron Stull, wife and daughters, Kathryn and Mildred; Russell Stonestier and Charles Van Fossen.

Miss Carter, of Blue Ridge College, was a guest of her school mate, Miss Victoria Weibright, over the Thanksgiving holidays.

A delightful surprise party was held at the home of W. E. Ritter's last Friday evening. About eighty were present.

Misses Elsie and Mary Baumgardner spent last week with their brother, Norman Baumgardner and wife, of Taneytown.

O. R. Kowitz, of Hanover, was a recent visitor at this place.

BIRD HILL

The last meeting of the Ladies' Aid met at parsonage last Friday at 2:30. The meeting was called to order by the president reading the 23rd Psalm. roll called and dues collected amounting to $5.56. Visitors $1.04. Program consisted of solo by Howard Link, recitations by Lewis Beard, Jr., and Grace Spencer; business from last meeting transacted. Mrs. Wagner presented a bill of $35.00 for buffet, which was paid. About $12 clear was made at the pie social. Refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served. The men helped to get wood for the minister.

Those who spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. John L. Shipley were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shipley and children, Clifton, Lorne and Elsie, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Uppercro and children, Marion and Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Shipley and daughter, Eliza and Mitchell and John Shipley.

Mr. and Mrs. Grove J. Shipley entertained on Thursday Mrs. Jonas Burner and family, Mrs. Harry Carr, of Westminster; on Friday they entertained Mr. Frank Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Grimes, Miss Helen Grimes, of Woodbine; on Saturday and Sunday, Mrs. Louise Selby, of Baltimore.

FINKSBURG

Rev. N. C. Clough will hold a series of Cottage Prayer meetings preceding the revival services which will be held in the late winter.

Miss Glova Armacost entertained the Y. P. B. on Saturday evening. All had a pleasant evening and enjoyed the good cake that Glova can bake.

Mrs. Margaret Conway and daughter, of Pleasant Hill, have returned, having spent some time with Mr. and Mrs. Norris Stockdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Plaggeneyer and daughter, of Mobile, Ala., are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Leister.

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Philena Fenby on Thursday, December 2. The usual routine of business was transacted.

Jacob Miller and John Fair, of the U. S. Navy, have been spending some time at their homes here. Russell Peeling and Ralph Barnes have enlisted and will see life on the sea for a while.

Some of our boys received 1st and 2nd prizes at the Carroll County exhibit. They were pupils of Westminster High School.

Hog cholera has broken out among the registered stock of Ira Dorsey.

Norman High, a prosperous farmer, underwent a slight operation at Maryland University Hospital and is improving and expects to be home soon.

Mrs. Frank Stockdale, who has been on the sick list, is improving.

Quite a number of the officials of this church attended the banquet held

This Judge Needs Rest After Hearing 800 Divorce Cases

Chicago, November 26.—Judge Rickham Scanlan, of the Circuit Court, has been specializing in divorce cases lately.

Now Judge Scanlan is in a sanatorium. The reason is "too much divorce."

The judge went to a sanatorium in "Milwaukee for a week's rest." During the last 11 weeks the judge has heard approximately 800 divorces.

A Case of Business Oversight.

"Iky, did you hear about Moses Rosenthal?"

"No," answered his friend, "what happened to Moses?"

"He's met with a big loss!"

"And what has he lost?"

"He's lost his appendix."

"His appendix, is it—well, he never did have no business about him—why didn't he keep it in his wife's name?"
