Ice was cut from the pond of J. D. Crowl last Saturday.

Ty Cobb to pilot the Detroit American Club next season.

The season for shooting rabbits and partridges closes January 1.

Miss Catherine Ford, who is attending school in Washington is home for the holidays.

Mrs. Helen Tracey, West Main street, was a visitor at the home of Mrs. John Drach, Linwood.

The report that the Westminster Mill & Body Company, John street, has been closed is not true. The plant is working on full time.

Johns Hopkins football schedule has already been arranged for next season. Western Maryland College will be their opponents October 29.

It may not be generally known that the citizens of the District of Columbia, including the city of Washington, have not been allowed to vote since 1853.

Mr. and Mrs. David Martin, near Mt. Airy announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Amy Martin, to Mr. Glenn Etzler, also of near Mt. Airy.

Mr. Elmer Kreglo, Liberty street, has accepted a position with the Kelly Springfield Tire Company, at Cumberland and has entered upon his duties.

Mr. Raymond Myers, East Main street, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Myers, at Pen-Mar. Mr. Myers has been ill, but is improving.

Physiology claims that pastry is unhealthy, yet the cook at a High School in Topeka, Kansas, claims the distinction of baking 37,248 pies in six years, a champion undertaking.

Never has the Golden Rule been needed more than it now is, to govern the relations of men. Its healing power never had greater opportunity even in this Christian nation.

Germany is now feeling the after-effects of the World-War. More than four million men are now idle. The government is appropriating millions of dollars to help them until conditions become normal if ever that will come to pass.

It is now estimated that ten years ago there were 12,000 Eskimos in Alaska; last year there were 8,000; since that time 4,000 have died. At this present rate this race will rapidly disappear, though always considered a pure, healthy race. Much of this condition is attributed to vices and diseases carried there by white settlers.

It is not uncommon thing to see a Filipino in the Sandwich Islands, taking his family to Sunday school, himself walking beside a trusted horse on whose back are his wife and babies. Two baskets are fastened together in such a way that they can be hung across the horse's back just in front of the wife. Into these baskets the children are placed, and seem to enjoy themselves on their trip to the house of worship.

The Illinois State penitentiary now nearing completion must be a wonderful piece of architecture. The cells are so arranged that the sun shines into each one at least two hours each day, and each cell is provided with a lavatory, with hot and cold water; toilet, steam heat, electric light, a bed, table and chair. A guard in the central observation tower controls the locking and lighting of the 248 cells. There are eight such cell houses on a farm covering 2200 acres.

Scarcity of homes has caused a resourceful man to invent a community house to take care of 2,000 families, all under one roof. Each family will have all the modern conveniences. There will be a hospital, a united store; in fact, everything from a steak to a pound of nails, a dress, an ice cream soda, a check cashed, or the services of a surgeon, can be had without going out of the building. The balcony floors will be made of glass, and sanitation will be prevalent everywhere.

Snow to the depth of 20 inches covered the ground at Thomas, W. Va., Monday.

There is now a movement started to shut out the indecent pictures at the moving-picture shows, and only have what is pure and clean. This will mean much, spiritually and morally, to the twenty millions of Americans who frequent these places.

This is a nation of telegraph marks and wireless flashes when it comes to spelling. Recently one of our school teachers undertook to make up a list of abbreviations and readily found 200 in everyday use, without using "ain't" and a score or more contractions.

Truly, there is nothing new under the sun. An inventor has just finished an invention which we could do without, yet it will gain popularity among a certain class of people. It is nothing more or less than a tiny revolver hidden between the handles of a knife.

A Judge of a Juvenile court in Kansas City has a heart that is in its right place. Several boys maliciously tore down a stone wall. He sentenced them to attend Sunday School, and to furnish a certificate from a pastor proving the fact that they are attending Sunday school.

Years ago a millionaire by the name of Alfred B. Nobel, a native of Sweden, gave $9,000,000 to the League movement, the interest, $40,000 a year, to be given to some worthy individual. In 1906 it went to Theodore Roosevelt. In 1912, to Elihu Root, and now it goes to Woodrow Wilson.

John Rupley, pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, will be held next Sunday afternoon, December 26th, at 2 o'clock. If the weather is unfavorable the service will be held on Monday morning at 10 o'clock. There will be no service on January 2nd, on account of the absence of Pastor Seabrook. On Sunday, January 9th, the newly elected officers will be installed and the Holy Communion celebrated.

Even the members of the Peace League meetings at Geneva, Switzerland, having delegates from nearly two score nations of the world, can not agree. In St. John we find, "Nation against nation," and we see it in the far East amidst all the Peace Treaties and Leagues that the ingenuity of men can devise. One of the large South American countries disagreed and withdrew from the League and others will follow it is rumored.

With reports from all over the State that crime is on the increase, that women are afraid to be abroad on the streets of many Maryland towns after dark; that there are roads where the motorist expects to be stopped by a liquor-seeking highwayman at any moment; that banks even are employing their own plain-clothes men, there has developed a widespread demand for the creation of a mounted State police force. Carroll county had three murders this year against one in 1919.
