SANDYVILLE

J. Frank Magee, who resided at Reese all his life, died at St. Joseph's Hospital last Sunday night. He had been under the doctor's care six weeks, but only confined to his bed several days. He leaves a widow, young married son and an aged mother. The funeral services, which were held at the home on Wednesday afternoon, were brief and in charge of his pastor, Rev. N. C. Clough, assisted by Rev. Mr. Sadosky, Rev. Fields and Rev. Barnes, friends of the family. Rev. Mr. Harden was also present. The funeral was largely attended by relatives and his many friends. His body was interred in Sandy Mount cemetery. The floral tributes were by his family, relatives, his Sunday school and class and the Board of Education, of which he was a member. He took an active part in all moral issues, was a kind, loving husband and father, was active in all temperance work and church work. He was one of the most active members of Sandymount church being assistant superintendent of the Sunday school and efficient teacher of adult Bible class and chorister. He also took part at Pleasant Grove Church whenever possible. The churches and community feel his loss keenly. The pallbearers were Messrs. Albert Hoff, Edgar Lockard, Maurice Green, Chas. Bell, Howard Taylor and Norris Taylor.

March came in very calm. The weather is warm like spring.

UNION MILLS

Some snow and some drifts last Sunday.

On account of the almost impassable condition of the roads, owing to the mountainous snow drifts, our bus did not make any trips from last Saturday evening until the afternoon of the 22 inst., and a number of people from Hanover, who attended the oyster supper here on Saturday night, expecting to return home by bus and trolley on Sunday, were stranded and had to seek other means of transportation.

Tremendous crowds attended the oyster supper held by the L. O. M. lodge last week and the week before and the gross receipts of the supper amounted to about $500.

Encouraging reports are received from Calvin E. Bankert, treasurer of the Union Mills Savings Bank, now a patient at the Church Home and Infirmary, Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Kernan spent last week with Mrs. Kernan's father, B. F. Shriver.

Dr. G. Lewis Wetzel called on His Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons, at his home in Baltimore last week.

Westminster Grange Elects Officers.

The Westminster Grange met Tuesday in the County Agent's office. A number of patrons from Medford Grange were present.

The following officers were elected:

Master, Frederick W. Fuller.
Overseer, John Henry Leister.
Lecturer, M. E. Walsh.
Steward, Brother Hutchins.
Asst. Steward, Frank Logue.
Chaplain, Mrs. John H. Leese.
Treasurer, S. C. Stoner.
Secretary, Mrs. M. E. Walsh.
Gatekeeper, John H. Leese.
Pomona, Mrs. S. C. Stoner.
Flora, Miss Manahan.
Lady Asst. Steward, Mrs. Frank Logue.

County Agent Fuller explained the organization of the Farm Federation. Six delegates were appointed to attend the meeting on March 12th for the purpose of organizing such an association.

A special meeting has been called for Monday, March 7th, to install the officers. All granges are welcome.

Refreshments were served and a general good time was had by all.

Meeting of the Woman's Club.

The Woman's Club, Westminster, met on February 22, the President, Mrs. Carroll Albaugh, presiding, and an interesting program was given. The Study Subject, "The Later Waves of Immigration to the U. S.," was presented by Mrs. D. Snider Babylon. Mrs. P. E. Grinn gave an interesting paper, "The Social Settlement." Mrs. Forlines' paper, "The Child and the New Order," was read by Mrs. Ward. The current events on the movies proved that this is a subject of deep concern to the community. The hostess, Mrs. Edward P. Brundige, closed the meeting with a delightful surprise, a real Washington's Birthday party for the Club members and their friends, serving delicious refreshments.

The next meeting of the Club will be held at the residence of Mrs. W. R. McDaniel on March 8. Mr. Unger, Superintendent of Schools for Carroll County, will address the Club on School Conditions. Mr. Unger has accomplished a great deal for the schools of Carroll county since he has been here in bringing them up to a higher standard of efficiency, and has just returned from the meeting of the National Educational Association, at Atlantic City, so he will have a special message for the club members.

Surprise for Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lambert.
